¶ The Golden number.

¶ Note that the supputation of the yeere of our Lord in the Church of England, beginneth the xxv. day of March, the same day supposed to be the first day upon which the world was created, and the day when Christ was conceived in the wombe of the Virgine Mary.

¶ An Act for the Uniformity of Common Prayer, and Service in the Church, and Administration of the Sacraments.

WHere at the death of our late Soveraigne Lord, King Edward the firſt, there remained one uniform order of Common Service and Prayer, and of the Adminiſtration of Sacraments, Rites, and Ceremonies in the Church of England, authoriſed by Act of Parliament, holden in the ſixt and firſt yeers of our ſaid late Soveraigne Lord, King Edward the firſt, intituled, An Act for the Uniformity of Common Prayer, & Adminiſtration of the Sacraments: the which was repealed and taken away by Act of Parliament, in the firſt yeer of the reigne of our late Soveraigne Lady, Queen Mary, to the great decay of the due honour of God, and diſcomfort to the profeſſours of the truth of Chriſts Religion.

Be it therefore enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that the ſaid Statute of repeal, and every thing therein contained, onely concerning the ſaid Books, and the Service, Adminiſtration of Sacraments, Rites, and Ceremonies, conteined, & appointed, for, & by the ſaid Book, ſhall be void and of none effect, from and after the Feaſt of the Nativity of S. John Baptiſt next comming. And that the ſaid Book, with the order of Service, and of the Adminiſtration of Sacraments, Rites, and Ceremonies, with the alteration and additions therein added, and appointed by this Statute, ſhall ſtand and be, from, and after the ſaid Feaſt of the Nativity of Saint John Baptiſt, in full force and effect, according to the tenour and effect of this Statute: any thing in the ſaid Statute of repeal to the contrary notwithſtanding.

And further be it enacted by the Queens Highneſſe, with the aſſent of the Lords and Commons of this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that all and ſingular Miniſters in any Cathedrall, & Parith Church, & other place within this Realm of England, Wales, and the Marches of the ſame, & other the Queenes Dominions, ſhall from and after the Feaſt of the Nativity of Saint John Baptiſt next comming, be bounden to ſay and uſe the Mattens, Evenſong, celebration of the Lords Supper, and Adminiſtration of each of the Sacraments, and all other Common & open prayer, in ſuch order and form as is mentioned in the ſaid Book, ſo authorized by Parliament, in the ſaid ſixt and firſt yeers of the Reign of King Edward the ſixt, with one alteration & addition of certain Lellons to be uſed on every Sunday in the yeer, and the form of the Litany altered and corrected, and two ſentences onely added in the delivery of the Sacrament to the Communicants, and none other, & otherwiſe. And that if any manner of Perſon, Vicar, & other whatſoever Miniſter that ought & ſhall ſing & ſay Common Prayer mentioned in the ſaid Book, & miniſter the Sacraments, from and after the Feaſt of the Nativity of S. John Baptiſt next comming, refuſe to uſe the ſaid Common prayers, & to miniſter the Sacraments in ſuch Cathedrall & Parith Church, & other places, as he ſhould uſe to miniſter the ſame, in ſuch order and form as they be mentioned and ſet forth in the ſaid Book, & ſhall wilfully & obſtinately ſtanding in the ſame, uſe any other Rite, Ceremony, Order, Form, & manner of celebrating of the Lords Supper, openly & privily, & Mattens, Evenſong, Adminiſtration of the Sacraments, & other open Prayers, then is mentioned and ſet forth in the ſaid Book (Open prayer in and throwout this Act, is meant that prayer which is forotherto come unto or hear, either in common Churches or private Chappels, or Oratories, commonly called, The service of the Church) or shall preach, declare, or speak any thing in the derogation, or depraving of the said Book, or any thing therein contained, or of any part thereof, and shall be thereof lawfully convicted, according to the Lawes of this Realm, by verdict of twelve men, or by his own confession, or by the notorious evidence of the fact, shall lose and forfeit to the Queens Highnesse, her heirs and successours, for his first offence the profit of his Spirituall Benefices or Promotions, coming, or arising in one whole yeer next after his conviction: And also that the person so convicted shall for the same offence suffer imprisonment by the space of six moneths without Bail or mainprise. And if any such person, once convict of any offence concerning the Premisses, shall after his first conviction eftsoons offend, and be thereof in form aforesaid lawfully convict: that then the same person shall for his second offence suffer imprisonment by the space of one whole yeer, and also shall thereby be deprived ipso facto of all his spirituall promotions. And that it shall be lawfull to all Patrons, or Donors of all and singular the same Spirituall promotions or of any of them, to present or collate to the same, as though the person or persons so offending were dead. And that if any such person or persons after hee shall be twice convicted in form aforesaid, shall offend against any of the Premisses the third time, and shall be thereof in form aforesaid, be lawfully convicted: that then the person so offending, and convicted the third time, shall be deprived ipso facto of all the spirituall promotions, and also shall suffer imprisonment during his life.

And if the person that shall offend, and be convict in form aforesaid, concerning any of the premisses, shall not bee Beneficed nor have any spirituall promotion: that then the same person so offending, and convict, shall for the first offence suffer imprisonment during one whole yeer next after his said conviction, without Bail or mainprise. And if any such person, not having any Spirituall promotion, after his first conviction shall eftsoons offend in any thing concerning the premisses, and shall in form aforesaid be thereof lawfully convicted: that then the same person shall for his second offence, suffer imprisonment during his life.

And it is ordained and enacted by the authoritie aforesaid, that if any person or persons whatsoever, after the said Feast of the Nativitie of S. John Baptist next coming, shall in any Enterludes, Playes, Songs, Rimes, or by other open words, declare or speak any thing in the derogation, depraving, or despising of the same Book, or of any thing therein contained, or any part thereof, or shall by open fact, deed, or by open threatnings, compell, or cause, or otherwise procure, or maintain any Parson, Vicar, or other Minister, in any Cathedrall or Parish-Church, or in Chappell, or in any other place, to sing or say any Common and Open prayer, or to minister any Sacrament, or otherwise, or in any other manner and form then is mentioned in the said Book, or that by any of the said meanes, shall unlawfully interrupt or let any Parson, Vicar, or other Minister, in any Cathedrall or Parish-Church, Chappell, or any other place, to sing or say Common and Open prayer, or to minister the Sacraments, or any of them in such manner and form as is mentioned in the said Book: that then every such person, being thereof lawfully convicted in form aforesaid shall forfeit to the Queen our Soveraigne Lady, her heirs and Successours, for the first offence an hundred marks. And if any person or persons, being once convict of any such offence, eftsoons offend against any of the last recited offences, and shall in form aforesaid, be thereof lawfully convict: that then the same person so offending and convict, shall for the second offence forfeit to the Queen our Soveraign Lady, her heirs and successours, foure hundred Marks. And if any person, after he, in form aforesaid, shall have been twice convict of any offence concerning any of the last recited offences, shall offend the third time, and be thereof in form aforesaid lawfully convict: that then every person so offending and convict, shall for his third offence forfeit to our Soveraign Lady the Queen, all his goods and chattels, and shall suffer imprisonment during his life. And if any person or persons, that for his first offence concerning the premisses, shall be convict in form aforesaid, do not pay the summe to bee payed by vertue of his conviction, in such manner and form as the same ought to be payed, within six weeks next after his conviction: that then every person so convict, and so not paying the same, shall for the same first offence, in stead of the said summe, suffer imprisonment by the space of six moneths, without Bail or Mainprise. And if any person or persons that for his second offence, concerning the premisses, shall be convict in form aforesaid, do not pay the said summe to be paied by vertue of his conviction and this Estatute, in such manner and form as the same ought to bee payed, within six weeks next after this said second conviction: that then every person so convicted, and not paying the same, shall for the same second offence, in the ſtead of the ſaid ſum ſuffer imprisonment during twelve moneths, without bail or mainprize. And that from and after the ſaid Feaſt of the Nativitie of S. John Baptiſt next coming, all and every perſon and perſons inhabiting within this Realm, or any other the Queenes Majeſties dominions, ſhall diligently and faithfully, having no lawfull or reaſonable excuſe to be abſent, endeavour themſelves to reſort to their Parish Church or Chappell accuſtomed, or upon reaſonable let thereof, to ſome uſuall place, where Common Prayer and ſuch Service of God ſhall be uſed in ſuch time of let, upon every Sunday, and other dayes ordained and uſed to be kept as holy dayes: and there to abide orderly and ſoberly during the time of Common Prayer, preachings, or other Service of God, there to be uſed and miniſtred, upon pain of puniſhment by the cenſures of the Church: and alſo upon pain that every perſon ſo offending, ſhall forfeit for every ſuch offence twelve pence to be levied by the Church-wardens of the Parish where ſuch offence ſhall be done, to the uſe of the poore of the ſame Parish, of the goods, lands and tenements of ſuch offender, by way of diſtreſſe. And for due execution hereof, the Queens moſt excellent Majeſty, the Lords temporall, and all the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, both in Gods Name earneſtly requite and charge all the Archbiſhops, Biſhops, and other Ordinaries, that they ſhall endevour themſelves to the uttermoſt of their knowledges, that the due and true execution hereof may bee had throughout their Diocеſſe, and Charges, as they will anſwer before God, for ſuch evils and plagues wherewith Almighty God may juſtly puniſh his people for neglecting his good and wholeſome Law. And for the authority in this behalf, be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, That all and ſingular the ſame Archbiſhops, Biſhops, and all other their officers exerciſing Eccleſiaſticall Juriſdiction, aſwell in place exempt, as not exempt, within their Diocеſſe, ſhall have full power and authoritie by this Act, to reform, correct, & punish by cenſures of the Church, all and ſingular perſons, which ſhall offend within any their Juriſdictions or Diocеſſe, after the ſaid Feaſt of the Nativity of Saint John Baptiſt next coming, againſt this Act and Statute: any other Law, Statute, priviledge, libertie or proviſion heretofore made, had, or ſuffered to the contrary notwithſtanding.

And it is ordained, and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, That all and every Juſtice of Oyer and Determiner, or Juſtices of Aſſiſe, ſhall have full power and authority in every of their open and generall Seſſions, to enquire, hear, and determine all and all manner of offences that ſhall be committed or done contrary to any Articles contained in this preſent Act, within the limits of the Commiſſion to them directed, and to make Proceſſe for the execution of the ſame, as they may do againſt any perſon being indicted before them of treſpaſſe, or lawfully convicted thereof.

Provided always, and bee it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all and every Archbiſhop and Biſhop, ſhall or may at all time and times, at his libertie and pleaſure, joyn and aſſociate himſelf, by vertue of this Act, to the ſaid Juſtices of Oyer and Determiner, or to the ſaid Juſtices of Aſſiſe, at every of the ſaid open and generall Seſſions to be holden in any place within his Diocеſſe, for and to the enquiry, hearing and determining of the offences aforeſaid.

Provided alſo, and be it enacted by the Authoritie aforeſaid, That the Books concerning the ſaid Service, ſhall at the coſts and charges of the Pariſhioners of every Parish and Cathedrall Church, be attained and gotten before the ſaid Feaſt of the Nativitie of S. John Baptiſt next following: and that all ſuch Pariſhes and Cathedrall Churches, or other places where the ſaid Books ſhall be attained and gotten before the ſaid Feaſt of the Nativitie of Saint John Baptiſt, ſhall within three weeks next after the ſaid Books ſo attained and gotten, uſe the ſaid Service, and put the ſame in uſe according to this Act.

And be it further enacted by the Authoritie aforeſaid, That no perſon or perſons ſhall be at any time hereafter impeached, or otherwiſe moleſted, of, or for any of the offences above mentioned, hereafter to be committed or done contrary to this Act, unleſſe hee or they ſo offending, be thereof indicted at the next generall Seſſions to be holden before any ſuch Juſtices of Oyer and Determiner, or Juſtices of Aſſiſe, next after any offence committed or done contrary to the tenour of this Act.

Provided always, and bee it ordained and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, That all and ſingular Lords of the Parliament, for the third offence above mentioned ſhall be tried by their Peers.

Provided alſo, and be it ordained and enacted, by the authority aforeſaid, That the Maior of London, and all other Majors, Bailiffes, and other head-officers, of all and ſingular cities, boroughs and towns corporate, within this Realme, Wales, and the marches of the ſame, to the which Juſtices of Aſſiſe doe not commonly repaire, ſhall have full power and authority by vertue of this Act, to enquire, hear and determine the offences aforesaid, and every of them yearly within three dayes after the Feasts of Easter, and Saint Michael the Archangel, in like manner and form as Justices of Assise, and Oyer, and Determiner may do.

Provided alwayes, and be it examined and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, that all and singular Archbishops, and Bishops, and every of their Chancellors, Commissaries, Archdeacons, and other Ordinaries, having any peculiar Ecclesiasticall Jurisdiction, shall have full power and authority, by vertue of this Act, as well to enquire in their visitation, Synods or elsewhere within their Jurisdiction, at any other time and place, to take accusations, and informations of all and every the things above mentioned, done, committed, or perpetrated within the limits of their Jurisdiction and authority, and to punish the same by admonition, excommunication, sequestration, or deprivation, or other censures and proceeses in like sort as heretofore hath been used in like cases by the Queens Ecclesiasticall Lawes.

Provided alwayes, and be it enacted, that whatsoever person offending in the premisses, shall by the first offence receive punishment of the Ordinary, having a testimoniall thereof under the said Ordinaries seal, shall not for the same offence eftsoons bee convicted before the Justices: and likewise receiving for the said first offence punishment by the Justices, he shall not for the same offence eftsoons receive punishment of the Ordinary: any thing contained in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Provided alwayes, and be it enacted, that such ornaments of the Church, and of the Ministers thereof, shall be retained, and be in use, as was in this Church of England by the authority of Parliament in the second year of the reign of King Edward the sixth, until other order shall bee therein taken by authority of the Queens Majestie, with the advice of her Commissioners, appointed and authorized under the great Seal of England for causes Ecclesiasticall, or of the Metropolitane of this Realm. And also that if there shall happen any contempt or irreverence to be used in the Ceremonies or Rites of the Church, by the mistaking of the others appointed in this Book; the Queens Majestie may by the like advice of the said Commissioners, or Metropolitane, appoint and publish such further Ceremonies or Rites, as may best for the advancement of Gods glory, the edifying of his Church, and the due reverence of Christs holy mysteries and Sacraments.

And bee it further enacted by the authoritie aforesaid, That all Lawes, Statutes, and Ordinances, wherein or whereby any other Service, Administration of Sacraments, or common Prayer is limited, established, or set forth to be used within this Realm, or any other the Queens Dominions and Countreys, shall from henceforth utterly be void, and of none effect.

¶ A Proclamation for the authorizing of an Uniformity of the book of Common Prayer, to be uſed throughout the Realm.

ALthough it cannot be unknown to Our Subjects by the Diuers Declarations We have publiſhed, what Our purpoſes and proceedings have been in matters of Religion ſince Our coming to this Crown: Yet the ſame being now by Us induced to a ſetled forme, We have occaſion to repeat ſomewhat of that which hath paſſed: And now at Our very firſt entry unto the Realm, being entertained and importuned with Petitions of ſundry Members, complaining of the errors and imperfections of the Church here, as well in matter of Doctrine, as of Diſcipline: Although We had no reaſon to preſume that things were ſo farre amiſſe, as were pretended, conſidering We had ſeen the Kingdome in that forme of Religion which by Law was eſtabliſhed in the dayes of the late Queen of famous memory, bleſſed with a peace and proſperity, both extraordinary and of many yeares continuance (a ſtrong evidence that God was therewith well pleaſed) Yet becauſe the importunity of the Complainers was great, their allegations vehement, and the zeal wherewith the ſame did from time to time accompanied, very fruitfull: We were moved thereby to make it Our occaſion to diſcharge that duty which is the chiefeſt of all Kingly duties, that is, to ſettle the eſtate of Religion, and the Service of God to be had in their Church. Which, leaſt We ſhould in hand to doe, as the contagion of the ſickneſſe returning in Our Citie of London and other places, might permit an aſſembly of perſons meet for that purpoſe: Some of which who miſliked the ſtate of Religion here eſtabliſhed, perſwading many of Our Subjects that We gave them cauſe to doe, and tranſported with Paſſion, began ſuch proceedings, as did rather cauſe a ſcandall in the Church, then take offence away. For both their owne Formes of publique ſerving of God not here allowed, held aſſemblies without Authority, and did other things carrying a very apparent note of Sedition, and ſhew of zeal: whom We reſtrained by a ſooner Proclamation in the moneth of October laſt, and gave intimation of the Conference We intended to be had with as much ſpeed as conveniently could be, for ordering of thoſe things of the Church, which accordingly followed in the moneth of January laſt at Our Honour of Hampton Court, where before Our Self, and Our Privie Counſell were aſſembled many of the graveſt Biſhops and Prelates of the Realm, and many other learned men, as well of thoſe that are conformable to the ſtate of the Church eſtabliſhed, as of thoſe that diſſented. Among whom, what Our paines were, what Our patience in hearing and replying, and what the indifferencie and uprightneſſe of Our Iudgement in determining, We leave to the report of thoſe who heard the ſame, contenting Our Self with the ſincerity of Our own heart therein. But We cannot conceal, that the ſucceſſe of that Conference was ſuch, as happeneth to many other things, which moving great expectation before they be entred into, in their iſſue produce ſmall effects. For We found mighty and vehement Informations ſupported with ſo weak and ſlender proofes, as it appeareth unto Us and our Councill, that there was no cauſe why any change ſhould have been at all in that which was moſt impugned, the Book of Common Prayer, containing the forme of the publike Service of God here eſtabliſhed, neither in the doctrine which appeared to be ſincere, nor in the Forms and Rites which were juſtified out of the practiſe of the Primitive Church. Notwithſtanding, We thought meet, with conſent of the Biſhops and other learned men there preſent, That ſome ſmall things might further be explained then changed, not that the ſame might not very well have been born with by men, who would have made a reaſonable conſtruction of them, but for that in a matter concerning the Service of God, We were nice or rather jealous, that the publique Form thereof should be free, not only from blame, but from suspicion, so as neither the common Adversary should have advantage: to wrest ought therein contained, to other sense then the Church of England intended, nor any troublesome or ignorant person of this Church bee able to take the least occasion of cavill against it: and for that purpose gave forth our Commission under Our great Seale of England, to the Archbishop of Canterbury and others, according to the forme which the Lawes of this Realme in like case prescribe to be used, to make the said Explanation, and to cause the whole Book of Common Prayer, with the same Explanations, to bee newly printed. Which being now done, and established anew after so serious a deliberation, although We doubt not, but all Our Subjects both Ministers and others, will receive the same with such reverence as appertaineth, and conform themselves thereunto every man in that which him concerneth: Yet have We thought it necessary, to make known by Proclamation Our authorizing of the same. And to require and enjoyn all men, aswell Ecclesiasticall as Temporall, to conform themselves unto it, and to the practise thereof, as the only publique form of serving of God, established and allowed to bee in this Realme. And the rather, for that all the learned men, who were there present, aswell of the Bishops as others, promised their conformity in the practise of it, onely making suit to Us, that some few might bee borne with for a time.

Wherefore We require all Archbishops, Bishops, and all other publique Ministers, as well Ecclesiasticall as Civill, to do their duties in causing the same to bee obeyed, and in punishing the offenders according to the Lawes of the Realme heretofore established, for the authorizing of the said Book of Common Prayer. And We think it also necessary, that the said Archbishops and Bishops, do each of them in his Province and Diocese take order, That every Parish do procure to themselves within such time as they shall think good to limit, one of the said Books so explained. And last of all, We doe admonish all men, that hereafter they shall not expect nor attempt any further alteration in the Common and publique form of Gods Service, from this which is now established, for that neither will We give way to any to presume, that Our own judgment having determined in a matter of this weight, shall be swayed to alteration by the frivolous suggestions of any light spirit: neither are We ignorant of the inconveniences that do arise in Government, by admitting innovation in things once setled by mature deliberation; And how necessary it is to the constancy in the upholding of the publike determinations of States, for that such is the ungainesse and unsetledness of some dispositions, affecting every yeer new formes of things, as if they should be followed in their unconstancie, would make all actions of States ridiculous and contemptible: whereas the stedfast maintaining of things by good advice established, is the weal of all Common-wealths.

Given at Our Palace of Westminster the 5. day of March, in the first yeer of our Reign of England, France, and Ireland, and of Scotland the seven and thirtieth.

¶ God save the King.

¶ The

The Preface.

THere was neuer any thing by the wit of man so well deuised, or so sure established, which in continuance of time hath not been corrupted: as (among other things) it may plainly appear by the Common prayers in the Church, commonly called Diuine seruice. The first originall and ground whereof, if a man would search out by the ancient fathers, hee shall finde that the same was not ordained but of a good purpose, and for a great aduancement of godlinesse. For they so ordered the matter, that all the whole Bible (or the greatest part thereof) should be read ouer once euery yere: intending thereby, that the Clergy, and specially such as were Ministers of the congregation, should (by often reading and meditation of Gods word) bee stirred up to godlinesse themselues, and be more able to exhort others by wholesome doctrine, and to confute them that were aduersaries to the trueth. And further, that the people, by dayly hearing of holy Scripture read in the Church, should continually profit more and more in the knowledge of God, and bee the more inflamed with the loue of his true religion. But these many yeeres passed, this godly and decent order of the auncient fathers hath been so altered, broken, and neglected, by planting in uncertain Stories, Legends, Respons, Uerses, vain repetitions, Commemorations, and Synodals, that commonly when any booke of the Bible was begunne, before three or foure Chapters were read out, all the rest were unread. And in this sort, the booke of Esai was begun in Aduent, and the booke of Genesis in Septuagesima: but they were onely begun, and neuer read through. After like sort were other bookes of holy Scripture used. And moreouer, whereas S. Paul wanted haue such language spoken to the people in the Church, as they might understand and haue profit by hearing the same: the ſor-

23 vice in this Church of England (these many yeeres) hath been read in Latine to the people, which they understood not: so that they have heard with their eares only, and their hearts, spirit, and minde have not been edified thereby. And furthermore, notwithstanding that the ancient fathers have divided the Psalmes into seven portions, whereof every one was called a Nocturne: now of late time a few of them have been daily sayd, and oft repeated, and the rest utterly omitted. Moreover, the number and hardnesse of the rules called the Pie, and the manifold changings of the service was the cause, that to turne the book onely was so hard and intricate a matter, that many times there was more busines to finde out what should be read, then to read it when it was found out.

These inconveniences therefore considered, here is set forth such an order, whereby the same shall be redressed. And for a readines in this matter, here is drawen and a Kalender for that purpose, which is plain and easie to be understanded, wherein (so much as may be) the reading of holy Scriptures is so set forth, that all things shall be done in order, without breaking any piece thereof from another. For this cause be cut off Anthemes, Responses, Invitatories, and such like things as do breake the continuall course of the reading of the Scripture. Yet because there is no remedie, but that of necessitie there must be some rules, therefore certaine rules are here set forth, which as they be few in number, so they be plaine and easie to be understanded. So that here you have an order for prayer (as touching the reading of holy Scripture) much agreeable to the minde and purpose of the olde Fathers, and a great deale more profitable and commodious then that which of late was used. It is more profitable, because here are left out many things, whereof some be very true, some uncertain, some vaine and superstitious, and nothing is ordered to be read, but the very pure word of God, the holy Scriptures, or that which is evidently grounded upon the same, and that in such a language and order, as is most easie and plaine for the understanding both of the readers and hearers. It is also more commodious, both for the shortnesse of the time, and for the plainnesse of the order, and for that the rules be few and easie. Furthermore, by this order, the Curates shall neede none other Bookes for their publique service, but this booke and the Bible. By the meanes whereof, the people shall not be at so great charges for bookes, as in times past they have been

And

And where heretofore there hath been great diuersitie in saying and singing in Churches within this Realme, some following Salisburie vse, some Hereford vse, some the vse of Bangor, some of Yorke, and some of Lincolne: now from hencefoorth all the whole Realme shall haue but one vse. And if any will iudge this way more painefull, because that all things must be read vpon the booke, whereas before by the reason of so often repetition, they could say many things by heart: If those men will weigh their labour, with the profit and knowledge, which daily they shall attaine by reading vpon the booke, they will not refuse the paine, in consideration of the great profit that shall ensue thereof.

And forasmuch as nothing can be deuised so plainly set forth, but doubts may rise in the vse and practise of the same: To appease all such diuersitie, (if any arise) and for the resolution of all doubts concerning the manner how to vnderstand, do, & execute the things contained in this booke: The parties that so doubt, or diuersly take any thing, shall alway resort to the Bishop of the Diocese, who by his discretion shall take order for the quieting and appeasing of the same, so that the same order be not contrary to any thing contained in this booke. And if the Bishop of the Diocese be in doubt, then he may send for the resolution thereof to the Archbishop.

¶ The

THough it be appointed in the afore written Preface, that all things ſhall be read and ſung in the Church in the Engliſh tongue, to the end that the Congregation may bee thereby edified: yet it is not meant, but when men ſay Morning and Evening prayer privately, they may ſay the ſame in any language that they themſelves doe underſtand.

And all Prieſts and Deacons ſhal be bound to ſay dayly the Morning and Evening prayer, either privately or openly, except they bee let by preaching, ſtudying of divinity, or by ſome other urgent cauſe.

And the Curate that miniſtreth in every pariſh Church or Chappel, being at home, and not being otherwiſe reaſonably let, ſhall ſay the ſame in the pariſh Church or Chappell where he miniſtreth, and ſhall toll a bell thereto, a convenient time before hee begin, that ſuch as bee diſpoſed, may come to hear Gods word, and to pray with him.

¶ Of Ceremonies, why ſome be abolished, and ſome retained.

IF ſuch Ceremonies as bee uſed in the Church, and have had their beginning by the inſtitution of man: ſome at the firſt were of godly intent and purpoſe deviſed, and yet at length turned to vanitie and ſuperſtition: ſome entred into the Church by indiſcreet deuotion, and ſuch a zeal as was without knowledge, and for becauſe they were winked at in the beginning, they grew daily to more and more abuſes, which not onely for their unprofitableneſſe, but alſo becauſe they have much blinded the people, and obſcured the glory of God, are worthy to bee cut away, and clean reiected. Other there bee, which although they have been deuiſed by man, yet it is thought good to reſerue them ſtill, as well for a decent order in the Church (for the which they were firſt deuiſed) as becauſe they pertain to edification, whereunto all things done in the Church (as the Apoſtle teacheth) ought to be referred. And although the keeping or omitting of a Ceremonie in it ſelf conſidered, is but a ſmall thing: yet the wilfull and contemptuous tranſgreſſion, and breaking of a common order and diſcipline, is no ſmall offence before God.

Let all things bee done among you, ſaith Saint Paul, in a ſeemly and due order. The appointment of the which order pertaineth not to priuate men: therefore no man ought to take in hand, nor preſume to appoint or alter any publique or common order in Chriſts Church, except hee be lawfully called and authorized thereunto.

And whereas in this our time, the minds of men are ſo diuers, that ſome think it a great matter of conſcience, to depart from a piece of the leaſt of their Ceremonies, they be ſo addicted to theſe olde Cuſtomes: and again on the other ſide, ſome be ſo new fangled, that they would innouate all things, and ſo deſpiſe the old, that nothing can like them but that is new: it was thought expedient, not ſo much to haue reſpect how to pleaſe and ſatiſfie either of theſe parties, as how to pleaſe God, and profit them both. And yet leſt any man ſhould be offended, whom good reaſon might ſatiſfie, here be certain cauſes rendred, why ſome of the aforeſaid Ceremonies bee put away, and ſome retained and kept ſtill.

Some are put away, becauſe the great encreaſe and multitude of them hath ſo increaſed in theſe latter dayes, that the burden of them was intolerable, whereof Saint Auguſtine in his time complained, that they were growen to ſuch a number, that the eſtate of Chriſtian people was in worſe caſe concerning that matter, then were the Iewes. And hee counſelled, that ſuch yoke and burthen ſhould be taken away, as time would ſerue quietly to doe it.

But what would S. Auguſtine haue ſaid, if he had ſeen the Ceremonies of late dayes uſed among us: whereunto the multitude uſed in his time was not to bee compared? This our exceſſiue multitude of Ceremonies was ſo great, and many of them ſo dark, that they did more confound and darken, then declare and ſet forth Chriſts benefits unto us.

And beſides this, Chriſts Goſpel is not a Ceremoniall Law (as much of Moſes Law was) but it is a Religion to ſerue God, not in bondage of the figure or ſhadow, but in the freedome of the Spirit, being content onely with thoſe Ceremonies, which do ſerue to a decent order, and godly diſcipline, and ſuch as be apt to ſtirre up the dull mind of man to the remembrance of his duty to God, by ſome notable and ſpeciall ſignification, whereby he might be edified.

Furthermore, the moſt weighty cauſe of the abolishment of certain Ceremonies, was, that they were ſo farre abuſed, partly by the ſuperſtitious blindneſſe of the rude and unlearned, and partly by the unreasonable avarice of such as sought more their own lucre, then the glory of God, that the abuses could not well be taken away, the thing remaining still. But now as concerning these persons, which peradventure will be offended, for that some of the old Ceremonies are retained still: If they consider that without some Ceremonies it is not possible to keepe any order, or quiet discipline in the Church, they shall easily perceive just cause to reforme their judgements. And if they think much that any of the old do remain, and would rather have all devised anew: then such men, granting some Ceremonies convenient to be had, surely where the old may be well used, there they cannot reasonably require the old, only for their age, without bewraying of their own folly. For in such a case, they ought rather to have reverence unto them for their antiquitie, if they will declare themselves to be wise studious of unitie and concord, then of innovations and newfanglenesse, which (as much as may be, with the true setting forth of Christs Religion) is always to be eschewed. Furthermore, such shall have no just cause with the Ceremonies reserved to be offended. For as those be taken away which were most abused, and did harden mens consciences, without any cause: so the other that remain, are retained for a discipline and order, which (upon just causes) may be altered and changed, and therefore are not to be esteemed equall with Gods Lawe. And moreover, they bee neither darke nor dumme Ceremonies, but suche as set forth, that every man may understand what they do meane, and to what ende they be serve. So that it is not like, that they in time to come, should bee abused as other have been. Now in these our doings wee condemne no other Nations, nor prescribe anything but to our own people onely. For wee think it convenient, that every Country should use such Ceremonies, as they shall think best to the setting forth of Gods honour and glory, and to the reducing of the people to a most perfect and godly living, without errour or superstition: And that they should put away other things, which from time to time they perceive to be most abused, as in mens ordinances it often chanceth diversly, in divers Countreys.

¶ The Table and Kalender expreſsing the order of Pſalmes and Leſſons to be ſaid at Morning and Evening prayer throughout the yeer, (except certain proper Feaſts) as the Rules following more plainly declare.

¶ The order how the Pſalter is appointed to bee read.

THe Pſalter ſhalbe read through once every Moneth, and becauſe that ſome moneths be longer then ſome other be, it is thought good to make them even by this means. To every Moneth ſhall be appointed (as concerning this purpoſe) iuſt thirty dayes.

And becauſe January and March habe one day abobe the ſayd number, and Febꝛuary which is placed between them both, hath onely xxviii. dayes: Febꝛuary ſhall boꝛrow of either of the Moneths (of January and March) one day: And ſo the Pſalter which ſhall be read in Febꝛuary, muſt begin at the laſt day of January, and end the firſt day of March.

And whereas May, July, Auguſt, October, and Decembeꝛ habe xxxi. dayes apiece: It is oꝛdered that the ſame Pſalmes ſhall bee read the laſt day of the ſaid Moneths, which were read the day beꝛoꝛe: So that the Pſalter may begin again the firſt day of the next Moneth enſuing.

Now to know what Pſalmes ſhall be read every day, looke in the Kalender the number that is appointed foꝛ the Pſalmes, and then finde the ſame number in this Table, and upon that number you ſhall ſee what Pſalmes ſhalbe ſaid at Moꝛning and Evening pꝛayer.

And where the Cxix. Pſalme is divided into xxii. poꝛtions, and is overlong to bee read at one time: it is ſo oꝛdered, that at one time ſhall not be read above four oꝛ five of the ſaid poꝛtions, as you ſhall perceibe to be noted in this Table following.

And heere is alſo to bee noted, that in this Table and in all other parts of the Seruice, where any Pſalmes are appointed, the number is expꝛeſſed after the great Engliſh Bible, which from the ix. Pſalme, unto the Cxlviii. Pſalme (following the diviſion of the Hebꝛewes) both vaꝛy in numbers from the common Latine tranſlation.

¶ The

¶ The order how the reſt of holy Scripture (beſide the Pſalter) is appointed to bee read.

THe old Teſtament is appointed for the firſt Leſſons at Morning and Evening Prayer, and ſhal be read through every yeere once, except certaine bookes and chapters, which bee leaſt edifying, and might beſt be ſpared, and therefore are left unread.

The new Teſtament is appointed for the ſecond Leſſon at Morning and Evening Prayer, and ſhall be read over orderly every yeere thrice, beſide the Epiſtles and Goſpels: except the Apocalyps, out of the which there bee onely certaine Leſſons appointed upon divers proper feaſts.

And to know what Leſſons ſhalbe read every day, finde the day of the Moneth in the Kalender, and there yee ſhall perceive the bookes and Chapters that ſhall be read for the Leſſons both at Morning and Evening Prayer.

And here is to bee noted, that whenſoever there bee any proper Pſalmes or Leſſons appointed for the Sundayes, or for any feaſt, moveable or unmoveable, then the Pſalmes and Leſſons appointed in the Kalender, ſhall be omitted for that time.

Ye muſt note alſo, that the Collect, Epiſtle and Goſpel, appointed for the Sunday, ſhall ſerve all the weeke after, except there fall ſome feaſt that hath his proper.

When the yeers of our Lord may be divided into four even parts, which is every fourth yeere: then the Sunday letter leapeth, and that yeere the Pſalmes and Leſſons which ſerve for the xxiij. day of February, ſhall bee read againe the day following, except it be Sunday, which hath proper Leſſons of the old Teſtament appointed in the table ſerving to that purpoſe.

Alſo whereſoever the beginning of any Leſſon, Epiſtle, or Goſpel, is not expreſſed, there yee muſt begin at the beginning of the Chapter.

And whereſoever is not expreſſed how far ſhall be read, there ſhall you reade to the end of the Chapter.

Item, ſo oft as the firſt Chapter of Saint Matthew is read either for Leſſon or Goſpell, ye ſhall begin the ſame at (The birth of Jeſus Chriſt was on thiswiſe, &c.) And the third Chapter of Saint Lukes Goſpel ſhall be read unto (So that he was ſuppoſed to be the ſonne of Joſeph.)

¶ The Order where Morning and Evening Prayer ſhallbe uſed and ſaid.

THe Morning and Evening prayer ſhall be uſed in the accuſtomed place of the Church, Chappel, or Chancel, except it ſhall be otherwiſe determined by the Ordinary of the place: And the Chancels ſhall remain as they have done in times paſt.

And here is to be noted that the Miniſter at the time of the Communion, and at all other times in his Miniſtration, ſhall uſe ſuch ornaments in the Church, as were in uſe by authority of Parliament in the ſecond year of the reign of King EDVVARD the ſixth, according to the Act of Parliament in that caſe made and provided.

¶ An

AN ORDER FOR MORNING PRAYER daily throwout the yeer.

AT the beginning both of morning prayer, and likewise of evening prayer, the minister shall read with a loud voice some one of these sentences of the scriptures that follow. And then he shall say that which is written after the said sentences.

AT what time soever a sinner doth repent him of his sinne from the bottom of his heart, I will put all his wickednesse out of my remembrance, saith the Lord. Ezek. 18. 10.21.

I do know mine own wickednesse, and my sinne is alway against me. Psal. 51.3.

Turn thy face away from our sins (O Lord) and blot out all our offences. Psal. 51.9.

A sorrowfull spirit is a sacrifice to God: despise not (O Lord) humble and contrite hearts. Psal. 51.17.

Rent your hearts, and not your garments, and turn to the Lord your God, because he is gentle and mercifull, he is patient, and of much mercy, and such a one that is sorry for your afflictions. Joel 2.13.

To thee (O Lord God) belongeth mercy and forgivenesse, for we have gone away from thee, and have not hearkened to thy voice, whereby we might walk in thy laws which thou hast appointed for us. Dan. 9.9.

Correct us (O Lord) as yet in thy judgement, not in thy Jer. 10.

fury, lest we should be consumed & brought to nothing.

h.3.2. Amend your lives, for the kingdom of God is at hand.

c.15. I will go to my Father, and say to him, Father, I have
9. sinned against heaven, and against thee: I am no more worthy to be called thy son.

143.2. Enter not into judgement with thy servants, O Lord:
for no flesh is righteous in thy sight.

h.1.8. If we say that we have no sin, we deceive our selves, and there is no truth in us.

DEarly beloved brethren, the scripture moveth us in sundry places, to acknowledge & confesse our manifold sinnes and wickednesse, and that we should not dissemble nor cloke them before the face of Almighty God our heavenly Father, but confesse them with an humble, lowly, penitent, and obedient heart, to the end that we may obtain forgiveneſſe of the same by his infinite goodnesse and mercy. And although we ought at all times humbly to acknowledge our sins before God: yet ought we most chiefly so to do, when we assemble and meet together, to render thanks for the great benefits that we have received at his hands, to set forth his most worthy praise, to hear his most holy word, and to ask those things which be requisite and necessary, as well for the body as the soul. Wherefore I pray and beseech you, as many as be here present, to accompany me with a pure heart and humble voice, unto the throne of the heavenly grace, saying after me.

¶ A generall confession to be said of the whole congregation after the minister, kneeling.

ALmighty and most mercifull Father, We have erred and strayed from thy wayes like lost sheep, We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts, We have offended against thy holy lawes, We have left undone those things which we ought to have done, And we have done those things which we ought not to have done, And there is no health in us: But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon vs miserable offenders, Spare thou them, O God, which confesse their faultes, Restore thou them that be penitent, According to thy promises declared unto mankinde in Christ Iesu our Lord; And grant, O most mercifull father, for his sake, that we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, to the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

thou

¶ The absolution or remission of sinnes, to be pronounced by the priest alone.

ALmighty God, the father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which desireth not the death of a sinner, but rather that he may turn from his wickednesse and live, and hath given power and commandment to his ministers, to declare and pronounce to his people being penitent, the absolution and remission of their sins: he pardoneth and absolveth all them which truly repent, and unfeignedly beleeve his holy gospel. Wherefore we beseech him to grant us true repentance and his holy spirit, that those things may please him which we do at this present, and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy, so that at the last we may come to his eternall joy, through Iesus Christ our Lord.

The people shall answer. Amen.

Then the minister shall begin the Lords prayer with a loud voyce.

OUr father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespasse against us. And lead us not into temptation: but deliver us from evill: for thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Then likewise he shall say,

O Lord open thou our lips.

Answer.

And our mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

Priest.

O God make speed to save us.

Answer.

O Lord make haste to help us.

Priest.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Sonne: and to the holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Praise ye the Lord.

Venite exultemus Domino: Psal. 95.

¶ Then shall be said or sung this psalm following.

O Come let us sing unto the Lord: let us heartily rejoyce in the strength of our salvation.

Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving: and shew our selves glad in him with psalms.

For the Lord is a great God: and a great king above all gods.

In his hand are all the corners of the earth: and the strength of the hils is his also.

The sea is his, and he made it: and his hands prepared the dry land.

O come, let us worship, and fall down: and kneel before the Lord our maker.

For he is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hands.

To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness.

When your fathers tempted me: proved me, and saw my works.

Fourty yeers long was I grieved with this generation, & said: It is a people that do erre in their hearts, for they have not known my wayes.

Unto whom I ſware in my wrath: that they ſhould not enter into my reſt.

Glory be to the Father, &c. As it was in the, &c.

Then ſhall follow certain pſalms in order, as they be appointed in a table made for that purpoſe, except there be proper pſalms appointed for that day. And at the end of every pſalm thorowout the yeer, and likewiſe in the end of Benedictus, Benedicite, Magnificat, and Nunc dimittis, ſhall be repeated; Glory be to the Father, &c. As it was in the beginning, &c.

Then ſhall be read two leſſons diſtinctly with a loud voice, that the people may hear. The firſt of the old Teſtament, the ſecond of the new, like as they be appointed in the Kalender, except there be proper leſſons aſſigned for that day. The miniſter that readeth the leſſon, ſtanding and turning him ſo, as he may beſt be heard of all ſuch as be preſent. And before every leſſon, the miniſter ſhall ſay thus, The firſt, ſecond, third, or fourth chapter of Geneſis, or Exodus, Matthew, Mark, or other like, as is appointed in the Kalender. And in the end of every chapter he ſhall ſay,

Here endeth ſuch a chapter of ſuch a book.

And to the end the people may the better hear, in ſuch places where they do ſing, there ſhall the leſſons be ſung in a plain tune, after the manner of diſtinct reading: and likewiſe the Epiſtle and Goſpel. After the firſt leſſon ſhall follow Te Deum laudamus in Engliſh, daily thorowout the whole yeer.

WE praiſe thee, O God: we knowledge thee to be the Lord. Te Deum laudamus

All the earth doth worſhip thee: the Father everlaſting.

To thee all angels cry aloud: the heavens, and all the powers therein.

To thee Cherubin, and Seraphin: continually do cry.

Holy, holy, holy: Lord God of Sabbath.

Heaven & earth are full of the Majeſty: of the glory.

The glorious company of the apostles: praise thee.
The goodly fellowship of the prophets: praise thee.
The noble army of martyrs: praise thee.
The holy church throwout the all world: doth knowledge thee.
The Father: of an infinite majestie.
Thine honourable, true: and onely Sonne.
Also the holy Ghost: the Comforter.
Thou art the king of glory: O Christ.
Thou art the everlasting Sonne: of the Father.
When thou tookest upon thee to deliver man: thou diddest not abhorre the Virgins womb.
When thou hadst overcome the sharpnesse of death: thou didst open the kingdom of heaven to all beleevers.
Thou sittest at the right hand of God: in the glory of the Father.
We beleeve that thou shalt come: to be our Judge.
We therefore pray thee help thy servants: whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood.
Make them to be numbred with thy saints: in glory everlasting.
O Lord, save thy people: and blesse thine heritage.
Govern them: and lift them up for ever.
Day by day: we magnifie thee.
And we worship thy Name: ever world without end.
Vouchsafe (O Lord:) to keep us this day without sin.
O Lord have mercy upon us: have mercy upon us.
O Lord let thy mercy lighten upon us: as our trust is in thee.
O Lord in thee have I trusted: let me never be confounded.

Or this Canticle, Benedicite omnia opera, &c.

dicite. O All ye works of the Lord, blesse ye the Lord: praise him, and magnifie him for ever.
O ye angels of the Lord, blesse ye the Lord: praise him and magnifie him for ever.

O ye nights and dayes, bleſſe ye the Lord: praiſe him, and magnifie him for ever.

O ye light and darkneſſe, bleſſe ye the Lord: praiſe him, and magnifie him for ever.

O ye lightnings and clouds, bleſſe ye the Lord: praiſe him, and magnifie him for ever.

O let the earth bleſſe the Lord: yea, let it praiſe him, and magnifie him for ever.

O ye mountains and hills, bleſſe ye the Lord: praiſe him, and magnifie for ever.

O all ye green things upon the earth, bleſſe ye the Lord: praiſe him, and magnifie him for ever.

O ye wels, bleſſe ye the Lord: praiſe him, and magnifie him for ever.

O ye ſeas and floods, bleſſe ye the Lord: praiſe him, and magnifie him for ever.

O ye whales, and all that move in the waters, bleſſe ye the Lord: praiſe him, and magnifie him for ever.

O all ye fowls of the air, bleſſe ye the Lord: praiſe him and magnifie him for ever.

O all ye beaſts and cattell, bleſſe ye the Lord: praiſe him, and magnifie him for ever.

O ye children of men, bleſſe ye the Lord: praiſe him, and magnifie him for ever.

O let Iſrael bleſſe the Lord: praiſe him, and magnifie him for ever.

O ye prieſts of the Lord, bleſſe ye the Lord: praiſe him and magnifie him for ever.

O ye ſervants of the Lord, bleſſe ye the Lord: praiſe him, and magnifie him for ever.

O ye ſpirits and ſouls of the righteous, bleſſe ye the Lord: praiſe him, and magnifie him for ever.

O ye holy and humble men of heart, bleſſe ye the Lord: praiſe him, and magnifie him for ever.

O Ananias, Azarias, and Miſael, bleſſe ye the Lord: praiſe him and magnifie him for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: &c.

As it was in the beginning, is now, &c.

And after the ſecond leſſon ſhall be uſed and ſaid Benedictus Dominus Deus Iſrael, in Engliſh, as followeth.

Benedictus. S. Luke 1. 68.

BLeſſed be the Lord God of Iſrael: for he hath viſited and redeemed his people.

And hath raiſed up a mighty ſalvation for us: in the houſe of his ſervant David.

As he ſpake by the mouth of his holy prophets: which have been ſince the world the world began.

That we ſhould be ſaved from our enemies: and from the hands of all that hate us.

To perform the mercy promised to our forefathers: and to remember his holy covenant.

To perform the oath which he sware to our forefather Abraham: that he would give us.

That we, being delivered out of the hands of our enemies: might serve him without fear.

In holinesse and righteousnesse before him: all the dayes of our life.

And thou childe shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his wayes.

To give knowledge of salvation unto his people: for the remission of their sinnes.

Through the tender mercy of our God: whereby the day-spring from on high hath visited us.

To give light to them that sit in darknes, & in the shadow of death: and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Sonne: &c.

As it was in the beginning, is now, &c.

¶ Or this C. psalm, Jubilate Deo.

O Be joyfull in the Lord (all ye lands:) serve the Lord with gladnes, & come before his presence with a song. Jubilate Deo. Psal. 100.

Be ye sure that the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we our selves, we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankfull unto him, and speak good of his Name.

For the Lord is gracious, his mercy is ever lasting: and his truth endureth from generation to generation.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: &c.

As it was in the beginning, is now, &c.

Then shall be said the Creed by the minister, and the people standing.

I Beleeve in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth: and in Jesus Christ his only Son our

Lord,

Lord, which was conceived by the holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Ponce Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried, he descended into hell, the third day he rose again from the dead, he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty: from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I beleeve in the holy Ghost, the holy Catholique Church, the communion of saints, the forgivenesse of sinnes, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

And after that, these prayers following, as well at evening as at morning prayer, all devoutly kneeling, the minister first pronouncing with a loud voice,

The Lord be with you.

Answer.

And with thy spirit.

Priest.

¶ Let us pray.

Lord have mercy upon us.

Christ have mercy upon us.

Lord have mercy upon us.

Then the minister, clerks and people shall say the Lords prayer in English with a loud voice.

Our Father which art in heaven, &c.

Then the priest standing up, shall say,

O Lord shew thy mercy upon us.

Answer.

And grant us thy salvation.

Priest.

O Lord save the King.

Answer.

And mercifully hear us when we call upon thee.

Priest.

Indue thy ministers with righteousnesse.

Answer.

And make thy chosen people joyfull.

Priest

Prieſt.

O Lord ſaue thy people.

Anſwer.

And bleſſe thine inheritance.

Prieſt.

Giue peace in our time, O Lord.

Anſwer.

Becauſe there is none other that fighteth for us, but onely thou, O God.

Prieſt.

O God make clean our hearts within us.

Anſwer.

And take not thy holy Spirit from us.

Then ſhall follow three collects. The firſt of the day, which ſhall be the ſame that is appointed at the Communion. The ſecond for peace. The third for grace to liue well. And the two laſt collects ſhall neuer alter, but daily be ſaid at morning prayer, thorowout all the yeer, as followeth.

The ſecond collect for peace.

O God which art authour of peace and louer of concord, in knowledge of whom ſtandeth our eternall life, whoſe ſeruice is perfect freedom, defend us thy humble ſeruants in all aſſaults of our enemies, that we ſurely truſting in thy defence, may not fear the power of any aduerſaries, through the might of Ieſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The third collect for grace.

O Lord our heauenly Father, Almighty & euerlaſting God, which haſt ſafely brought us to the beginning of this day, defend us in ỹ ſame with thy mighty power, and grant that this day we fall into no ſin, neither run into any kinde of danger, but that all our doings may be ordered by thy gouernance, to do alwaies that is righteous in thy ſight, through Ieſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The prieſt ſhall ſay,

OUr Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our treſpaſſes, as we forgive them that treſpaſſe againſt us. And lead us not into temptation: but deliver us from evill: for thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Then likewiſe he ſhall ſay,

O Lord open thou our lips.

Anſwer.

And our mouth ſhall ſhew forth thy praiſe.

Prieſt.

O God make ſpeed to ſave us.

Anſwer.

O Lord make haſte to help us.

Prieſt.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: &c.
As it was in the beginning, is now, &c.
Praiſe ye the Lord.

Then the pſalms in order as they be appointed in the table for pſalms, except there be proper pſalms appointed for that day. Then a leſſon of the old Teſtament, as it is appointed likewiſe in the Kalender, except there be proper leſſons appointed for that day. After that Magnificat in Engliſh, as followeth.

Magnificat. Luke 1.

MY ſoul doth magnifie the Lord: and my ſpirit hath rejoyced in God my Saviour.

For he hath regarded: the lowlineſſe of his handmaiden.

For behold, from henceforth: all generations ſhall call me bleſſed.

For

For he that is mighty hath magnified me: and holy is his Name.

And his mercy is on them that fear him: throughout all generations.

He hath shewed strength with his arm: he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

He hath put down the mighty from their seat: and hath exalted the humble and meek.

He hath filled the hungry with good things: and the rich he hath sent empty away.

He remembring his mercy, hath holpen his servant Israel: as he promised to our forefathers Abraham, and his seed for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: &c.

As it was in the beginning, is now, &c.

Or else this psalm.

Cantate mino. Psal. 98

O Sing unto the Lord a new song: for he hath done marvellous things.

With his own right hand, and with his holy arm: hath he gotten himself the victory.

The Lord declared his salvation: his righteousness hath he openly shewed in the sight of the heathen.

He hath remembred his mercy and truth toward the house of Israel: and all the ends of the world have seen the salvation of our God.

Shew your selves joyfull unto the Lord all ye lands: sing, rejoyce, and give thanks.

Praise the Lord upon the harp: sing to the harp with a psalm of thanksgiving.

With trumpets also and shawms: O shew your selves joyfull before the Lord the king.

Let the sea make a noise, and all that therein is: the round world, and they that dwell therein.

Let the floods clap their hands, and let the hils be joyfull together before the Lord: for he is come to judge the earth.

with righteousnesse shall he judge the world: and the people with equity.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Sonne: &c.

As it was in the beginning, is now, &c.

Then a lesson of the new Testament. And after that, Nunc Dimittis in English, as followeth.

Nunc dimittis. Luk. 2, 29.

LOrd now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace: according to thy word.

For mine eyes have seen: thy salvation.

Which thou hast prepared: before the face of all people.

To be a light to lighten the Gentiles: and to be the glory of thy people Israel.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: &c.

As it was in the beginning, is now, &c.

Or else this psalm.

Deus misereatur. Psal. 67.

GOd be mercifull unto us, and bless us: and shew us the light of his countenance, and be mercifull unto us.

That thy way be known upon earth: thy saving health among all nations.

Let the people praise thee, O God: yea, let all the people praise thee.

O let the nations rejoyce and be glad: for thou shalt judge the folk righteously, and govern the nations upon earth.

Let the people praise thee, O God: let all the people praise thee.

Then shall the earth bring forth her increase: and God, even our own God shall give us his blessing.

God shall blesse us: and all the ends of the world shall fear him.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: &c.

As it was in the beginning, is now, &c.

Then shall follow the Creed with other prayers, as is before appointed at morning prayer, after Benedictus, and with three collects. First of the day. The second for peace. The third for aid against all perils, as hereafter followeth: which two last collects shall be daily said at evening prayer, without alteration.

The second collect at evening prayer.

O God, from whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed: give unto thy servants that peace which the world cannot give, that both our hearts may be set to obey thy commandments, and also that by thee we being defended from the fear of our enemies, may passe our time in rest and quietnesse, through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

The third collect for aid against all perils.

LIghten our darknesse, we beseech thee, O Lord, and by thy great mercy defend us from all perils and dangers of this night, for the love of thy onely Son our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

In the feasts of Christmas, the Epiphany, S. Matthias, Easter, the Ascension, Pentecost, S. John Baptist, S. James, S. Bartholomew, S. Matthew, S. Simon and Jude, S. Andrew, and Trinity Sunday shall be sung or said immediatly after Benedictus, this confession of our Christian faith.

Quicunque vult.

WHosoever will be saved: before all things it is necessary that he hold the Catholike faith. Quicunque vult.

Which faith except every one do keep whole and undefiled: without doubt he shall perish everlastingly.

And the Catholike faith is this: that we worship one God in Trinity, and Trinity in Unity.

Neither confounding the persons: nor dividing the substance.

For there is one person of the Father, another of the Sonne:

Sonne: and another of the holy Ghoſt.

But the Godhead of the Father, of the Sonne, and of the holy Ghoſt, is all one: the glory equall, the Majeſtie coeternall.

Such as the Father is, ſuch is the Sonne: and ſuch is the holy Ghoſt.

The Father uncreate, the Sonne uncreate: and the holy Ghoſt uncreate.

The Father incomprehenſible, the Sonne incomprehenſible: the holy Ghoſt incomprehenſible.

The Father eternall, the Sonne eternall: and the holy Ghoſt eternall.

And yet they are not three eternals: but one eternall.

As alſo there are not three incomprehenſibles, nor three uncreated: but one uncreated, and one incomprehenſible.

So likewiſe the Father is Almighty, the Sonne Almighty: and the holy Ghoſt Almighty.

And yet they are not three Almighties: but one Almighty.

So the Father is God, the Sonne is God: and the holy Ghoſt is God.

And yet they are not three Gods: but one God.

So likewiſe the Father is Lord, the Sonne Lord: and the holy Ghoſt Lord.

And yet not three Lords: but one Lord.

For like as we be compelled by the Chriſtian verity: to acknowledge every perſon by himſelf to be God & Lord.

So are we forbidden by the Catholike religion: to ſay there be three Gods, or three Lords.

The Father is made of none: neither created nor begotten.

The Sonne is of the Father alone: not made nor created, but begotten.

The holy Ghoſt is of the Father and of the Sonne: neither made, nor created, nor begotten, but proceeding.

So there is one Father, not three Fathers, one Son, not three Sons: one holy Ghost, not three holy Ghosts.

And in this Trinity, none is afore or after other: none is greater or lesse then another.

But the whole three persons be coeternall together: and coequall.

So that in all things, as is aforesaid: the Unity in Trinity, and the Trinity in Unity is to be worshipped.

He therefore that will be saved: must thus think of the Trinity.

Furthermore, it is necessary to everlasting salvation: that he also believe rightly in the Incarnation of our Lord Jesus Christ.

For the right faith is, that we believe & confesse: that our Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God, is God & man.

God of the substance of the Father, begotten before the worlds: and man of the substance of his mother, born in the world.

Perfect God, and perfect man: of a reasonable soul, and humane flesh subsisting.

Equall to the Father, as touching his Godhead: and inferiour to the Father touching his manhood.

Who although he be God and man: yet he is not two, but one Christ.

One, not by conversion of the Godhead into flesh: but by taking of the manhood into God.

One altogether, not by confusion of substance: but by unity of person.

For as the reasonable soul & flesh is one man: so God and man is one Christ.

Who suffered for our salvation: descended into hell, rose again the third day from the dead.

He ascended into heaven, he sitteth on the right hand of the Father, God Almighty: from whence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

At whose coming all men shall rise again with their bodies: and shall give account for their own workes.

And they that have done good, shall go into life everlasting: and they that have done evil into everlasting fire.

This is the Catholike faith: which except a man believe faithfully, he cannot be saved.

Glory be to the Father, &c. As it was in the, &c.

Thus endeth the order of Morning and Evening prayer thorowout the whole yeer.

¶ HERE FOLLOWETH THE LETANY, to be used upon sundayes, wednesdayes, and fridayes, and at other times, when it shall be commanded by the Ordinarie.

O God the Father of heaven: have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O God the Father of heaven, &c.

O God the Son Redeemer of the world: have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O God the Son Redeemer of the world, &c.

O God the holy Ghost proceeding from the Father and the Son: have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O God the holy Ghost proceeding, &c.

O holy, blessed, and glorious Trinity, three persons and one God: have mercie upon us miserable sinners.

O holy, blessed, and glorious Trinity, &c.

Remember not Lord our offences, nor the offences of our forefathers, neither take thou vengeance of our sins: Spare us good Lord, spare thy people whom thou hast redeemed with thy most precious blood, and be not angry with us for ever.

Spare us, good Lord.

From all evill and mischief, from sin, from the crafts and assaults of the devill, from thy wrath, and from everlasting damnation.

Good Lord deliver us.

From

From all blindnesse of heart, from pride, vain-glory, and hypocrisie, from envie, hatred, and malice, and all uncharitablenesse.

Good Lord deliver us.

From fornication, and all other deadly sin, and from all the deceits of the world, the flesh and the devill.

Good Lord deliver us.

From lightning and tempest, from plague, pestilence, and famine, from battell and murder, and from sudden death.

Good Lord deliver us.

From all sedition and privie conspiracie, from all false doctrine and heresie, from hardnesse of heart, and contempt of thy word and commandment.

Good Lord deliver us.

By the mystery of thy holy Incarnation, by thy holy Nativity and Circumcision, by thy Baptisme, Fasting, and Temptation.

Good Lord deliver us.

By thine Agony and bloody Sweat, by thy Crosse and Passion, by thy precious death and buriall, by thy glorious resurrection an ascension, and by the coming of the holy ghost.

Good Lord deliver us.

In all time of our tribulation, in all time of our wealth, in the hour of death, and in the day of judgement.

Good Lord deliver us.

We sinners do beseech thee to hear us (O Lord God) and that it may please thee to rule and govern thy holy church universally in the right way.

We beseech thee to hear us good Lord.

That it may please thee to keep and strengthen in the true worshipping of thee, in righteousnesse and holinesse of life, thy servant CHARLES, our most gracious king and governour.

We beseech thee to hear us good Lord.

That it may please thee to rule his heart in thy faith, fear, and love, and that he may evermore have affiance in thee, and ever seek thy honour and glory.

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to be his defender and keeper, giving him the victory over all his enemies.

We beseech thee to hear us good Lord.

That it may please thee to bless and preserve our gracious Queen Mary, Prince Charles, and the rest of the Royall Progenie.

We beseech thee to hear us good Lord.

That it may please thee to illuminate all Bishops, pastors, and ministers of the church, with true knowledge and understanding of thy Word, and that both by their preaching and living, they may set it forth, and shew it accordingly.

We beseech thee to hear us good Lord.

That it may please thee to endue the Lords of the Councel, and all the Nobility, with grace, wisdome, and understanding.

We beseech thee to hear us good Lord.

That it may please thee to bless and keep the Magistrates, giving them grace to execute Justice, and to maintain truth.

We beseech thee to hear us good Lord.

That it may please thee to bless and keep all thy people.

We beseech thee to hear us good Lord.

That it may please thee to give to all Nations, unity, peace, and concord.

We beseech thee to hear us good Lord.

That it may please thee to give us an heart to love and dread thee, and diligently to live after thy commandments.

We beseech thee to hear us good Lord.

That it may pleaſe thee to giue to all thy people increaſe of grace, to heare meekly thy word, and to receiue it with pure affection, and to bring forth the fruits of the ſpirit.

We beſeech thee to hear us good Lord.

That it may pleaſe thee to bring into the way of truth, all ſuch as haue erred and are deceiued.

We beſeech thee to hear us good Lord.

That it may pleaſe thee to ſtrengthen ſuch as do ſtand, and to comfort and help the weak hearted, and to raiſe up them that fall, and finally to beat downe Satan vnder our feet.

We beſeech thee to hear us good Lord.

That it may pleaſe thee to ſuccour, helpe and comfort all that be in danger, neceſſitie, and tribulation.

We beſeech thee to hear us good Lord.

That it may pleaſe thee to preſerue all that trauell by land or by water, all women labouring of childe, all ſick perſons and young children, and to ſhew thy pitie vpon all priſoners and captiues.

We beſeech thee to hear us good Lord.

That it may pleaſe thee to defend and prouide for the fatherleſſe children and widowes, and all that be deſolate and oppreſſed.

We beſeech thee to hear us good Lord.

That it may pleaſe thee to haue mercy vpon all men.

We beſeech thee to hear us good Lord.

That it may pleaſe thee to forgiue our enemies, perſecuters and ſlanderers, and to turne their hearts.

We beſeech thee to hear us good Lord.

That it may pleaſe thee to giue and preſerue to our vſe the kindely fruits of the earth, ſo as in due time we may enioy them.

We beſeech thee to hear us good Lord.

That it may pleaſe thee to giue vs true repentance, to forgiue us all our sinnes, negligences, and ignorances, and to endue us with the grace of thy holy Spirit, to amend our liues according to thy holy word.

We beseech thee to hear us good Lord.

Sonne of God: we beseech thee to hear us.

Sonne of God: we beseech thee to hear us.

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world.

Grant us thy peace.

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world.

Have mercy upon us.

O Christ hear us.

O Christ hear us.

Lord have mercy upon us.

Lord have mercy upon us.

Christ have mercy upon us.

Christ have mercy upon us.

Lord have mercy upon us.

Lord have mercy upon us.

Our Father which art in heaven.
And lead us not into temptation.
But deliuer us from euill. Amen.

The Versicle.

O Lord deal not with us after our sinnes.

Answer.

Neither reward us after our iniquities.

¶ Let us pray.

O God mercifull Father, that despisest not the sighing of a contrite heart, nor the desire of such as be sorrowfull, mercifully assist our prayers that we make before thee, in all our troubles and aduersities whensoeuer they oppresse us: and graciously hear us, that those euils which the craft and subtilty of the deuill, or man worketh against us, be brought to nought, and by the prouidence of thy goodnesse they may be dispersed, that we thy seruants being hurt

hurt by no persecutions, may evermore give thanks unto thee in thy holy church, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

O Lord arise, help us, and deliver us for thy names sake.

O God, we have heard with our ears, and our fathers have declared unto us, the noble works that thou didest in their dayes, and in the old time before them.

O Lord, arise, help us and deliver us for thine honour.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Sonne, &c.

As it was in the beginning, is now, &c.

From our enemies defend us, O Christ.

Graciously look upon our afflictions.

Pitifully behold the sorrows of our hearts.

Mercifully forgive the sins of thy people.

Favourably with mercy hear our prayers.

O Sonne of David have mercy upon us.

Both now, and ever vouchsafe to hear us, O Christ.

Graciously hear us, O Christ, graciously hear us, O Lord Christ.

The Versicle.

O Lord, let thy mercy be shewed upon us.

Answer.

As we do put our trust in thee.

¶ Let us pray.

WE humbly beseech thee, O Father, mercifully to look upon our infirmities, and for the glory of thy Names sake turn from us all those evils that we most righteously have deserved: and grant that in all our troubles we may put our whole trust and confidence in thy mercie, and evermore serve thee in holinesse and pureness of living, to thy honor and glory, through our onely Mediatour and Advocate, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ A prayer for the Kings Majestie.

O Lord our heavenly Father, high and mighty, King of kings, Lord of lords, the onely ruler of princes, which doſt from thy throne behold all the dwellers upon earth, moſt heartily we beſeech thee with thy favour to behold our moſt gracious ſoveraign Lord king Charles, and ſo repleniſh him with the grace of thy holy Spirit, that he may alway incline to thy will, and walk in thy way, endue him plenteouſly with heavenly gifts, grant him in health and wealth long to live, ſtrengthen him, that he may vanquiſh and overcome all his enemies, and finally after this life he may attain everlaſting joy and felicity, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

¶ A prayer for the Queen, prince Charles, and the reſt of the royall progeny.

ALmighty God the fountain of all goodneſſe, we humbly beſeech thee to bleſſe our moſt gracious Queen Mary, prince Charles, and the reſt of the royall progeny: endue them with thy holy Spirit, enrich them with thy heavenly grace, proſper them with all happineſſe, and bring them to thine everlaſting kingdome, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

ALmighty and everlaſting God, which onely worke ſt great marvels, ſend down upon our Biſhops and Curates, and all congregations committed to their charge, the healthfull Spirit of thy grace, and that they may truly pleaſe thee, pour upon them the continuall dew of thy bleſſing: Grant this, O Lord, for the honour of our Advocate and Mediatour Jeſus Chriſt. Amen.

¶ A prayer of Chryſoſtome.

ALmighty God, which haſt given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common ſupplications unto thee, and doeſt promiſe that when two or three be gathered together in thy Name, thou wilt grant their requeſts: fulfill now, O Lord, the deſires and petitions of thy ſervants, as may be moſt expedient for them, granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth and in the world to come life everlasting. Amen.

THe grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

¶ For rain if the time require.

O God heavenly Father, which by thy Sonne Jesus Christ hast promised to all them that seek thy kingdome, and the righteousnesse therof, all things necessary to their bodily sustenance: send us, we beseech thee, in this our necessity, such moderate rain and showers, that we may receive the fruits of the earth to our comfort, and to thy honour, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ For fair weather.

O Lord God, which for the sinne of man didst once drown all the world, except eight persons, and afterward of thy great mercy, didst promise never so destroy it so again: we humbly beseech thee, that although we for our iniquities have worthily deserved this plague of rain and waters, yet upon our true repentance thou wilt send us such weather, whereby we may receive the fruits of the earth in due season, and learn both by thy punishment to amend our lives, and for thy clemency to give thee praise and glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ In the time of dearth and famine.

O God heavenly Father, whose gift it is that the rain doth fall, the earth is fruitfull, beasts increase, and fishes do multiply: behold, we beseech thee, the afflictions of thy people, and grant that this scarcity and dearth (which we do now most justly suffer for our iniquity) may through thy goodnesse be mercifully turned into cheapnesse and plenty, for the love of Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom with thee and the holy Ghost, be all honour, &c.

¶ In

¶ In the time of warre.

O Almighty God, king of all kings, and governour of all things, whose power no creature is able to resist, to whom it belongeth justly to punish sinners, and to be mercifull to them that truely repent, save and deliver us (we humbly beseech thee) from the hands of our enemies, abate their pride, asswage their malice, and confound their devices, that we being armed with thy defence, may be preserved evermore from all perils, to glorifie thee which art the onely giver of all victory, through the merits of thy onely Sonne Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ In the time of any common plague or sickneſſe.

O Almighty God, which in thy wrath, in the time of king David, diddest slay with the plague of pestilence threescore and ten thousand, and yet remembring thy mercy, diddest save the rest, have pity upon us miserable sinners, that now are visited with great sickneſſe and mortality, that like as thou didst then command thine angel to cease from punishing, so it may now please thee to withdraw from us this plague and grievous sickneſſe, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O God whose nature and property is ever to have mercy and to forgive, receive our humble petitions: and though we be tied and bound with the chain of our sins, yet let the pitifulneſſe of thy great mercy loose us, for the honour of Jesus Christs sake, our onely Mediatour and Advocate. Amen.

¶ A thanſgiving for rain.

O God our heavenly Father, who by thy gracious providence doest cause the former and the latter rain to descend upon the earth, that it may bring forth fruit for the use of man: we give thee humble thanks, that it hath pleased thee in our greatest necessity to send us at the laſt a ioyfull rain upon thine inheritance, and to refreſh it when it was drie, to the great comfort of us thy unworthy ſervants, and to the glory of thy holy Name, through thy mercies in Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

¶ A thankſgiving for fair weather.

O Lord God who haſt juſtly humbled us by thy late plague of immoderate rain and waters, and in thy mercy haſt releived and comforted our ſouls by this ſeaſonable and bleſſed change of weather, we praiſe and glorifie thy holy Name for this thy mercy, and will alwayes declare thy loving kindneſſe from generation to generation, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

¶ A thankſgiving for plenty.

O Moſt merciful Father, which of thy gracious goodneſſe, haſt heard the devout prayers of thy church, and turned our dearth and ſcarcity into cheapneſſe and plenty: we give thee humble thanks for this thy ſpeciall bounty, beſeeching thee to continue this thy loving kindneſſe unto us, that our land may yeeld us her fruits of increaſe, to thy glory, and our comfort, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

¶ A thankſgiving for peace and victory.

O Almighty God, which art a ſtrong tower of defence unto thy ſervants, againſt the face of their enemies: we yeeld thee praiſe and thankſgiving for our deliverance from thoſe great and apparent dangers, wherwith we were compaſſed: we acknowledge it thy goodneſſe, that we were not delivered over as a prey unto them, beſeeching thee ſtill to continue ſuch thy mercies toward us, that all the world may know that thou art our Saviour and mighty deliverer, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

¶ A thanksgiving for deliverance from the plague.

O Lord God, which hast wounded us for our sinnes, and consumed us for our transgressions by thy late heavy and dreadfull visitation, and now in the midst of judgement remembring mercy, hast redeemed our soules from the jawes of death: we offer unto thy fatherly goodnesse, our selves, our soules and bodies, which thou hast delivered, to be a living sacrifice unto thee, alwayes praising and magnifying thy mercies in the midst of the congregation, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Or this.

WE humbly acknowledge before thee (O most mercifull Father) that all the punishments which are threatned in thy law, might justly have fallen upon us, by reason of our manifold transgressions and hardnesse of heart: yet seeing it hath pleased thee of thy tender mercy, upon our weak and unworthy humiliation, to asswage the noysome pestilence, wherewith we lately have been sore afflicted, and to restore the voyce of joy and health into our dwellings, we offer unto thy divine Majestie the sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, lauding and magnifying thy glorious Name for such thy preservation and providence over us, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ THE COLLECTS, EPISTLES, AND Gospels, to be used at the celebration of the Lords supper and holy communion thorowout the yeer.

¶ The first sunday in Advent.

The collect.

ALmighty God, give us grace that we may cast away the works of darknesse, & put upon us the armour of light, now in the time of this mortall life (in the which thy son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility) that in the last day, when he shall come again in his glorious Majestie, to judge both the quick and dead, we may rise to the life immortall, through him, who liveth & reigneth with thee and the holy Ghost, now and ever. Amen.

The epistle.

OWe nothing to any man, but this, that ye love one another: For he that loveth another, fulfilleth the law. For these commandments, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witnesse, Thou shalt not lust, & so forth (if there be any other commandment) it is all comprehended in this saying, namely, Love thy neighbour as thy self. Love hurteth not his neighbour, therefore is love the fulfilling of the law. This also we know the season, how that it is time that we should now awake out of sleepe: for now is our salvation neerer then when we beleeved. The night is passed, the day is come nigh: let us therefore cast away the deeds of darknesse, and let us put on the armour of light. Let us walk honestly as it were in the day-light, not in eating and drinking, neither in chambering and wantonnesse, neither in strife and envying: but put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh to fulfill the lusts of it. Rom. 13, 8

The gospel.

Matt. 21. 1. AND when they drew nigh to Jerusalem, and were come to Bethphage unto mount Olivet, then sent Jesus two of his disciples, saying unto them, Go into the town that lyeth over against you, and anon ye shall finde an asse bound and her colt with her, loose them, and bring them unto me: and if any man say ought unto you, say ye, The Lord hath need of them: and straightway he will let them go. All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, Tell ye the daughter of Sion, Behold, thy king cometh unto thee meek, sitting upon an asse, and a colt, the foal of the asse used to the yoke. The disciples went and did as Jesus commanded them, and brought the asse and the colt, and put on them their clothes, and set him thereon. And many of the people spread their garments in the way: other cut down branches from the trees, and strawed them in the way. Moreover, the people that went before, and they that came after, cryed, saying, Hosanna to the sonne of David: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord, Hosanna in the highest. And when he was come to Jerusalem, all the citie was moved, saying, Who is this? And the people said, This is Jesus the prophet of Nazareth, a citie of Galilee. And Jesus went into the temple of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money changers, and the seats of them that sold doves, and said unto them, It is written, My house shall be called the house of prayer, but ye have made it a den of theeves.

BLessed Lord, which hast caused all holy scriptures to be written for our learning: Grant us that we may in such wise hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that by patience and comfort of thy holy word, we may imbrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which thou hast given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ.

The epistle.

WHatsoever things are written aforetime, they are written for our learning, that we, through patience and comfort of the scriptures, might have hope. The God of patience and consolation grant you to be like minded one towards another, after the example of Christ Jesus: that ye all agreeing together, may with one mouth praise God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ received us, to the praise of God. And this I say, that Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers, and that the Gentiles might praise God for his mercy, as it is written, For this cause I will praise thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy Name. And again he saith, Rejoyce ye Gentiles with his people. And again, Praise the Lord all ye gentiles, and laud him all ye nations together. And again Esay saith, There shall be the root of Jesse, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles, in him shall the Gentiles trust. The God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in beleeving, that ye may be rich in hope, through the power of the holy Ghost. Rom. 15.4

The gospel.

THere shall be signes in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars: and in the earth the people shall be at their wits end through despair. The sea and the waters shall roar, and mens hearts shall fail them for fear, and for looking after those things which shall come on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall move. And then shall they see the Son of man come in a cloud, with power and great glory. When these things Luk. 21.25.

things begin to come to paſſe, then look up, and lift up your heads, for your redemption draweth nigh. And he ſhewed them a ſimilitude: Behold the fig-tree, and all other trees, when they ſhoot forth their buds, ye ſee and know of your own ſelves, that ſummer is then nigh at hand. So likewiſe ye alſo (when ye ſee theſe things come to paſſe) be ſure that the kingdome of God is nigh. Verily I ſay unto you, This generation ſhall not paſſe, till all be fulfilled. Heaven and earth ſhall paſſe away, but my words ſhall not paſſe.

The epiſtle.

1 Cor. 4. 1. LEt a man this wiſe eſteem us, even as the miniſters of Chriſt, and ſtewards of the ſecrets of God. Furthermore, it is required of the ſtewards, that a man be found faithfull. With me it is but a very ſmall thing that I ſhould be judged of you, either of mans judgement: No, I judge not mine own ſelf, for I know nought by my ſelf, yet am I not thereby juſtified. It is the Lord that judgeth me. Therefore judge nothing before the time, untill the Lord come, which will lighten things that are hid in darkneſſe, and open the counſels of the hearts, and then ſhall every man have praiſe of God.

Matt. 11. 2. WHen John, being in priſon, heard the works of Chriſt, he ſent two of his diſciples, and ſaid unto him, Art thou he that ſhall come, or do we look for another? are raiſed up, and the poor receive the glad tidings of the Goſpel, and happy is he that is not offended by me. And as they departed, Jeſus began to ſay unto the people concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderneſſe to ſee? A reed that is ſhaken with the winde? or what went ye out to ſee? A man clothed in ſoft raiment? Behold, they that wear ſoft clothing are in kings houſes. But what went ye out for to ſee? A prophet? Verily I ſay unto you, and more then a prophet. For this is he of whom it is written, Behold, I ſend my meſſenger before thy face, which ſhall prepare thy way before thee.

The Collect.

LOrd raiſe up (we pray thee) thy power, and come among us, and with great might ſuccour us, that whereas, through our ſins and wickedneſſe, we be ſore let and hindred, thy bountifull grace and mercy (through the ſatisfaction of thy Sonne our Lord) may ſpeedily deliver us: to whom with thee and the holy Ghoſt be honour and glory, world without end.

The Epiſtle.

REjoyce in the Lord alway, and again I ſay, Rejoyce. Let your ſoftneſſe be known to all men: the Lord is even at hand. Be carefull for nothing, but in all prayer and ſupplication, let your petitions be manifeſt unto God, with giving of thanks. And the peace of God (which paſſeth all underſtanding) keep your hearts and minds, through Chriſt Jeſu. Phil. 4.4

The Goſpel.

THis is the record of John, when the Jews ſent Prieſts and Levites from Jeruſalem, to aſk him, What art thou? And he confeſſed, and denied not, and ſaid plainly, I am not Chriſt. And they aſked him, what art thou then? Art thou Elias? And he ſaid, I am not. Art thou the Prophet? And he John 1.19 answered, No. Then said they unto him, What art thou, that we may give an answer unto them that sent us? What sayest thou of thy self? He said, I am the voice of a crier in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Esay. And they which were sent were of the Pharisees, and they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not Christ, nor Elias, neither that Prophet? John answered them, saying, I baptize with water, but there standeth one among you whom ye know not: he it is, which though he came after me, was before me, whose shoe latchet I am not worthy to unloose. These things were done at Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John did baptize.

 anſwered,

¶ On Christmas day.

The Collect.

ALmighty God, which hast given us thy onely begotten Son to take our nature upon him, and this day to be born of a pure virgin: grant that we being regenerate, and made thy children by adoption and grace, may daily be renued by thy holy Spirit, through the same our Lord Jesus Christ, who liveth & reigneth with thee, &c.

The Epistle.

Heb. 1. 1. GOD in times past, diverse manners spake unto the fathers by the prophets: but in these last days he hath spoken to us by his own Son, whom he hath made heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds: which Son being the brightness of his glory, and the very image of his substance, ruling all things with the word of his power, hath by himself purged our sins, and sitteth on the right hand of the Majestie on high, being so much more excellent than the angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they. For unto which of the angels said he at any time, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, I will be his father, and he shall be my Sonne. And again, when he bringeth in the first begotten Sonne into the world, he saith, And let all the angels of God worship him. And unto the angels he saith, He maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire. But unto the Sonne he saith, Thy seat (O God) shall be for ever and ever, the scepter of thy kingdome is a right scepter: thou hast loved righteousnesse, and hated iniquitie. Wherefore God, even thy God hath anointed thee with the oyl of gladnesse above thy fellows. And thou Lord in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth, and the heavens are the works of thy hands. They shall perish, but thou endurest. They all shall wax old as doth a garment, and as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed: but thou art even the same, and thy yeers shall not fail.

The Gospel.

IN the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and God was the Word. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by it, and without it was made nothing that was made. In it was life, and the life was the light of men, & the light shineth in the darknesse, and the darknes comprehended it not. There was sent from God a man, whose name was John: the same came as a witnesse to bear witnesse of the light, that all men through him might beleeve. He was not that light, but was sent to bear witnesse of the light. That light was the true light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not. He came among his own, and his own received him not. But as many as received him, to them gave he power to be made sons of God, even them that beleeved on his name, which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor yet of the will of man, but of God. And the same Word became flesh, and dwelt among us, and we saw the John 1.1.

glorie of it, as the glorie of the onely begotten Sonne of the Father, full of grace and truth.

¶ S. Stevens day.

The Collect.

GRant us, O Lord, to learn to love our enemies, by the example of thy Martyr S. Steven, who prayed for his persecutors, to thee which livest, &c.

Then shall follow the Collect of the Nativitie, which shall be said continually unto New yeers day.

The Epistle.

Act. 7. 55. AND Steven being full of the holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly with his eyes into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God, and said, Behold, I see the heavens open, and the Sonne of man standing on the right hand of God. Then they gave a shout with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and ranne upon him all at once, and cast him out of the city, and stoned him. And the witnesses laid down their clothes at a young mans feet, whose name was Saul: and they stoned Steven, calling on, and saying, Lord Jesu receive my spirit. And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sinne to their charge. And when he had thus spoken, he fell asleep.

The Gospel.

Mat. 23. 34. BEhold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and Scribes, and some of them ye shall kill and crucifie, and some of them ye shall scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from citie to citie, that upon you may come all the righteous blood which hath been shed upon the earth, from the blood of the righteous Abel, unto the blood of Zacharias the sonne of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar. Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation. O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, lem, thou that killest the Prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as the hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not? Behold, your house is left unto you desolate. For I say unto you, Ye shal not see me henceforth, till that ye say, Blessed is he that cometh in the Name of the Lord.

¶ S. John Evangelists day.

The Collect.

MErciful Lord, wee beseech thee to cast thy bright beams of light upon thy Church, that it being lightned by the doctrine of thy blessed Apostle and Evangelist John may attain to thy everlasting gifts, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle.

THat which was from the beginning, which wee have heard, which wee have seen with our eies, which wee have looked upon, and our hands have handled of the word of life. (And the life appeared, and we have seen, and bear witnesse, and shew unto you that eternall life, which was with the Father and appeared unto us) That which wee have seen and heard, declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us, & that our fellowship may be with the Father and his Son Jesus Christ. And this we write unto you, that ye may rejoyce, and that your joy may be full. And this is the tidings which wee have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darknesse at all. If we say we have fellowship with him, and walk in darknesse, wee lie, and do not the truth. But and if we walk in light, even as he is in light, then have wee fellowship with him, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. If we say wee have no sin we deceive our selves, and the truth is not in us. If we knowledge our sins, he is faithfull and just to forgive 1. John 1.1

forgive us our sins, & to cleanse us from all unrighteousnesse. If wee say wee have not sinned, wee make him a lyar, and his word is not in us.

The Gospel.

Joh. 21. 19. IEsus said unto Peter, Follow thou me. Peter turned about, and saw the disciple whom Jesus loved, following, (which also leaned on his breast at supper, & said, Lord, which is hee that betrayeth thee?) When Peter therefore saw him, he said unto Jesus, Lord, what shall he here do? Jesus said unto him, If I will have him to tarry till I come, what is that to thee? Follow thou me. Then went this saying abroad among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him, Hee shall not die: but, if I will that hee tarry till I come, what is that to thee? The same disciple is he, which testifieth of these things, & wrote these things, and we know that his testimony is true. There are also many other things which Jesus did, the which, if they should be written every one, I suppose the world could not contain the bookes that should be written.

¶ Innocents day.

The Collect.

ALmighty God, whose praise this day the yong innocents thy witnesses have confessed and shewed forth, not in speaking but in dying: mortifie and kill all vices in us, that in our conversation, our life may expresse thy faith, which with our tongues wee do confesse, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Epistle.

Reve. 14. 1. I Looked, & lo, a lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him an hundred and fourty four thousand, having his name and his fathers name written in their foreheads. And I heard a voice from heaven, as the sound of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder. And I heard the voyce of of harpers harping with their harps. And they sung as it were a new song before the seat, and before the four beasts and elders, and no man could learn the song, but the hundred fourty and four thousand which were redeemed from the earth. These are they which were not defiled with women, for they are virgins. These follow the lamb whithersoever hee goeth. These were redeemed from men, being the first fruits unto God, and to the lamb, and in their mouthes was found no guile: for they are without spot before the throne of God.

The Gospel.

THe Angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a sleep, saying, Arise, and take the childe and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there till I bring thee word. For it will come to passe that Herod will seek the childe to destroy him. So when hee awoke, hee took the childe and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt, and was there unto the death of Herod, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the Prophet, saying, Out of Egypt have I called my sonne. Then Herod, when hee saw that hee was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth men of war, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts (as many as were two yeers old, or under) according to the time, that he had diligently known out of the wise men. Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by the Prophet Jeremy, whereas he said, In Rama was there a voice heard, lamentation, weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they were not. Matth. 2. 13

¶ The sunday after Christmas day.

The Collect.

ALmighty God, which hast given us thy only begotten Son, &c. (As upon Christmas day.)

The ſunday after Chriſtmas day.

The Epiſtle.

Galat. 4. 1. AND I ſay, that the heir (as long as he is a child) differeth not from a ſervant, though he be Lord of all, but is under tutors and governours, untill the time that the Father hath appointed: Even ſo wee alſo, when wee were children, were in bondage under the ordinances of the world: But when the time was ful come, God ſent his Son made of a woman, and made bond unto the law, to redeem them which were bond unto the law, that we through election might receive the inheritance that belongeth unto the naturall ſons. Becauſe ye are ſons, God hath ſent the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, which crieth Abba, Father. Wherefore now thou art not a ſervant, but a ſon. If thou be a ſon, thou art alſo an heir of God through Chriſt.

The Goſpel.

Matth. 1. 1. THis is the book of the generation of Jeſus Chriſt the ſon of David, the ſon of Abraham: Abraham begat Iſaac, Iſaac begat Jacob: Jacob begat Judas and his brethren: Judas begat Phares and Zara of Thamar: Phares begat Eſrom: Eſrom begat Aram: Aram begat Aminadab: Aminadab begat Naaſſon: Naaſſon begat Salmon: Salmon begat Boos of Rahab: Boos begat Obed of Ruth: Obed begat Jeſſe: Jeſſe begat David the king: David the king begat Solomon, of her that was the wife of Urie: Solomon begat Roboam: Roboam begat Abia: Abia begat Aſa: Aſa begat Joſaphat: Joſaphat begat Joram: Joram begat Oſias: Oſias begat Joatham: Joatham begat Achas: Achas begat Ezechias: Ezechias begat Manaſſes: Manaſſes begat Amon: Amon begat Joſias: Joſias begat Jechonias and his brethren, about the time that they were caried away to Babylon: and after they were brought to Babylon, Jechonias begat Salathiel: Salathiel begat Zorobabel: Zorobabel begat Abiud: Abiud begat Eliachim: Eliachim chim begat Azor: Azor begat Sadoc: Sadoc begat Achin: Achin begat Eliud: Eliud begat Eleazar: Eleazar begat Matthan: Matthan begat Jacob: Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, even he that is called Christ. And so all the generations, from Abraham to David, are fourteen generations. And from David unto the captivity of Babylon are fourteen generations. And from the captivity of Babylon unto Christ, are fourteen generations.

The birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: when his mother Mary was married to Joseph (before they came to dwell together) she was found with childe by the holy Ghost. Then Joseph her husband, because hee was a righteous man, and would not put her to shame, was minded privily to depart from her. But while he thus thought, behold, the Angel of the Lord appeared unto him in sleep, saying, Joseph thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her, cometh of the holy Ghost. She shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his Name Jesus, for hee shall save his people from their sins. All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the Prophet, saying, Behold a maid shall be with childe, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his Name Emmanuel, which if a man interpret, is as much to say, as God with us. And Joseph, assoon as hee awoke out of sleep, did as the Angel of the Lord had bidden him: and he took his wife unto him, and knew her not, til she had brought forth her first begotten son, and called his Name Jesus.

¶ The Circumcision of Christ.

The Collect.

ALmighty God, which madest thy blessed Son to be circumcised, & obedient to the law for man: grant us the true circumcision of the Spirit, that our hearts and and all our members being mortified from all worldly and carnall lusts, may in all things obey thy blessed will, through the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Epistle.

Rom 4.8. BLessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sinne. Came this blessednesse then upon the circumcision, or upon the uncircumcision also? For we say, that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousnesse. How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or when he was in the uncircumcision? not in time of circumcision, but when hee was yet uncircumcised, and hee received the signe of circumcision, as a seal of the righteousnesse of faith, which he had yet being uncircumcised, that he should be the father of all them that beleeve, though they be not circumcised, that righteousnesse might be imputed to them also, and that hee might be the father of circumcision, not unto them only which came of the circumcised, but unto them also that walk in the steps of the faith that was in our father Abraham before the time of circumcision. For the promise (that he should be heir of the world) happened not to Abraham, or to his seed through the Law, but through the righteousnes of faith: For if they which are of the law be heirs, then is faith but vain, and the promise of none effect.

The Gospel.

Luke 2.15. AND it fortuned, assoon as the Angels were gone away from the shepherds into heaven, they said one to another, Let us go even now unto Bethlehem, and see this thing that we hear say is happened, which the Lord hath shewed unto us. And they came with haste, and found Mary and Joseph, and the babe laid in a manger. And when they had seen it, they published abroad the saying that was told them of that childe. And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them of the shepherds. But

Mary kept all these sayings, and pondred them in her heart. And the shepherds returned, praising and lauding God for all the things that they had heard and seen, even as it was told unto them. And when the eight day was come, that the childe should be circumcised, his name was called Jesus, which was named of the Angel before hee was conceived in the wombe.

If there be any sunday between the Epiphany and the circumcision, then shall be used the same Collect, Epistle and Gospel at the Communion, which was used the day of circumcision.

¶ The Epiphany.

The Collect.

O God, which by the leading of a star, diddest manifest thy only begotten Son to the Gentiles: mercifully grant, that we which know thee now by faith, may after this life have the fruition of thy glorious Godhead, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle.

FOr this cause I Paul am a prisoner of Jesus Christ for you heathen, if ye have heard of the ministration of the grace of God which is given me to you-ward. For by revelation shewed hee the mystery unto mee, as I wrote afore in few words, whereby when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ, which mystery in times past was not opened unto the sons of men, as it is now declared unto his holy Apostles and Prophets by the spirit, that the Gentiles should be inheritors also, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise of Christ, by the means of the Gospel, whereof I am made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God which is given unto mee after the working of his power. Unto me the least of all Saints is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ, and to make all men see what the fellowship of the mystery is, which from the beginning of the world, hath Ephes. 3. 1.

been hid in God, which made all things through Jesus Christ, to the intent that now unto the rulers and powers in heavenly things, might be known by the congregation the manifold wisdome of God, according to the eternall purpose which he wrought in Christ Jesus our Lord, by whom wee have boldnesse and entrance, with the confidence which is by the faith of him.

The Gospel.

Matth. 2. 1. WHen Jesus was born in Bethlehem, a citie of Jury, in the time of Herod the king: behold, there came wise men from the East to Jerusalem, saying, Where is hee that is born king of the Jewes? for wee have seen his star in the East, and are come to worship him. When Herod the king had heard these things, hee was troubled, and all the citie of Jerusalem with him. And when he had gathered all the chiefe priests and scribes of the people together, hee demanded of them where Christ should be born. And they said unto him. At Bethlehem in Jury: for thus it is written by the Prophet, And thou Bethlehem in the land of Jury art not the least among the Princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come unto mee the captain that shall govern my people Israel. Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, he enquired of them diligently what time the star appeared. And he bade them go to Bethlehem, and said, Go your way thither, and search diligently for the childe: and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also. When they had heard the king, they departed, and lo, the star which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over the place wherein the childe was. When they saw the Starre, they were exceeding glad, and went into the house, and found the childe with Mary his mother, and fell down flat, and worshipped him, and opened their treasures, and offered unto him gifts,

gifts, gold, frankincense and myrrhe. And after they were warned of God in a sleep, that they should not go again to Herod, they returned into their owne countrey another way.

¶ The first sunday after the Epiphanie.

The Collect.

LOrd we beseech thee, mercifully to receive the prayers of thy people, which call upon thee: and grant that they may both perceive and know what things they ought to do, and also have grace and power faithfully to fulfill the same, through Jesus Christ our Lord: Amen.

The Epistle.

Rom. 12.

I Beseech you therefore brethren, by the mercifulnesse of God, that you make your bodies a quick sacrifice, holy and acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable serving of God. And fashion not your selves like unto this world, but be ye changed in your shape, by the renewing of your minde, that ye may prove what thing that good and acceptable and perfect will of God is. For I say (through the grace that unto me given is) to everie man among you, that no man stand high in his own conceit, more then it becometh him to esteem of himself: but so judge of himself, that he be gentle and sober, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith. For as we have many members in one bodie, and all members have not one office: so we being many, are one body in Christ, and every man among our selves one anothers members.

The Gospel.

Luke 2.

THe father and mother of Jesus went to Jerusalem, after the custome of the feast day. And when they had fulfilled the dayes, as they returned home, the childe Jesus abode still at Jerusalem, and his father and mother knew not of it: but they supposing him to have been in the companie, came a daies journey, and sought him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance. And when they found him not, they went back again to Jerusalem, and sought him. And it fortuned, that after three dayes they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, hearing them and posing them: And all that heard him, were astonied at his understanding and answers. And when they saw him, they marvelled. And his mother said unto him, Sonne, why hast thou thus dealt with us? Behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing. And he said unto them, How happened it that ye sought me? wist ye not that I must go about my Fathers businesse? And they understood not that saying which he spake unto them. And he went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient unto them. But his mother kept all these sayings together in her heart. And Jesus prospered in wisedome, and age, and in favour with God and men.

¶ The second sunday after the Epiphanie.

The Collect.

ALmightie and everlasting God, which doest govern all things in heaven and earth: mercifully hear the supplications of thy people, and grant us thy peace all the dayes of our life.

The Epistle.

Rom. 12.6. SEeing that we have divers gifts, according to the grace that is given unto us, if a man have the gift of prophesie, let him have it, that it be agreeing to the faith. Let him that hath an office, wait on his office. Let him that teacheth, take heed to his doctrine. Let him that exhorteth, give attendance to his exhortation. If any man give, let him do it with singlenesse. Let him that ruleth, do it with diligence. If any man shew mercie, let him do it with cheerfulnesse. Let love be without dissimulation. Hate that which is evill, and cleave unto that which is good. Be kinde one to another with brotherly loue. In giuing honour, go one before another. Be not ſlothfull in the buſineſſe which ye haue in hand. Be feruent in ſpirit. Apply your ſelues to the time. Reioyce in hope. Be patient in tribulation. Continue in prayer. Diſtribute vnto the neceſſitie of the ſaints. Be readie to harbour. Bleſſe them that perſecute you. Bleſſe I ſay and curſe not. Be merry with them that are merrie. Weep with them that weep. Be of like affection one towards another. Be not high minded, but make your ſelues equall to them of the lower ſort.

to

The Goſpel.

AND the third day was there a marriage in Cana a citie of Galilee, and the mother of Jeſus was there. And Jeſus was called (and his diſciples) vnto the marriage. And when the wine failed the mother of Jeſus ſaid vnto him, They haue no wine. Jeſus ſaid vnto her, Woman what haue I to do with thee? mine houre is not yet come. His mother ſaid vnto the miniſters, whatſoeuer he ſaith vnto you, do it. And there were ſtanding there ſix water pots of ſtone, after the maner of the purifying of the Iewes, containing two or three firkins apiece. Jeſus ſaid vnto them, Fill the water pots with water. And they filled them vp to the brim. And he ſaid vnto them, Draw out now, and beare vnto the gouernour of the feaſt. And they bare it. When the ruler of the feaſt had taſted the water turned into wine, and knew not whence it was, (but the miniſters which drew the water, knew) he called the bridegroom, and ſaid vnto him, Euery man at the beginning doth ſet forth good wine, and when men be drunk, then that which is worſe: but thou haſt kept the good wine vntill now. This beginning of miracles did Jeſus in Cana of Galilee, and ſhewed his glorie, and his diſciples beleeued on him. John 2.

The

The Collect.

ALmightie and everlaſting God, mercifully look upon our infirmities, and in all our dangers and neceſſities, ſtretch forth thy right hand to help and defend us, through Chriſt our Lord.

The Epiſtle.

Rom. 12. 16. BE not wiſe in your own opinions. Recompenſe to no man evill for evill. Provide afore hand things honeſt, not onely before God, but alſo in the ſight of all men. If it be poſſible (as much as in you is) live peaceably with all men. Dearly beloved, avenge not your ſelves, but rather give place unto wrath, for it is written, Vengeance is mine, I will reward, ſaith the Lord. Therefore if thine enemie hunger, feed him: if he thirſt, give him drink: for in ſo doing, thou ſhalt heap coals of fire on his head. Be not overcome of evill, but overcome evill with goodneſſe.

The Goſpel.

Mat. 8. 1. WHen he was come down from the mountain, much people followed him. And behold, there came a leper and worſhipped him, ſaying, Maſter, if thou wilt thou canſt make me clean. And Jeſus put forth his hand, and touched him, ſaying, I will, be thou clean. And immediately his leproſie was cleanſed. And Jeſus ſaid unto him, Tell no man, but go and ſhew thy ſelf to the Prieſt, and offer the gift (that Moſes commanded to be offered) for a witneſſe unto them. And when Jeſus was entred into Capernaum, there came unto him a centurion, and beſought him, ſaying, Maſter, my ſervant lieth at home ſick of the paſſie, and is grievouſly pained. And Jeſus ſaid, When I come unto him, I will heal him. The centurion anſwered and ſaid, Sir, I am not worthy that thou ſhouldeſt come under my roof: but ſpeak the word onely, and my ſervant ſhall be healed. For I alſo my ſelf am a man ſubject to the authoritie of another, and haue souldiers vnder me: and I say vnto this man, Go, and he goeth: & to another man Come, and he cometh: and to my seruant, Do this, and he doth it. When Iesus heard these words, he marueiled, and said to them that followed him, Verily I say vnto you, I haue not found so great faith in Israel. I say vnto you, that many shall come from the East and West, and shall rest with Abraham, Isaac, and Iacob, in the kingdome of heauen: But the children of the kingdome shall be cast out into vtter darknesse, there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. And Iesus said vnto the Centurion, Go thy way, and as thou beleeuest, so be it vnto thee. And his seruant was healed the self same houre.

The fourth Sunday after the Epiphanie.

The Collect.

GOd which knowest vs to be set in the midst of so many and great dangers, that for mans frailnesse we cannot alway stand vpright: grant to vs the health of body and soul, that all those things which we suffer for sin, by thy help we may well passe and ouercome through Christ our Lord.

The Epistle.

LEt euery soul submit himself vnto the authoritie of the higher powers: For there is no power but of God. The powers that be, are ordeined of God. Whosoeuer therefore resisteth power, resisteth the ordinance of God: but they that resist, shall receiue to themselues damnation. For Rulers are not fearefull vnto them that vndo good, but to them that do euil. Wilt thou be without fear of the power? do well then, and so shalt thou be praised of the same: for he is the minister of God for thy wealth. But if thou do that which is euil, then feare: for he beareth not the sworde for nought: for he is the minister of God to take vengeance on them that do euil. Wherefore ye must needs obey, not only for feare of vengeance, but also because of conscience: and even for this cause pay ye tribute: For they are Gods ministers, serving for the same purpose. Give to everie man therefore his dutie: tribute, to whom tribute belongeth: custome to whom custome is due: feare, to whom feare belongeth: honour, to whom honour pertaineth.

Rom. 13.1.

The Gospel.

Matth. 8. 23.

AND when he entred into a ship, his disciples followed him. And behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch as the ship was covered with waves, but he was asleep. And his Disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, save us, we perish. And he said unto them, Why are ye fearfull, O ye of little faith? Then he arose and rebuked the windes and the sea, and there followed a great calm. But the men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this that both windes & sea obey him? And when he was come to the other side, into the countrey of the Gergesites, there met him two possessed of devils, which came out of the graves, and were out of measure fierce so that no man might go by that way. And behold, they cried out, saying, O Jesu, thou Son of God, what have we to do with thee? Art thou come hither to torment us before the time? And there was a great way off from them an herd of many swine feeding. So the devils besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, suffer us to go into the herd of swine. And he said unto them, Go your wayes. Then went they out, & departed into the herd of swine. And behold, the whole herd of swine was carried headlong into the sea, and perished in the waters. Then they that kept them fled, and went their waies into the City, and told everie thing, and what had happened unto the possessed of the devils. And behold, the whole City came out to meet Jesus: And when they saw him, they besought him that he would depart out of their coasts.

The

The Collect.

LOrd, we beseech thee to keep thy church and houshold continually in thy true religion, that they which do lean onely upon hope of thy heavenly grace, may evermore be defended by thy mighty power, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Epistle.

PUt upon you as the Elect of God, tender mercy, kindnesse, humblenesse of minde, meekenesse, long-suffering, forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrell against another: as Christ forgave you, even so do ye. Above all these things put on love, which is the bond of perfectnesse. And the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which peace ye are called in one bodie: and see that ye be thankfull. Let the word of Christ dwell in you plentifully with all wisedome. Teach and exhort your own selves in Psalms, and Hymnes, and spirituall songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord. And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the Name of the Lord Jesu, giving thanks to God the father by him. Col. 3. 12.

The Gospel.

THe kingdome of heaven is like unto a man which sowed good seed in his field: but while men slept, his enemie came, and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way. But when the blade was sprung up, and had brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also. So the servants of the householder came, and said unto him, Sir, didest not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares? He said unto them, The envious man hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and weed them up? But he said, Nay, lest while ye gather up the tares, ye pluck up also the wheat with them: let both grow together until the harvest, and in Matth. 13. 24.

the time of harvest, I will say to the reapers, Gather ye first the tares, and binde them together in sheaves to be burnt, but gather the wheat into my barn.

The sixth sunday (if there be so many) shall have the same Collect, epistle and gospel, that was upon the fifth sunday.

The Sunday called Septuagesima.

The Collect.

O Lord, we beseech thee favourably to hear the prayers of thy people, that we which are justly punished for our offences, may be mercifully delivered by thy goodnesse, for the glorie of thy name, through Jesus Christ our Saviour, who liveth and reigneth world without end. Amen.

The Epistle.

1 Cor. 24. Perceive ye not, how that they which run in a course, run all, but one receiveth the reward? So run that ye may obtain. Every man that proveth masteries, abstaineth from all things: and they do it to obtain a crown that shall perish: but we to obtain an everlasting crown. I therefore so run, not as at an uncertain thing: so fight I, not as one that beateth the ayr: but I tame my bodie, and bring it into subjection, lest by any means it come to passe, that when I have preached to other, I my self should be a cast away.

The Gospel.

Matth. 20. 1. THE Kingdome of heaven is like unto a man that is an housholder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard. And when the agreement was made with the labourers for a peny a day, he sent them into his vineyard. And he went out about the third hour, and saw other standing idle in the market place, and said unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you, and they went their way. Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise.

wiſe. And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others ſtanding idle, and ſaid unto them, Why ſtand ye here all the day idle? They ſaid unto him, Becauſe no man hath hired us. He ſaith unto them, Go ye alſo into the vineyard, and whatſoever is right, that ſhall ye receive. So when even was come, the Lord of the vineyard ſaid unto his ſteward, Call the labourers, and give them their hire, beginning at the laſt untill the firſt. And when they did come that came about the eleventh hour, they received every man a peny. But when the firſt came alſo, they ſuppoſed that they ſhould have received more, and they likewiſe received every man a peny. And when they had received it, they murmured againſt the good man of the houſe, ſaying, Theſe laſt have wrought but one hour, and thou haſt made them equall with us, which have born the burden and heat of the day. But he anſwered unto one of them, and ſaid, Friend, I do thee no wrong: Didſt thou not agree with me for a peny? Take that thine is, and go thy way: I will give unto this laſt, even as unto thee. Is it not lawfull for me to do as me luſteth with mine own goods? Is thine eye evill becauſe I am good? So the laſt ſhall be firſt, and the firſt ſhall be laſt. For many be called, but few be choſen.

be bold (I ſpeak foolishly) I dare be bold also. They are Hebrews, even so am I. They are Israelites, even so am I. They are the seed of Abraham, even so am I. They are the Ministers of Christ (I speak as a fool) I am more. In labours more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prison more plenteously, in death oft. Of the Jews five times received I fourtie stripes save one. Thrice was I beaten with rods. I was once stoned. I suffered thrice ship-wrack. Night and day have I been in the deep sea. In journeying often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in jeopardies of mine own nation, in jeopardies among the heathen, in perils in the citie, in perils in the wildernesse, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren, in labour and travell, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakednes: Beside the things which outwardly happen unto me, I am cumbred dayly, and do care for all congregations. Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I burn not? If I must needs boast, I will boast of the things that concern mine infirmities. The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not.

8.4. When much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of all cities, he spake by a similitude. The sower went out to sow his seed, and as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and it was troden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it up. And some fel on stones, & alsoon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moistnes. And some fell among thorns, and the thorns sprang up with it, and choaked it. And some fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundred fold. And as he said these things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear. And his disciples asked him, saying, What maner of similitude is this? And he said, Unto you it is given to know the ſecrets of the kingdome of God, but to other by parables, that when they ſee, they ſhould not ſee, and when they hear they ſhould not underſtand. The parable is this. The ſeed is the word of God. Thoſe that are beſide the way, are they that hear: then cometh the devill, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, leſt they ſhould beleeve and be ſaved. They on the ſtones, are they which when they hear, receive the word with joy, and theſe have no roots, which for a while beleeve, and in time of temptation go away. And that which fell among thorns, are they, which when they have heard, go forth, and are choaked with cares and riches, and voluptuous living, and bring forth no fruit. That which fell on the good ground, are they which with a pure and good heart hear the word, and keep it, and bring forth fruit through patience.

Though that prophecying fail, either tongues ceaſe, or knowledge vaniſh away, yet loue falleth neuer away. For our knowledge is vnperfect, and our prophecying is vnperfect: but when that which is perfect is come, then that which is vnperfect ſhall be done away. When I was a childe, I ſpake as a childe, I vnderſtood as a childe, I imagined as a childe: but aſſoone as I was a man, I put away childiſhneſſe. Luke 18.31 IESUS tooke vnto him the twelue, and ſaid vnto them, Behold, we go vp to Ieruſalem, & all ſhall be fulfilled which are written by the Prophets of the Sonne of man. For he ſhall be deliuered vnto the Gentiles, and ſhall be mocked, and deſpitefully intreated, and ſpitted on. And when they haue ſcourged him, they will put him to death, and the third day he ſhall riſe againe. And they vnderſtood none of theſe things. The Collect.

ALmighty and everlasting God, which hatest nothing that thou hast made, and doest forgive the sins of all them that be penitent: create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we worthily lamenting our sinnes, and knowledging our wretchednesse, may obtain of thee, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgivenesse, through Jesus Christ.

The Epistle.

TUrn you unto me with all your hearts, with fasting, weeping, and mourning: rent your hearts, and not your clothes. Turn you unto the Lord your God: for he is gracious and merciful, long suffering, and of great compassion, and ready to pardon wickednesse. Then (no doubt) he also shall turn and forgive: and after his chastening, he shall let your increase remain for meat and drink offerings unto the Lord your God. Blow out with the trumpet in Sion, proclaim a fasting, call the congregation, and gather the people together: warn the congregation, gather the elders, bring the children and sucklings together. Let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, & the bride out of her closet. Let the priests serve the Lord between the porch and the altar, weeping and saying, Be favourable, O Lord, be favourable unto thy people, let not thine heritage be brought to such confusion, lest the heathen be lords thereof. Wherefore should they say among the heathen, Where is now their God? Joel 2.12

The gospel.

Matth. 6.16 WHen ye fast, be not sad as the hypocrites are: for they disfigure their faces, that it may appear unto men how that they fast. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward. But thou when thou fastest, anoint thine head, and wash thy face, that it appear not unto men how that thou fastest, but unto thy Father which is in secret, and thy Father which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly. Lay not up for your selves treasure upon earth, where the rust and moth doth corrupt, and where theeves break thorow and steal, but lay up for you treasures in heaven, where neither rust nor moth doth corrupt, and where theeves do not break thorow, nor steal. For where your treasure is, there will your hearts be also.

The collect.

O Lord, which for our sake didst fast fourty daies and fourty nights: give us grace to use such abstinence, that our flesh being subdued to the spirit, wee may ever obey thy godly motions, in righteousnesse and true holinesse, to thy honour and glory, which livest and reignest, &c.

The epistle.

2 Cor. 6.1 WE as helpers exhort you, that ye receive not the grace of God in vain. For he saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee. Behold, now is that accepted time: Behold, now is that day of salvation. Let us give none occasion of evill, that in our office be found no fault: but in all things let us behave our selves as the Ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in anguishes, in stripes, in imprisonments, in strifes, in labours, in watchings, in fastings, in pureness, in knowledge, in long suffering, in kindness, in the holy Ghost, in love unfained, in the word of truth, in the power of God, by the armour of righteousnesse on the right hand and on the left, by honour and dishonour, by evill report and good report, as deceivers, and yet true: as unknown, and yet known: as dying and behold, we live: as chastened, and not killed: as sorrowing, and yet alwayes merry: as poor, and yet making many rich: as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

the

The Gospel.

Then Jesus was led away of the Spirit into the wildernesse to be tempted of the devill. And when he had fasted fourtie dayes and fourtie nights, he was at the last an hungred. And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread. But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread only, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. Then the devill taketh him up into the holy citie, and setteth him on a pinacle of the Temple, and saith unto him, If thou be the Sonne of God, cast thy self down headlong: for it is written, He shall give his angels charge over thee, and with their hands they shall hold thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone. And Jesus said unto him, It is written again, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God. Again, the devill taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and shewed him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them, and saith unto him, All these will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me. Then saith Jesus unto him, Avoid Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve. Then the devil left him, and behold, the angels came and ministred unto him. Matth. 4. 1.

The Collect.

Almighty God which doest see that we have no power of our selves to help our selves: keep thou us both both outwardly in our bodies, and inwardly in our soules, that we may be defended from all adversities, which may happen to the body, and from all evill thoughts, which may assault and hurt the soul, through Jesus Christ, &c.

The Epistle.

1. Thes. 4. 1. WE beseech you brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that ye increase more and more, even as ye have received of us, how ye ought to walk, and to please God. For ye know what commandments we gave you by our Lord Jesus Christ. For this is the will of God, even your holinesse: that ye should abstain from fornication, and that every one of you should know how to keep his vessell in holinesse and honour, and not in the lust of concupiscence, as do the heathen which know not God: that no man oppresse and defraud his brother in bargaining, because that the Lord is the avenger of all such things, as we told you before, and testified. For God hath not called us unto uncleannesse, but unto holinesse. He therefore that despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, which hath sent his holy Spirit among you.

The Gospel.

Matth. 15 21. JEsus went thence, and departed into the coasts of Tyre and Sidon: and behold, a woman of Canaan (which came out of the same coasts) cryed unto him, saying, Have mercie on me, O Lord, thou Sonne of David: my daughter is piteously vexed with a devill. But he answered her nothing at all. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away, for she crieth after us. But he answered and said, I am not sent but to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. Then came she, and worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me. He answered and said, It is not meet to take the childrens bread, and cast it to dogs. She answered and said, Truth Lord, for the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall fall from their maſters table. Then Jeſus anſwered and ſaid unto her, O woman, great is thy faith, be it unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole even the ſame time.

The third Sunday in Lent.

The Collect.

WE beſeech thee almighty God, look upon the heartie deſires of thy humble ſervants, and ſtretch forth the right hand of thy maieſtie to be our defence againſt all our enemies, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Epiſtle.

BE ye the followers of God, as dear children, and walk in love, even as Chriſt loved us, and gave himſelf for us an offering and a ſacrifice of a ſweet ſavour to God. As for fornication and all uncleanneſſe, or covetouſneſſe, let it not be once named among you, as it becommeth Saints, or filthineſſe, or fooliſh talking, or jeſting, which are not comely, but rather giving of thanks. For this ye know, that no whoremonger, either unclean perſon, or covetous perſon, (which is a worſhipper of Images) hath any inheritance in the kingdome of Chriſt, and of God. Let no man deceive you with vain words: for becauſe of ſuch things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of diſobedience. Be ye not therefore companions of them. Ye were ſometimes darkneſſe, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light: for the fruit of the ſpirit conſiſteth in all goodneſſe, and righteouſneſſe, and truth. Accept that which is pleaſing unto the Lord, and have no fellowſhip with the unfruitfull works of darkneſſe, but rather rebuke them. For it is a ſhame even to name thoſe things which are done of them in ſecret: but all things when they are brought forth by the light, are manifeſt; for whatſoever is manifeſt, the ſame is light. Ephes. 5. 1.

Where

wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and stand up from death, and Christ shall give thee light.

The Gospel.

Luke 11. 14. IEsus was casting out a devil that was dumb And when he had cast out the devil, the dumb spake, and the people wondred. But some of them said, He casteth out devils through Beelzebub the chief of the devils. And others tempted him, and required of him a signe from heaven. But he knowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom devided against it self is desolate, and one house doeth fall upon another. If Satan also be divided against himself, how shal his kingdom endure? Because ye say, I cast out devils through Beelzebub. If I by the help of Beelzebub cast out devils, by whose help do your children cast them out? Therefore shall they be your judges. But if I by the finger of God cast out devils, no doubt, the kingdome of God is come upon you. When a strong man armed watcheth his house, the things that he possesseth are in peace: but when a stronger then he cometh upon him, and overcometh him, he taketh from him all his harnesse, wherein he trusted, and divideth his goods. He that is not with me, is against me: and he that gathereth not with me, scattereth abroad. When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest; and when he findeth none, he saith, I will return again into my house, whence I came out. And when he cometh, he findeth it swept and garnished. Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits worse then himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and the end of that man is worse then the beginning. And it fortuned, that as he spake these things, a certain woman of the company lift up her voyce, and said unto him, Happy is the womb that bare thee, and the paps which gave thee suck. But he said, Yea happy are they that hear the word of God and keep it.

The Collect.

GRant we beseech thee, almightie GOD, that we which for our evil deeds are worthily punished, by the comfort of thy grace may mercifully be relieved, through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Epistle.

TEll me (ye that desire to be under the Law) do ye not hear of the law? for it is written, that Abraham had two sonnes: the one by a bondmaid, the other by a free woman. Yea, and he which was born of the bond-woman was born after the flesh: but he which was born of the free woman, was born by promise. Which things are spoken by an allegorie: for these are two testaments, the one from the mount Sina, which gendreth unto bondage, which is Agar: for mount Sina is Agar in Arabia, and bordereth upon the citie which is now called Jerusalem, and is in bondage with her children. But Jerusalem which is above, is free, which is the mother of us all. For it is written, Rejoyce thou barren, that bearest no children, breake forth and cry thou that travellest not: for the desolate hath many moe children then she that hath an husband. Brethren, we are after Isahac the children of promise. But as then he that was born after the flesh, persecuted him that was born after the spirit: even so it is now. Nevertheless, what saith the scripture? Put away the bond-woman and her sonne: for the sonne of the bond-woman shall not be heir with the son of the free-woman. So then brethren, we are not children of the bond-woman, but of the free woman. Gal. 4. 21.

The Gospel.

IEsus departed over the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias, and a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased. And Jesus went up into a mountain, and there he sate with his disciples. John. 6. 1.

ciples. And Easter (a feast of the Jews) was nigh. When Jesus then lift up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he said unto Philip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat? This he said to prove him, for he himself knew what he would do. Philip answered him, Two hundred peny-worth of bread are not sufficient for them, that every man may take a little. One of his disciples (Andrew Simon Peters brother) saith unto him, There is a lad which hath five barley loaves, and two fishes: but what are they among so many? And Jesus said, Make the people sit down. There was much grasse in the place. So the men sate down in number about five thousand. And Jesus took the bread, and when he had given thanks, he gave to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down, and likewise of the fishes as much as they would. When they had eaten enough, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the broken meat which remaineth, that nothing be lost. And they gathered it together, and filled twelve baskets with the broken meat of the five barley loaves, which broken meat remained unto them that had eaten. Then those men (when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did) said, This is of a truth the same Prophet that should come into the world.

The fifth Sunday in Lent.

The Collect.

WE beseech thee almighty God, mercifully to look upon thy people, that by thy great goodness they may be governed and preserved evermore both in body and soul, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Epistle.

Heb. 9. 11. CHrist being an high Priest of good things to come, came by a greater and a more perfect Tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building; neither by the blood of goats and calves: but by his own blood he entred in once into the Holy place, and found eternall redemption. For if the blood of oxen and of goats, and the ashes of a yong cow, when it is sprinkled, purifieth the unclean, as touching the purifying of the flesh: how much more shall the blood of Christ, which through the eternall spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your consciences from dead works, for to serve the living God? And for this cause is he the Mediator of the new Testament, that through the death which chanced for the redemption of those transgressions that were under the first Testament, they which are called, might receive the promise of eternall inheritance.

The Gospel.

Which of you can rebuke me of sin? If I say the truth, why do ye not beleeve me? He that is of God, heareth Gods words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God. Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, Say we not well, that thou art a Samaritane, and hast the devil? Jesus answered, I have not the devil: but I honour my father, and ye have dishonoured me. I seek not mine owne praise, there is one that seeketh and judgeth. Verily verily I say unto you, If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death. Then said the Jews unto him, Now we know that thou hast the devill. Abraham is dead, and the prophets: and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death. Art thou greater then our father Abraham which is dead? And the prophets are dead: whom makest thou thy self? Jesus answered, If I honour my self, mine honour is nothing: It is my father that honoureth me, which ye say is your God, and yet ye have not known him: but I know him. And if I say, I know him not, I shalbe a lyar like unto you. But I know him & keep his saying. Your father Abraham was glad to see my day: and he saw it, and rejoyced. Then said the Jews unto him, Thou art not yet fifty yeers old, & hast thou John 8. 46.

seen Abraham? Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily I say unto you, Yer Abraham was born, I am. Then took they up stones to cast at him. But Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple.

¶ The Sunday next before Easter.

The Collect.

ALmighty and everlasting God, which of thy tender love towards man, hast sent our Saviour Jesus Christ, to take upon him our flesh, & to suffer death upon the crosse, that all mankinde should follow the example of his great humility: mercifully grant, that we both follow the example of his patience, & be made partakers of his resurrection, through the same Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Epistle.

Philip. 2.5. LEt the same mind be in you, that was also in Christ Jesus, which when he was in the shape of God, thought it no robberie to be equall with God: neverthelesse, he made himself of no reputation, taking on him the shape of a servant, & became like unto men, and was found in his apparel as a man. He humbled himself, and became obedient unto the death, even the death of the crosse. Wherefore God hath also exalted him on high, and given him a name, which is above all names, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, both of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth, and that all tongues should confesse that Jesus Christ is the Lord, unto the praise of God the Father.

The Gospel.

Matth. 26.1. ANd it came to passe, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, he said unto his disciples, Ye know that after two dayes shall be Easter, and the son of man shall be delivered over to be crucified. Then assembled together the chiefe Priests and the Scribes, & the elders of the people, unto the palace of the high priest, (which was called Caiaphas) & held a councel, that that they might take Jesus by subtiltie, & kill him. But they said, Not on the holiday, lest there be an uproar among the people. When Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, there came unto him a woman, having an Alabaster box of precious ointment, and poured it on his head as he sate at the board. But when his disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, Whereto serveth this waste? This ointment might have been wel sold, and given to the poor. When Jesus understood that, he said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good work upon me. For ye have the poor alwayes with you, but me ye shall not have alwayes. And in that she hath cast this ointment on my bodie, she did it to burie me. Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached in all the world, there shall also this be told that she hath done for a memoriall of her. Then one of the twelve (which was called Judas Iscariot) went unto the chief Priests, & said unto them, what will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they appointed unto him thirtie pieces of silver. And from that time forth he sought opportunitie to betray him. The first day of sweet bread, the disciples came to Jesus, saying to him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passeover? And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, The Master saith, My time is at hand, I will keep my Easter by thee with my disciples. And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them, and they made readie the passeover. When the even was come, he sate down with the twelve: & as they did eat, he said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me. And they were exceeding sorrowfull, and began every one of them to say unto him, Lord, Is it I? He answered and said, He that dippeth his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me. The Son of man truely goeth as it is written of him: but wo unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed: it had been good for that man if he had not been born. Then Judas which betrayed him, answered and said, Master, is it I? He said unto him, Thou hast said. And when they were eating, Jesus took bread, & when he had given thanks, he brake it, and gave it to the disciples, & said, Take, eat, this is my bodie. And he took the cup, and thanked, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of this: for this is my blood (which is of the new Testament) that is shed for many, for the remission of sins. But I say unto you, I will not drink hencefoorth of this fruit of the vine-tree, until that day when I shal drink it new with you in my Fathers kingdom. And when they had said grace, they went out unto mount Olivet. Then said Jesus unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the Shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad: but after I am risen again, I will go before you into Galilee. Peter answered and said unto him, Though all men be offended because of thee, yet will I not be offended. Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, that in this same night before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. Peter said unto him, Yea, though I should die with thee, yet will I not denie thee. Likewise also said all the disciples. Then came Jesus with them unto a Farm place (which is called Gethsemane) and said unto the disciples, Sit ye here while I go and pray yonder. And he took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to wax sorowfull and heavie. Then said Jesus unto them, My soul is heavie even unto the death: tarry ye here and watch with me. And he went a little further, and fell flat on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup passe from me: nevertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt. And he came unto the disciples and found them asleep, and said unto Peter, What could ye not watch with me one hour? Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: The spirit is willing, but the the flesh is weak. He went away once again, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not passe away from me, except I drink of it, thy will be fulfilled. And he came & found them asleep again, for their eyes were heavie. And he left them, and went again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words. Then cometh he to his disciples, and said unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest. Behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners: Rise, let us bee going, behold, he is at hand that doth betray me. While he yet spake, loe, Judas, one of the number of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords & staves, sent from the chief Priests and elders of the people. But he that betrayed him gave them a token, saying, Whomsoever I kisse, the same is he, hold him fast. And forthwith he came to Jesus and said, Hail master, and kissed him. And Jesus said unto him, Friend, wherefore art thou come? Then came they, and laid hands on Jesus, and took him. And behold, one of them which were with Jesus, stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and strook a servant of the high Priest, and smote off his ear. Then said Jesus unto him, Put up thy sword into the sheath: for all they that take the sword, shal perish with the sword. Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and hee shall give mee even now more then twelve legions of angels? But how then shall the Scriptures bee fulfilled? For thus it must be. In that same hour said Jesus to the multitude, Ye be come out as it were to a thief, with swords and staves for to take me. I sate daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye took me not. But all this was done that the Scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples forsook him, and fled. And they took Jesus, and led him to Caiaphas the high Priest, where the Scribes & the Elders were assembled. But Peter followed him afar off unto the high Priests palace, and went in, and sate with the servants to see the end. The chief Priests and elders, and all the councell sought false witnesse against Jesus for to put him to death, but found none: yea, when many false witnesses came, yet found they none. At the last came two false witnesses, and said, This fellow said, I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it again in three dayes. And the chief Priest arose, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? why doe these bear witnesse against thee? But Jesus held his peace. And the chief Priest answered, and said unto him, I charge thee by the living God that thou tell us whether thou be Christ the Son of God. Jesus said unto him, Thou hast said. Nevertheless I say unto you, Hereafter shall ye see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, & coming in the clouds of the skie. Then the high Priest rent his clothes, saying, He hath spoken blasphemie, what need we of any more witnesses? Behold, now yee have heard his blasphemy, what think ye? They answered and said, He is worthie to die. Then did they spit in his face, and buffetted him with fists. And other smote him on the face with the palm of their hands, saying, Tell us, thou Christ, who is he that smote thee? Peter sate without in the Court, & a Damosell came to him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus of Galilee. But hee denied before them all, saying, I wote not what thou sayest. When he was gone out into the porch, another wench saw him, and said unto them that were there, This fellow was also with Jesus of Nazareth. And again hee denied with an oath, saying, I doe not know the man. After a while came unto him they that stood by, and said unto Peter, Surely thou art even one of them, for thy speech bewrayeth thee. Then began hee to curse and to sweare, that he knew not the man. And immediately the cock crew. And Peter remembred the word of Jesus, which said unto him, before the cock crow thou shalt deny me thrice:

thrice: and he went out, and wept bitterly. When the morning was come, all the chief Priests and Elders of the people held a councell against Jesus to put him to death, and brought him bound, and delivered him unto Pontius Pilat the Deputy. Then Judas which had betrayed him (seeing that hee was condemned) repented himself, and brought again the thirtie plates of silver to the chief Priests and Elders, saying, I have sinned, betraying the innocent bloud. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that. And he cast down the silver plates in the temple, and departed, and went and hanged himself. And the chief Priests took the silver plates, and said, It is not lawfull for to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of bloud. And they took counsell, and bought with them a potters field to bury strangers in. Wherefore the field is caled Acheldama, that is, the field of bloud, untill this day. Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the Prophet, saying, And they took thirty silver plates, the price of him that was valued, whom they bought of the children of Israel, and gave them for the potters field, as the Lord apointed me. Jesus stood before the Deputy, and the Deputy asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? Jesus said unto him, Thou sayest. And when he was accused of the chief Priests and Elders, he answered nothing. Then said Pilate unto him, Hearest thou not how many witnesses they lay against thee? And he answered him to never a word, insomuch that the Deputy marvelled greatly. At that Feast the deputy was wont to deliver unto the people a prisoner whom they would desire. He had then a notable prisoner called Barabbas. Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said, Whether will ye that I give loose unto you, Barabbas, or Jesus which is called Christ? For he knew that for envy they had delivered him. When he was set down to give judgment, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that just man, for I have suffered this day many things in my sleep because of him. But the chief priests and elders perswaded the people that they should ask Barabbas, and destroy Jesus. The Deputy answered, and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I let loose unto you? They said, Barabbas. Pilate said unto them, What shall I do then with Jesus, which is called Christ? They all said unto him, Let him be crucified. The Deputy said, What evil hath he done? But they cryed the more, saying, Let him be crucified. When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that more busines was made, he took water and washed his hands before the people, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person, see ye. Then answered all the people and said, His blood be on us, and on our children. Then let he Barabbas loose unto them, and scourged Jesus, and delivered him to be crucified. Then the souldiers of the deputy took Jesus into the common hall, and gathered unto him all the company, and they stripped him, and put on him a purple robe, and platted a crown of thorns, and put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand, and bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail king of the Jews. And when they had spit upon him, they took the reed, and smote him on the head, and after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off him again, & put his own raiment on him, and led him away to crucifie him. And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, named Simon, him they compelled to bear his crosse. And they came unto the place which is called Golgotha (that is to say, a place of dead mens skuls) and gave him vineger mingled with gall to drink. And when he tasted thereof, he would not drink. When they had crucified him, they parted his garments, and did cast lots, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Prophet, They parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lots. And they sate and watched him there, and set up over his head the cause of his death written, This is JESUS, the King of the Jews. Then were there two theeves crucified with him, one on the right hand, & the other on the left. They that passed by, reviled him, wagging their heads, & saying, Thou that destroyedst the temple of God, and didst build it in three dayes, save thy selfe. If thou be the Son of GOD come downe fro the crosse. Likewise also the high priests mocking him, with the scribes and elders said, He saved other, himself he cannot save. If he be the king of Israel, let him now come downe from the crosse, and we wil beleeve him. He trusted in God, let him deliver him now, if he wil have him: for he said, I am the Son of God. The theeves also which were crucified with him, cast the same in his teeth. From the sixt hour was there darknes over all the land until the ninth hour. And about the ninth houre, Jesus cryed with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani, that is to say, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said, This man calleth for Elias. And straightway one of them ran and took a spunge, and when he had filled it full of vineger, he put it on a reed, & gave him to drink. Other said, Let be, let us see whether Elias will come and deliver him. Jesus, when he had cryed again with a loud voyce, yeelded up the Ghost. And behold, the vail of the temple did rend in two parts from the top to the bottome, & the earth did quake, & the stones rent, and graves did open, and many bodies of saints which slept, arose, and went out of the graves, after his resurrection, and came into the holy city, & appeared unto many. When the centurion, & they that were with him watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, & those things which happened, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God. And many women were there (beholding him afar off) which followed Jesus from Galilee ministring unto him: among which was Mary Magdelene, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of Zebedees children.

unto

The Epistle.

63. 1. WHat is he this that cometh from Edom, with red coloured clothes of Bosra (which is so costly cloth) and cometh in so mightily with all his strength? I am he that teacheth righteousnes, and am of power to help. Wherefore then is thy clothing red, and thy raiment like his that treadeth in the wine-presse? I have troden the presse my selfe alone, and of all people there is not one with me. Thus will I tread downe mine enemies in my wrath, and set my feet upon them in mine indignation, and their blood shall bespring my clothes, and so will I stain all my rayment. For the day of vengeance is assigned in my heart, and the yeare when my people shall be delivered is come. I looked about me, and there was no man to shew me any help. I marvelled that no man held me up. Then I held me by mine own arm, and my ferventnesse sustained me. And thus will I tread down the people in my wrath, & bathe them in my displeasure, and upon the earth will I lay their strength. I wil declare the goodnes of the Lord, yea and the praise of the Lord, for all that he hath given us, for the great good that he hath done for Israel, which he hath given them of his own favour, and according to the multitude of his loving kindnesse. For he said, These no doubt are my people, and no shrinking children: and so he was their Saviour. In their troubles he was also troubled with them, and the Angel that went forth from his presence delivered them: Of every love and kindnesse that he had unto them, he redeemed them. He hath born them, & carried them up ever since the world began. But after they provoked him to wrath, & vexed his holy mind,

he

he was their enemy, & fought against them himself. Yet remembred Israel the old time of Moses and his people, saying, where is he that brought them from the water of the sea, with them that fed his sheep? where is he that hath given his holy Spirit among them? He led them by the right hand of Moses with his glorious arm, dividing the water before them, whereby he got himself an everlasting name. He led them in the deep, as an horse is led in the plain, that they should not stumble, as a tame beast goeth in the field, and the breath given of God, giveth him rest. Thus, O God, hast thou led thy people, to make thy selfe a glorious name withall. Look down then from heaven, and behold the dwelling place of thy Sanctuary, and thy glory. How is it that thy jealousie, thy strength, the multitude of thy mercies, and thy loving kindnesse will not be entreated of us? yet art thou our Father: for Abraham knoweth us not, neither is Israel acquainted with us. But thou Lord art our Father and redeemer, & thy name is everlasting. O Lord, wherefore hast thou led us out of the way? wherefore hast thou hardened our hearts, that we fear thee not? Be at one with us again for thy servants sake, and for the generation of thine heritage. Thy people have had but a little of thy sanctuary in possession, for our enemies have troden down thy holy place. And we were thine from the beginning, when thou wast not their Lord, for they have not called upon thy Name.

The Gospel.

AFter two dayes was Easter, and the dayes of sweet bread. And the high priests & the scribes sought how they might take him by craft, & put him to death. But they said, Not in the feast day, lest any businesse arise among the people. And when he was in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, even as he sate at meat, there came a woman having an alabaster box of oyntment called Nard, that was pure and costly, Mar.

costly, and she brake the box, & poured it upon his head. And there were some that were not content within themselves, and said, What needed this waste of ointment? for it might have been sold for more then three hundred pence, & have been given to the poor: and they grudged against her. And Jesus said, Let her alone, why trouble ye her? She hath done a good work on me: for ye have the poor with you alwayes, and whensoever ye will, ye may do them good: but me have ye not alwayes. She hath done that she could, she came afore-hand to anoint my body to the burying. Verily, I say unto you, Wheresoever this Gospel shall be preached throwout the whole world, this also that shee hath done, shall be rehearsed in remembrance of her. And Judas Iscariot one of the twelve, went away unto the high priests to betray him unto them. When they heard that, they were glad, and promised that they would give him money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray him. And the first day of sweet bread (when they offered the Passeover) his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we goe and prepare, that thou mayest eat the Passeover? And he sent forth two of his disciples, and said unto them, Go ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water, follow him. And whithersoever he goeth in, say ye unto the goodman of the house, The Master saith, Where is the guest chamber, where I shall eat the Passeover with my disciples? And he will shew you a great parlor paved and prepared, there make ready for us. And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them, and they made ready the passeover. And when it was now eventide, he came with the twelve: and as they sate at board, and did eat, Jesus said, Verily, I say unto you, one of you (that eateth with me) shall betray me. And they began to be sorry, and to say to him one by one, Is it I? And another said, Is it I? He answered red and said unto them, It is one of the twelve, even he that dippeth with me in the platter. The Sonne of man truly goeth as it is written of him: but wo unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed: good were it for that man if he had never been born. And as they did eat, Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks, he brake it and gave to them, and said, Take, eat, this is my body. And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it. And he said unto them, This is my blood of the new Testament, which is shed for many. Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the Kingdome of God. And when they had said grace, they went out to the mount Olivet. And Jesus saith unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, & the sheep shall be scattered: but after that I am risen again, I will go into Galilee before you. Peter said unto him, And though all men be offended, yet will not I. And Jesus saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, that this day, even in this night, before the cock crow twice thou shalt deny me three times. But he spake more vehemently, No, if I should die with thee, I will not deny thee. Likewise also said they all. And they came into a place which was named Gethsemane, & he said to his Disciples, Sit ye here, while I go aside and pray. And he taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and began to wax abashed, & to be in an agony, & said unto them, My soul is heavie even unto the death: tarry ye here and watch. And he went forth a little, and fell down flat on the ground, and prayed, that if it were possible, the hour might passe from him. And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee, take away this cup from me: Nevertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt, be done. And he came and found them sleeping, and saith to Peter, Simon sleepest

sleepest thou? Couldest not thou watch one hour? Watch ye and pray, lest ye fall into temptation: the spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak. And again he went aside and prayed, and spake the same words: And he returned, and found them asleep again, for their eyes were heavie, neither wist they what to answer him. And he came the third time, and said to them, Sleep henceforth, and take your ease it is enough. The hour is come, behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. Rise up, let us go: lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand. And immediately, while he yet spake, cometh Judas (which was one of the twelve) and with him a great number of people, with swords and staves, from the high Priests, and Scribes, and Elders. And he that betrayed him, had given them a generall token, saying, Whomsoever I do kisse, the same is he, take and lead him away warily. And as soon as he was come, he goeth straightway to him, and saith unto him, Master, Master, and kissed him. And they laid their hands on him, and took him. And one of them that stood by, drew out a sword, and smote a servant of the high Priests, and cut off his ear. And Jesus answered, & said unto them, Ye be come out as unto a thief, with swords and staves for to take me: I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and ye took me not: But these things come to passe, that the Scriptures should be fulfilled. And they all forsook him, and ran away. And there followed him a certain young man clothed in linen upon the bare, and the young men caught him, and he left his linen garment, and fled from them naked. And they led Jesus away to the high Priest of all, and with him came all the high Priests, and the Elders, and the Scribes. And Peter followed him a great way off (even till he was come into the Palace of the high Priest) and he sate with the servants, & warmed himself at the fire. And the high Priests and all the Councell sought for witnesse against Jesus to put him to death, and found none: for many bare false witnesse a-gainst him, but their witnesses agreed not together. And there arose certain, and brought false witnesse against him, saying, We heard him say, I wil destroy this Temple that is made with hands, and within three daies I will build another made without hands. But yet their witnesses agreed not together. And the high Priest stood up among them, and asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? How is it that these bear witnes against thee? But he held his peace, and answered nothing. Again the high Priest asked him, and said unto him, Art thou Christ the Sonne of the blessed? And Jesus said, I am: and ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven. Then the high Priest rent his clothes, and said, What need we any further witnesses? Ye have heard blasphemy, what thinke ye? And they all condemned him to be worthy of death. And some began to spit at him, and to cover his face, and to beat him with fists, and to say unto him, Aread. And the servants buffetted him on the face. And as Peter was beneath in the palace, there came one of the wenches of the high Priest, and when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked on him, and said, Wast not thou also with Jesus of Nazareth? And he denied, saying, I know him not, neither wote I what thou sayest. And he went out into the porch, and the Cock crew. And a damosell (when she saw him) began again to say unto them that stood by, This is one of them. And he denied it again. And anon after, they that stood by, said again unto Peter, Surely thou art one of them, for thou art of Galilee, and thy speech agreeth thereto. But he began to curse and to swear, saying, I know not this man of whom ye speak. And again the cock crew. And Peter remembred the word that Jesus had said unto him, Before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me three times: and he began to weep.

The Epistle.

Isay 50. 5. THe Lord God hath opened mine ear, therefore can I not say nay, neither withdraw my self: but I offer my back unto the smiters, and my cheeks to the nippers. I turn not my face from shame and spitting, and the Lord God shall help me, therefore shall I not be confounded. I have hardned my face like a flint stone: for I am sure that I shall not come to confusion. He is at hand that justifieth me: who will then go to law with me? let us stand one against another. If there be any that will reason with me, let him come here forth to me. Behold, the Lord God standeth by me: what is he then that can condemn me? Lo, they shall be like as an old cloth, the moth shall eat them up. Therefore whoso feareth the Lord among you, let him hear the voice of his servant, whoso walketh in darkness and no light shineth upon him, let him put his trust in the Name of the Lord, and hold him up by his God. But take heed, ye all kindle a fire of the wrath of God, and stirre up the coals. Walk on in the glistering of your own fire, and in the coals that ye have kindled. This cometh unto you from my hand, namely, that ye shall sleep in sorrow.

The Gospel.

Mark. 15. 1. AND anon in the dawning, the high Priests held a councell with the Elders, and the Scribes, and the whole Congregation, & bound Jesus, and led him away, and delivered him to Pilate. And Pilate asked him, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answered, and said unto him, Thou sayest it. And the high Priests accused him of many things. So Pilate asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing? Behold how many things they lay to thy charge. Jesus answered yet nothing, so that Pilate marvelled. At that feast Pilate did deliver unto them a prisoner, whomsoever they would desire. And there was one that was named Barabbas, which lay bound with them that made insurrection: he had committed murder. And the people called unto him, and began to desire him that he would do according as he had ever done unto them. Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I let loose unto you the King of the Jews? for he knew that the high Priests had delivered him of envie. But the high Priests moved the people, that he should rather deliver Barabbas unto them. Pilate answered again, and said unto them, What will ye then that I do unto him whom ye call the King of the Jews? And they cryed again, Crucifie him. Pilate said unto them, What evill hath he done? And they cryed the more fervently, Crucifie him. And so Pilate willing to content the people, let loose Barabbas unto them, and delivered up Jesus (when he had scourged him) for to be crucified. And the souldiers led him away into the common Hall, and called together the whole multitude. And they clothed him with purple, and they platted a crown of thorns, and crowned him withall, and began to salute him, Hail King of the Jews. And they smote him on the head with a reed, and did spit upon him, and bowed their knees, and worshipped him. And when they had mocked him, they took the purple off him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucifie him. And they compelled one that passed by, called Simon of Cyrene (the father of Alexander and Rufus) which came out of the field, to bear his crosse. And they brought him to a place named Golgotha (which if a man interpret, is, The place of dead mens skulls) And they gave him to drink wine mingled with myrrhe: but he received it not. And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take. And it was about the third hour, and they crucified him, and the title of his cause was written, The King of the Jews. And they crucified with him two theeves, the one on his right hand, and the other on his left: and the Scripture was fulfilled, which saith, He was counted among the wicked. And they that went by, railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying: Ah, wretch, thou that destroyest the Temple, and buildest it again in three dayes, save thy self, and come down from the Crosse. Likewise also mocked him the high Priests among themselves, with the Scribes, and said, He saved other men, himself he cannot save. Let Christ the King of Israel descend now from the crosse, that we may see, and beleeve: And they that were crucified with him, checked him also. And when the sixth houre was come, darknesse arose over all the earth, untill the ninth houre. And at the ninth houre, Jesus cryed with a loud voyce, saying, Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani, Which is (if one interpret it) My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? and some of them that stood by, when they heard that, said, Behold, he calleth for Elias. And one ran, and filled a sponge full of vineger, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink, saying, Let him alone, let us see whether Elias will come and take him down. But Jesus cryed with a loud voyce, and gave up the Ghost. And the vail of the Temple rent in two pieces from the top to the bottome. And when the Centurion, which stood before him, saw that he so cryed and gave up the Ghost, he said, Truly, this man was the Son of God. There were also women a good way off, beholding him: among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the little, and of Joses, and Mary Salome (which also when he was in Galilee, had followed him, and ministred unto him) and many other women which came up with him to Jerusalem. And now when the Even was come, (because it was the day of preparing that goeth before the Sabbath) Joseph of the citie of Arimathea, a noble Counsellour, which also looked for the kingdom of God, came and went in boldly unto Pilate, and begged of him the bodie of Jesus. And Pilate marvelled that he was already dead, and called unto him the Centurion, and asked of him whether he had been any whyle dead. And when he knew the truth of the Centurion, he gave the body to Joseph. And he bought a linen cloth, and took him down, and wrapped him in the linen cloth, and laid him in a Sepulchre that was hewen out of a rock, and rolled a stone before the doore of the Sepulchre. And Mary Magdalene, and Mary Joses beheld where he was laid.

The Epistle.

WHereas is a Testament, there must also of ne- Heb. 9. 16.
cessitie be the death of him that maketh the Testament. For the Testament taketh authoritie when men are dead. For it is yet of no value as long as he that maketh the Testament is alive. For which cause also neither the first Testament was ordained without bloud. For when Moses had declared all the Commandments to all the people according to the Law, he took the bloud of calves, and of goats, with water and purple wooll, and hysope, and sprinkled both the booke and all the people, saying, This is the bloud of the Testament, which God hath appointed unto you. Moreover he sprinkled the Tabernacle with bloud also, and all the ministring vessels. And almost all things are by the Law purged with bloud, and without shedding of bloud is no remission. It is need then that the similitudes of heavenly things be purified with such things, but that the heavenly things themselves be purified with better sacrifices then are those. For Christ is not entred into the holy places that are made with hands (which are similitudes of true things) but is entred into very heaven, for to appear now in the sight of God for us: not to offer himself often, as the high Priest entreth into the holy place every yeer with strange bloud (for then he must have often suffered since the world began:) but now in the end of the world hath he appeared once to put sin to flight, by the offering up of himself. And as it is appointed unto all men that they shall once die, and then cometh the judgement: even so Christ was once offered, to take away the sins of many, and unto them that look for him, shall he appear again without sin unto salvation.

The Gospel.

Luke 22.1. THe feast of sweet bread drew nigh, which is called Easter, and the high Priests and Scribes sought how they might kill him, for they feared the people. Then entred Satan into Judas, whose surname was Iscariot, which was of the number of the twelve, and he went his way, and communed with the high Priests and Officers, how he might betray him unto them. And they were glad, and promised to give him money. And he consented, and sought opportunitie to betray him unto them, when the people were away. Then came the day of sweet bread, when of necessitie the Passeover must be offered. And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go, and prepare us the Passeover, that we may eat it. They said unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare? And he said unto them, Behold, when ye enter into the citie, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water, him follow into the same house that he entreth in; and ye shall say unto the good man of the house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the guest chamber, where I may eat the Passeover with my Disciples? And he shall shew you a great parlour paved, there make ready. And they went and found as he had said unto them, and they made ready the Passeover. And when the houre was come, he sate down, and the twelve apostles with him.

And

And he said unto them, I have inwardly desired to eat this Passeover with you before that I suffer. For I say unto you, Henceforth will I not eat of it any more, until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God. And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among you: for I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God come. And he took bread, and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and gave it unto them, saying, This is my body, which is given for you: this do in the remembrance of me. Likewise also when he had supped, he took the cup, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you. Yet behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me, is with me on the table. And truly the sonne of man goeth as it is appointed: but wo unto that man by whom he is betrayed. And they began to enquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do it. And there was a strife among them, which of them should seem to be the greatest. And he said unto them, The kings of nations reign over them, and they that have authoritie over them are called gracious: but ye shall not so be. But he that is greatest among you, shall be as the younger: and he that is chief, shall be as he that doth minister. For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? Is not he that sitteth at meat? But I am among you as he that ministreth. Ye are they which have abidden with me in my temptations. And I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed to me, that ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, & sit on seats, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired to sift you, as it were wheat: but I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren. And he said unto him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee into prison, and to death. And he said, I tell thee Peter, the Cock shall not crow this day, till thou have denied thrice that thou knowest me. And he said unto them, When I sent you without wallet, and scrip, and shoes, lacked you any thing? and they said, No. Then said he unto them, But now he that hath a wallet, let him take it up, and likewise his scrip, and he that hath no sword, let him sell his coat and buy one. For I say unto you, that yet the same which is written, must be performed in me; Even among the wicked was he reputed: for those things which are written of me, have an end. And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords. And he said unto them, It is enough. And he came out, and went, (as he was wont) to mount Olivet. And the disciples followed him: and when he came to the place, he said unto them, Pray, lest ye fall into temptation. And he got himself from them about a stones cast, and kneeled down and prayed, saying, Father, if thou wilt, remove this cup from me, nevertheless, not my will, but thine be fulfilled. And there appeared an angel unto him from heaven, comforting him. And he was in an agony, and prayed the longer, and his sweat was like drops of blood trickling down to the ground. And when he arose from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for heaviness, and he said unto them, Why sleep ye? Arise, and pray, lest ye fall into temptation. While he yet spake, behold, there came a company, and he that was called Judas one of the twelve, went before them, and preassed nigh unto Jesus, to kisse him. But Jesus said unto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kisse? When they which were about him saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall we smite with the sword? and one of them smote a servant of the high priests, and strook off his right ear. Jesus answered, and said, Suffer ye thus far forth. And when he touched his ear, he healed him. Then Jesus said unto the high priests and rulers of the temple, and the elders which were come to him, Ye be come out as unto a thief with swords and staves. When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me, but this is even your very hour, and the power of darkness. Then took they him, and led him, and brought him to the high priests house. But Peter followed afar off. And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the palace, and were set down together, Peter also sate down among them. But when one of the wenches beheld him as he sate by the fire, and looked upon him, she said, This same fellow was also with him. And he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not. And after a little while another saw him, and said, Thou art also one of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not. And about the space of an hour after, another affirmed, saying, Verily this fellow was with him also, for he is of Galilee. And Peter said, Man, I wot not what thou sayest. And immediately while he yet spake, the cock crew. And the Lord turned back, and looked upon Peter, and Peter remembred the word of the Lord, how he had said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt denie me thrice: and Peter went out, and wept bitterly. And the men that took Jesus, mocked him, and smote him: and when they had blindefolded him, they strook him on the face, and asked him, saying; Aread, who is he that smote thee? And many other things despitefully said they against him. And assoon as it was day, the elders of the people, and the high priests and scribes came together, and led him into their counsell, saying, Art thou the Christ? Tell us. And he said unto them, If I tell you, ye will not believe me: and if I ask you, you will not answer, nor let me go. Hereafter shall the Son of man sit on the right hand of the power of God. Then said they all, Art thou then the Son of God? He said, Ye say that I am. And they said, What need we of any further witnesse? For we our selves have heard of his own mouth.

The Epistle.

1 Cor. 11.

THis I warn you of, and commend not, that ye come not together after a better manner, but after a worse. For first of all, when ye come together in the congregation, I hear that there is dissention among you, and I partly believe it. For there must be sects among you, that they which are perfect among you may be known. When ye come together therefore into one place, the Lords supper cannot be eaten, for every man beginneth afore to eat his own supper, and one is hungry, and another is drunken. Have ye not houses to eat and drink in? Despise ye the congregation of God, and shame them that have not? What shall I say unto you? Shall I praise you? In this I praise you not. That which I delivered unto you, I received of the Lord. For the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed, took bread, and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take ye and eat, this is my body, which is broken for you: This do ye in the remembrance of me. After the same manner also he took the cup when Supper was done, saying, This cup is the new Testament in my blood: This do, as oft as ye drink it in remembrance of me. For as often as ye shall eat this bread, and drink of this cup, ye shall shew the Lords death till he come. Wherefore whosoever shall eat of this bread, and drink of this cup of the Lord unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord. But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of the bread, and drink of the cup. For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh his own damnation, because he maketh no difference of the Lords body. For this cause many are weak and sick among you, and many sleep. For if we had judged our selves, we should not have been judged. But when we are judged of the Lord, we are chastened, that that we should not be damned with the world. Wherefore my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another. If any man hunger, let him eat at home, that ye come not together unto condemnation. Other things will I set in order when I come.

The Gospel.

THe whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pilate. And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this fellow perverting the people, and forbidding to pay tribute to Cesar, saying, that he is Christ a king. And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the king of the Jews? He answered him and said, Thou sayest it. Then said Pilate to the high Priests and to the people, I finde no fault in this man. And they were the more fierce, saying, He moveth the people, teaching thorow all Jury, and began at Galilee, even to this place. When Pilate heard mention of Galilee, he asked whether the man were of Galilee. And assoon as he knew that he belonged unto Herods jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, which was also at Jerusalem at that time. And when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad: for he was desirous to see him of a long season, because he had heard many things of him, and he trusted to have seen some miracles done by him. Then he questioned with him many words: but he answered him nothing. The high Priests and Scribes stood forth, and accused him straitly. And Herod with his men of war despised him. And when he had mocked him, he arayed him in white clothing, and sent him again to Pilate. And the same day Pilate and Herod were made friends together: for before they were at variance. And Pilate called together the high Priests, and the Rulers, and the people, and said unto them, Ye have brought this man unto me, as one that perverteth the people, and behold, I examine him before you, and finde no fault in this man of those things wherof ye accuse Luke 23.

accuse him, no not yet Herod. For I sent you unto him, and lo, nothing worthy of death is done unto him: I will therefore chasten him, and let him loose. For of necessitie he must have let one loose to them at that feast. And all the people cryed at once saying, Away with him, and deliver us Barabbas (which for a certain insurrection made in the citie, and for a murder, was cast into prison) Pilate spake again unto them, willing to let Jesus loose. But they cryed saying, Crucifie him, crucifie him. He said unto them the third time, What evill hath he done? I finde no cause of death in him: I will therefore chasten him, and let him go. And they cryed with loud voyces, requiring that he might be crucified: And the voyces of them, and of the high priests prevailed. And Pilate gave sentence that it should be as they required: and he let loose unto them him that for insurrection and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired. And he delivered to them Jesus, to do with him what they would. And as they led him away, they caught one Simon of Cyrene coming out of the field, and on him laid they the crosse, that he might bear it after Jesus. And there followed him a great company of people, and of women which bewailed and lamented him. But Jesus turned back unto them, and said, Ye daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for your selves, and for your children: For behold, the dayes will come, in the which they shall say, Happy are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck. Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us: and to the hills, Cover us. For if they do this in a green tree, what shall be done in the drie? And there were two evill doers led with him to be slain. And after that they were come to the place which is called Calvarie, there they crucified him, and the evill doers, one on the right hand, and the other on the left. Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them, for they, wot not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and caſt lots: and the people ſtood and beheld. And the rulers mocked him with them, ſaying, He ſaved other men, let him ſave himſelf, if he be very Chriſt the choſen of God. The ſouldiers alſo mocked him, and came and offered him vineger, and ſaid, If thou be the king of the Jews, ſave thy ſelf. And a ſuperſcription was written over him with letters of Greek, and Latine, and Hebrew, This is the king of the Jews. And one of the evill doers which were hanged, railed on him, ſaying, If thou be Chriſt, ſave thy ſelf and us. But the other anſwered, and rebuked him, ſaying, Feareſt not thou God, ſeeing thou art in the ſame damnation? We are righteouſly punished, for we receive according to our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiſſe. And he ſaid unto Jeſus, Lord, remember me when thou comeſt into thy kingdom. And Jeſus ſaid unto him, Verily I ſay unto thee, To day ſhalt thou be with me in Paradiſe. And it was about the ſixth hour: and there was a darkneſſe over all the earth, until the ninth hour, and the ſun was darkned, and the veil of the temple did rend even thorow the midſt. And when Jeſus had cryed with a loud voyce, he ſaid, Father into thine hands I commend my Spirit. And when he had thus ſaid, he gave up the ghoſt. When the centurion ſaw what had happened, he glorified God, ſaying, Verily this was a righteous man. And all the people that came together to that ſight, and ſaw the things which had happened, ſmote their breaſts, and returned. And all his acquaintance, and the women that followed him from Galilee, ſtood afar off beholding theſe things. And behold, there was a man named Joſeph, a counſeller, and he was a good man and a juſt: the ſame had not conſented to the counſel, and deed of them, which was of Arimathea, a citie of the Jews, which ſame alſo waited for the kingdom of God: he went unto Pilate and begged the body of Jeſus, and took it down, and wrapped ped it in a linnen cloth, and laid it in a sepulchre, that was hewen in stone, wherein never man before had been laid. And that day was the preparing of the sabbath, and the sabbath drew on. The women that followed after, which had come with him from Galilee, beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was laid. And they returned, and prepared sweet odours, and ointment: but rested on the sabbath day according to the commandment.

On good Friday.

The Collect.

ALmightie God, we beseech thee graciously to behold this thy family, for the which our Lord Jesus Christ was contented to be betrayed, and given up into the hands of wicked men, and to suffer death upon the crosse, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the holy Ghost, now and for ever. Amen.

ALmighty & everlasting God, by whose spirit & whole body of the Church is governed, & sanctified: receive our supplications & prayers, which we offer before thee for all estates of men in thy holy congregation, that every member of the same in his vocation & ministery, may truly and godly serve thee, through our Lord Jesus Christ.

MErciful God, who hast made all men, and hatest nothing that thou hast made, nor wouldst the death of a sinner, but rather that he should be converted and live: have mercy upon all Jews, Turks, Infidels, and Hereticks, and take from them all ignorance, hardnes of heart, and contempt of thy word: & fetch them home, blessed Lord, to thy flock, that they may be saved among the remnant of the true Israelites, & be made one fold under one shepherd Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth & reigneth, &c.

The Epistle.

Heb. 10. 1. FOr the Law (which hath but a shadow of good things to come, and not the very fashion of the things themselves) can never with those sacrifices which they offer year by year continually, make make the comers thereunto perfect. For would not then those sacrifices have ceased to have been offered, because that the offerers once purged, should have had no more conscience of sins? Nevertheless, in those sacrifices is there mention made of sins every yeer. For the bloud of Oxen and Goats cannot take away sins. Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and Offering thou wouldst not have, but a body hast thou ordained me. Burnt offerings also for sin hast thou not allowed. Then said I, Lo, I am here. In the beginning of the book it is written of me, that I should do thy will, O God. Above when he saith, Sacrifice and offering, and burnt sacrifices, and sin offerings thou wouldest not have, neither hast thou allowed them (which yet are offered by the law:) then said he, Lo, I am here to do thy will, O God: he taketh away the first, to establish the latter. By the which will we are made holy, even by the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. And every Priest is ready daily ministering, and offering often times one manner of oblation, which can never take away sins. But this man after he had offered one sacrifice for sins, is set down for ever on the right hand of God, and from henceforth tarrieth till his foes be made his footstool. For with one offering hath he made perfect for ever them that are sanctified. The holy Ghost himself also beareth us record, even when he told before, This is the Testament that I will make unto them: After those dayes (saith the Lord) I will put my Laws in their hearts, and in their mindes will I write them, and their sins and iniquities will I remember no more. And where remission of these things is, there is no more offering for sins. Seeing therefore, brethren, that by the means of the bloud of Jesus, we have liberty to enter into the holy place by the new and living way, which he hath prepared for us through the vail, (that is to say) by his flesh: and seeing also that we have an high Priest, which is ruler over

ober the houſe of God, let us draw nigh with a true heart in a ſure faith, ſprinkled in our hearts from an evil conſcience, and waſhed in our bodies with pure water. Let us kepe the profeſſion of our hope without wavering, (for he is faithfull that promiſed) and let us conſider one another, to the intent that we may provoke unto love, and to good workes, not forſaking the fellowſhip that we have among our ſelves, as the manner of ſome is: but let us exhort one another, and that ſo much the more, becauſe ye ſee that the day draweth nigh.

The Goſpel.

John 18.1. When Jeſus had ſpoken theſe words, he went forth with his diſciples over the brook Cedron, where was a Garden, into the which he then entred with his diſciples. Judas alſo which betrayed him, knew the place: for Jeſus oft times reſorted thither with his diſciples. Judas then (after he had received a band of men, and miniſters of the high Prieſts and phariſees) came thither with lanterns, & firebrands, and weapons. And Jeſus knowing all things that ſhould come on him, went forth and ſaid unto them, Whom ſeek ye? They anſwered him, Jeſus of Nazareth. Jeſus ſaid unto them, I am he. Judas alſo which betrayed him, ſtood with them. Aſſoon thē as he had ſaid unto them, I am he, they went backward, & fell to the ground. Then aſked he them again, Whom ſeek ye? they ſaid, Jeſus of Nazareth. Jeſus anſwered, I have told you that I am he: if ye ſeek me therefore, let theſe go their way, that the ſaying might be fulfilled which he ſpake, Of them which thou gaveſt me, have I not loſt one. Then Simon Peter having a ſword, drew it, and ſmote the high Prieſts ſervant, & cut off his right ear. The ſervants name was Malchus. Therefore ſaith Jeſus unto Peter, Put up thy ſword into the ſheath: ſhall I not drink of the cup which my Father hath given me? Then the company, and the captain, & the miniſters of the Jews, took Jeſus and bound him, & led him away to Annas first, for he was father in law to Caiaphas, which was the high priest the same year. Caiaphas was he that gave counsell to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people. And Simon Peter followed Jesus, & so did another disciple: that disciple was known to the high priest, & went in with Jesus into the palace of the high Priest. But Peter stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple (which was known to the high priest) & spake to the damosel that kept the door, & brought in Peter. Then said the damosel that kept the door, unto Peter, Art not thou also one of this mans disciples? He said, I am not. The servants & ministers stood there, which had made a fire of coals, for it was cold, & they warmed themselves. Peter also stood among them, & warmed himself. The high priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, & of his doctrine. Jesus answered him, I spake openly in the world, I ever taught in the Synagogue, and in the temple, whither all the Jews have resorted, and in secret have I spoken nothing. Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I said unto them: Behold, they can tel what I said. When he had thus spoken, one of the ministers which stood by, smote Jesus on the face, saying, Answerest thou the high Priest so? Jesus answered him, If I have evil spoken, bear witnes of the evil: but if I have well spoken, why smitest thou me? And Annas sent him bound unto Caiaphas the high priest. Simon Peter stood & warmed himself. Then said they unto him, Art not thou also one of his Disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not. One of the servants of the high Priest (his cousin whose ear Peter smote off) said unto him, Did not I see thee in the garden with him? Peter therefore denied again: and immediately the cock crew. Then led they Jesus from Caiaphas, into the hall of judgement: it was in the morning, and they themselves went not into the judgement hall, lest they should be defiled, but that they might eat the passeover. Pilate then went out to them, and said, what accusation bring you against this man? They answered and said unto him, If he were not an evill doer, we would not have delivered him unto thee. Then said Pilate unto them, Take ye him, and judge him after your own law. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawfull for us to put any man to death: that the words of Jesus might be fulfilled which he spake, signifying what death he should die. Then Pilate entred into the judgement hall again, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the King of the Jews? Jesus answered, Sayest thou that of thy self, or did other tell it thee of me? Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? thine own nation, and high Priests have delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done? Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world. If my kingdom were of this world, then would my ministers surely fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence. Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a King then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a King. For this cause was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witnesse unto the truth: and all that are of the truth hear my voice. Pilate said unto him, What thing is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and said unto them, I finde in him no cause at all. Ye have a custome, that I should deliver you one loose at Easter: will ye that I loose unto you the King of the Jews? Then cryed they all again, saying, Not him, but Barabbas. The same Barabbas was a murtherer. Then Pilate took Jesus therefore and scourged him: and the souldiers wound a crown of thorns, and put it on his head. And they did on him a purple garment, and came unto him, and said, Hail King of the Jews, and they smote him on the face. Pilate went forth again, and said unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I finde

him

the

no fault in him. Then came Jesus forth, wearing a crown of thorn, and a robe of purple. And he saith unto them, Behold the man. When the high priests therefore, and the ministers saw him, they cried, Crucifie him, crucifie him. Pilate saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucifie him; for I finde no cause in him. The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God. When Pilate heard that saying, he was the more afraid, and went again into the judgement hall, and said unto Jesus, Whence art thou? But Jesus gave him none answer. Then said Pilate unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? Knowest thou not that I have power to crucifie thee, and have power to loose thee? Jesus answered, Thou couldst have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee, hath the more sin. And from thenceforth sought Pilate means to loose him. But the Jews cryed, saying, If thou let him go, thou art not Cesars friend: for whosoever maketh himself a king, is against Cesar. When Pilate heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sate down to give sentence, in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew tongue, Gabbatha. It was the preparing day of Easter, about the sixt hour. And he saith unto the Jews, Behold your King. They cryed, saying, Away with him, away with him, crucifie him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucifie your King? The high Priests answered, We have no king but Cesar. Then delivered he him to them to be crucified. And they took Jesus, and led him away. And he bare his Crosse, and went forth into a place which is called, The place of dead mens scalls, but in Hebrew, Golgotha, where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst. And Pilate wrote a title, and put it upon the Crosse. The writing was Jesus of Nazareth, King of the Jewes. This title read many of the Jews: for the place where Jesus was crucified, was near to the citie, and it was written in Hebrew, Greek, and Latine. Then said the high Priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, King of the Jews: but that he said I am King of the Jews. Pilate answered, What I have written, that I have written. Then the souldiers when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every souldier a part, and also his coat. The coat was without seam, wrought upon throughout. They said therefore among themselves, Let us not divide it, but cast lots for it, who shall have it, that the scripture might be fulfilled, saying, They have parted my rayment among them, and for my coat did they cast lots. And the souldiers did such things indeed. There stood by the Crosse of Jesus, his mother and his mothers sister, Mary the wife of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the Disciple whom he loved, standing, he saith unto his mother, Woman, behold thy son. Then said he to the Disciple, Behold thy mother. And from that hour the Disciple took her for his own. After these things, Jesus knowing that all things were now performed, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, he saith, I thirst. So there stood a vessell by full of vineger: therefore they filled a spunge with vineger, and wound it about with hyssope, and put it to his mouth. Assoon as Jesus then received the vineger, he said, It is finished, and bowed his head, and gave up the ghost. The Jews therefore, because it was the preparing of the Sabbath, that the bodies should not remain upon the Crosse on the Sabbath day, (for that Sabbath day was an high day) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken down. Then came the souldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him. But when they came to Jesus, & saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs: but one of the souldiers with a spear thrust him into the side, and forthwith there came out blood and water. And he that saw it bare record, and his record is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might beleeve also. For these things were done, that the Scripture should be fulfilled, Ye shall not break a bone of him. And again, another Scripture saith, They shall look upon him whom they have pierced. After this, Joseph of Arimathea (which was a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews) besought Pilate that he might take down the body of Jesus. And Pilate gave him licence. He came therefore, and took the body of Jesus. And there came also Nicodemus (which at the beginning came to Jesus by night) and brought of myrrhe and Aloes mingled together, about an hundred pound weight. Then took they the body of Jesus, and wound it in linen clothes with the odours, as the maner of the Jews is to bury. And in ỹ place where he was crucified, there was a garden, and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was never man laid. There laid they Jesus therefore, because of the preparing of the sabbath of the Jews, for the sepulchre was nigh at hand.

The Epistle.

IT is better (if the wil of God be so) that ye suffer for well doing, then for evil doing, forasmuch as Christ hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, to bring us to God, & was killed, as pertaining to the flesh, but was quickned in the Spirit. In which Spirit he also went and preached to the spirits that were in prison, which sometime had been disobedient, when the long suffering of God was once looked for in the dayes of Noe, while the Ark was a preparing: wherein a few, that is to say, eight souls were saved by the water, like as baptisme also now saveth us: not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but in that a good conscience consenteth to God, by the resurrection of Je- 1. sus Christ, which is on the right hand of God, and is gone into heaue, angels, powers, & mights subdued unto him.

The Gospel

Matt. 27. 57 When the euen was come, there came a rich man of Arimathea named Joseph, which also was Jesus disciple: he went unto Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be deliuered. And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, and laid it in his new tomb, which he had hewen out euen in the rock, and rolled a great stone to the doore of the sepulchre, and departed. And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, sitting ouer against the sepulchre. The next day that followeth the day of preparing, the high priests and pharisees came together unto Pilate, saying, Sir, wee remember that this deceiuer said, while hee was yet aliue, After three daies I will rise again. Command therefore, that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest his disciples come and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: and the last errour shall be worse then the first. Pilate said unto them, Ye have a watch: go your way, make it as sure as yee can. So they went, and made the sepulchre sure with the watchmen, and sealed the stone.

EASTER DAY.

At Morning prayer in stead of the psalm, O come let us, &c. these Anthemes shall be sung or said.

CHrist rising again from the dead, now dieth not. Death from hencefoorth hath no power upon him. For in that he died, he died but once to put away sin: but in that hee liueth, he liueth unto God. And so likewise count yeeselues dead unto sin, but liuing unto God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Christ is risen again the first fruits of them that sleep: for seeing that by man came death, by man also cometh the resurrection of the dead. For as by Adam all men do die: so by Christ all men shall be restored to life.

The Collect.

ALmighty God, which through thy onely begotten Son Jesus Christ hast overcome death, and opened unto us the gate of everlasting life: we humbly beseech thee, that as by thy speciall grace preventing us, thou dost put in our minds good desires: so by thy continuall help, we may bring the same to good effect, through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the holy Ghost, now and ever.

The Epistle.

IF ye be risen again with Christ, seek those things Col. 3. which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affection on heavenly things, and not on earthly things. For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. When soever Christ (which is our life) shall be manifested, then shall ye also appear with him in glory. Mortifie therefore your earthly members, fornication, uncleanness, unnaturall lust, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is worshipping of idols: For which things sake the wrath of God useth to come on the children of unbelief, among whom ye walked sometime, when ye lived in them.

The Gospel.

THe first day of the Sabbath came Mary Magdalene early (when it was yet dark) unto the Sepulchre, & saw the stone taken away from the grave. Then she ran, & came to Simon Peter, & to the other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the grave, & we cannot tell where they have laid him. Peter therefore went forth, & that other disciple, & came unto the Sepulchre. They ran both together, and that other disci- John 20.

disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre. And when he had stouped down, he saw the linen clothes lying, yet went he not in. Then came Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, & saw the linen clothes lie, and the napkin that was about his head not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by it self. Then went in also that other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre; and he saw, and beleeved: for as yet they knew not the Scripture, that hee should rise again from death. Then the disciples went away again to their own home.

The Epistle.

10.34. PEter opened his mouth, & said, Of a truth I perceive that there is no respect of persons with God: but in all people, he that feareth him, and worketh righteousnesse, is accepted with him. Ye know the preaching that God sent unto the children of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ, which is Lord over all things. Which preaching was published throughout all Jury, (and began in Galilee, after the baptisme which John preached) how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the holy Ghost, & with power. Which Jesus went about doing good, & healing al that were oppressed of the devil: for God was with him. And we are witnesses of all things which hee did in the land of the Jews, & at Jerusalem, whom they slew & hanged on tree: Him God raised up ỹ third day, & shewed him openly, not to all the people,

people, but to us witnesses (chosen before of God for the same intent) which did eat & drink with him after he rose from death. And he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testifie, that it is he which was ordained of God to be the judge of the quick & the dead. To him give all the Prophets witnesse, that through his Name, whosoever beleeveth in him shall receive remission of sins.

The Gospel.

BEhold, two of his disciples went that same day to a town called Emmaus, which is from Jerusalem about threescore furlongs, and they talked together of all the things that had happned. And it chanced while they communed together and reasoned, Jesus himself drew near and went with them: But their eyes were holden that they should not know him. And he said unto them, What manner of communications are these that ye have one to another as ye walk, and are sad? And the one of them (whose name was Cleophas) answered and said unto him, Art thou onely a stranger in Jerusalem, and hast not known the things which have chanced there in these dayes? He said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, Of Jesus of Nazareth which was a Prophet, mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, and how the high priests and our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, & have crucified him: but we trusted that it had bin he which should have redeemed Israel. And as touching all these things, to day is even the third day that they were done. Yea, and certain women also of our company made us astonished, which came early unto the Sepulchre, and found not his body, and came, saying, that they had seen a vision of Angels, which said that he was alive. And certain of them which were with us, went to the Sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said, but him they saw not. And he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to beleeve all ỹ the Prophets have spoken. Ought not Christ Luke 24.

to have suffered these things and to enter into his glory? And he began at Moses, and all the Prophets, and interpreted unto them in all Scriptures which were written of him. And they drew nigh unto the town whither they went unto, and he made as though he would have gone further, and they constrained him, saying, Abide with us, for it draweth toward night, and the day is far passed. And he went in to tarry with them. And it came to passe, as he sate at meat with them, hee took bread, & blessed it, and brake, & gave to them. And their eyes were opened, and they knew him: & he vanished out of their sight. And they said betweene themselves, Did not our hearts burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, & opened to us the Scriptures? And they rose up the same houre, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them, saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared unto Simon. And they told what things were done in the way, and how they knew him in breaking of bread.

The Collect.

ALmighty Father, which hast given thine only Son to die for our sinnes, & to rise again for our justification: Grant us so to put away the leaven of malice and wickednesse, that we may alwayes serve thee in pureness of living and truth, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Epistle.

23.26. YE men and brethren, children of the generation of Abraham, and whosoever among you feareth God, to you is this word of salvation sent. For they that dwell at Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor yet the voices of the Prophets which are read every Sabbath day, they have fulfilled them in condemning him. And though they found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate to kill him. And when they had fulfilled all that were written of him, they took him down from the tree, and put him in a sepulchre. But God raised him again from death the third day, & he was seen many days of them which went with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, which are his witnesses unto the people. And we declare unto you, how that the promise which was made unto the fathers, God hath fulfilled unto their children, even unto us, in that he raised up Jesus again, even as it is written in the second Psalm, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee. As concerning that he raised him up from death, now no more to return to corruption, he said on this wise, The holy promises made to David, will I give faithfully unto you. Wherefore he saith also in another place, Thou shalt not suffer thine holy One to see corruption. For David (after that he had in his time fulfilled the will of God) fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers and saw corruption. But he whom God raised again, saw no corruption. Be it known unto you therefore (ye men and brethren) that through this man is preached unto you forgiveness of sins, and that by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses. Beware therefore, lest that fall on you, which is spoken of in the Prophets, Behold ye despisers, and wonder, and perish ye: for I do a work in your days, which ye shall not believe, though a man declare it unto you.

The Gospel.

AND as they thus spake in the midst of his disciples, he said unto them, Peace be unto you. It is I, fear not. But they were abashed and afraid, and supposed that they had seen a spirit. And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled, and why do thoughts arise in your hearts? Behold my hands and my feet, that it is even I my self: handle me, & see: for a spirit hath no flesh and bones, as ye see me have. And when he had thus spo-him, he shewed them his hands & his feet. And while they beleeved not for joy, & wondred, he said unto them, Have ye here any meat? and they offered him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an hony combe. And he took it, and did eat before them. And he said unto them, These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all must be fulfilled which were written of mee in the law of Moses, and in the Prophets, and in the Psalms. Then opened he their wits, that they might understand the Scriptures, and said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise again from death the third day, & that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his Name among all nations, and must begin at Jerusalem. And ye are witnesses of these things.

The Epistle.

1 Joh. 5. 4. ALl that is born of God, overcometh the world. And this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith. Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that beleeveth that Jesus is the Son of God? This Jesus Christ is he that came by water & blood: not by water only, but by water & blood. And it is the spirit that beareth witnes, because the spirit is truth. For there are three which bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, & the holy Ghost: & these three are one. And there are three which bear record in earth, the spirit, & water, and blood, & these three are one. If we receive the witnes of men, the witnesse of God is greater: for this is the witnesse of God, which he testified of his Son. He that beleeveth on the Son of God, hath the witnesse in himself. He that beleeveth not God, hath made him a lyar, because hee beleeveth not the record

1. Pet. 2. 11.

CHriſt ſaid, I am the good ſhepherd. A good ſhepherd giueth his life for the ſheep. An hired ſeruant, and he which is not the ſhepherd (neither the ſheep are his owne) ſeeth the wolfe coming, and leaueth the ſheep and fleeth, and the wolfe catcheth and ſcattereth the ſheep. 1. Pet. 2. 11.

DEarly beloued, I beſeech you, as ſtrangers and pilgrims, abſtain from fleſhly luſts, which fight againſt the ſoul, and ſee that ye haue honeſt converſation among the Gentiles, that whereas they backbite you as euil doers, they may ſee your good workes,

workes, and praise God in the day of visitation. Submit your selves therefore every man for the Lords sake, whether it be unto the king, as unto the chief head, either unto rulers, as unto them that are sent of him for the punishment of evill doers, but for the laud of them that do well. For so is the will of God, that with well doing ye may stop the mouths of foolish and ignorant men, as free, and not as having the liberty for a cloak of maliciousnes, but even as the servants of God. Honour all men: love brotherly fellowship: fear God: honour the King.

The Gospel.

Joh. 16, 16

Jesus said unto his disciples, After a while ye shall not see me, & again after a while ye shall see mee, for I go to the Father. Then said some of his disciples between themselves, what is this that he saith unto us, After a while ye shall not see me, and again, after a while ye shall see mee, and that I go to the Father? They said therefore, what is this that he saith, After a while? wee cannot tell what he saith. Jesus perceived that they would ask him, and said unto them, Yee enquire of this between your selves, because I said, After a while ye shall not see me, and again, After a while ye shall see me. Verily, verily I say unto you, Ye shall weep and lament, but contrariwise, the world shall rejoyce: ye shall sorrow, but your sorrow shall be turned to joy. A woman when she travelleth, hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but assoon as she is delivered of the childe, shee remembreth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world. And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your hearts shall rejoyce, and your joy shall no man take from you.

desire that which thou dost promise, that among the sundry and manifold changes of the world, our hearts may surely there be fixed, whereas true joyes are to be found, through Christ our Lord.

The Epistle.

Iames 1.17 EVery good gift, and every perfect gift is from above, & cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variablenesse, neither shadow of change. Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that wee should be the first fruits of his creatures. Wherefore, dear brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath: for the wrath of man worketh not that which is righteous before God. Wherefore lay apart all filthinesse, and superfluity of maliciousnesse, and receive with meekenesse the word that is grafted in you, which is able to save your soules.

The Gospel.

Iohn 16.5 IEsus said unto his disciples, Now go I my way to him that sent mee, & none of you asketh me whither I go: but because I have said such things unto you, your hearts are full of sorrow. Nevertheles, I tell you the truth, It is expedient for you that I go away. For if I go not away, that Comforter will not come unto you: but if I depart, I will send him unto you. And when he is come, he will rebuke the world of sin, and of righteousnes, & of judgement. Of sin, because they beleeve not on mee: Of righteousnes, because I go to my Father, & ye shall see me no more: Of judgement, because the prince of this world is judged already. I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them away now. Howbeit, when he is come (which is the Spirit of truth) he will lead you into all truth: he shall not speak of himself, but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak, and he will shew you things to come. He shall glorifie me: for he shall receive of mine, & shall shew unto you. All things that the Father hath, are mine: therefore said I unto you, That he shall take of mine, and shew unto you.

The Epistle.

BE ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. James 1.

For if any man hear the word, and declare not the same by his works, he is like unto a man beholding his bodily face in a glasse: for assoon as he hath looked on himself, he goeth his way, and forgetteth immediately what his fashion was. But whoso looketh in the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, (if he be not a forgetfull hearer, but a doer of the work) the same shall be happy in his deed. If any man among you seem to be devout, and refraineth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this mans devotion is in vain. Pure devotion, and undefiled before God the Father is this, To visite the fatherlesse and widows in their adversity, and to keep himself unspotted of the world.

The Gospel.

VErily, verily I say unto you, Whatsoever ye ask the Father in my name, he will give it you. Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name. Ask and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full. These things have I spoken unto you by proverbs. The time will come, when I shall no more speak unto you by proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly from my Father. At that day shall ye ask in my name, and I say not unto you, that I will speak unto my Father for you: for the Joh. 16.

Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have beleeved that I came out from God. I went out from the Father, & came into the world. Again, I leave the world, and go to the Father. His disciples said unto him, Lo, now thou talkest plainly, and speakest no proverb. Now are we sure, that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee any question, therefore beleeve we that thou camest from God. Jesus answered them, Now ye do beleeve: behold, the hour draweth nigh, and is already come, that ye shall be scattered every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet am I not alone, for the Father is with me. These words have I spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace, for in the world shall ye have tribulation: But be of good cheer, I have overcome the world.

The Epistle.

Acts 1.1. IN the former Treatise (dear Theophilus) have we have spoken of all that Jesus began to do and teach, until the day in which he was taken up, after that he through the holy Ghost had given commandments unto the Apostles whom he had chosen, to whom also hee shewed himself alive after his passion (and that by many tokens) appearing unto them fourty dayes, and speaking of the kingdom of God, and gathered them together, and commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the promise of the Father, whereof (saith he) ye have heard of me.

For

for John truly baptized with water, but ye shall be baptized with the holy Ghost, after these few dayes. When they therfore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore again the kingdome to Israel? and he said unto them, It is not for you to know the times or the seasons which the Father hath put in his own power, but ye shall receive power after the holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me, not only in Jerusalem, but also in all Jury, and in Samaria, and even unto the worlds end. And when hee had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up on high, and a cloud received him up out of their sight. And while they looked stedfastly up toward heaven as he went, behold two men stood by them in white apparel, which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand yee gazing up into heaven? This same Jesus which is taken up from you into heaven, shal so come even as ye have seen him go into heaven.

The Gospel.

JEsus appeared unto the eleven, as they sate at meat, and cast in their teeth their unbelief and hardnesse of heart, because they beleeved not them which had seen that hee was risen again from the dead. And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to all creatures: He that beleeveth and is baptized shall be saved: but hee that beleeveth not shall be damned. And these tokens shall follow them that beleeve: In my Name they shall cast out devils, they shall speak with new tongues, they shall drive away serpents, and if they drink any deadly thing, it shal not hurt them, they shall lay their hands on the sick, and they shall recover. So when the Lord had spoken unto them, hee was received into heaven, and is on the right hand of God. And they went forth and preached every where, the Lord working with them and confirming the word with miracles following. Mar. 16. 1.

The Epistle.

WHen the fifty dayes were come to an end, they Acts 2.1. were all with one accord together in one place, and suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as it had been the coming of a mighty winde, and it filled all the house where they sate. And there appeared unto them cloven tongues, like as they had been of fire, and it sate upon each of them, and they were all filled with the holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, even as the same Spirit gave them utterance. There were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation of them that are under heaven. When this was noised about, the multitude came together and were astonied, because that every man heard them speak with his own language. They wondred all, and marvelled, saying among themselves, Behold, are not all these which speak of Galilee? And how hear we every man his own tongue wherin we were born? Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the inhabitants of Mesopotamia, and of Jury, & of Cappadocia, of Pontus, and Asia, Phrygia, and Pamphylia, of Egypt, and of the parts of Libya, which is beside Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Jews and Proselites, Creets, and Arabians, wee have heard them speak in our own tongues the great works of God.

The Gospel.

14.15. JEsus said unto his disciples, If ye love me, keep my commandments, & I wil pray the Father, & he shal give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever, even the Spirit of truth whom the world cannot receive, because the world seeth him not, neither knoweth him. But ye know him, for he dwelleth with you, & shall be in you. I will not leave you comfortlesse, but will come to you. Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more, but ye see me: For I live, & ye shall live. That day shall ye know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. He that hath my Commandments, and keepeth them, the same is he that loveth me, and he that loveth me, shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will shew mine own self unto him. Judas saith unto him, (not Judas Iscariot) Lord, what is done, ỳ thou wilt shew thy self unto us, and not unto the world? Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my sayings, and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and dwell with him. Hee that loveth me not, keepeth not my sayings. And the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Fathers which sent me. These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you: but the Comforter which is the holy Ghost, whom my Father wil send in my Name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you. Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your hearts be grieved, neither fear. Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would verily rejoyce, because I said, I go unto the Father: for the Father is greater then I. And now have I shewed you before it come, that when it is come to passe ye might beleeve. Hereafter will I not talk many words unto you: for the prince of this world would worth, and hath nought in me, but that the world may know that I love the Father. And as the Father gave me commandment, even so do I.

The Epistle.

Acts 10.

Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that there is no respect of persons with God: but in all people, he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness is accepted with him. The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ, which is Lord over all things: which preaching was published throughout all Jury, and began in Galilee, after the baptism which John preached, how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the holy Ghost and with power: Who Jesus went about doing good, & healing all that were oppressed of the devil: for God was with him. And we are witnesses of all things which he did in the land of the Jews, & at Jerusalem: whom they slew, and hanged on a tree: him God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly, not unto all the people, but to us witnesses (chosen before of God) for the same intent) which did eat & drink with him after he arose from death. And he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is he which was ordained of God to be the Judge of the quick & dead. To him give all the Prophets witness, that through his Name, whosoever believeth in him, shall receive remission of sins. While Peter yet spake these words, the holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the preaching. And they of the circumcision which believed, were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was shed out the gift of the holy Ghost: for they heard them speak with tongues, and magnifie God. Then answered Peter, Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the holy Ghost as well as we? And he commanded them to be baptized in the Name of the Lord. Then prayed they him to tarry a few dayes.

The Gospel.

3.16. GOD loved the world, that hee gave his onely begotten Son, that whosoever beleeveth in him, should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through him might be saved. He that beleeveth on him, is not condemned. But he that beleeveth not is condemned already, because he hath not beleeved in the Name of the onely begotten Son of God. And this is the condemnation, that Light is come into the world, and men loved darknesse more then light, because their deeds were evil. For every one that doth evil, hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. But he that doth the truth, cometh to the light, that his deeds may be known, how that they are wrought in God.

The Gospel.

VErily, verily I say unto you, He that entreth not in by the doore into the sheep-fold, but climeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a murderer. But he that entreth in by the doore, is the shepherd of the sheep: to him the porter openeth, and the sheep hear his voice, & he calleth his owne sheep by name, and leadeth them out. And when he hath sent forth his owne sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice. A stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers. This proverb spake Jesus unto them, but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them. Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily I say unto you, I am the doore of the sheep. All, even as many as came before mee, are theeves and murtherers, but the sheep did not hear them. I am the doore, by me if any man enter in, he shall be safe, and shall go in and out, and finde pasture. A thief cometh not but for to steal, kill, and destroy. I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly. John 10

The Epistle.

AFter this I looked, and behold, a doore was open in heaven, and the first voyce which I heard, was as it were of a trumpet talking with mee, which said, Come up hither, and I Revel.

will shew thee things which must be fulfilled hereafter. And immediately I was in the Spirit: and behold, a seat was set in heaven, and one sate on the seat. And he that sate, was to look upon like unto a Jasper stone, and a Sardine stone. And there was a rainbow about the seat, in sight like unto an Emerauld. And about the seat were four and twenty seats: and upon the seats four and twenty Elders sitting, clothed in white raiment, and had on their heads crowns of gold. And out of the seat proceeded lightnings, thunderings, and voices. And there were seven lamps of fire burning before the seat, which are the seven Spirits of God. And before the seat there was a sea of glass like unto Crystall. And in the midst of the seat, and round about the seat, were four beasts full of eyes before and behinde. And the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face like a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle. And the four beasts had each of them six wings about him, and they were full of eyes within. And they rest not day nor night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come. And when those beasts gave glory, and honour, and thanks to him that sate on the throne, (which liveth for ever and ever) the four and twenty Elders fell down before him that sate on the throne, and worshipped him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying, Thou art worthy, O Lord our God, to receive glory, and honour, and power, for thou hast created all things, and for thy will they are, and were created.

The Gospel.

S. I. There was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews. The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Master, we know that thou art a teacher come from God, for no man can do these miracles as thou doest except God were with him. Jesus answered, and said unto him, Verily, verily I say unto thee, Except a man be born from above, he cannot see the kingdom of God. Nicodemus said unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter into his mothers womb and be born again? Jesus answered, Verily, verily I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdome of God. That which is born of the flesh, is flesh: and that which is born of the spirit, is spirit. Marvell not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born anew. The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, nor whither it goeth: So is every one that is born of the Spirit. Nicodemus answered and said unto him, How can these things be? Jesus answered, and said unto him, Art thou a master in Israel, and knowest not these things? Verily, verily I say unto thee, We speak that we know, and testifie that we have seen, and ye receive not our witnesse. If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe if I tell you of heavenly things? And no man ascendeth up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven. And as Moses lifted up the Serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lift up, that whosoever believeth in him, perish not, but have eternall life.

The Epistle.

John 4.7. Dearly beloved, let us love one another, for love commeth of God, and every one that loveth, is born of God, and knoweth God. He that loveth not, knoweth not God: for God is love. In this appeareth the love of God to us-ward, because that God sent his onely begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him. Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that hee loved us, and sent his Son to be the agreement for our sins. Dearly beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also one to love another. No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfect in us. Hereby know we that we dwell in him, & he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit. And we have seen, and do testifie, that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world. Whosoever confesseth that Jesus is the Son of God, in him dwelleth God, and he in God. And we have known & beleeved the love that God hath to us. God is love, and he that dwelleth in love, dwelleth in God, and God in him. Herein is the love perfect in us, that wee should trust in the day of judgement: for as he is, even so are we in this world. There is no fear in love, but perfect love casteth out fear: for fear hath paine. He that feareth, is not perfect in love. We love him, for he loved us first. If any man say, I love God, & yet hateth his brother, he is a lyar. For how can he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, love God whom he hath not seen? And this Commandment have we of him, that he which loveth God, should love his brother also.

The Gospel.

Luke 16.19. There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine white, and fared deliciously every day. And there was a certain begger named Lazarus, which lay at his gate full of sores, desiring to be refreshed with the crumbs which fell from the rich mans board, and no man gave unto him: the dogs came also and licked his sores. And it fortuned that the begger died, and was carried by the angels into Abrahams bosome. The rich man also died and was buried. And being in hell in torments, hee lift up his eyes, and saw Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosome, and he cryed, and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue, for I am tormented in this flame. But Abraham said, Sonn, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy pleasure, and contrariwise, Lazarus received pain: but now hee is comforted, and thou art punished. Beyond all this, betweene us and you there is a great space set, so that they which would go from hence to you, cannot, neither may come from thence to us. Then he said, I pray thee therefore father, send him to my fathers house (for I have five brethren) for to warn them, lest they come also into this place of torment. Abraham said unto him, They have Moses and the Prophets, let them hear them. And he said, Nay, father Abraham, but if one come unto them from the dead, they will repent. He said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the Prophets, neither will they believe, though one rise from death again.

Joh. 3. 13 Marvell not (my brethren) though the world hate you. We know that we are translated from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death. Whosoever hateth his brother, is a man-slayer. And ye know that no man-slayer hath eternal life abiding in him. Hereby perceive we the love, because he laid his life for us, and we ought to lay our lives for the brethren. But whoso hath this worlds good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him? My babes, let us not love in word, neither in tongue, but in deed, and verity. Hereby we know that we are of the verity, and can quiet our hearts before him. For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things. Dearly beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we trust to God-ward: and whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his Commandments, and do such things as are pleasant in his sight. And this is his Commandment, that we believe on the Name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave commandment. And he that keepeth his Commandments, dwelleth in him, and he in him: and hereby we know that he abideth in us, even by the Spirit which he hath given us.

But he put forth this parable unto them, ſaying, What man among you, having an hundred sheep, (if he loſe one of them) doth not leave ninety and nine in the wildernesse, and goeth after that which is loſt, untill he finde it? And when hee hath found it, hee layeth it on his ſhoulders with joy, and aſſoon as he cometh home, he calleth together his lovers and neighbours, ſaying unto them, Rejoyce with me, for I have found my sheep which was loſt. The Epistle.

I Suppose that the afflictions of this life are not worthy of the glory which shall be shewed upon us. For the fervent desire of the creature abideth, looking when ỹ sons of God shall appear, because the creature is subdued to vanity against the will thereof, but for his will which hath subdued the same in hope. For the same creature shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption, into the glorious liberty of the sons of God. For we know that every creature groaneth with us also, and travelleth in pain, even unto this time: not onely it, but we also which have the first fruits of the Spirit, mourn in our selves also, and wait for the adoption of the children of God, even the deliverance of our bodies. Rom. 8. 1

The Gospel.

BE ye merciful as your Father also is merciful. Judge not, and ye shall not be judged. Condemn not, and ye shal not be condemned. Forgive, and ye shall be forgiven. Give, and it shall be given unto you, good measure, and pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosomes. For with the same measure that ye mete withall, shall other men mete to you again. And he put forth a similitude unto them, Can the blinde lead the blinde? Do they not both fall into the ditch? The disciple is not above his master. Every man shall be perfect, even as his master is. Why seest thou a mote in thy brothers eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou seest not the beam that is in thine own eye? First, thou hypocrite, cast out the beam out of thine own eye, then shalt thou see perfectly to pull out the mote that is in thy brothers eye. Luke 6. 3

1. Pet. 3. 8. BE ye all of one minde, and of one heart, loue as brethren, be pitifull, be courteous, meek, not rendring euill for euill, or rebuke for rebuke: but contrariwise blesse, knowing that ye are thereunto called euen that ye should be heirs of the blessing. For he that doth long after life, and loueth to see good dayes, let him refrain his tongue from euill, and his lips that they speak no guile. Let him eschew euill, and do good, let him seek peace, and ensue it. For the eyes of the Lord are ouer the righteous, and his eares are open unto their prayers. Again, the face of the Lord is ouer them that do euill. Moreouer, who is he that will harm you, if ye follow that which is good? Yea, happy are ye if any trouble happen unto you for righteousnes sake. Be not ye afraid for any terrour of them, neither be ye troubled: but sanctifie the Lord God in your hearts.

The Gospel.

Luke 5. 1. IT came to passe that when the people preassed upon him, to heare the word of God, he stood by the lake of Genezareth, and saw two ships stand by the lakes side, but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets. And he entred into one of the ships (which pertained to Simon) and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sate down, and taught the people out of the ship. When he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, Launch out into the deep, & let slip your nets to make a draught. And Simon answered, and said unto him, Master, we haue laboured all night, and haue taken nothing: Nevertheless, at thy commandment, I will loose forth the net.

And

And when they had so done, they enclosed a great multitude of fishes. But their net brake, and they beckned to their fellows, which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them. And they came and filled both ships, that they sunk again. When Simon Peter saw this, hee fell down at Jesus knees, saying, Lord, go from me, for I am a sinfull man. For he was astonied, & all that were with him, at the draught of fishes which they had taken: & so was also James and John the sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not, from henceforth thou shalt catch men. And they brought the ships to land, and forsook all, and followed him.

Rom.6. KNow ye not, that all wee which are baptized in Jesus Christ, are baptized to die with him? wee are buried then with him by baptisme for to die, that likewise as Christ was raised from death by the glory of the Father, even so wee also should walk in a new life. For if wee be grafted in death like unto him, even so shall wee be partakers of his holy resurrection: knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him also, that the body of sin might utterly be destroyed, that henceforth we should not be servants unto sin. For hee that is dead, is justified from sin. Wherefore if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him: knowing that Christ being raised from death, dieth no more, death hath no more power over him. For as touching that he died, he died concerning sin once: and as touching that he liveth, he liveth unto God. Likewise consider ye also, that ye are dead as touching sin, but are alive unto God, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Gospel.

Matth. 20. JEsus said unto his disciples, except your righteousnesse exceed the righteousnes of the Scribes and Pharisees, ye cannot enter into the kingdome of heaven. Ye have heard that it was said unto them of old time, Thou shalt not kill: whosoever killeth, shall be in danger of judgement. But I say unto you, that whosoever is angry with his brother unadvisedly, shall be in danger of judgement. And whosoever saith unto his brother, Racha, shall be in danger of a Councel. But whosoever saith, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire. Therefore, if thou offerest thy gift at the altar, and there remembrest that thy brother hath ought against thee, leave there thine offering before the altar, & go thy way first, and be reconciled to thy brother, and then come, & offer thy gift. Agree with thine adversary quickly, whiles thou art in the way with him, lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the Judge, and the Judge deliver thee to the minister, and then thou be cast into prison. Verily, I say unto thee, Thou shalt not come out thence till thou hast payed the utmost farthing.

IN those dayes when there was a very great company, and had nothing to eat. Jesus called his disciples unto him, & said unto them, I have compassion on the people, because they have been now with mee three dayes, and have nothing to eat, and if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they shall faint by the way: for divers of them came from far. And his disciples answered him, Where should a man have bread here in the wildernesse to satisfie these? And he asked them, how many loaves have ye? they said, Seven. And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground. And he took the seven loaves, and when he had given thanks, he brake and gave to his disciples to set before them: and they did set them before the people. And they had a few small fishes: and when he had blessed, hee commanded them also to be set before them. And they did eat, and were sufficed. And they took up of the broken meat that was left, seven baskets full. And they that did eat, were about four thousand. And he sent them away. Mark 8.1.

how ỹ our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed thorow the sea, and were all baptized under Moses in the cloud, and in the sea, and did all eat of one spirituall meat, and did all drink of one spirituall drink: and they drank of the spirituall rock that followed them, which rock was Christ. But in many of them had God no delight: for they were overthrown in the wildernesse. These are ensamples to us, that we should not lust after evill things as they lusted: and that we should not be worshippers of images, as were some of them, according as it is written: The people sate down to eat and drink, and rose up to play. Neither let us be defiled with fornication, as some of them were defiled with fornication, and fell in one day three & twenty thousand. Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them tempted, and were destroyed of serpents. Neither murmure ye, as some of them murmured, and were destroyed of the destroier. All these things happed unto them for ensamples: but are written to put us in remembrance, whō the ends of the world are come upon. Wherfore let him that thinketh he standeth, take heed lest he fall. to beg I am ashamed. I wote what to do, that when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses. So when he had called all his masters debtors together, hee said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my master? and he said, An hundred tuns of oyl. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty. Then said he to another, How much owest thou? And he said, An hundred quarters of wheat. He said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore. And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely. 1 Cor. 12. 1 CONcerning spirituall things, brethren, I would not have you ignorant. Ye know that ye were Gentiles, and went your wayes unto dumb images, even as ye were led. Wherefore I declare unto you, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God defileth Jesus. Also, no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the holy Ghost. There are diversities of gifts, yet but one Spirit. And there are differences of administrations, and yet but one Lord. And there are diverse manners of operations, and yet but one God, which worketh all in all. The gift of the Spirit is given to every man to edifie withall. For to one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, to another is given the utterance of knowledge by the same Spirit, to another is given faith by the same Spirit, to another the gift of healing by the same Spirit, to another power to do miracles, to another to prophesie, to another judgement to discern spirits, to another divers tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues: and these all worketh the self same Spirit, dividing to every man a severall gift, even as he will.

ner I preached unto you, if ye keep it, except ye have beleeved in vain. For first of all I delivered unto you that which I received, how that Christ died for our sins, agreeing to the Scriptures: and that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day, according to the Scriptures, and that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve: after that, he was seen of more then five hundred brethren at once, of which many remain unto this day, and many are fallen asleep. After that appeared he to James, then to all the Apostles, and last of all he was seen of mee, as of one that was born out of due time: for I am the least of the Apostles, which am not worthy to be called an Apostle, because I have persecuted the Congregation of God. But by the grace of God, I am that I am: and his grace which is in me, was not in vain. But I laboured more abundantly then they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which is with mee. Therefore whether it were I, or they, so we preached, and so ye have beleeved.

Luk. 18.9. Christ told this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were perfect, and despised other. Two men went up into the Temple to pray, the one a Pharisee, and the other a Publicane. The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself: God I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or as this Publicane. I fast twice in the week, I give tithe of all that I possesse. And the Publicane standing afar off, would not lift up his eyes to heaven, but smote his breast, saying, God be mercifull to me a sinner. I tell you, this man departed home to his house, justified more then the other. For every man that exalteth himself, shall be brought lowe: and he that humbleth himself, shall be exalted.

If the ministration of death, through the letters figured in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance (which glory is done away:) why shal not the ministration of the Spirit be much more glorious? The Epistle.

Gal. 3. 16. TO Abraham & his seed were the promises made. He saith not, In his seeds, as of many: but, In thy seed, as of one, which is Christ. This I say, that the Law, which began afterward beyond four hundred and thirty yeers, doth not disanull the Testament that was confirmed afore of God unto Christ-ward, to make the promise of none effect. For if the inheritance come of the law, it cometh not now of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise. Wherefore then serveth the law? the law was added because of transgression (till the seed came, to whom the promise was made) and it was ordained by angels in the hand of a Mediatour. A Mediatour is not a Mediatour of one: but God is one. Is the Law then against the promise of God? God forbid. For if there had been a law given which could have given life, then no doubt righteousnesse should have come by the law. But the Scripture concludeth all things under sin, that the promise by the faith of Jesus Christ should be given to them that beleeve.

These are contrary one to the other, so that yee cannot do whatsoever ye would. But & if ye be led of the Spirit, then are yee not under the law. The deedes of the flesh are manifest, which are these: adultery, fornication, uncleannesse, wantonnesse, worshipping of images, witchcraft, hatred, variance, zeal, wrath, strife, seditions, sects, envying, murder, drunkennesse, gluttony, and such like, of the which I tell you before, as I have told you in times past, that they which commit such things, shall not be inheritours of the kingdom of God. Contrarily, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long suffering, gentlenesse, goodnesse, faithfulnesse, meekenesse, temperance: against such there is no law. They truly that are Christs, have crucified the flesh, with the affections and lusts.

And one of them when he saw that he was cleansed, turned back again, and with a loud voice praised God, and fell down on his face at his feet, and gave him thanks, and the same was a Samaritane. And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not. And he came nigh, and touched the coffin: and they that bare him, stood still. And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, Arise. And he that was dead, sat up, and began to speak. And he delivered him to his mother. And there came a fear on them all, and they gave the glory unto God, saying, A great Prophet is risen up among us, and GOD hath visited his people. And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Jury, and throughout all the regions which lie round about. Luke 7. 11

Ephes. 4. 1. I (which am a prisoner of the Lords) exhort you, that yee walk worthy of the vocation, wherewith yee are called, with all lowlinesse and meekenesse, with humblenesse of minde, forbearing one another through love, and be diligent to keep the unity of the Spirit, through the bond of peace, being one body and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling. Let there be but one Lord, one Faith, one Baptisme, one God and Father of all, which is above all, and through all, and in you all.

The Gospel.

Luke 14. 1. IT chanced that Jesus went into the house of one of the chief Pharisees, to eat bread on the sabbath day, & they watched him. And behold, there was a certain man before him which had the dropsie. And Jesus answered & spake unto the Lawyers and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawfull to heal on the Sabbath day? And they held their peace. And hee took him, and healed him, and let him go, and answered them, saying, Which of you shall have an asse, or an ox fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on the Sabbath day? And they could not answer him again to these things. Hee put forth also a similitude to the guests, when he marked how they prefered to be in the highest rooms, and said unto them, When thou art bidden to a wedding of any man, sit not down in the highest room, lest a more honourable man then thou be bidden of him, and hee that bade him and thee, come and say to thee, Give this man room, and thou begin with shame to take the lowest room. But rather when thou art bidden, go and sit in the lowest room, that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, sit up higher: then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee. For whosoever exalteth himself shall be brought low, and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

The Gospel.

WHen the Pharisees had heard that Jesus had put the Sadducees to silence, they came together, and one of them (which was a doctour of the law) asked him a question, tempting him, and saying, Master, which is the greatest commandement in the law? Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy minde, This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy self. In these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets. While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them, saying, What think ye of Christ? whose Son is he? They said unto him, The Son of David. He said unto them, How then doth David in spirit call him Lord, saying, The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool? If David then call him Lord, how is he then his sonne? Mat.22.5

The Epiſtle.

THis I ſay, and teſtifie through the Lord, that yee henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in vanity of their minde, while they are blinded in their underſtanding, being far from a godly life, by the means of the ignorance that is in them, and becauſe of the blindneſſe of their hearts: which being paſt repentance, have given themſelves over unto wantonneſſe, to work all manner of uncleanneſſe, even with greedineſſe. But ye have not ſo learned Chriſt: if ſo be that ye have heard him, and have been taught in him, as the truth is in Jeſu (as concerning the converſation in times paſt) to lay from you the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceivable luſts: to be renewed alſo in the ſpirit of your minde, and to put on that new man, which after God is ſhapen in righteouſneſſe and true holineſſe. Wherefore put away lying, and ſpeak every man truth unto his neighbour, forasmuch as wee are members one of another. Be angry, but ſin not. Let not the Sun go down upon your wrath, neither give place to the backbiter. Let him that ſtole, ſteal no more, but let him labour with his hands the thing which is good, that he may give unto him that needeth. The Gospel.

IEsus entred into a ship, and passed over, and came into his own citie. And behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsie, lying in a bed. And when Jesus saw the faith of them, hee said to the sick of the palsie, Son, be of good cheer, thy sins be forgiven thee. And behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves, This man blasphemeth. And when Jesus saw their thoughts, he said, wherefore think yee evill in your hearts? whether is it easier to say, Thy sinnes be forgiven thee, or to say, Arise, and walk? But that yee may know that the Sonne of man hath power to forgive sinnes in earth: Then said hee to the sick of the palsie, Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thy house. And he arose and departed to his house. But the people that saw it, marvelled, and glorified God, which had given such power unto men. Matth. 9. 1.

The Gospel.

Luke. 22. 1 JEsus said, The Kingdome of heaven is like unto a certaine man that was a king, which made a marriage for his sonne, and sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding: and they would not come. Again, hee sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner, mine oxen and my fattings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage. But they made light of it, and went their wayes, one to his farme, another to his merchandise, and the remnant took his servants and entreated them shamefully, and slew them. But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth, and sent forth his men of war, and destroyed those murderers, and burnt up their citie. Then said he unto his servants, The marriage indeed is prepared, but they which were bidden were not worthy. Go yee therefore out into the high-wayes, and as many as yee finde, bid them to the marriage. And the servants went forth into the high-wayes, and gathered together all, as many as they could finde, both good and bad: and the wedding was furnished with ghests. Then the king came in to see the ghests, and when hee spied there a man which had not on a wedding garment, hee said unto him, him, Friend, how camest thou in hither, not having a wedding garment? And he was even speechlesse. Then said the King to the ministers, Take and binde him hand and foot, and cast him into outer darknesse, there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. For many be called, but few are chosen.

MY brethren, be strong through the Lord, and through the power of his might. Put on all the armour of God, that ye may stand against all the assaults of the devill. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against rule, against power, against worldly rulers, even governours of the darknesse of this world, against spirituall craftinesse in heavenly things. Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to resist in the evil day, and stand perfect in all things. Stand therefore, and your loins gird with the truth, having on the brest-plate of righteousnesse, and having shoes on your feet, that yee may be prepared for the Gospel of peace. Above all, take the shield of faith, wherewith ye may quench all the fiery darts of the wicked, and take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God. And pray alwayes with all manner prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watch thereunto with all instance and supplication for all Saints, and for mee, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth freely, to utter the secrets of the Gospel (whereof I am a messenger in bonds) that therein I may speak freely, as I ought to speak. Eph. 6.

The Gospel.

THere was a certain Ruler, whose son was sick at Capernaum. Assoon as the same heard that Jesus was come out of Jury into Galilee, hee went unto him, and besought him that hee would come down and heal his sonne: for hee was even at the point of death. Then said Jesus unto him, Except ye see signes and wonders, ye will not beleeve. The Ruler said unto him, Sir, come down or ever that my son die. Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way, thy son liveth. The man beleeved the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way. And as he was going down, the servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth. Then enquired hee of them the hour when he began to amend. And they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him. So the father knew that it was the same hour in the which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth. And he beleeved, and all his household. This is again the second miracle that Jesus did, when he was come out of Jury into Galilee.

The Gospel.

PEter said unto Jesus, Lord, how oft shall I forgive my brother, if he sinne against mee? till seven times? Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Untill seven times, but, seventy times seven times. Matt. 18.

Therefore is the kingdome of heaven likened unto a certain man that was a king, which would take accompts of his servants. And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which ought him ten thousand talents: But forasmuch as hee was not able to pay, his lord commanded him to bee sold, and his wife and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made. The servant fell down, and besought him, saying, Sir, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. Then had the lord pitie on that servant, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt. So the same servant went out, and found one of his fellowes which ought him an hundred pence: and hee laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay that thou owest. And his fellow fell down, and besought him saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. And hee would not, but he went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt. So when his fellowes saw what was done, they were very sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that had happened. Then his lord called him, and said unto him, O thou ungratious servant, I forgave thee all that debt, when thou desiredst me: shouldest not thou also have had compassion on thy fellow, even as I had pity on thee? and his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the Jaylours, till he should pay all that was due unto him. So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses.

For she said within her self, If I may touch but even his vesture only, I shall be safe. But Jesus turned him about, & when he saw her, he said, Daughter, be of good comfort, thy faith hath made thee safe. And the woman was made whole even the same time. And when Jesus came into the Rulers house, and saw the minstrels and people making a noise, he said unto them, Get you hence, for the maid is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn. But when the people were put forth, hee went in, and took her by the hand, and said, Damosell, arise. And the damosel arose. And this noise was abroad in all that land.

Philip answered him, Two hundred peny worth of bread are not sufficient for them that every man may take a little. One of his disciples, Andrew Simon Peters brother, said unto him, There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves and two fishes, but what are they among so many? And Jesus said, Make the people sit down. There was much grasse in the place. So the men sate down in number about five thousand. And Jesus took the bread, and when he had given thanks, hee gave to his disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down, and likewise of the fishes as much as they would. The Epistle.

Rom. 10 9. IF thou acknowledge with thy mouth, that Jesus is the Lord, and beleeve in thy heart, that God raised him up from death, thou shalt be safe. For to beleeve with the heart, justifieth, and to knowledge with the mouth, maketh a man safe. For the Scripture saith, Whosoever beleeveth on him, shall not be confounded. There is no difference between the Jew and the Gentile: for one is Lord of all, which is rich unto all that call upon him. For whosoever doth call on the Name of the Lord, shall be safe. How then shall they call on him, on whom they have not beleeved? How shall they beleeve on him of whom they have not heard? how shal they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach without they be sent? as it is written, How beautifull are the feet of them which bring tidings of peace, and bring tidings of good things? But they have not all obeyed to the Gospel. For Esay saith, Lord, who hath beleeved our sayings? So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing cometh by the word of God. But I ask, Have they not heard? No doubt their sound went out into all lands, and their words into the ends of the world. But I demand whether Israel did know, or no? First, Moses saith, I will provoke you to envie by them that are no people, by a foolish nation I will anger you. Esay after that is bold, and saith, I am found of them that sought me not, I am manifest unto them that asked not after mee. But against Israel he saith, All day long have I stretched forth my hands unto a people that beleeveth not, but speaketh against mee.

And after eight dayes, again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Then came Jesus, when the doors were shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you. And after that he said to Thomas, Bring thy finger hither, and see my hands, and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side, and be not faithlesse, but beleeving. Thomas answered and said unto him, My Lord and my God. Jesus said unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast beleeved. AND Saul yet breathing out threatnings, and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest, and desired of him letters to carry to Damasco to the Synagogues, that if he found any of this way (were they men or women) hee might bring them bound to Jerusalem. And when he journeyed, it fortuned that as he was come nigh to Damasco, suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven, and he fell to the earth, and heard a voice, saying to him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? And he said, What art thou Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest. It is hard for thee to kick against the prick. And he both trembling and astonied said, Lord, what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the citie, and it shall be told thee what thou must do. The men which journeyed with him stood amazed, hearing a voice, but seeing no man. And Saul arose from the earth; and when he opened his eyes, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, & brought him into Damasco. And he was three dayes without sight, and neither did eat nor drink. And there was a certain disciple at Damasco, named Ananias: and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord. And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and seek in the house of Judas, after one called Saul of Tharsus: For behold, he prayeth, and hath seen in a vision a man named Ananias coming in unto him, and putting his hands on him, that he might receive his sight. of the high priests, to binde all that call on thy Name. The Lord said unto him, Go thy way, for hee is a chosen vessell unto mee, to beare my Name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel. For I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my names sake. And Ananias went his way, and entred into the house, and put his hands on him, and said, Brother Saul, the Lord that appeared unto thee in the way, as thou camest, hath sent mee, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and be filled with the holy Ghost. And immediatly there fell from his eyes as it had been scales, and he received sight, and arose and was baptized, and received meat, and was comforted. Then was Saul certain dayes with the disciples which were at Damasco. And straightway he preached Christ in the synagogues, how that hee was the Son of God. But all that heard him were amazed, and said, Is not this he that spoiled them which called on this Name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that hee might bring them bound unto the high priests? But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damasco, affirming that this was very Christ.

ye men & brethren, this scripture must needs have been fulfilled, which the holy Ghost through the mouth of David, spake before of Judas, which was guide to them that took Jesus. For hee was numbred with us, and had obtained fellowship in this ministration. And the same hath now possessed a plat of ground with the reward of iniquity, and when he was hanged, burst asunder in the mids, and all his bowels gushed out. And it was known unto all the inhabiters of Jerusalem, insomuch that the same field is called in their mother tongue, Acheldama, that is to say, The bloody field. For it is written in the book of Psalms, Let his habitation be void, and no man be dwelling therein, and his bishoprick let another take. Wherefore of these men which have companied with us (all the time that the Lord Jesus had his conversation among us, beginning at the baptisme of John, unto that same day that he was taken up from us) must one be ordained to be a witnesse with us of his resurrection. And they appointed two: Joseph, which was called Barsabas (whose surname was Justus) and Matthias. And when they prayed, they said, Thou Lord, which knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen, that he may take the room of this ministration and Apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go into his own place. And they gave forth their lots, and the lot fell on Matthias, and he was counted with the eleven Apostles.

Luke 10.21  At that time Jesus answered, & said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast shewed them unto babes: Verily Father, even so was it thy good pleasure. ¶ Annunciation of the Virgin Mary.

The Collect.

WEe beseech thee, Lord, powr thy grace into our hearts, that as we have known Christ thy Sons Incarnation by the message of an Angel: so by his Crosse and passion, we may be brought unto the glory of his resurrection, through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle.

GOd spake once again to Ahaz, saying, Require a token of the Lord thy God, whether it be toward the depth beneath, or toward the height above. Then said Ahaz, I will require none, neither will I tempt the Lord. And he said, Hearken to mee, ye house of David: Is it not enough for you that yee be grievous unto men, but ye must grieve my God also? And therfore the Lord shall give you a token: Behold, a Virgin shall conceive and bear a Son, and thou his mother shalt call his Name Emmanuel. Butter and hony shal he eat, that he may know to refuse the evill, and chuse the good. Isa. 7. 10.

The Gospel.

AND in the sixth moneth, the Angel Gabriel was sent from God, unto a city of Galilee named Nazareth, to a Virgin spoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David, and the Virgins name was Mary. And the Angel went in unto her, and said, Hail full of grace, the Lord is with thee, blessed art thou among women. When she saw him, she was abashed at his saying, and cast in her minde, what maner of salutation that should be. And the Angel said unto her, Fear not Mary, for thou hast found grace with God: behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bear a Luk. 1. 26.

Son, and shalt call his name Jesus. He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest. And the Lord God shall give unto him the seat of his father David, and he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever, and of his kingdom there shall be none end. Then said Mary to the Angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man? And the Angel answered and said unto her, The holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee. Therefore also that holy thing which shall be born, shall be called the Sonne of God. And behold thy cousin Elizabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age, and this is the sixth moneth, which was called barren: for with God nothing shall be unpossible. And Mary said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord, be it unto me according to thy word. And the Angel departed from her.

The Collect.

ALmighty God, which hast instructed thy holy Church with the heavenly doctrine of thy Evangelist S. Mark, give us grace, that we be not like children carried away with every blast of vain doctrine: but firmly to be established in the truth of thy holy Gospel, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle.

Ephes. 4.7. UNto every one of us is given grace, according to the measure of the gift of Christ. Wherefore hee saith, when he went up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men. That hee ascended, what meaneth it, but that hee also descended first into the lower parts of the earth? Hee that descended, is even the same also that ascended up above all heavens to fulfill all things. And the very same made some Apostles, some Prophets, some Evangelists, some shepherds, and teachers, to the edifying of the Saints, to the work and administration, even to the edifying of the body of Christ, til we all come to the unity of the faith, and knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the full perfect age of Christ: That we henceforth should be no more children, wavering and carried about with every winde of doctrine, by the willinesse of men, through craftinesse, whereby they lay in wait for us, to deceive us. But let us follow the truth in love, and in all things grow in him which is the head, even Christ: in whom if all the body be coupled and knit together throughout every joynt, wherewith one ministreth to another (according to the operation, as every part hath his measure) he increaseth the body, unto the edifying of it self through love.

the

The gospel.

I Am the true Vine, and my Father is an husbandman. Every branch that beareth not fruit in me, he will take away: and every branch that beareth fruit will he purge, that it may bring forth more fruit. Now are ye clean through the word which I have spoken unto you. Bide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of it self, except it abide in the Vine: no more can ye except ye abide in me. I am the Vine, ye are the branches. He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit. For without me can ye do nothing. If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered, and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they burn. If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask what ye will, and it shall be done for you. Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit, and become my disciples. As the Father hath loved me, even so also have I loved you. Continue ye in my love. If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love, even as I have kept my Fathers commandments, and abide in his love. These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full. John 1

ALmighty God, whom truly to know is everlasting life: graunt us perfectly to know thy Sonne Jesus Christ to be the way, the truth, and the life, as thou hast taught S. Philip and other the Apostles, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The epistle.

1.1. JAmes the servant of God, and of the Lord Jesus Christ, sendeth greeting to the twelve Tribes which are scattered abroad. My brethren, count it for an exceeding joy, when ye fall into divers temptations: knowing this, That the trying of your faith gendreth patience, and let patience have her perfect worke, that ye may be perfect and sound, lacking nothing. If any of you lack wisdom, let him aske of him that giveth it, even God, which giveth to all men indifferently, and casteth no man in the teeth, and it shall be given him. But let him aske in faith, and waver not. For he that doubteth, is like a wave of the sea, which is tost of the windes, and caried with violence: Neither let that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord. A wavering minded man is unstable in all his wayes. Let the brother which is of low degree, rejoyce when he is exalted. Again, let him that is rich, rejoyce when he is made low: for even as the flower of the grasse shall he passe away. For as the Sun riseth with heat, and the grasse withereth, and his flower falleth away, and the beautie of the fashion of it perisheth: even so shall the rich man perish in his wayes. Happy is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

mansions. If it were not so, I would have told you: I go to prepare a place for you: and if I go to prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you, even unto my self, that where I am, there may ye be also. And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know. Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest, and how is it possible for us to know the way? Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No man cometh to the Father but by me. If ye had known me, ye had known my Father also: and now ye know him, and have seen him. Philip saith unto him, Lord shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us. Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? He that hath seen me, hath seen my Father: and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father? Beleevest not thou, that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? The words that I speak unto you, I speak not of my self, but the Father that dwelleth in me, is he that doth the works. Beleeve me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me, or else beleeve me for the works sake. Verily, verily I say unto you, He that beleeveth on me, the works that I do, the same shall he do also, and greater works then these shall he do, because I go unto my Father. And whatsoever ye ask in my Name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified by the Son. If ye shall ask any thing in my Name, I will do it.

LOrd Almighty, which hast endued thy holy apostle Barnabas with singular gifts of the holy ghost: let us not be destitute of thy manifold gifts, nor yet of grace to use them alway to thy honour and glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The epistle.

Act. xi. 22. TIdings of these things came unto the eares of the congregation which was in Jerusalem. And they sent forth Barnabas, that he should go unto Antioch. Which when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would continually cleave unto the Lord. For he was a good man, and full of the holy Ghost, and of faith, and much people was added unto the Lord. Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus to seek Saul: and when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it chanced that a whole yeer they had their conversation with the congregation there, & taught much people, insomuch that the disciples of Antioch were the first that were called Christians. In those dayes came prophets from the citie of Jerusalem unto Antioch. And there stood up one of them named Agabus, and signified by the Spirit, that there should be great dearth throughout all the world: which came to passe in the Emperour Claudius dayes. Then the disciples, every man according to his abil[illegible], purposed to send succour unto the brethren, which dwelt in Jury: which thing they also did, and sent it to the Elders, by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

The gospel.

Joh. xv. 12. THis is my commandment, that ye love together, as I have loved you. Greater love hath no man then this, That a man bestow his life for his friends. Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you. Henceforth call I not you servants: for the servant knoweth not what his lord doth: but you have I called friends, for all things that I have heard of my father, I have opened unto you. Ye have not chosen me but I have chosen you, & ordained you to go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain, that whatsoever ye ask of the Father in my Name, he may give it you.

ALmightie God, by whose providence thy servant John Baptist was wonderfully born, and sent to prepare the way of thy Sonne our Saviour by preaching of penance: make us so to follow his doctrine and holy life, that we may truly repent according to his preaching, and after his example constantly speak the truth, boldly rebuke vice, and patiently suffer for the truths sake, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Epistle.

BE of good cheer, my people, O ye Prophets, comfort my people, saith your God, comfort Hierusalem at the heart, and tell her that her travell is at an end, that her offence is pardoned, that she hath received of the Lords hand sufficient correction for all her sinnes. A voice cried in the wildernesse, Prepare the way of the Lord in the wildernesse, make straight the path of our God in the desert. Let all valleys be exalted, and every mountain and hill be laid low. What so is crooked, let it be made straight, and let the rough be made plain fields. For the glory of the Lord shall appear, and all flesh shall at once see it. For why? the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it. The same voice spake, Now cry. And the Prophet answered, What shall I cry? That all flesh is grasse, and that all the goodlinesse thereof is as the flower of the field. The grasse is withered, the flower falleth away. Even so is the people as grasse, when the breath of the Lord bloweth upon them. Nevertheless, whether the grasse wither, or that the flower fade away, yet the word of our God endureth for ever. Go up unto the high hill, O Sion, thou that bringest good tidings, lift up thy voice with power, O thou preacher Hierusalem, lift it up without fear, and say unto the cities of Juda, Behold your God, behold, the Lord God shall come with power, and bear rule with his arm. Behold, he bringeth his

Luke 1.57. ELizabeths time came that she should be delivered, and she brought forth a son. And her neighbours and her cousins heard say how the Lord had shewed great mercy upon her, and rejoyced with her. And it fortuned that in the eighth day they came to circumcise the childe, and called his name Zachary, after the name of his father. And his mother answered, and said, Not so, but his name shall be called John. And they said unto her, There is none of thy kindred that is named with this name. And they made signes to his father, how he would have him called. And he asked for writing tables, and wrote, saying, His name is John. And they marvelled all. And his mouth was opened immediatly, and his tongue also, and he spake and praised God. And fear came on all them that dwelt nigh unto him. And all these sayings were noised abroad thorowout all the high countrey of Jury, and they that heard them, laid them up in their hearts, saying, What maner of childe shall this be? And the hand of the Lord was with him. And his father Zacharias was filled with the holy Ghost, and prophesied, saying, Praised be the Lord God of Israel, for he hath visited and redeemed his people, and hath raised up an horn of salvation unto us in the house of his servant David, even as he promised by the mouth of his holy prophets, which were since the world began. That we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us. That he would deal mercifully with our fathers, and remember his holy covenant: that he would performe the oath which he sware to our father Abraham, for to give us. That we being delivered out of the hands of our enemies, might serve him without fear all the dayes of our life, in such holinesse and righteousnesse, as are acceptable for him. And thou childe shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his wayes. To give knowledge of salvation unto his people for the remission of sins, through the tender mercie of our God, whereby the day-spring from on high hath visited us. To give light to them that sit in darknesse, and in the shadow of death, and to guide our feet into the way of peace. And the childe grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was in wildernesse till the day came when he should shew himself unto the Israelites.

And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further, and took Peter also. Then were the dayes of sweet-bread. And when he had caught him, he put him in prison also, and delivered him to four quarternions of souldiers to be kept, intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people. the same night slept Peter between two souldiers bound with two chains, and the keepers before the doore kept the prison. And behold, the Angel of the Lord was there present, and a light shined in the habitation, and he smote Peter on the side, and stirred him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell from his hands. And the Angel said unto him, Gird thy self, and binde on thy sandals. And so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me. And he came out, and followed him, and wist not that it was truth which was done by the angel, but thought he had seen a vision. When they were past the first and second watch, they came unto the iron gate, that leadeth unto the city, which opened to them by the own accord: and they went out, and passed thorow one street, and forthwith the angel departed from him. And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety, that the Lord hath sent his Angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the waiting of the people of the Jews.

They said, Some say that thou art John Baptist, some Elias, some Jeremias, or one of the Prophets. He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? Simon Peter answered, and said, Thou art Christ the Sonne of the living God. And Jesus answered, and said unto him, Happy art thou Simon the sonne of Jonas: for flesh and blood hath not opened that unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven. He said unto them, Ye shall drink indeed of my cup, and be baptized with the baptisme that I am baptized with: but to sit on my right hand and on my left, is not mine to give, but it shall chance unto them that it is prepared for of my Father. And when the ten heard this, they disdained at the two brethren. But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Yee know that the Princes of the nations have dominion over them, and they that are great men exercise authority upon them. It shall not be so among you. But whosoever will be great among you, let him be your minister, and whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant: Even as the Son of man came not to be ministred unto, but to minister, and to give his life a redemption for many.

5.12. BY the hands of the Apostles were many signes and wonders shewed among the people: and they were all together with one accord in Solomons porch. And of other durst no man joyn himself to them: Nevertheless, the people magnified them. The number of them that beleeved in the Lord, both of men and women, grew more and more, insomuch that they brought the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least way the shadow of Peter, when hee came by, might shadow some of them. There came also a multitude out of the cities round about,

For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? Is not he that sitteth at meat? But I am among you as one that ministreth. And when the pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your Master with publicans and sinners? The Gospel.

15.17. THis command I you, that ye love together. If the world hate you, ye know it hated mee before it hated you. If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: howbeit, because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you. Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater then the Lord. If they have persecuted mee, they will also persecute you. If they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also. But all these things will they do unto you for my Names sake, because they have not known him that sent mee. If I had not come and spoken unto them, they should have had no sinne: but now have they nothing to cloke their sinne withall. Hee that hateth mee, hateth my father also. If I had not done among them the works which none other man did, they should have had no sinne: but now have they both seen and hated, not onely mee, but also my father. But this happeneth, that the saying might be fulfilled that is written in their Law, They hated me without a cause. But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth of the Father, hee shall testifie of mee. And yee shall bear witnesse also, because ye have been with mee from the beginning.

¶ All Saints day.

The Collect.

ALmighty God, which hast knit together thy Elect in one communion and fellowship, in the mysticall body of thy Sonne Christ our Lord: grant us grace so to follow thy holy Saints in all vertuous and godly living, that wee may come to those unspeakable joyes, which thou hast prepared for them that unfainedly love thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle.

BEhold, I John saw another Angel ascend from the rising of the Sun, which had the seal of the living God, and hee cried with a loud voice to the four Angels (to whom power was given to hurt the earth and the sea) saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, neither the trees, till wee have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads. And I heard the number of them which were sealed, and there were sealed an hundred and fourty and four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel. Revel. 7.

Of the tribe of Juda were sealed xii. M.
Of the tribe of Reuben, were sealed xii. M.
Of the tribe of Gad, were sealed xii. M.
Of the tribe of Aser, were sealed xii. M.
Of the tribe of Nephthalim, were sealed xii. M.
Of the tribe of Manasses, were sealed xii. M.
Of the tribe of Simeon, were sealed xii. M.
Of the tribe of Levi, were sealed xii. M.
Of the tribe of Issachar, were sealed xii. M.
Of the tribe of Zabulon, were sealed xii. M.

Of the tribe of Joseph, were sealed xii. M.
Of the tribe of Benjamin, were sealed xii. M.

After this I beheld, and lo, a great multitude (which no man can number) of all nations, and people, and tongues, stood before the seat, and before the Lambe, clothed with long white garments, and palmes in their hands, and cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation be ascribed to him that sitteth upon the seat of our God, and unto the Lambe. And all the Angels stood in the compasse of the seat, and of the Elders, & the four beasts, and fell before the seat on their faces, and worshipped God, saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdome, and thanks, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for evermore. Amen.

The Gospel.

Matth. 5. 1. JEsus seeing the people, went up into a mountain, and when hee was set, his disciples came to him. And after that he had opened his mouth, he taught them, saying, Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdome of heaven. Blessed are they that mourn, for they shall receive comfort. Blessed are the meek, for they shall receive the inheritance of the earth. Blessed are they which hunger and thirst after righteousnesse, for they shall bee satisfied. Blessed are the mercifull, for they shall obtain mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God. Blessed are the peace-makers, for they shall bee called the children of God. Blessed are they which suffer persecution for righteousnesse sake, for theirs is the kingdome of heaven. Blessed are ye when men revile you, and persecute you, and shall falsely say all manner of evill saying against you for my sake, rejoyce and be glad, for great is your reward in heaven. For so persecuted they the Prophets which were before you.

¶ The order for the administration of the Lords Supper, or holy Communion.

SO many as intend to bee partakers of the holy Communion, shal signifie their names to the Curate over night, or else in the morning before the beginning of Morning prayer, or immediatly after.

And if any of those be an open and notorious evill liver, so that the Congregation by him is offended, or have done any wrong to his neighbours by word or deed, the Curate having knowledge thereof, shall call him, and advertise him in any wise not to presume to come to the Lords Table, untill he have openly declared himself to have truly repented and amended his former wicked life, that the Congregation may thereby be satisfied, which afore were offended; and that he have recompensed the parties whom he hath done wrong unto, or at the least declare himself to be in full purpose so to do, assoon as he conveniently may.

The same order shall the Curate use with those betwixt whom he perceiveth malice and hatred to reign, not suffering them to be partakers of the Lords Table, untill he know them to be reconciled. And if one of the parties so at variance, be content to forgive from the bottome of his heart all that the other hath trespassed against him, and to make amends for that hee himself hath offended, and the other party will not bee perswaded to a godly unity, but remain still in his frowardnesse and malice: the Minister in that case ought to admit the penitent person to the holy Communion, and not him that is obstinate.

The Table at the Communion time having a fair white linnen cloth upon it, shall stand in the body of the Church, or in the Chancell, where Morning prayer and Evening prayer be appointed to be said. And the Priest standing at the North side of the Table, shall say the Lords prayer, with this Collect following.

OUr Father which art in heaven, hallowed bee thy Name. Thy Kingdome come. Thy will be done in earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our dayly bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as wee forgive them that trespasse against us. And lead us not into temptation: but deliver us from evill. Amen.

ALmighty God, unto whom all hearts be open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid: cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy holy Spirit, that wee may perfectly love thee, and worthily magnifie thy holy Name, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Priest rehearse distinctly all the ten Commandments: and the people kneeling, shall after every Commandment ask God mercy for their transgression of the same, after this sort.

Minister.

GOd spake these words, and said, I am the Lord thy God: thou shalt have none other Gods but me.

People.

Lord have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this Law.

Minister.

Thou shalt not make to thy self any graven image, nor the likenesse of any thing that is in heaven above, or in the earth beneath, or in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down to them nor worship them. For I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, and visit the sins of the fathers upon the children, unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate mee, and shew mercy unto thousands in them that love mee, and keep my Commandments.

People.

Lord have mercie upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this Law.

Minister.

Minister.

Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain: for the Lord will not hold him guiltlesse that taketh his Name in vain.

People.

Lord have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this Law.

Minister.

Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath day. Six dayes shalt thou labour, and do all that thou hast to do, but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt do no manner of work, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, thy man servant, and thy maid servant, thy cattell and the stranger that is within thy gates: for in six dayes the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the seventh day, and hallowed it.

People.

Lord have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this Law.

Minister.

Honour thy father and thy mother, that thy dayes may be long in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

People.

Lord have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this Law.

Minister.

Thou shalt do no murder.

People.

Lord have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this Law.

Minister.

Thou shalt not commit adultery.

People.

People.

Lord have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this Law.

Minister.

Thou shalt not steal.

People.

Lord have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this Law.

Minister.

Thou shalt not bear false witnesse against thy neighbour.

People.

Lord have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this Law.

Minister.

Thou shalt not covet thy neighbours house, Thou shalt not covet thy neighbours wife, nor his servant, nor his maid, nor his ox, nor his asse, nor any thing that is his.

People.

Lord have mercy upon us, and write all these thy Lawes in our hearts, we beseech thee.

¶ Then shall follow the Collect of the day, with one of these two Collects following for the King, the Priest standing up, and saying,

Let us pray.

ALmighty God, whose kingdome is everlasting, and power infinite, have mercy upon the whole Congregation, & so rule the heart of thy chosen servant Charles our King and Governour, that hee knowing whose Minister hee is, may above all things seek thy honour and glorie, and that we his Subjects, duely considering whose authoritie he hath, may faithfully serve, honour, and humbly obey him, in thee, and for thee, according to thy blessed word & ordinance, through Jesus Christ our

Lord,

Lord, who with thee & the holy Ghost liveth and reigneth ever one God, world without end. Amen.

ALmighty and everlasting God, we be taught by thy holy word, that the hearts of Kings are in thy rule and governance, and that thou doest dispose and turn them, as it seemeth best to thy godly wisdome: we humbly beseech thee so to dispose and govern the heart of Charles thy servant our King and Governour, that in all his thoughts, words, and works, hee may ever seek thy honour and glory, and study to preserve thy people committed to his charge, in wealth, peace, and godlinesse: Grant this, O mercifull Father, for thy dear Sonnes sake Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Immediatly after the Collects the Priest shal read the Epistle, beginning thus, The Epistle written in the Chapter of

¶ And the Epistle ended, hee shall say the Gospel beginning thus, The Gospel written in the Chapter of

¶ And the Epistle and Gospel being ended, shall be said the Creed.

IBeleeve in one God, the Father Almightie, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible: and in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only begotten Sonne of God, begotten of his Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God, begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made: who for us men, and for our salvation, came down from heaven, & was incarnate by the holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary, and was made man, and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate, hee suffered, and was buried, and the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures, and ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of the Father. And he shal come again with glory to judge both the quick and the dead: whose kingdome shall have no end. And I beleeve lo in the holy Ghoſt, the Lord and giver of life, who proceedeth from the Father and the Sonne, who with the Father and the Son together is worſhipped and glorified, who ſpake by the Prophets. And I beleeve one Catholique and Apoſtolique Church. I acknowledge one baptiſme for the remiſſion of ſinnes. And I look for the reſurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

¶ After the Creed, if there be no Sermon, ſhall follow one of the Homilies already ſet forth, or hereafter to be ſet forth by common authority.

¶ After ſuch Sermon, Homily, or Exhortation, the Curate ſhall declare unto the people, whether there bee any Holy dayes, or faſting dayes the week following, and earneſtly exhort them to remember the poor, ſaying one or mo of theſe ſentences following, as he thinketh moſt convenient by his diſcretion.

Matth. 5. LEt your light ſo ſhine before men, that they may ſee your good workes, and glorifie your Father which is in heaven.

Matth. 6. Lay not up for your ſelves treaſure upon the earth, where the ruſt & moth doth corrupt, and where theeves breake thorow and ſteal: but lay up for your ſelves treaſures in heaven, where neither ruſt nor moth doth corrupt, and where theeves do not breake thorow and ſteal.

Matth. 7. Whatſoever ye would that men ſhould do unto you, even ſo do unto them, for this is the Law and the Prophets.

Matth. 7. Not every one that ſaith unto mee, Lord, Lord, ſhall enter into the kingdome of heaven: but he that doth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

Luke 19. Zache ſtood forth, & ſaid unto the Lord, Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor, and if I have done any wrong to any man, I reſtore fourfold.

1. Cor. 9. Who goeth a warfare at any time of his owne coſt? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?

If wee have sowen unto you spirituall things, is it a great matter if we shall reap your worldly things? 1.Cor.9.

Do ye not know, that they which minister about holy things, live of the sacrifice? and they which wait of the Altar, are partakers with the Altar? Even so hath the Lord also ordained, that they which preach the Gospel, should live of the Gospel. 1.Cor.9.

He that soweth little, shall reap little: and he that soweth plenteously, shall reap plenteously. Let every man do according as he is disposed in his heart, not grudging, or of necessity, for God loveth a chearfull giver. 2.Cor.9.

Let him that is taught in the word, minister unto him that teacheth in all good things. Be not deceived, God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he reap. Gal.6.

Whyle wee have time, let us do good unto all men, and specially unto them which are of the houshold of faith. Gal.6.

Godlinesse is great riches, if a man be content with that hee hath: for wee brought nothing into the world, neither may we carry any thing out. 1.Tim.

Charge them which are rich in this world, that they be ready to give, and glad to distribute, laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may attain eternall life. 1.Tim.

God is not unrighteous, that hee will forget your worke and labour that proceedeth of love, which love ye have shewed for his Names sake, which have ministred unto the Saints, and yet do minister. Heb.6.

To do good and to distribute forget not, for with such sacrifices God is pleased. Heb.13.

Whoso hath this worlds good and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him? 1.Joh.

Give almes of thy goods, and turn never thy face Tob.4.

from

from any poor man, and then the face of the Lord shall not be turned away from thee.

Tob.4. Be mercifull after thy power. If thou hast much, give plenteously. If thou hast little, do thy diligence gladly to give of that little: for so gatherest thou thy self a good reward in the day of necessity.

Prov.19. He that hath pitie upon the poor, lendeth unto the Lord: and look what he layeth out, it shall be paied him again.

Psal.41. Blessed be the man that provideth for the sick and needy: the Lord shall deliver him in the time of trouble.

¶ Then shall the Churchwardens, or some other by them appointed, gather the devotion of the people, and put the same into the poor mans box, and upon the offering dayes appointed, every man and woman shall pay to the Curate the due and accustomed offerings. After which done the Priest shall say.

¶ Let us pray for the whole state of Christs Church militant here in earth.

ALmighty and everliving God, which by thy holy Apostle hast taught us to make prayers and supplications, and to give thanks for all men: We humbly beseech thee most mercifully (to accept our alms, and) to receive these our prayers, which we offer unto thy divine Majestie, beseeching thee to inspire continually the universall Church with the spirit of truth, unity, and concord: and grant that all they that do confesse thy holy Name, may agree in the truth of thy holy Word, and live in unity and godly love. We beseech thee also to save and defend all Christian Kings, Princes and governours, and specially thy servant CHARLES our King, that under him we may be godly and quietly governed: And grant unto his whole Councell, and to all that be put in authority under him, that they may truly and indifferently minister justice, to the punishment of wickednesse hednesse and vice, and to the maintenance of Gods true religion and vertue. Give grace (O heavenly Father) to all Bishops Pastours and Curates, that they may both by their life and doctrine, set forth thy true and lively Word, and rightly and duely administer thy holy Sacraments: And to all thy people give thy heavenly grace, and specially to this Congregation here present, that with meek heart and due reverence, they may hear and receive thy holy Word, truly serving thee in holinesse and righteousnes al the dayes of their life. And we most humbly beseech thee of thy goodnesse (O Lord) to comfort and succour all them which in this transitory life be in trouble, sorrow, need, sickenesse, or any other adversitie: Grant this, O Father, for Jesus Christs sake, our onely Mediatour and Advocate, Amen.

¶ Then shall follow this exhortation at certain times, when the Curate shall see the people negligent to come to the holy Communion.

WE be come together at this time (dearly beloved brethren) to feed at the Lords Supper, unto the which in Gods behalf I bid you all that be here present, and beseech you for the Lord Jesus Christs sake, that ye will not refuse to come thereto, being so lovingly called and bidden of God himself. Ye know how grievous and unkinde a thing it is, when a man hath prepared a rich feast, decked his table with all kinde of provision, so that there lacketh nothing but the guests to sit down, and yet they which be called, (without any cause) most unthankfully refuse to come. Which of you in such a case would not be moved? who would not think a great injury, and wrong done unto him? Wherefore most dearly beloved in Christ, take ye good heed, lest ye withdrawing your selves from this holy Supper, provoke Gods indignation against you.

It

It is an easie matter for a man to say, I will not communicate, because I am otherwise letted with worldly businesse: but such excuses be not so easily accepted and allowed before God. If any man say, I am a grievous sinner, and therefore am afraid to come; wherefore then do you not repent and amend? When God calleth you, be ye not ashamed to say, you will not come? When you should return to God, will you excuse your self and say that you be not ready? Consider earnestly with your selves how little such fained excuses shall avail before God. They that refused the feast in the Gospel, because they had bought a farm, or would trie their yokes of oxen, or because they were married, were not so excused, but counted unworthy of the heavenly feast. I for my part am here present, and according to mine office, I bid you in the Name of God, I call you in Christs behalf, I exhort you, as you love your own salvation, that yee will be partakers of this holy Communion. And as the Sonne of God did vouchsafe to yeeld up his soul by death upon the Crosse for your health: even so it is your duty to receive the Communion together in the remembrance of his death, as hee himself commanded. Now if yee will in no wise thus do, consider with your selves, how great injury you do unto God, and how sore punishment hangeth over your heads for the same. And whereas you offend Gods law in refusing this holy banquet, I admonish, exhort, and beseech you, that unto this unkindnesse yee will not adde any more: which thing ye shall do, if ye stand by as gazers and lookers on them that do communicate, and be not partakers of the same your selves. For what thing can this be accounted else, then a further contempt and unkindnesse unto God? Truly it is a great unthankfulnesse to say nay, when yee be called: but the fault is much greater, when men stand by, and yet will neither eat nor drink this holy Communion with other. I pray you, what can this be else, but even to have the mysteries of Christ in derision? It is said unto all, Take ye, and eat, Take, and drink ye all of this, Do this in remembrance of mee. With what face then, or with what countenance shall ye hear these words? what will this be else but a neglecting, a despising and mocking of the Testament of Christ? Wherefore, rather then ye should so do, depart you hence, and give place to them that be godly disposed. But when ye depart, I beseech you ponder with your selves from whom ye depart: ye depart from the Lords Table, ye depart from your brethren, and from the banquet of most heavenly food. These things if ye earnestly consider, ye shall by Gods grace return to a better minde: for the obtaining whereof, we shall make our humble petitions, while we shall receive the holy Communion.

what

¶ And sometime shall this be said also, at the discretion of the Curate.

DEarly beloved, forasmuch as our duety is to render to Almighty God our heavenly father most hearty thanks, for that he hath given his Sonne our Saviour Jesus Christ, not onely to die for us, but also to be our spirituall food and sustenance, as it is declared unto us, as well by Gods word, as by the holy Sacrament of his blessed Body and Blood: the which being so comfortable a thing to them which receive it worthily, and so dangerous to them that will presume to receive it unworthily; my duety is to exhort you to consider the dignity of the holy mysterie, and the great perill of the unworthy receiving thereof, and so to search and examine your own consciences, as you should come holy and clean to a most godly and heavenly feast, so that in no wise you come but in the marriage garment required of God in holy Scripture, and so come and be received as worthy partakers of such an heavenly Table. The way and meanes thereto is: First, to examine your lives and conversation by the rule of Gods commandments, and whereinsoever ye shall perceive your selves to have offended, either by will, word, or deed, there bewail your own sinfull lives, and confesse your selves to Almighty God, with full purpose of amendment of life. And if ye shall perceive your offences to be such, as be not onely against God, but also against your neighbours: then ye shall reconcile your selves unto them, ready to make restitution and satisfaction, according to the uttermost of your powers, for all injuries and wrongs done by you to any other, and likewise being ready to forgive other that have offended you, as you would have forgivenesse of your offences at Gods hand: for otherwise the receiving of the holy Communion doth nothing else but increase your damnation. And because it is requisite that no man should come to the holy Communion, but with a full trust in Gods mercie, and with a quiet conscience: therefore if there be any of you, which by the meanes aforesaid, cannot quiet his own conscience, but requireth further comfort or counsell, then let him come to me, or some other discreet and learned Minister of Gods word, and open his grief, that he may receive such ghostly counsell, advice, and comfort, as his conscience may be relieved, and that by the Ministery of Gods word he may receive comfort, and the benefit of absolution, to the quieting of his conscience, and avoiding of all scruple and doubtfulnesse.

Then shall the Priest say this exhortation,

Dearly beloved in the Lord, ye that minde to come to the holy Communion of the body and bloud of our Saviour Christ, must consider what Saint Paul writeth to the Corinthians: how he exhorteth all persons diligently to trie and examine themselves, before they presume to eat of that bread, bread, and drink of that cup. For as the benefit is great, if with a true penitent heart and lively faith we receive that holy Sacrament (for then we spiritually eat the flesh of Christ, and drink his bloud, then we dwell in Christ, and Christ in us, we be one with Christ, and Christ with us) So is the danger great, if we receive the same unworthily. For then we be guilty of the body and bloud of Christ our Saviour: we eat and drink our own damnation, not considering the Lords body: we kindle Gods wrath against us, we provoke him to plague us with divers diseases, and sundry kindes of death. Therefore if any of you be a blasphemer of God, an hinderer or slanderer of his Word, an adulterer, or be in malice or envie, or in any other grievous crime, bewail your sinnes, and come not to this holy Table, lest after the taking of that holy Sacrament, the devill enter into you as he entred into Judas, & fill you full of all iniquities, & bring you to destruction both of body and soul. Judge therefore your selves, brethren, that ye be not judged of the Lord. Repent you truely for your sinnes past: have a lively and stedfast faith in Christ our Saviour. Amend your lives, and be in perfect charity with all men, so shall ye be meet partakers of those holy mysteries. And above all things, ye must give most humble and hearty thanks to God the Father, the Sonne and the holy Ghost, for the redemption of the world, by the death and passion of our Saviour Christ, both God and man, who did humble himself even to the death upon the Crosse for us miserable sinners, which lay in darknesse and shadow of death, that he might make us the children of God, and exalt us to everlasting life. And to the end that we should alway remember the exceeding great love of our Master and onely Saviour Jesus Christ thus dying for us, and the innumerable benefits which by his precious bloudshedding he hath obtained to us: he hath instituted and ordained holy myſteries as pledges of his love, and continuall remembrance of his death, to our great and endleſſe comfort. To him therefore with the Father and the holy Ghoſt, let us give (as we are moſt bounden) continuall thanks, ſubmitting our ſelves wholly to his holy will and pleaſure, and ſtudying to ſerve him in true holineſſe and righteouſneſſe all the dayes of our life. Amen.

Then ſhall the Prieſt ſay to them that come to receive the holy Communion.

Third. YOu that do truly and earneſtly repent you of your ſinnes, and be in love and charity with your neighbours, and intend to lead a new life, following the Commandments of God, and walking from henceforth in his holy wayes: draw neer, and take this holy Sacrament to your comfort, make your humble confeſſion to Almighty God before this Congregation here gathered together in his holy Name, meekly kneeling upon your knees.

Then ſhall this generall confeſſion be made in the name of all thoſe that are minded to receive the holy Communion, either by one of them, or elſe by one of the Miniſters, or by the Prieſt himſelf all kneeling humbly upon their knees.

Fourth. ALmighty God, Father of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, maker of all things, Judge of all men, we knowledge and bewail our manifold ſinnes and wickedneſſe, which we from time to time moſt grievouſly have committed, by thought, word, and deed, againſt thy divine Majeſtie, provoking moſt juſtly thy wrath and indignation againſt us. We do earneſtly repent, & be heartily ſorry for theſe our miſdoings, the remembrance of them is grievous unto us, the burden of them is intolerable. Have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us, moſt mercifull Father, for thy Sonne our Lord Jeſus Chriſts ſake, forgive us all that is paſt, and grant that we may ever hereafter ſerve and pleaſe thee, in newneſſe of life, to the honour and glory of thy Name, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

Then

¶ Then shall the priest or the bishop (being present) stand up, and turning himself to the people, say thus,

ALmighty God, our heavenly father, who of his great mercy hath promised forgiveness of sins to all them which with hearty repentance and true faith turn unto him: have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sinnes, confirm and strengthen you in all goodnesse, and bring you to everlasting life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall the priest also say,

¶ Hear what comfortable words our Saviour Christ saith unto all that truely turn to him,

Come unto me all that travell, and be heavy laden, and I will refresh you.

So God loved the world, that he gave his onely begotten Sonne, to the end that all that believe in him should not perish, but have life everlasting.

¶ Hear also what saint Paul saith.

This is a true saying, and worthy of all men to be received, that Jesus Christ came into the world to save sinners.

¶ Hear also what saint John saith.

If any man sinne, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous, and he is the propitiation for our sinnes.

¶ After which the priest shall proceed, saying,

Lift up your hearts.

Answer.

We lift them up unto the Lord.

Priest.

Let us give thanks unto our Lord God.

Answer.

It is meet and right so to do.

Priest.

It is very meet, right, and our bounden duety, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto thee, O Lord, holy Father, Almighty everlasting God.

¶ Here shall follow the proper preface according to the time, if there be any specially appointed, or else immediately shall follow, Therefore with angels, &c.

¶ Proper Prefaces.

¶ Upon Christmas day, and seven dayes after.

BEcause thou didst give Jesus Christ thine onely Son to be born as this day for us, who by the operation of the holy Ghost was made very man, of the substance of the Virgin Mary his mother, and that without spot of sin, to make us clean from all sin. Therefore with angels, &c.

¶ Upon Easter day, and seven dayes after.

BUt chiefly are we bound to praise thee for the glorious resurrection of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord: for he is the very Paschall Lamb, which was offered for us, and hath taken away the sin of the world, who by his death hath destroyed death, and by his rising to life again, hath restored to us everlasting life. Therefore with angels, &c.

¶ Upon the Ascension day, and seven dayes after.

THrough thy most dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who after his most glorious resurrection manifestly appeared to all his apostles, and in their sight ascended up into heaven, to prepare a place for us, that where he is, thither might we also ascend, and reign with him in glory. Therefore with angels, and archangels, &c.

¶ Upon Whitsunday, and six dayes after.

THrough Jesus Christ our Lord, according to whose most true promise the holy Ghost came down this day from heaven, with a sudden great sound, as it had been a mighty winde, in the likeness of fiery tongues, tongues, lighting upon the Apostles, to teach them, and to lead them to all truth, giving them both the gift of divers languages, and also boldnesse with fervent zeal, constantly to preach the Gospel unto all Nations, whereby we are brought out of darknesse and errour, into the clear light, and true knowledge of thee, and of thy Son Jesus Christ. Therefore with Angels, &c.

¶ Upon the feast of Trinity onely.

IT is very meet, right, and our bounden duty, that we should at all times, and in all places give thanks to thee, O Lord Almighty and everlasting God, which art one God, one Lord, not one onely person, but three persons in one substance. For that which we beleeve of the glory of the Father, the same we beleeve of the Son, and of the holy Ghost, without any difference or inequalitie. Therefore with angels, &c.

¶ After which Prefaces immediately shall follow,

THerefore with angels and archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnifie thy glorious Name, evermore praising thee, and saying, Holy, holy, holy Lord God of hosts, Heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Glory be to thee, O Lord most High.

¶ Then shall the Priest kneeling down at Gods board, say in the name of all them that shall receive the Communion this prayer following.

WE do not presume to come to this thy table, O mercifull Lord, trusting in our own righteousnesse, but in thy manifold and great mercies. We be not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under thy table. But thou art the same Lord, whose propertie is alwaies to have mercie: grant us therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of thy dear Son Jesus Christ, and to drink his blood, that our sinfull bodies may be made clean by his body, and our soules washed through his most precious blood, and that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

¶ Then the priest standing up, shall say as followeth.

ALmighty God, our heavenly Father, which of thy tender mercy didst give thine onely Sonne Jesus Christ to suffer death upon the crosse for our redemption, who made there, by his one oblation of himself once offered, a full, perfect, and sufficient sacrifice, oblation and satisfaction for the sinnes of the whole world, and did institute, and in his holy Gospel command us to continue a perpetuall memory of that his precious death untill his coming again: Heare us, O mercifull Father, we beseech thee, and grant that we receiving these thy creatures of bread and wine, according to thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christs holy institution, in remembrance of his death and passion, may be partakers of his most blessed body and blood: who in the same night that he was betrayed, took bread, and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, Take, eat, this is my body, which is given for you, do this in remembrance of me. Likewise after supper he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of this, for this is my blood of the new Testament, which is shed for you, and for many for the remission of sinnes: do this as oft as you shall drink it, in remembrance of me.

¶ Then shall the minister first receive the communion in both kindes himself, and next deliver it to other ministers (if any be there present) that they may help the chief minister, and after to the people in their hands, kneeling. And when he delivereth the bread, he shall say,

THe body of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was given for thee, preserve thy body and soul into everlasting life: and take and eat this in remembrance that Christ died for thee, and feed on him in thine heart by faith with thanksgiving.

And

And the minister that delivereth the cup, shall say,

THe blood of our Lord Jesus Christ which was shed for thee, preserve thy body and soul unto everlasting life: and drink this in remembrance that Christs blood was shed for thee, and be thankfull.

¶ Then shall the priest say the Lords prayer, the people repeating after him every petition. After shall be said as followeth. After

O Lord and heavenly Father, we thy humble servants entirely desire thy heavenly goodnesse, mercifully to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, most humbly beseeching thee to grant, that by the merits and death of thy Son Jesus Christ, and through faith in his blood, we and all thy whole church may obtain remission of our sinnes, and all other benefits of his passion. And here we offer and present unto thee, O Lord, our selves, our souls and bodies, to be a reasonable, holy, and lively sacrifice unto thee, humbly beseeching thee, that all we which be partakers of this holy communion, may be fulfilled with thy grace and heavenly benediction. And although we be unworthy through our manifold sinnes, to offer unto thee any sacrifice: yet we beseech thee to accept this our bounden duty and service, not weighing our merits, but pardoning our offences, through Jesus Christ our Lord, by whom, and with whom, in the unity of the holy Ghost, all honour and glory be unto thee, O Father Almighty, world without end. Amen.

Or this.

ALmighty and everliving God, we most heartily thank thee, for that thou dost vouchsafe to feed us which have duely received those holy mysteries, with the spirituall food of the most precious body and blood of thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ, and dost assure us thereby of thy favour and goodnesse toward us, and that that we be very members incorporate in thy mysticall body, which is the blessed company of all faithfull people, and be also heirs through hope of thy everlasting kingdom, by the merits of the most precious death and passion of thy dear Son: We now most humbly beseech thee, O heavenly Father, so to assist us with thy grace, that we may continue in that holy fellowship, and do all such good works, as thou hast prepared for us to walk in, through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom with thee and the holy Ghost, be all honour and glory world without end.

¶ Then shall be said or sung,

GLory be to God on high, and in earth peace, good will towards men. We praise thee, we bless thee, we worship thee, we glorifie thee, we give thanks to thee for thy great glory, O Lord God heavenly King, God the Father Almighty, O Lord the onely begotten Son Jesu Christ, O Lord God, Lambe of God, Son of the Father, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Thou that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Thou that takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father, have mercy upon us. For thou onely art holy, thou onely art the Lord, thou onely O Christ with the holy Ghost, art most high in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

¶ Then the Priest or Bishop, if he be present, shall let them depart with this blessing.

THe peace of God which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and mindes in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the holy Ghost, be amongst you, and remain with you alwayes. Amen.

¶ Collects to be said after the Offertory, when there is no Communion, every such day one. And the same may be said

O Almighty Lord and everlaſting God, vouchſafe we beſeech thee to direct, ſanctifie, and governe both our hearts and bodies in the wayes of thy lawes, and in the works of thy commandments, that through thy moſt mighty protection both here and ever, we may be preſerved in body and ſoul, through our Lord and Saviour Jeſus Chriſt. Amen.

GRant we beſeech thee, Almighty God, that the words which we have heard this day with our outward ears, may through thy grace be ſo graffed inwardly in our hearts, that they may bring forth in us the fruit of good living, to the honour and praiſe of thy Name, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

PRevent us, O Lord, in all our doings, with thy moſt gracious favour, and further us with thy continuall help, that in all our works begun, continued and ended in thee, we may glorifie thy holy Name, and finally by thy mercy obtain everlaſting life, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

mediatly after the laſt Leſſon at Morning prayer, or elſe immediatly after the laſt Leſſon at Evening prayer, as the Curate by his diſcretion ſhall appoint. And then ſtanding there, the Prieſt ſhall aſk whether the children be baptized or not. If they anſwer, No: then ſhall the Prieſt ſay thus,

DEarly beloved, forasmuch as all men be conceived and born in ſinne, and that our Saviour Chriſt ſaith, None can enter into the kingdom of God, except he be regenerate, and born anew of water and of the holy Ghoſt: I beſeech you to call upon God the Father through our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, that of his bounteous mercie he will grant to theſe children that thing which by nature they cannot have, that they may be baptized with water and the holy Ghoſt, and received into Chriſts holy Church, and be made lively members of the ſame.

Then ſhall the Prieſt ſay,

Let us pray.

ALmighty and everlaſting God, which of thy great mercie didſt ſave Noe and his family in the Arke from periſhing by water, and alſo didſt ſafely lead the children of Iſrael thy people thorow the red Sea, figuring thereby thy holy Baptiſme: and by the Baptiſme of thy welbeloved Sonne Jeſus Chriſt, didſt ſanctifie the floud Jordan, and all other waters to the myſticall waſhing away of ſinne: We beſeech thee for thine infinite mercies, that thou wilt mercifully look upon theſe children, ſanctifie them, and waſh them with the holy Ghoſt, that they being delivered from thy wrath, may be received into the Arke of Chriſts Church, and being ſtedfaſt in faith, joyfull through hope, and rooted in charity, may ſo paſſe the waves of this troubleſome world, that finally they may come to the land of everlaſting life, there to reign with thee world without end, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord, Amen.

Almighty

ALmighty and immortall God, the ayd of all that need, the helper of all that flee to thee for succour, the life of them that beleeve, and the resurrection of the dead: we call upon thee for these Infants, that they coming to thy holy Baptisme, may receive remission of their sinnes by spirituall regeneration. Receive them, O Lord as thou hast promised by thy welbeloved Sonne, saying, Aske, and you shall have; seeke, and you shall finde; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. So give now unto us that aske; let us that seeke, finde; open the gate unto us that knock, that these Infants may enjoy the everlasting benediction of thy heavenly washing, and may come to the eternall kingdom, which thou hast promised by Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall the Priest say,

Hear the words of the Gospel written by Saint Mark in the tenth Chapter. Mark. 10.13.

AT a certain time they brought children to Christ, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them. But when Jesus saw it, he was displeased, and said unto them, Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for to such belongeth the kingdom of God. Verily I say unto you, whosoever doth not receive the kingdom of God as a little childe, he shall not enter therein. And when he had taken them up in his armes, he put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

After the Gospel is read, the Minister shall make this brief exhortation upon the words of the Gospel.

FRiends, you hear in this Gospel the words of our Saviour Christ, that he commanded the children to be brought unto him: how he blamed those that would have kept them from him: how he exhorteth all men to follow their innocencie. You perceive how by his outward gesture and deed he declared his good will toward them: for he embraced them in his arms, he laid his hands upon them, and blessed them. Doubt ye not therefore, but earnestly beleeve, that he will likewise favourably receive these present infants, that he will embrace them with the arms of his mercy, that he will give unto them the blessing of eternall life, and make them partakers of his everlasting kingdom, wherefore we being thus perswaded of the good will of our heavenly father toward these Infants, declared by his Sonne Jesus Christ, and nothing doubting but that he favourably alloweth this charitable work of ours, in bringing these children to his holy Baptisme: let us faithfully and devoutly give thanks unto him, and say,

ALmighty and everlasting God, heavenly father, we give thee humble thanks, that thou hast vouchsafed to call us to the knowledge of thy grace, and faith in thee: Encrease this knowledge, and confirm this faith in us evermore: give thy holy Spirit to these Infants, that they may be born again, and be made heirs of everlasting salvation, through our Lord Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

Then the Priest shall speak unto the Godfathers and Godmothers on this wise,

WEl beloved friends, ye have brought these children here to be baptized, ye have prayed that our Lord Jesus Christ would vouchsafe to receive them, to lay his hands upon them, to blesse them, to release them of their sinnes, to give them the kingdom of heaven, and everlasting life. Ye have heard also that our Lord Jesus Christ hath promised in his Gospel to grant all these things that ye have prayed for: which promise he for his part will most surely keep and perform. Wherefore after this promise made by Christ, these infants must also faithfully for their part promise by you that be their sureties

sureties that they will forsake the devill and all his works, and constantly beleeve Gods holy word, and obediently keep his Commandments.

¶ Then shall the Priest demand of the Godfathers and Godmothers these questions following.

DOest thou forsake the devill and all his works, the vain pomp and glory of the world, with all covetous desires of the same, the carnall desires of the flesh, so that thou wilt not follow, nor be led by them?

Answer.

I forsake them all.

Minister.

Doest thou beleeve in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth? And in Jesus Christ his onely begotten Sonne our Lord? And that he was conceived by the holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, that he suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried, that he went down into hell, and also did rise again the third day, that he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty: and from thence shall come again at the end of the world, to judge the quick and the dead? And doest thou beleeve in the holy Ghost, the holy Catholique Church, the Communion of Saints, the remission of sinnes, the resurrection of the flesh, and everlasting life after death?

Answer.

All this I stedfastly beleeve.

Minister.

Wilt thou be baptized in this faith?

Answer.

That is my desire.

Then shall the Priest say.

OMercifull God, grant that the old Adam in these children may be so buried, that the new man may be raised up in them. Amen.

27

Grant that all carnall affections may die in them, and that all things belonging to the Spirit, may live and grow in them. Amen.

Grant that they may have power and strength to have victory, and to triumph against the devill, the world, and the flesh. Amen.

Grant that whosoever is here dedicated to thee by our office and ministery, may also be endued with heavenly vertues, and everlastingly rewarded through thy mercy, O blessed Lord God, who doest live and govern all things, world without end. Amen.

ALmighty everliving God, whose most dearly beloved Sonne Jesus Christ, for the forgivenesse of our sinnes, did shed out of his most precious side both water and blood, and gave commandment to his Disciples, that they should go teach all nations, and baptize them in the Name of the Father, the Sonne, and of the holy Ghost: regard, we beseech thee, the supplications of thy Congregation, and grant that all thy servants which shall be baptized in this water, may receive the fulnesse of thy grace, and ever remain in the number of thy faithfull and elect children, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then the Priest shall take the childe in his hands, and ask the name: and naming the childe, shall dip it in the water, so it be discreetly and warily done, saying,

N I Baptize thee in the Name of the Father, and of the Sonne, and of the holy Ghost. Amen.

And if the childe be weak, it shall suffice to pour water upon it, saying the foresaid words.

N. I Baptize thee in the Name of the Father, and of the Sonne, and of the holy Ghost. Amen.

Then the Priest shall make a crosse upon the childes forehead, saying,

WE receive this childe into the Congregation of Christs flock, and do signe him with the signe of

of the crosse, in token that hereafter he shall not be ashamed to confesse the faith of Christ crucified, and manfully to fight under his banner, against sinne, the world, and the devill, and to continue Christs faithfull souldier and servant unto his lives end. Amen.

Then shall the Priest say,

SEeing now, dearly beloved brethren, that these children be regenerate and grafted into the body of Christs Congregation, let us give thanks unto God for these benefits, and with one accord make our prayers unto Almightie God, that they may lead the rest of their life according to this beginning.

Then shall be said,

Our Father which art in heaven, &c.

Then shall the Priest say.

WEe yeeld thee hearty thanks, most mercifull Father, that it hath pleased thee to regenerate this Infant with thy holy Spirit, to receive him for thine own childe by adoption, and to incorporate him into thy holy Congregation. And humbly we beseech thee to grant, that he being dead unto sin, and living unto righteousnesse, and being buried with Christ in his death, may crucifie the old man, and utterly abolish the whole body of sinne, that as he is made partaker of the death of thy Sonne, so he may be partaker of his resurrection, so that finally, with the residue of thy holy Congregation, he may be inheritour of thine everlasting kingdome, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

At the last end, the Priest calling the Godfathers and Godmothers together, shall say this exhortation following.

FOrasmuch as these children have promised by you to forsake the devill and all his works, to beleeve in God and to serve him: you must remember that it is your parts and duties, to see that these Infants be taught, so soon as they shall be able to learn, what a solemn vow, promise and profession they have made by you. And that they may know these things the better, ye shall call upon them to hear Sermons, and chiefly you shall provide that they may learn the Creed, the Lords Prayer, and the ten Commandments in the English tongue, and all other things which a Christian man ought to know and beleeve to his souls health, and that these children may be vertuously brought up, to lead a godly and a Christian life, remembring alwayes that Baptisme doth represent unto us our profession, which is to follow the example of our Saviour Christ, and to be made like unto him, that as he died and rose again for us, so should we which are baptized die from sinne, and rise again unto righteousnesse, continually mortifying all our evill and corrupt affections, and daily proceeding in all vertue and godlinesse of living.

¶ The Minister shall command that the children be brought to the Bishop to be confirmed of him, so soon as they can say in their vulgar tongue, the Articles of the Faith, the Lords Prayer, and the ten Commandments, and be further instructed in the Catechisme set forth for that purpose, accordingly as it is there expressed.

¶ Of them that are to be baptized in private houses, in time of necessitie, by the Minister of the Parish, or any other lawfull Minister that can be procured.

THe Pastours and Curates shall often admonish the people, that they deferre not the Baptisme of Infants any longer then the Sunday, or other Holy day next after the childe be born, unlesse upon a great and reasonable cause declared to the Curate, and by him approved. And also they shall warn them; that without great cause, and necessitie, they procure not not their children to be baptized at home in their houſes. And when great need ſhall compell them ſo to do, then Baptiſme ſhall be adminiſtred on this faſhion. Firſt, let the lawfull Miniſter and them that be preſent, call upon God for his grace, and ſay the Lords Prayer, if the time will ſuffer. And then the childe being named by ſome one that is preſent, the ſaid lawfull Miniſter ſhall dip it in water, or pour water upon it, ſaying theſe words,

N. I baptize thee in the Name of the Father, and of the Sonne, and of the holy Ghoſt. Amen.

And let them not doubt, but that the childe ſo baptized, is lawfully and ſufficiently baptized, and ought not to be baptized again. But yet nevertheleſſe, if the childe which is after this ſort baptized, doe afterwards live, it is expedient that it be brought into the Church, to the intent that if the Prieſt or Miniſter of the ſame Pariſh did himſelf baptize that childe, the Congregation may be certified of the true form of Baptiſme by him privately before uſed: Or if the childe were baptized by any other lawfull Miniſter, that then the Miniſter of the Pariſh, where the childe was born or Chriſtened, ſhall examine and trie, whether the childe be lawfully baptized, or no. In which caſe, if thoſe that bring any childe to the Church, doe anſwer that the ſame childe is already baptized, then ſhall the Miniſter examine them further, ſaying,

By whom was the chylde Baptized?

Who was preſent when the chylde was baptized?

And becauſe ſome things eſſentiall to this Sacrament, may happen to be omitted, through fear or haſte in ſuch times of extremity: Therefore I demand further of you,

With what matter was the chylde baptized?

With what wordes was the chylde baptized?

Whether think you the chylde to be lawfully and perfectly baptized?

31 And if the Minister shall finde by the answers of such as bring the childe, that all things were done as they ought to be: then shall not he Christen the childe again, but shall receive him as one of the flock of the true Christian people, saying thus,

I Certifie you, that in this case all is well done, and according unto due order, concerning the baptizing of this childe, which being born in originall sinne, and in the wrath of God, is now by the laver of regeneration in Baptisme, received into the number of the children of God, and heirs of everlasting life. For our Lord Jesus Christ doth not denie his grace, and mercy unto such Infants, but most lovingly doth call them unto him as the holy Gospel doth witnesse to our comfort on this wise.

Mark. 10.13. AT a certain time they brought children unto Christ, that he should touch them, and his disciples rebuked those that brought them: But when Jesus saw it, he was displeased, and said unto them, Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for to such belongeth the Kingdome of God. Verily I say unto you, Whosoever doth not receive the Kingdome of God as a little childe, he shall not enter therein. And when he had taken them up in his arms, he put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

After the Gospel is read, the Minister shall make this exhortation upon the words of the Gospel.

FRiends, you hear in this Gospel the words of our Saviour Christ, that he commanded the children to be brought unto him: how he blamed those that would have kept them from him: how he exhorted all men to follow their innocencie. Ye perceive how by his outward gesture and deed, he declared his good will towards them: For he embraced them in his arms, he laid his hands upon them, and blessed them. Doubt ye not therefore, but earnestly beleeve, that that he hath likewise favourably received this present Infant, that he hath embraced him with the arms of his mercie, that he hath given unto him the blessing of eternall life, and made him partaker of his everlasting Kingdom. Wherefore we being thus perswaded of the good will of our heavenly Father, declared by his Sonne Jesus Christ towards this Infant, let us faithfully and devoutly give thanks unto him, and say the prayer which the Lord himself taught, and in declaration of our Faith let us recite the Articles contained in our Creed.

Here the Minister, with the Godfathers and Godmothers shall say,

¶ Our Father which art in heaven, &c.

Then shall the Priest demand the name of the childe, which being by the Godfathers and Godmothers pronounced, the Minister shall say, Doest thou in the name of this childe forsake the devill and all his works, the vain pomp and glory of the world, with all the covetous desires of the same, the carnall desires of the flesh, and not to follow and be led by them.

Answer.

I forsake them all.

Minister.

Doest thou in the name of this childe professe this Faith, to beleeve in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth? And in Jesus Christ his onely begotten Sonne our Lord? And that he was conceived by the holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, that he suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; that he went down into hell, and also did rise again the third day, that he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty, and from thence he shall come again at the end of the world to judge the quick and the dead? and do you in his Name beleeve in the holy Ghost, the holy Catholique Church, the Communion of saints, the remission of sinnes, resurrection, and everlasting life after death?

Answer.

All this I stedfastly beleeve.

¶ Let us pray.

ALmighty and everlasting God, heavenly Father, we give thee humble thanks, for that thou hast vouchsafed to call us to the knowledge of thy grace, and faith in thee: Increase this knowledge, and confirm this faith in us evermore: give thy holy Spirit to this Infant, that he being born again, and being made heir of everlasting salvation, through our Lord Jesus Christ, may continue thy servant, and attain thy promise, through the same our Lord Jesus Christ thy Sonne, who liveth and reigneth with thee in the unity of the same holy Spirit, everlastingly. Amen.

Then shall the Minister make this exhortation to the Godfathers and Godmothers.

FOrasmuch as this childe hath promised by you to forsake the devill and all his works, to beleeve in God, and to serve him: you must remember that it is your part and duty, to see that this Infant be taught, so soon as he shall be able to learn, what a solemn vow, promise, and profession he hath made by you. And that he may know these things the better, ye shall call upon him to hear Sermons, and chiefly you shall provide that he may learn the Creed, the Lords prayer, and the tenne Commandments in the English tongue, and all other things which a Christian man ought to know, and beleeve to his soules health, and that this childe may be vertuously brought up, to lead a godly and a Christian life, remembring alway that Baptisme doth represent unto us our profession, which is to follow the example of our Saviour Christ, and be made like unto him, that as he died and rose again for us, so should we which are baptized, die from sinne, and rise again unto righteousnesse, continually mortifying all our evill and corrupt affections, and dayly proceeding in all vertue and godlinesse of living.

And so forth as in Publike Baptisme.

But if they which bring the Infants to the Church, doe make such uncertain answeres to the Priests questions, as that it cannot appear that the childe was baptized with water, in the Name of the Father, and of the Sonne, and of the holy Ghost, which are Essentiall parts of Baptisme: then let the Priest baptize it in form above written, concerning Publique Baptisme, saving that at the dipping of the childe in the Font, he shall use this form of words.

If thou be not already baptized, N. I baptize thee in the Name of the Father, and of the Sonne, and of the holy Ghost.

The order of Confirmation, or laying on of hands upon children baptized, and able to render an account of their Faith, according to the Catechisme following.

TO the end that Confirmation may be ministred to the more edifying of such as shall receive it, (according to S. Pauls doctrine, who teacheth that all things should be done in the Church to the edification of the same) it is thought good that none hereafter shall be confirmed, but such as can say in their mother tongue the Articles of the faith, the Lords Prayer, and the ten Commandments, and can also answer to such questions of this short Catechisme, as the Bishop (or such as he shall appoint) shall by his discretion appose them in. And this order is most convenient to be observed for divers considerations.

First,

Firſt, becauſe that when children come to the yeeres of diſcretion, and have learned what their Godfathers, and Godmothers promiſed for them in baptiſme, they may then themſelves with their own mouth, and with their own conſent, openly before the Church, ratifie and confirm the ſame: and alſo promiſe that by the grace of God they will evermore endevour themſelves faithfully to obſerve and keep ſuch things as they by their own mouth and confeſſion have aſſented unto. Secondly, foraſmuch as Confirmation is miniſtred to them that be baptized, that by impoſition of hands and prayer, they may receive ſtrength and defence againſt all temptations to ſinne, and the aſſaults of the world and the devill, it is moſt meet to be miniſtred when children come to that age, that partly by the frailty of their own fleſh, partly by the aſſaults of the world and the devill, they begin to be in danger to fall into ſundry kinds of ſinne.

Thirdly, for that it is agreeable with the uſage of the Church in times paſt: whereby it was ordained that Confirmation ſhould be miniſtred to them that were of perfect age, that they being inſtructed in Chriſts religion, ſhould openly profeſſe their own faith, and promiſe to be obedient unto the will of God. And that no man ſhall think that any detriment ſhall come to children by deferring of their Confirmation, he ſhall know for truth, that it is certain by Gods Word, that children being baptized, have all things neceſſary for their ſalvation, and be undoubtedly ſaved.

A Catechiſme, that is to ſay, An inſtruction to be learned of every childe, before he be brought to be confirmed by the Biſhop.

Queſtion.

WHat is your name?

Anſwer.

N. or M.

Queſtion.

Who gave you this name?

Anſwer.

Answer.

My Godfathers and Godmothers in my Baptisme, wherein I was made a member of Christ, the childe of God, and an inheritour of the Kingdom of Heaven.

Question.

What did your Godfathers and Godmothers then for you?

Answer.

They did promise and vow three things in my name. First, that I should forsake the devill and all his workes, the pomps and vanities of the wicked world, and all the sinfull lusts of the flesh. Secondly, that I should beleeve all the Articles of the Christian Faith. And thirdly, that I should keep Gods holy Will, and Commandments, and walk in the same all the dayes of my life.

Question.

Doest thou not think that thou art bound to beleeve, and to do as they have promised for thee?

Answer.

Yes verily: and by Gods help so I will. And I heartily thank our heavenly Father, that he hath called me to this state of salvation, through Jesus Christ our Saviour. And I pray God to give me his grace, that I may continue in the same unto my lives end.

Question.

Rehearse the Articles of thy belief.

Answer.

I beleeve in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth. And in Jesus Christ his onely Sonne our Lord, which was conceived by the holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried, he descended into hell, the third day he rose again from the dead, he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty: From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I beleeve in the holy Ghost, the holy Catholique Church, the Communion of Saints, the forgivenesse of sinnes, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

of

Question.

What doest thou chiefly learn in these Articles of thy belief?

Answer.

First, I learn to beleeve in God the Father, who hath made me and all the world.

Secondly, in God the Sonne, who hath redeemed me, and all mankinde.

Thirdly, in God the holy Ghost, who sanctifieth me, and all the elect people of God.

Question.

You said that your Godfathers and Godmothers did promise for you, that you should keep Gods Commandments. Tell me how many there be?

Answer.

Tenne.

Question.

Which be they?

Answer.

THe same which God spake in the twentieth Chapter of Exodus, saying, I am the Lord thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

i. Thou shalt have none other Gods but me.

ii. Thou shalt not make to thy self any graven image, nor the likenesse of any thing that is in heaven above, or in the earth beneath, or in the water under the earth. Thou shalt not bow down to them, nor worship them. For I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, and visit the sinnes of the fathers upon the children, unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me, me, and shew mercy unto thousands, in them that love me and keep my Commandments.

iii. Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain: for the Lord will not hold him guiltlesse that taketh his Name in vain.

iiii. Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath day. Six dayes shalt thou labour, and do all that thou hast to do, but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God: In it thou shalt do no manner of work, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, thy man servant, and thy maid servant, thy cattell, and the stranger that is within thy gates: for in six dayes the Lord made heaven and earth, the Sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the seventh day, and hallowed it.

v. Honour thy father and thy mother, that thy dayes may be long in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

vi. Thou shalt do no murther.

vii. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

viii. Thou shalt not steal.

ix. Thou shalt not bear false witnesse against thy neighbour.

x. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbours house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbours wife, nor his servant, nor his maid, nor his ox, nor his asse, nor any thing that is his.

Question.

What doest thou chiefly learn by these Commandments?

Answer.

I learn two things: my dutie towards God, and my dutie towards my neighbour.

Question.

What is thy duty towards God?

Answer.

Answer.

My duty towards God is to beleeve in him, to fear him, and to love him with all my heart, with all my minde, with all my soul, and with all my strength. To worship him, to give him thanks, to put my whole trust in him, to call upon him, to honour his holy Name and his word, and to serve him truly all the dayes of my life.

Question.

What is thy duty towards thy neighbour?

Answer.

My duetie towards my neighbour, is to love him as my self, and to do to all men as I would they should do unto me. To love, honour, and succour my father, and mother. To honour and obey the King and his ministers. To submit my self to all my governours, teachers, spirituall Pastours and masters. To order my self lowly and reverently to all my betters. To hurt no body by word or deed. To be true and just in all my dealing. To bear no malice nor hatred in my heart. To keep my hands from picking and stealing, and my tongue from evill speaking, lying and slandering. To keep my body in temperance, soberneſſe, and chastitie. Not to covet nor desire other mens goods, but to learn and labour truely to get mine own living, and to do my duetie in that state of life, unto the which it shall please God to call me.

Question.

My good childe, know this, that thou art not able to do these things of thy self, nor to walk in the Commandments of God, and to serve him, without his speciall grace, which thou must learn at all times to call for by diligent prayer. Let me hear therefore if thou canst say the Lords prayer.

Answer.

OUr Father which art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, Thy Kingdome come, Thy will be done in

in earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our dayly bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespasse against us. And lead us not into temptation: but deliver us from evill. Amen.

Question.

What desirest thou of God in this prayer?

Answer.

I desire my Lord God our heavenly Father, who is the giver of all goodnesse, to send his grace unto me, and to all people, that we may worship him, serve him, and obey him as we ought to do. And I pray unto God, that he will send us all things that be needfull both for our soules and bodies, and that he will be mercifull unto us, and forgive us our sinnes, and that it will please him to save and defend us in all dangers ghostly and bodily, and that he will keep us from all sinne and wickednesse, and from our ghostly enemie, and from everlasting death. And this I trust he will do of his mercie and goodnesse, through our Lord Jesus Christ. And therefore I say, Amen. So be it.

Question.

How many Sacraments hath Christ ordained in his Church?

Answer.

Two onely as generally necessary to salvation, that is to say, Baptisme, and the Supper of the Lord.

Question.

What meanest thou by this word Sacrament?

Answer.

I mean an outward and visible signe of an inward and spirituall grace, given unto us, ordained by Christ himself, as a meanes whereby we receive the same, and a pledge to assure us thereof.

Question.

Question.

How many parts be there in a Sacrament?

Answer.

Two: the outward visible Signe, and the inward Spirituall grace.

Question.

What is the outward visible signe, or form in Baptisme?

Answer.

Water: wherein the person baptized is dipped, or sprinkled with it, In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the holy Ghost.

Question.

What is the inward and spirituall grace?

Answer.

A death unto sinne, and a new birth unto righteousnesse: for being by nature born in sinne, and the children of wrath, we are hereby made the children of grace.

Question.

What is required of persons to be baptized?

Answer.

Repentance, whereby they forsake sinne: and faith, whereby they stedfastly beleeve the promises of God made to them in that Sacrament.

Question.

Why then are Infants baptized, when by reason of their tender age, they cannot perform them?

Answer.

Yes: they do perform them by their Sureties, who promise and vow them both in their names: which when they come to age, themselves are bound to perform.

Question.

Why was the Sacrament of the Lords Supper ordained?

Answer.

Answer.

For the continuall remembrance of the Sacrifice of the death of Christ, and the benefits which wee receive thereby.

Question.

What is the outward part or signe of the Lords Supper?

Answer.

Bread and Wine, which the Lord hath commanded to be received.

Question.

What is the inward part, or thing signified?

Answer.

The Body and Bloud of Christ, which are verily and indeed taken and received of the faithfull in the Lords Supper.

Question.

What are the benefits whereof wee are partakers thereby?

Answer.

The strengthening and refreshing of our soules by the Body and bloud of Christ, as our bodies are by the Bread and Wine.

Question.

What is required of them which come to the Lords Supper?

Answer.

To examine themselves whether they repent them truly of their former sinnes, stedfastly purposing to lead a new life, have a lively faith in gods mercy through Christ, with a thankfull remembrance of his death, and be in charity with all men.

¶ So soon as the children can say in their mother tongue the articles of the faith, the Lords prayer, the ten Commandments, and also can answer to such questions of this short Catechiſme, as the Biſhop, or ſuch as he ſhall appoint, ſhall by his diſcretion appoſe them in: then ſhall they be brought to the Biſhop by one that ſhall be their Godfather or Godmother, that every childe may have a witneſſe of his Confirmation. And the Biſhop ſhall confirm them on this wiſe.

ALmighty and everliving God, who haſt vouchſafed to regenerate theſe thy ſervants by water and the holy Ghoſt, and haſt given unto them forgiveneſſe of all their ſinnes: ſtrengthen them, we beſeech thee, O Lord, with the holy Ghoſt, the Comforter, and dayly increaſe in them thy manifold gifts of grace, the ſpirit of wiſdom and underſtanding, the ſpirit of counſell and ghoſtly ſtrength, the ſpirit of knowledge and true godlineſſe, and fulfill them, O Lord, with the ſpirit of thy holy fear. Amen.

¶ Then the Biſhop ſhall lay his hand upon every childe ſeverally, ſaying, Defend, O Lord, this childe with thy heavenly grace, that that he may continue thine for ever, and dayly increase in thy holy Spirit more and more, untill he come unto thy everlasting Kingdom. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Bishop say,

Let us pray.

ALmighty and everliving God, which makest us both to will, and to do those things that be good and acceptable unto thy Majesty, we make our humble supplications unto thee for these children, upon whom, after the example of the holy Apostles, we have laid our hands, to certifie them by this sign, of thy favour and gracious goodnesse toward them: let thy Fatherly hand, we beseech thee, ever be over them: let thy holy Spirit ever be with them, and so lead them in the knowledge and obedience of thy word, that in the end they may obtain the everlasting life, through our Lord Jesus Christ, who with thee and the holy Ghost, liveth and reigneth one God, world without end. Amen.

¶ Then the Bishop shall blesse the children, saying thus,

THe blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the holy Ghost, be upon you, and remain with you for ever. Amen.

¶ The Curate of every Parish, or some other at his appointment, shall diligently upon Sundayes and Holy-dayes, half an hour before Evensong, openly in the Church, instruct and examine so many children of his Parish, sent unto him, as the time will serve, and as he shall think convenient, in some part of this Catechisme.

¶ And all Fathers, Mothers, Masters, & Dames, shall cause their children, servants and prentises (which have not learned their Catechisme) to come to the Church at the time appointed, and obediently to hear and be ordered by the Curate, untill such time that they have learned all that is here appointed for them to learn. And whensoever the Bishop shal give knowledge for children to be brought before him to any convenient place for their confirmation, then shall the Curate of every Parish, either bring or send in writing the names of all those children of his Parish, which can say the Articles of the Faith, the Lords prayer, and the ten Commandments, and also how many of them can answer to the other questions contained in this Catechisme.

¶ And there shall none be admitted to the holy Communion, until such time as he can say the Catechisme, & be confirmed.

¶ The form of solemnization of Matrimony.

¶ First, the banes must be asked three severall Sundayes or Holy-dayes, in the time of Service, the people being present, after the accustomed manner.

¶ And if the persons that should be married, dwell in diverse Parishes, the Banes must be asked in both Parishes, and the Curate of the one Parish shall not solemnize Matrimonie betwixt them, without a Certificate of the Banes being thrice asked, from the Curate of the other Parish.

¶ At the day appointed for solemnization of Matrimony, the persons to be married shall come into the body of the Church, with their friends and neighbours, and there the Priest shall say thus,

DEarly beloved friends, we are gathered together here in the sight of God, and in the face of this Congregation, to joyn together this man and this woman in holy Matrimony, which is an honourable estate, instituted of God in Paradise, in the time of mans innocencie, signifying unto us the mysticall Union that is betwixt Christ and his Church: which holy estate Christ adorned and beautified with his presence, and first miracle that he wrought in Cana of

Galilee,

Galilee, and is commended of Saint Paul to be honourable among all men, and therefore is not to be enterprised nor taken in hand unadvisedly, lightly, or wantonly to satisfie mens carnall lusts and appetites, like brute beasts that have no understanding, but reverently, discreetly, advisedly, soberly, and in the fear of God, duely considering the causes for which Matrimony was ordained. One was the procreation of children to be brought up in the fear and nurture of the Lord, and praise of God. Secondly, it was ordained for a remedy against sinne, and to avoid fornication, that such persons as have not the gift of continencie, might marry, and keep themselves undefiled members of Christs body. Thirdly, for the mutuall society, help, and comfort that the one ought to have of the other both in prosperity and adversity, into the which holy estate these two persons present come now to be joyned. Therefore if any man can shew any just cause, why they may not lawfully be joyned together, let him now speak, or else hereafter for ever hold his peace.

¶ And also speaking unto the persons that shall be married, he shall say,

I Require and charge you (as you will answer at the dreadfull day of judgement, when the secrets of all hearts shall be disclosed) that if either of you do know any impediment, why ye may not be lawfully joyned together in Matrimony, that ye confesse it. For be ye well assured, that so many as be coupled together otherwise then Gods word doth allow, are not joyned together by God, neither is their Matrimony lawfull.

¶ At which day of Marriage, if any man do alleadge and declare any impediment, why they may not be coupled together in Matrimony by Gods Law, or the Laws of this Realm, and will be bound, and sufficient sureties with him to the parties, or else put in a caution to the full value of such charges as the persons to be married do sustain, to prove his allegation: then the solemnization must be deferred unto such time as the truth be tried. If no impediment be alleadged, then shall the Curate say unto the man,

N. WIlt thou have this woman to thy wedded wife, to live together after Gods ordinance, in the holy estate of Matrimony? Wilt thou love her, comfort her, honour, and keep her in sickness and in health? and forsaking all other, keep thee only unto her, so long as you both shall live?

The man shall answer,

I will.

Then shall the Priest say unto the woman,

N. WIlt thou have this man to thy wedded husband, to live together after Gods ordinance, in the holy estate of Matrimony? Wilt thou obey him, and serve him, love, honour, and keep him in sickness and in health? and forsaking all other, keep thee only unto him, so long as you both shall live?

The woman shall answer,

I will.

Then shall the Minister say,

Who giveth this woman to be married to this man?

¶ And the Minister receiving the woman at her fathers or friends hands, shall cause the man to take the woman by the right hand, and so either to give their troth to other, the man first saying,

I. N. take thee N. to my wedded wife, to have and to hold from this day forward, for better for worse, for richer for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love and to cherish, till death us depart, according to Gods holy ordinance: and thereto I plight thee my troth.

¶ Then shall they loose their hands, and the woman taking again the man by thy right hand, shall say,

I. N. take thee N. to my wedded husband, to have

and

and to hold from this day forward, for better, for worse, for richer for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love, cherish, and to obey, till death us depart, according to Gods holy ordinance: and thereto I give thee my troth.

¶ Then shall they again loose their hands, and the man shall give unto the woman a Ring, laying the same upon the book, with the accustomed duety to the Priest and Clerk. And the Priest taking the Ring, shall deliver it unto the man, to put it upon the fourth finger of the womans left hand. And the man taught by the Priest, shall say,

With this Ring I thee wed, with my body I thee worship, and with all my worldly goods I thee endow: In the Name of the Father, and of the Sonne, and of the holy Ghost. Amen.

¶ Then the man leaving the Ring upon the fourth finger of the womans left hand, the Minister shall say,

¶ Let us pray.

O Eternall God, Creatour and Preserver of all mankinde, giver of all spirituall grace, the Authour of everlasting life, send thy blessing upon these thy servants, this man and this woman, whom we blesse in thy Name, that as Isaac and Rebecca lived faithfully together, so these persons may surely perform and keep the vow and covenant betwixt them made (whereof this Ring given and received is a token and pledge) and may ever remain in perfect love and peace together, and live according to thy laws, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Priest joyn their right hands together and say,

Those whom God hath joyned together, let no man put asunder.

¶ Then shall the Minister speak unto the people,

Forasmuch as N. and N. have consented together in holy wedlock, and have witnessed the same before God and this company, and thereto have given and pledged their troth either to other, and have declared the same by giving and receiving of a Ring, and by joyning of hands: I pronounce that they be man and wife together. In the Name of the Father, of the Sonne, and of the holy Ghost. Amen.

¶ And the Minister shall adde this blessing.

GOd the Father, God the Son, God the holy Ghost, blesse, preserve and keep you, the Lord mercifully with his favour look upon you, and so fill you with all spirituall benediction and grace, that you may so live together in this life, that in the world to come you may have life everlasting. Amen.

¶ Then the Minister or Clerks going to the Lords Table, shall say or sing this Psalme following.

Beati omnes. Psal. 128.

BLessed are all they that fear the Lord: and walk in his wayes.

For thou shalt eat the labour of thine hands: O well is thee, and happy shalt thou be.

Thy wife shall be as the fruitfull Vine: upon the walls of thy house.

Thy children like the Olive branches: round about thy table.

Lo, thus shall the man be blessed: that feareth the Lord.

The Lord from out of Sion shall so blesse thee: that thou shalt see Jerusalem in prosperity all thy life long.

Yea, that thou shalt see thy childrens children: and peace upon Israel.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Sonne, &c.

As it was in the beginning, is now, &c.

Or this Psalm.

Deus misereatur. Psal. 67.

GOd be mercifull unto us and blesse us: and shew us the light of his countenance, and be mercifull unto us.

That thy way may be known upon the earth: thy saving health among all nations.

Let

Let the people praise thee, O God: yea, let all the people praise thee.

O Let the nations rejoyce and be glad: for thou shalt judge the folk righteously, and govern the Nations upon the earth.

Let the people praise thee, O God: let all the people praise thee.

Then shall the earth bring forth her increase: and God, even our own God shall give us his blessing.

God shall bless us: and all the ends of the world shall fear him.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Sonne: and to the holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

¶ The Psalm ended, and the man and the woman kneeling afore the Lords Table, the Priest standing at the Table and turning his face toward them, shall say,

Lord have mercy upon us.

Answer.

Minister.

Answer.

Minister.

O Lord hear our prayer.

Answer.

And let our cry come unto thee.

Minister.

O God of Abraham, God of Isaac, God of Jacob, blesse these thy servants, and sowe the seed of eternall life in their mindes, that whatsoever in thy holy word they shall profitably learn, they may in deed fulfill the same. Look, O Lord, mercifully upon them from heaven, and blesse them. And as thou didst send thy blessing upon Abraham and Sara to their great comfort: so vouchsafe to send thy blessing upon these thy servants, that they obeying thy will, and alway being in safety under thy protection, may abide in thy love unto their lives end, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ This prayer next following shall be omitted, where the woman is past childe-birth.

O Mercifull Lord and heavenly Father, by whose gracious gift mankinde is increased: we beseech thee assist with thy blessing these two persons, that they may both be fruitfull in procreation of children, and also live together so long in godly love and honesty, that they may see their childrens children unto the third and fourth generation, unto thy praise and honour, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O God which by thy mighty power hast made all things of nought, which also (after other things set in order) didst appoint, that out of man (created after thine own image and similitude) woman should take her beginning: and knitting them together, didst teach that it should never be lawfull to put asunder those whom thou by Matrimony hadst made one: O God, which hast consecrated the state of Matrimony to such an excellent mystery, that in it is signified and represented the spirituall marriage and unity betwixt Christ and his Church: look mercifully upon these thy servants, that both this man may love his wife according to thy word (as Christ did love his spouse the Church, who gave himself for it, loving and cherishing it even as his own flesh) and also that this woman may be loving and amiable to her husband as Rachel, wise as Rebecca, faithfull and obedient as Sara; and in all quietnesse, sobriety, and peace, be a follower of holy and godly Matrons. O Lord blesse them both, and grant them to inherit thine everlasting Kingdome, through Jesus Christ our Lord Amen.

¶ Then shall the priest say,

ALmighty God, which at the beginning did create our first parents Adam and Eve, and did sanctifie and joyn them together in marriage, poure upon you the riches of his grace, sanctifie and blesse you, that ye may please him both in body and soul, and live together in holy love unto your lives end. Amen.

¶ Then shall begin the Communion. And after the Gospel shall be said a Sermon, wherein ordinarily, so oft as there is any marriage, the office of a man and wife shall be declared, according to holy Scripture. Or if there be no Sermon, the Minister shall read this that followeth.

ALl ye which be maried, or which intend to take the holy state of Matrimony upon you, hear what holy Scripture doth say as touching the duty of husbands towards their wives, and wives towards their husbands.

Saint Paul in his Epistle to the Ephesians the fifth Chapter, doth give this commandement to all maried men, Ye husbands, love your wives, even as Christ loved 53 loued the Church, and hath giuen himselfe for it, to sanctifie it, purging it in the fountain of water, through the word, that he might make it vnto himself a glorious Congregation, not hauing spot or wrinkle, or any such thing, but that it should be holy and blameless. So men are bound to loue their own wiues as their own bodies. He that loueth his own wife, loueth himself: for neuer did any man hate his own flesh, but nourisheth and cherisheth it, euen as the Lord doth the Congregation: for we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones. For this cause shall a man leaue father and mother, and shall be ioyned vnto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh. This mystery is great: but I speak of Christ and of the Congregation. Nethelesse, let euery one of you so loue his own wife, euen as himself.

Likewise the same Saint Paul writing to the Colossians, speaketh thus to all men that be married, Ye men, loue your wiues, and be not bitter vnto them.

Hear also what Saint Peter the Apostle of Christ, which was himself a married man, saith vnto them that are married, Ye husbands dwell with your wiues according to knowledge, giuing honour vnto the wife, as vnto the weaker vessell, and as heirs together of the grace of life, so that your prayers be not hindered.

Hitherto ye haue heard the duty of the husband towards the wife. Now likewise ye wiues, hear and learn your duties towards your husbands, euen as it is plainly set forth in holy Scripture.

Saint Paul in the aforenamed Epistle to the Ephesians, teacheth you thus: Ye women submit your selues vnto your own husbands, as vnto the Lord: for the husband is the wiues head, euen as Christ is the head of the Church, and he is also the Sauiour of the whole body.

Therefore as the Church or Congregation is subiect vnto Christ: so likewise let the wiues also be in subiection unto their own husbands in all things. And again he saith, Let the wife reverence her husband. And in his Epistle to the Colossians, Saint Paul giveth you this short lesson, Ye wives submit your selves unto your own husbands, as it is convenient in the Lord.

unto

Saint Peter also doth instruct you very godly, thus saying, Let wives be subject to their own husbands, so that if any obey not the word, they may be wonne without the word, by the conversation of the wives, while they behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear. Whose apparell let it not be outward with braided hair, and trimming about with gold, either in putting on of gorgeous apparell: but let the hid man, which is in the heart, be without all corruption, so that the spirit be milde and quiet, which is a precious thing in the sight of God. For after this manner in the old time did the holy women which trusted in God, apparell themselves, being subject to their own husbands, as Sara obeyed Abraham, calling him lord, whose daughters ye are made doing well, and not being dismayed with any fear.

¶ The new married persons the same day of their marriage, must receive the holy Communion.

¶ The order for the visitation of the sick.

The Priest entring into the sick persons house, shall say,

Peace be to this house, and to all that dwell in it.

¶ When he cometh into the sick mans presence, he shall say kneeling down.

REmember not Lord our iniquities, nor the iniquities of our forefathers. Spare us, good Lord, spare thy people whom thou hast redeemed with thy most precious blood, and be not angry with us for ever.

Lord

Lord have mercie upon us.
Christ have mercy upon us.

And lead us not into temptation.

But deliver us from evill. Amen.

Minister.

O Lord look down from heaven, behold, visit and relieve this thy servant. Look upon him with the eyes of thy mercie, give him comfort and sure confidence in thee, defend him from the danger of the enemie, and keep him in perpetuall peace and safety, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

HEar us, Almighty and most mercifull God and Saviour, extend thine accustomed goodnesse to this this thy servant, which is grieved with sickneſſe: visit him, O Lord, as thou didſt visit Peters wives mother, and the Captains servant. So visit and restore to this sick person his former health, (if it be thy will) or else give him grace so to take thy visitation, that after this painfull life ended, hee may dwell with thee in life everlasting. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Miniſter exhort the sick person after this forme, or other like,

DEarly beloved, know this, that Almighty God is the Lord of life and death, and over all things to them pertaining, as youth, strength, health, age, weakneſſe, and sickneſſe. Wherefore, whatsoever your sickneſſe is, know you certainly that it is Gods visitation. And for what cauſe soever this sickneſſe is sent unto you, whether it be to trie your patience for the example of other, and that your faith may be found in the day of the Lord, laudable, glorious, and honourable, to the increaſe of glory, and endleſſe felicity, or elſe it be sent unto you to correct and amend in you whatsoever doth offend the eyes of your heavenly Father: know you certainly, that if you truely repent you of your ſinnes, and bear your sickneſſe patiently, trusting in Gods mercy, for his dear Sonne Jeſus Christ [illegible] render unto him humble thanks for his fatherly visitation, ſubmitting your ſelf wholly unto his will, it ſhall turn to your profit, and help you forward in the right way that leadeth unto everlaſting life.

¶ If the person visited be very sick, then the Curate may end his exhortation in this place.

TAke therefore in good worth the chaſtiſement of the Lord. For whom the Lord loveth, hee chaſtiſeth: yea, as S. Paul ſaith, Hee ſcourgeth every ſonne which hee receiveth. If ye indure chaſtiſement, he offereth himſelf unto you as unto his own children.

What

what sonne is he that the father chastiseth not? If ye be not under correction (whereof all true children are partakers) then are ye bastards and not children. Therefore seeing that when our carnall fathers do correct us, wee reverently obey them: shall we not now much rather be obedient to our Spirituall Father, and so live? And they for a few dayes do chastise us after their own pleasure: but he doth chastise us for our profit, to the intent wee may make us partakers of his holinesse. These words, good brother, are Gods words, and written in holy Scripture for our comfort and instruction, that wee should patiently and with thanksgiving bear our heavenly Fathers correction, whensoever by any manner of adversitie it shall please his gratious goodnesse to visit us. And there should be no greater comfort to Christian persons, then to be made like unto Christ, by suffering patiently adversities, troubles and sicknesse. For he himselfe went not up to joy, but first he suffered pain: he entred not into his glory, before he was crucified: so truly our way to eternall joy is, to suffer here with Christ, and our door to enter into eternall life is gladly to die with Christ, that wee may rise again from death, and dwell with him in everlasting life. Now therefore, taking your sickenesse, which is thus profitable for you, patiently, I exhort you in the Name of God, to remember the profession which you made unto God in your Baptisme. And forasmuch as after this life there is account to be given unto the righteous Judge, of whom all must be judged without respect of persons: I require you to examine your self and your state, both toward God and man, so that accusing and condemning your self for your own faults, you may finde mercie at our heavenly Fathers hand for Christs sake, and not be accused and condemned in that fearfull judgement: therefore I shall shortly rehearse the

Articles

Articles of our faith, that you may know whether you do beleeve as a Christian man should or no.

¶ Here the minister shall rehearse the Articles of the faith saying thus,

DOest thou beleeve in God the Father Almighty &c. As it is in Baptisme.

Then shall the Minister examine whether he be in charity with all the world, exhorting him to forgive from the bottom of his heart, all persons that have offended him, and if hee have offended other, to ask them forgiveness: and where hee hath done injury or wrong to any man, that he make amends to the uttermost of his power. And if he have not afore disposed his goods, let him then make his Will, and also declare his debts, what he oweth, and what is owing unto him, for discharging of his conscience, and quietnesse of his executors. But men must be often admonished that they set an order for their temporall goods and lands, when they be in health.

These words before rehearsed, may be said before the Minister begin his prayer, as he shall see cause. The Minister may not forget nor omit to move the sick person, and that most earnestly, to liberality toward the poor. Here shall the sick person make a speciall confession, if hee feel his conscience troubled with any weighty matter. After which confession, the Priest shall absolve him after this sort.

OUr Lord Jesus Christ, who hath left power to his Church to absolve all sinners which truly repent and beleeve in him, of his great mercy forgive thee thine offences: and by his authority committed to me, I absolve thee from all thy sins, In the name of the Father, and of the Sonne, and of the holy Ghost. Amen.

And then the priest shall say the Collect following.

Let us pray.

OAlmighty mercifull God, which according to the multitude of thy mercies doest so put away the sinnes of those those which truly repent, that thou remembrest them no more, open thine eye of mercy upon this thy servant, who most earnestly desireth pardon and forgivenesse. Renew in him, most loving Father, whatsoever hath been decayed by the fraud and malice of the devill, or by his own carnall will and frailnesse, preserve and continue this sick member in the unity of the Church, consider his contrition, accept his teares, asswage his pain, as shall be seen to thee most expedient for him. And forasmuch as hee putteth his full trust onely in thy mercie, impute not unto him his former sinnes, but take him unto thy favour, through the merits of thy most dearly beloved Sonne Jesus Christ. Amen.

Then shall the Minister say this Psalme.

In te Domine speravi. Psal. 71.

IN thee, O Lord, have I put my trust, let me never be put to confusion: but rid me and deliver me in thy righteousnesse, incline thine ear unto me, and save me.

Be thou my strong hold, whereunto I may alway resort: thou hast promised to help mee, for thou art my house of defence, and my castle.

Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the ungodly: out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruell man.

For thou, O Lord God, art the thing that I long for: thou art my hope even from my youth.

Through thee have I been holden up ever since I was borne: thou art hee that took mee out of my mothers wombe, my praise shall alway be of thee.

I am become as it were a monster unto many: but my sure trust is in thee.

O let my mouth be filled with thy praise: that I may sing of thy glory and honour all the day long.

Cast me not away in the time of age: forsake mee not when my strength faileth me.

For mine enemies speak against me, and they that lay wait for my soul, take their counsell together, saying:

God

God hath forsaken him, persecute him and take him, for there is none to deliver him.

Go not farre from me, O God: my God, haste thee to help me.

Let them be confounded and perish that are against my soul: let them be covered with shame and dishonour, that seek to do me evill.

As for me, I will patiently abide alway: and will praise thee more and more.

My mouth shall dayly speak of thy righteousnesse and salvation: for I know no end thereof.

I will go forth in the strength of the Lord God: and will make mention of thy righteousnesse onely.

Thou, O God, hast taught me from my youth up untill now: therefore will I tell of thy wonderous works.

Forsake me not, O God, in mine old age, when I am gray headed: untill I have shewed thy strength unto this generation, and thy power to all them that are yet for to come.

Thy righteousnesse, O God, is very high, and great things are they that thou hast done: O God, who is like unto thee?

O what great troubles & adversities hast thou shewed me? and yet didst thou turn and refresh me: yea, and broughtest me from the deep of the earth again.

Thou hast brought me to great honour: and comforted me on every side.

Therefore will I praise thee and thy faithfulnesse, O God, playing upon an instrument of musick: unto thee will I sing upon the harp, O thou holy one of Israel.

My lips will be fain when I sing unto thee: and so will my soul whom thou hast delivered.

My tongue also shall talk of thy righteousnesse all the day long: for they are confounded and brought unto shame that seek to do me evill.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

As it was in the beginning, &c.

Adding this.

K. 318 O Saviour of the world, saue us, which by thy Crosse and precious blood hast redeemed us, helpe us, we beseech thee, O God.

Then shall the Minister say.

THe Almighty Lord, which is a most strong towre to all them that put their trust in him, to whom all things in heaven, in earth, and under the earth do bow and obey, be now and evermore thy defence, and make thee know and feel, that there is none other name under heaven given to man, in whom, and through whom thou mayest receive health and salvation, but only the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ The Communion of the sick.

FOrasmuch as all mortall men be subiect to many sudden perils, diseases and sicknesses, and ever uncertain what time they shall depart out of this life, therefore to the intent they may be alwayes in a readinesse to die whensoever it shall please Almighty God to call them, the Curates shall diligently from time to time, but specially in the plague time, exhort their Parishioners, to the oft receiving (in the Church) of the holy Communion of the Body and Blood of our Saviour Christ: which if they doe, they shall have no cause in their sudden visitation to be unquiet for lack of the same. But if the sick person be not able to come to the Church, and yet is desirous to receive the Communion in his house, then hee must give knowledge overnight, or else early in the morning, to the Curate, signifying also how many bee appointed to Communicate with him: and having a convenient place in the sick mans house, where the Curate may reverently minister, and a good number to receive the Communion with the sick person, with all things necessary for the same, hee shall there minister the holy Communion.

The Collect.

ALmighty everliving God, maker of mankind, which doeſt correct thoſe whom thou doeſt love, and chaſtiſeſt every one whom thou doeſt receive: we beſeech thee to have mercy upon this thy ſervant, viſited with thine hand, and to grant that he may take his ſickneſſe patiently, and recover his bodily health, if it be thy gracious will, & whenſoever his ſoul ſhall depart from the body, it may be without ſpot preſented unto thee, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Epiſtle.

MY ſonne deſpiſe not the correction of the Lord, neither faint when thou art rebuked of him. For whom the Lord loveth, him he correcteth. Yea, and he ſcourgeth every ſonne whom he receiveth. Heb. 12.

The Goſpel.

VErily, verily I ſay unto you, he that heareth my word, and believeth on him that ſent me, hath everlaſting life, and ſhall not come into damnation, but paſſeth from death unto life. Joan. 5.

¶ At the time of the diſtribution of the holy Sacrament, the Prieſt ſhall firſt receive the Communion himſelf, and after miniſter unto them that be appointed to communicate with the ſick. But if a man either by reaſon of extremitie of ſickneſſe, or for want of warning in due time to the Curate, or for lack of company to receive with him, or by any other juſt impediment, do not receive the Sacrament of Chriſts bodie and bloud: then the Curate ſhall inſtruct him, that if he do truly repent him of his ſinnes, and ſtedfaſtly beleeve that Jeſus Chriſt hath ſuffered death upon the Croſſe for him, and ſhed his bloud for his redemption, earneſtly remembring the benefits he hath thereby, and giving him hearty thanks therefore, he doth eat and drink the Body and Bloud of our Saviour Chriſt profitably to his ſouls health, although he do not receive the Sacrament with his mouth.

When the ſick perſon is viſited, and receiveth the holy Communion all at one time, then the Prieſt for more expedition, ſhall cut off the form of the viſitation at the Pſalme, In thee, O Lord have I put my truſt, and go ſtraight to the Communion.

In the time of plague, ſweat, or ſuch other like contagious times of ſickneſſes or diſeaſes, when none of the Pariſh, or neighbours can be gotten to communicate with the ſick in their houſes, for fear of the Infection, upon ſpeciall requeſt of the diſeaſed, the Miniſter may onely Communicate with him.

The order for the Buriall of the dead.

The Prieſt meeting the corps at the Church ſtile, ſhall ſay, or elſe the Prieſt and Clerkes ſhall ſing, and ſo go either into the Church, or towards the grave.

I Am the reſurrection and the life, ſaith the Lord, He that beleeveth in me, yea, though hee were dead, yet ſhall hee live. And whoſoever liveth and beleeveth in me, ſhall not die for ever.

John 11. 25, 26.

I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that I ſhall riſe out of the earth in the laſt day, and ſhall be covered again with my ſkin, and ſhall ſee God in my fleſh: yea, and I my ſelf ſhall behold him, not with other, but with theſe ſame eyes.

Job 19. 25, 26, 27.

WE brought nothing into this world, neither may we carry any thing out of this world. The Lord giveth, and the Lord taketh away. Even as it pleaſeth the Lord, ſo cometh things to paſſe: Bleſſed be the Name of the Lord.

1 Tim. Job 1. 21

¶ When they come to the grave, while the Corps is made ready to be laid into the earth, the Prieſt ſhall ſay, or the Prieſt and Clerks ſhall ſing,

MAn that is borne of a woman, hath but a short time to live, and is full of misery. He cometh up and is cut down like a flower, he fleeth as it were a shadow, and never continueth in one stay. In the midst of life we be in death: of whom may we seek for succour but of thee, O Lord, which for our sinnes art justly displeased: yet, O Lord God most holy, O Lord most mighty, O holy and most mercifull Saviour, deliver us not into the bitter paines of eternall death. Thou knowest Lord the secrets of our hearts, shut not up thy mercifull eyes to our prayers: but spare us, Lord most holy, O God most mighty, O holy and mercifull Saviour, thou most worthy Judge eternall, suffer us not at our last hour for any paines of death to fall from thee. Job 14.

Then while the earth shall be cast upon the body, by some standing by, the Priest shall say, FOrasmuch as it hath pleased Almighty God of his great mercy to take unto himself the soul of our dear brother here departed, we therefore commit his body to the ground, earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust, in sure and certain hope of resurrection to eternall life, through our Lord Jesus Christ, who shall change our vile body, that it may be like unto his glorious body, according to the mighty working, whereby he is able to subdue all things to himself.

Then shall be said, or sung,

I Heard a voyce from heaven, saying unto me, Write, From henceforth blessed are the dead which die in the Lord, even so saith the Spirit, that they rest from their labours. Rev. 14. 1

Then shall follow this Lesson taken out of the 15 Chapter to the Corinthians, the first Epistle.

CHrist is risen from the dead, and become the first fruits of them that sleep. For by a man came death, and by a man came the resurrection of the dead. For as by Adam all die, even so by Christ shall all be 1. Cor. 15. 20.

made alive, but every man in his own order. The first is Christ, then they that are Christs at his coming: then cometh the end, when he hath delivered up the kingdom to God the Father, when he hath put down all rule, and all authority and power. For he must reign till he have put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemie that shall be destroyed, is death. For he hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith, All things are put under him, it is manifest, that he is excepted that hath put all things under him. When all things are subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all. Else what do they which are baptized over the dead, if the dead rise not at all? Why are they then baptized over them? Yea, and why stand we alway then in jeopardie? By our rejoycing which I have in Christ Jesu our Lord, I die daily. That I have fought with beasts at Ephesus after the manner of men, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not again? Let us eat & drink, for to morrow we shall die. Be not ye deceived, evil words corrupt good manners. Awake truly out of sleep, and sinne not. For some have not the knowledge of God, I speak this to your shame. But some man will say, How are the dead raised up? with what body shall they come? Thou fool, that which thou sowest is not quickned except it die. And what sowest thou? Thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare corn, as of wheat, or some other: but God giveth it a body at his pleasure, to every seed his own body. All flesh is not one manner of flesh: but there is one manner of flesh of men, another manner of flesh of beasts, another of fishes, another of birds. There are also celestiall bodies, and there are bodies terrestriall. But the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestriall is another. There is one manner glory of the Sunne, and another glory of the Moon, and another glory of the starres. For one star differeth from another in glory. So is the resurrection of the dead. It is sowen in corruption, it riseth again in incorruption. It is sown in dishonour, it riseth again in honour. It is sown in weakenesse, it riseth again in power. It is sown a naturall body, it riseth again a spirituall body. There is a naturall body, and there is a spirituall body: as it is also written, the first man Adam was made a living soul, and the last Adam was made a quickning Spirit. Howbeit, that is not first which is spirituall, but that which is naturall, and then that which is spirituall. The first man is of the earth, earthy. The second man is the Lord from heaven, heavenly. As is the earthy, such are they that be earthy. And as is the heavenly, such are they that are heavenly. And as we have born the image of the earthy, so shall we bear the image of the heavenly. This say I, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherite the kingdom of God, neither doeth corruption inherite incorruption. Behold, I shew you a mystery, We shall not all sleep: but we shall all be changed, and that in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, by the last trump. For the trump shall blow, and the dead shall rise incorruptible, and we shall be changed: For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortall must put on immortality. When this corruptible hath put on incorruption, and this mortall hath put on immortality, then shall be brought to passe the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up into victory: Death, where is thy sting? Hell, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sinne, and the strength of sinne is the Law. But thanks be unto God, which hath given us victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore my dear brethren, be ye stedfast and unmoveable, alwayes rich in the worke of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know, how that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

The

The Lesson ended, the Priest shall say,

Priest.

ALmighty God, with whom do live the spirits of them that depart hence in the Lord, and in whom the souls of them that be elected, after they be delivered from the burden of the flesh, be in joy and felicitie: we give thee hearty thanks, for that it hath pleased thee to deliver this (N.) our brother out of the miseries of this sinfull world, beseeching thee, that it may please thee of thy gracious goodnesse, shortly to accomplish the number of thine Elect, and to hasten thy Kingdom, that we with this our brother, and all other departed in the true Faith of thy holy Name, may have our perfect consummation and blisse, both in body and soul, in thy eternall and everlasting glory, Amen.

The Collect.

OMercifull God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who is the resurrection & the life, in whom whosoever believeth, shall live though he die; and whosoever liveth and believeth in him, shall not die eternally, who also taught us (by his holy Apostle Paul) not to be sorry as men without hope, for them that sleep in him: We meekly beseech thee, O Father, to raise us from the death of sinne unto the life of righteousnesse, that when we shall depart this life, we may rest in him, as our hope is this our brother doth, and that at the generall resurrection in the last day, we may be found acceptable able in thy sight, and receive that blessing which thy well-beloved Sonne shall then pronounce to all that love and fear thee, saying, Come ye blessed children of my Father, receive the kingdome prepared for you from the beginning of the world. Grant this, we beseech thee, O mercifull Father, through Jesus Christ our Mediatour and Redeemer. Amen.

¶ The woman shall come into the church, and there shall kneel down in some convenient place nigh unto the place where the table standeth, and the priest standing by her shall say these words, or such like, as the cause shall require.

FOrasmuch as it hath pleased Almighty God of his goodnesse to give you safe deliverance, and hath preserved you in the great danger of childbirth: ye shall therefore give hearty thanks unto God, and pray.

Then shall the Priest say this Psalm.

I Have lifted up mine eyes unto the hills: from whence cometh my help. Psal. 121

My help cometh even from the Lord: which hath made heaven and earth.

He will not suffer thy foote to be moved: and he that keepeth thee, will not sleep.

Behold, he that keepeth Israel: shall neither slumber nor sleep.

The Lord himself is thy keeper: the Lord is thy defence upon thy right hand.

Let us pray.

ALmighty God, which hast delivered this woman thy servant from the grief, pain and peril of evill birth: grant we beseech thee, most merciful Father, that thee through thee she may ever be preserved in wifely love, and walk in her vocation, according to thy will in this life present: and also may be partaker of everlasting glory in the life to come, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ The woman that commeth to give her thanks, must offer accustomed offerings: and if there be a Communion, it is convenient that she receive the holy Communion.

A Com-

A Commination against sinners, with certain prayers to be used divers times in the yeer.

After Morning prayer, the people being called together by the ringing of a Bell, and assembled in the Church, the English Letany shall be said after the accustomed maner: which ended, the Priest shall go into the Pulpit, and say thus,

BRethren, in the Primitive Church there was a godly discipline, that at the beginning of Lent such persons as were notorious sinners, were put to open penance, and punished in this world, that their soules might be saved in the day of the Lord: and that others admonished by their example might be the more afraid to offend.

In the stead whereof, until the said discipline may be restored again (which thing is much to be wished) it is thought good, that at this time (in your presence) should be read the generall sentences of Gods cursing against impenitent sinners, gathered out of the xxvij. and twentieth Chapter of Deuteronomie, and other places of Scripture: and that ye should answer to every sentence, Amen: to the intent that you being admonished of the great indignation of God against sinners, may the rather be called to earnest and true repentance, and may walk more warily in these dangerous dayes, fleeing from such vices, for the which ye affirm with your own mouthes the curse of God to be due.

Cursed is the man that maketh any carved or molten image, an abomination to the Lord, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and putteth it in a secret place to worship it.

And the people shall answer, and say, Amen.

NOw seeing that all they be accursed (as the Prophet David heareth witnesse) which do erre and go astray from the Commandements of God, let us (remembring the dreadfull judgement hanging over our heads, and being always at hand) return unto our Lord God with all contrition and meekenesse of heart, bewailing and lamenting our sinfull life, knowledging and confessing our offences, and seeking to bring forth worthy fruits of penance. Psal. 119.

For now is the axe put unto the root of the trees, so that every tree, that bringeth not forth good fruit, is hewen down, and cast into the fire. Matth. 3.

It is a fearfull thing to fall into the hands of the living God: hee shall poure downe raine upon the sinners, snares, fire and brimstone, storme and tempest, this shall be their portion to drink. For lo, the Lord is come out of his place, to visit the wickednesse of such as dwell upon the earth. But who may abide the day of his coming? Who shall be able to endure when he appeareth? His fanne is in his hand, and he will purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the barn, but he will burn the chaffe with unquenchable fire. The day of the Lord cometh as a theif in the night: and when men shall say, Peace, and all things are safe, then shall sudden destruction come upon them, as sorrow cometh upon a woman travelling with childe, and they shall not escape. Then shall appeare the wrath of God in the day of vengeance, which obstinate sinners through the stubbornesse of their heart have heaped Heb. 11. Psal. 11. Esay. 26. Malec. 3. Matth. 3. 1. Thes. 5. unto themselves, which despised the goodnesse, patience, and long sufferance of God, when he called them continually to repentance. Then shall they call upon me, saith the Lord, but I will not hear, they shall seek me early, but they shall not finde me, and that because they hated knowledge, and received not the fear of the Lord, but abhorred my counsell, and despised my correction. Then shall it be too late to knock, when the dore shall be shut, and too late to cry for mercy, when it is the time of justice. O terrible voyce of most just judgement, which shall be pronounced upon them, when it shall be said unto them, Go ye cursed into the fire everlasting, which is prepared for the devill and his angels.

Prov. 1.

Matth. 25.

2. Cor. 6. Therefore brethren take we heed betime, while the day of salvation lasteth, for the night commeth when none can work: but let us, while wee have the light, believe in the light, and walk as the children of the light, that we be not cast into the outer darknesse, where is weeping and gnashing of teeth. Let us not abuse the goodnesse of God, which calleth us mercifully to amendment, and of his endlesse pity promiseth us forgivenesse of that which is past, if (with a whole minde and true heart) wee returne unto him. For though our sinnes be as red as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow: and though they be like purple, yet shall they be as white as wooll.

John 9.

Matth. 25.

Esay. 1.

Ezek. 18. Turn you clean, saith the Lord from all your wickednesse, and your sinne shall not be your destruction. Cast away from you all your ungodlines that ye have done, make you new hearts, and a new spirit: Wherefore will ye die, O ye house of Israel, seeing that I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord God? turn you then, and ye shall live.

1. John 2. Although we have sinned, yet have we an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous, and he it is that obtaineth grace for our sinnes.

For hee was wounded for our offences, and smitten for our wickednesse. Let us therefore return unto him, who is the mercifull receiver of all true penitent sinners, assuring our selves that hee is ready to receive us, and most willing to pardon us, if wee come unto him with faithfull repentance, if wee will submit our selves unto him, and from henceforth walk in his wayes, if wee will take his easie yoke and light burden upon us, to follow him in lowlinesse, patience, and charity, and be ordered by the governance of his holy Spirit, seeking alwayes his glory, and serving him duly in our vocation, with thanksgiving. This if wee do, Christ will deliver us from the curse of the law, and from the extream malediction which shall light upon them that shall be set on the left hand, and he will set us on his right hand, and give us the blessed benediction of his Father, commanding us to take possession of his glorious Kingdome, unto the which hee vouchsafe to bring us all, for his infinite mercy. Amen.

¶ Then shall they all kneel upon their knees, and the Priest and Clerks kneeling (where they are accustomed to say the Letanie) shall say this Psalm, Miserere mei, Deus.

Miserere mei, Deus. Psal. 51.

HAve mercie upon mee, O God, after thy great goodnesse: according to the multitude of thy mercies do away mine offences.

Wash mee thoroughly from my wickednes: and cleanse me from my sinne.

For I acknowledge my faults: and my sin is ever before mee.

Against thee only have I sinned, and done this evill in thy sight; that thou mightest be justified in thy saying, and clear when thou art judged.

Behold,

Behold, I was shapen in wickednes: and in sin hath my mother conceived me.

But lo, thou requirest truth in the inward parts: and shalt make me to understand wisdom secretly.

Thou shalt purge mee with hysope, and I shall be clean: thou shalt wash mee, and I shall be whiter then snow.

Thou shalt make mee hear of joy and gladnesse: that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoyce.

Turn thy face from my sins: and put out all my misdeeds.

Make mee a clean heart, O God: and renew a right spirit within mee.

Cast mee not away from thy presence: and take not thy holy Spirit from mee.

O give mee the comfort of thy help again: and stablish mee with thy free Spirit.

Then shall I teach thy wayes unto the wicked: and sinners shall be converted unto thee.

Deliver mee from blood-guiltinesse, O God, thou that art the God of my health: and my tongue shall sing of thy righteousnesse.

Thou shalt open my lips, O Lord: my mouth shall shew thy praise.

For thou desirest no sacrifice, else would I give it thee: but thou delightest not in burnt offering.

The sacrifice of God is a troubled spirit: a broken and contrite heart, O God, shalt thou not despise.

O be favourable and gracious unto Sion: build thou the wals of Jerusalem.

Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifice of righteousnesse, with the burnt offerings and oblations: then shall they offer young bullocks upon thine Altar.

Glory be to the Father, &c. as it was, &c.

As it was in the beginning, is now, &c.

Lord have mercy upon us.

Christ

Christ have mercy upon us.
Lord have mercy upon us.
Our Father which art in heaven, &c.
And lead us not into temptation.

Answer.

But deliver us from evill. Amen.

Minister.

O Lord save thy servants.

Answer.

Which put their trust in thee.

Minister.

Send unto them help from above.

Answer.

And evermore mightily defend them.

Minister.

Help us, O God our Saviour.

Answer.

And for the glory of thy Names sake deliver us, be mercifull unto us sinners, for thy Names sake.

Minister.

O Lord hear our prayer.

Answer.

And let our crie come unto thee.

Minister.

¶ Let us pray.

O Lord, we beseech thee mercifully hear our prayers, and spare all those which confesse their sins to thee, that they whose consciences by sinne are accused, by thy mercifull pardon may be absolved, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Most mighty God and mercifull Father, which hast compassion of all men, and hatest nothing that thou hast made, which wouldest not the death of a sinner, but that hee should rather turn from sinne, and be saved: mercifully forgive us our trespasses, receive, and comfort us, which be grieved and wearied with the burden of our sinnes. Thy property is to have mercie, to thee onely it appertaineth to forgive sinnes: Spare us therefore, good Lord, spare thy people whom thou hast redeemed: enter not into judgement with thy servants which be vile earth and miserable sinners: but so turn thine ire from us which meekly knowledge our vilenesse, and truly repent us of our faults: so make haste to help us in this world, that wee may ever live with thee in the world to come, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then shall the people say this that followeth, after the Minister.

Turn thou us, O good Lord, and so shall we be turned: be favourable, O Lord, be favourable to thy people, which turn to thee in weeping, fasting, and praying: for thou art a merciful God, full of compassion, long suffering, and of great pitie. Thou sparest when we deserve punishment, and in thy wrath thinkest upon mercy. Spare thy people, good Lord, spare them, and let not thine heritage be brought to confusion. Hear us, O Lord, for thy mercy is great, and after the multitude of thy mercies look upon us.

¶ THE PSALMES of DAVID.

Beatus vir qui non abiit. Psal. 1.

Morning prayer.

BLESSED is the man that hath not walked in the counsell of the ungodly, nor stood in the way of sinners: and hath not sate in the seat of the scornfull.

2 But his delight is in the law of the Lord: and in his law will he exercise himself day and night.

3 And he shall be like a tree planted by the waters side: that will bring forth his fruit in due season.

4 His leafe also shall not wither: and look whatsoever he doth, it shall prosper.

5 As for the ungodly it is not so with them: but they are like the chaffe which the winde scattereth away from the face of the earth.

6 Therefore the ungodly shall not be able to stand in the judgement: neither the sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

7 But the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous: and the way of the ungodly shall perish.

Quare fremuerunt gentes. Psal. 2.

WHY do the heathen so furiously rage together: and why do the people imagine a vain thing?

2 The kings of the earth stand up, and the rulers take counsell together: against the Lord, and against his anointed.

3 Let us breake their bonds asunder: and cast away their cords from us.

4 He that dwelleth in heaven shall laugh them to scorn: the Lord shall have them in derision.

5 Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath: and vex them in his sore displeasure.

6 Yet have I set my king: upon my holy hill of Sion.

7 I will preach the Law, whereof the Lord hath said unto me: Thou art my sonne, this day have I begotten thee.

8 Desire of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance: and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.

9 Thou shalt bruise them with a rod of iron: and break them in pieces like a potters vessell.

10 Be wise now therefore, O ye kings: be learned, ye that are judges of the earth.

11 Serve the Lord in fear: and rejoyce unto him with reverence.

12 Kisse the sonne lest he be angry, and so ye perish from the right way: if his wrath be kindled (yea, but a little) blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

Domine, quid? Psal. 3.

LOrd how are they increased that trouble me: many are they that rise against me.

2 Many one there be that say of my soul: There is no help for him in his God.

3 But thou, O Lord, art my defender: thou art my worship, and the lifter up of my head.

4 I did call upon the Lord with my voyce: and he heard me out of his holy hill.

5 I laid me down and slept, and rose up again: for the Lord sustained me.

6 I will not be afraid for ten thousands of people:

that have set themselves against me round about.

7 Up Lord, and help me, O my God: for thou smitest all mine enemies upon the cheek bone, thou hast broken the teeth of the ungodly.

8 Salvation belongeth unto the Lord: and thy blessing is upon the people.

Cum invocarem. Psal. 4

HEar me when I call, O God of my righteousnesse: for thou hast set me at liberty when I was in trouble, have mercy upon me, and hearken unto my prayer.

2 O ye sonnes of men, how long will ye blaspheme mine honour: and have such pleasure in vanity, and seek after leasing?

3 Know this also, that the Lord hath chosen to himself the man that is godly: when I call upon the Lord, he will hear me.

4 Stand in awe, and sinne not: commune with your own heart, and in your chamber, and be still.

5 Offer the sacrifice of righteousnesse: and put your trust in the Lord.

6 There be many that say: Who will shew us any good?

7 Lord, lift thou up: the light of thy countenance upon us.

8 Thou hast put gladnesse in my heart: since the time that their corn, and wine, and oyl increased.

9 I will lay me down in peace, and take my rest: for it is thou Lord onely that makest me dwell in safety.

Verba mea auribus. Psal. 5.

POnder my words, O Lord: consider my meditation.

2 O hearken thou unto the voice of my calling, my King and my God: for unto thee will I make my prayer.

3 My voyce shalt thou hear betimes, O Lord: early early in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up.

4 For thou art the God that hast no pleasure in wickednesse: neither shall any evill dwell with thee.

5 Such as be foolish shall not stand in thy sight: for thou hatest all them that work vanity.

6 Thou shalt destroy them that speak leasing: the Lord will abhorre both the blood-thirsty and deceitfull man.

7 But as for me, I will come into thy house, even upon the multitude of thy mercy: and in thy fear will I worship toward thy holy temple.

8 Lead me, O Lord, in thy righteousnesse, because of mine enemies: make thy way plain before my face.

9 For there is no faithfulnesse in his mouth: their inward parts are very wickednesse.

10 Their throat is an open sepulchre: they flatter with their tongue.

11 Destroy thou them, O God, let them perish through their own imaginations: cast them out in the multitude of their ungodlinesse, for they have rebelled against thee.

12 And let all them that put their trust in thee, rejoice: they shall ever be giving of thanks, because thou defendest them, they that love thy name shall be joyfull in thee.

13 For thou Lord wilt give thy blessing unto the righteous: and with thy favourable kindnesse wilt thou defend him as with a shield.

Domine, ne in furore. Psal. 6.

O Lord rebuke me not in thine indignation: neither chasten me in thy displeasure.

2 Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am weak: O Lord heal me, for my bones are vexed.

3 My soul is also sore troubled: but Lord how long wilt thou punish me?

4 Turn thee, O Lord, and deliver my soul: Oh save me for thy mercies sake.

5 For in death no man remembreth thee: and who will give thee thanks in the pit?

6 I am weary of my groning, every night wash I my bed: and water my couch with my teares.

7 My beauty is gone for very trouble: and worn away because of all mine enemies.

8 Away from me all ye that work vanity; for the Lord hath heard the voice of my weeping.

9 The Lord hath heard my petition: the Lord will receive my prayer.

10 All mine enemies shall be confounded and sore vexed: they shall be turned back, and put to shame suddenly.

Domine Deus meus. Psal. 7.

O Lord my God, in thee have I put my trust: save me from all them that persecute me, and deliver me.

2 Lest he devour my soul like a lyon, and tear it in pieces: while there is none to help.

3 O Lord my God, if I have done any such thing: or if there be any wickednesse in my hands.

4 If I have rewarded evill unto him that dealt friendly with me: yea, I have delivered him that without any cause is mine enemy.

5 Then let mine enemy persecute my soul, and take me: yea, let him tread my life down upon the earth, and lay mine honour in the dust.

6 Stand up O Lord in thy wrath, and lift up thy self: because of the indignation of mine enemies, arise up for me in the judgement that thou hast commanded.

7 And so shall the congregation of the people come about thee: for their sakes therefore lift up thy self again.

8 The Lord shall judge the people, give sentence with me, O Lord: according to my righteousnesse, and according to the innocency that is in me.

9 O let the wickednesse of the ungodly come to an end: but guide thou the just.

10 For the righteous God: tryeth the very hearts and reins.

11 My help cometh of God: which preserveth them that are true of heart.

12 God is a righteous Judge, strong and patient: and God is provoked every day.

13 If a man will not turn, he will whet his sword: he hath bent his bowe, and made it ready.

14 He hath prepared for him the instruments of death: he ordaineth his arrows against the persecutors.

15 Behold, he travelleth with mischief: he hath conceived sorrow, and brought forth ungodlinesse.

16 He hath graven and digged up a pit: and is fallen himself into the destruction that he made for other.

17 For his travell shall come upon his own head: and his wickednesse shall fall on his own pate.

18 I will give thanks unto the Lord, according to his righteousnesse: and will praise the name of the Lord the most High.

Domine, Dominus. Psal 8.

O Lord our governour, how excellent is thy name in all the world: thou that hast set thy glory above the heavens!

2 Out of the mouth of very babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength, because of thine enemies: that thou mightest still the enemy, and the avenger.

3 For I will consider the heavens, even the works of thy fingers: the moon and the stars which thou hast ordained.

4 What is man that thou art mindfull of him: and the sonne of man that thou visitest him?

5 Thou

5 Thou madest him lower then the Angels: to crown him with glory and worship.

6 Thou makest him to have dominion of the works of thy hands: and thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet.

7 All sheep and oxen: yea, and the beasts of the field.

8 The fowls of the ayr, and the fishes of the sea: and whatsoever walketh through the paths of the seas.

9 O Lord our Governour: how excellent is thy Name in all the world!

Confitebor tibi. Psal 9.

Morning prayer.

I will give thanks unto thee, O Lord, with my whole heart: I will speak of all thy marvellous works.

2 I will be glad and rejoyce in thee: yea, my songs will I make of thy Name, O thou most Highest.

3 While mine enemies are driven back: they shall fall and perish at thy presence.

4 For thou hast maintained my right and my cause: thou art set in the Throne that judgest right.

5 Thou hast rebuked the heathen, and destroyed the ungodly: thou hast put out their name for ever and ever.

6 O thou enemie, destructions are come to a perpetuall end: even as the cities which thou hast destroyed, their memorial is perished with them.

7 But the Lord shall endure for ever; hee hath also prepared his seat for judgement.

8 For he shall judge the world in righteousnesse: and minister true judgement unto the people.

9 The Lord also will be a defence for the oppressed: even a refuge in due time of trouble.

10 And they that know thy Name, will put their trust in thee: for thou Lord hast never failed them that seek thee.

11 O praise the Lord which dwelleth in Sion: shew the people of his doings.

12 For when he maketh inquisition for blood, hee remembreth them: and forgetteth not the complaint of the poor.

13 Have mercie upon mee, O Lord, consider the trouble which I suffer of them that hate mee: thou that liftest mee up from the gates of death.

14 That I may shew all thy praises within the ports of the daughter of Sion: I will rejoyce in thy salvation.

15 The heathen are sunk down in the pit that they made: in the same net which they hid privily, is their foot taken.

16 The Lord is known to execute judgement: the ungodly is trapped in the work of his own hands.

17 The wicked shall be turned into hell: and all the people that forget God.

18 For the poor shall not alway be forgotten: the patient abiding of the meek shall not perish for ever.

19 Up Lord, and let not man have the upper hand: let the heathen be judged in thy sight.

20 Put them in fear, O Lord: that the heathen may know themselves to be but men.

Ut quid, Domine? Psal. 10.

WHy standest thou so far off (O Lord:) and hidest thy face in the needfull time of trouble?

2 The ungodly for his own lust doth persecute the poor: let them be taken in the crafty wilinesse that they have imagined.

3 For the ungodly hath made boast of his own hearts desire: and speaketh good of the covetous whom God abhorreth.

4 The ungodly is so proud that hee careth not for God: neither is God in all his thoughts.

5 His wayes are alway grievous: thy judgements are far above out of his sight, and therefore defieth hee all his enemies.

6 For he hath said in his heart, Tush, I shall never be cast down: there shall no harm happen unto mee.

7 His mouth is full of cursing, deceit, and fraud: under his tongue is ungodlinesse and vanity.

8 Hee sitteth lurking in the theevish corners of the streets: and privily in his lurking dens doth he murder the innocent, his eyes are set against the poor.

9 For he lieth waiting secretly, even as a lion lurketh he in his den: that he may ravish the poor.

10 He doth ravish the poor: when he getteth him into his net.

11 He falleth down and humbleth himself: that the congregation of the poor may fall into the hands of his captains.

12 He hath said in his heart, Tush, God hath forgotten: he hideth away his face, and he will never see it.

13 Arise (O Lord God) and lift up thine hand: forget not the poor.

14 Wherefore should the wicked blaspheme God: while hee doth say in his heart, Tush, thou God carest not for it?

15 Surely thou hast seen it: for thou beholdest ungodlinesse and wrong.

16 That thou mayest take the matter into thine hand: the poor committeth himself unto thee, for thou art the helper of the friendlesse.

17 Break thou the power of the ungodly and malicious: take away his ungodlinesse, and thou shalt finde none.

18 The Lord is King for ever and ever: and the heathen are perished out of the land.

19 Lord, thou hast heard the desire of the poor: thou preparest their heart, and thine ear heareneth thereto, right: that the man of the earth be no more exalted against them.

20 To help the fatherlesse and poor unto their right:

In Domino confido. Psal. 11.

IN the Lord put I my trust: how say yee then to my soul, that she should flee as a bird unto the hill?

2 For lo, the ungodly bend their bowe, and make ready their arrows within the quiver: that they may privily shoot at them which are true of heart.

3 For the foundations will be cast down: and what hath the righteous done?

4 The Lord is in his holy Temple: the Lords seat is in heaven.

5 His eyes consider the poor: and his eye-lids trieth the children of men.

6 The Lord alloweth the righteous: but the ungodly, and him that delighteth in wickednesse, doth his soul abhorre.

7 Upon the ungodly hee shall rain snares, fire and brimstone, storm and tempest: this shall be their portion to drink.

8 For the righteous Lord loveth righteousnesse: his countenance will behold the thing that is just.

Salvum me fac. Psal 12.

vening rayer.

HElp me, Lord, for there is not one godly man left: for the faithfull are minished from among the children of men.

2 They talk of vanity every one with his neighbour: they do but flatter with their lips, and dissemble with their double heart.

3 The Lord shall root out all deceitfull lips: and the tongue that speaketh proud things.

4 Which have said, With our tongue wee will prevail: wee are they that ought to speak, who is Lord over us?

5 Now

5 Now for the comfortlelle troubles sake of the needy: and because of the deep sighing of the poor.

6 I will up (saith the Lord:) and will help every one from him that swelleth against him, and will set him at rest.

7 The words of the Lord are pure words: even as the silver which from the earth is tried, and purified seven times in the fire.

8 Thou shalt keep them, O Lord: thou shalt preserve him from this generation for ever.

9 The ungodly walk on every side: when they are exalted, the children of men are put to rebuke.

Usque quo, Domine. Psal. 13.

HOw long wilt thou forget mee (O Lord) for ever: how long wilt thou hide thy face from mee?

2 How long shall I seek counsell in my soul, and be so vexed in my heart: how long shall mine enemies triumph over mee?

3 Consider and hear mee, O Lord my God: lighten mine eyes that I sleep not in death.

4 Lest mine enemy say, I have prevailed against him: for if I be cast down, they that trouble mee will rejoyce at it.

5 But my trust is in thy mercy: and my heart is joyfull in thy salvation.

6 I will sing unto the Lord, because he hath dealt so lovingly with mee: yea, I will praise the Name of the Lord most Highest.

Dixit insipiens. Psal. 14.

THe fool hath said in his heart: There is no God.

2 They are corrupt & become abominable in their doings: there is not one that doth good (no not one)

3 The Lord looked down from heaven upon the children of men: to see if there were any that would understand and seek after God.

4 But they are all gone out of the way, they are altogether become abominable: there is none that doth good, no not one.

5 Their throat is an open sepulchre, with their tongues have they deceived: the poison of asps is under their lips.

6 Their mouth is full of cursing and bitternesse: their feet are swift to shed blood.

7 Destruction and unhappinesse is in their wayes, and the way of peace have they not known: there is no fear of God before their eyes.

8 Have they no knowledge, that they are all such workers of mischief: eating up my people as it were bread?

9 And call not upon the Lord, there were they brought in great fear (even where no fear was:) for God is in the generation of the righteous.

10 As for you, ye have made a mock at the counsell of the poor: because he putteth his trust in the Lord.

11 Who shall give salvation unto Israel out of Sion: when the Lord turneth the captivity of his people, then shall Jacob rejoyce, and Israel shall be glad.

Domine, quis habitabit? Psal. 15.

Morning prayer.

LORD who shall dwell in thy Tabernacle: or who shall rest upon thy holy hill?

2 Even hee that leadeth an uncorrupt life: and doth the thing which is right, and speaketh the truth from his heart.

3 He that hath used no deceit in his tongue, or done evil to his neighbour: and hath not slandered his neighbour.

4 He that setteth not by himself, but is lowly in his own eyes: and maketh much of them that fear the Lord.

5 He that sweareth unto his neighbour, and disappointeth him not: though it were to his own hinderance.

8 He that hath not given his money upon vsury: nor taken reward against the innocent.

7 Who so doth these things: shall never fall.

Conserva me. Psal. 16.

PReserve me, O God: for in thee have I put my trust.

2 O my soul, thou hast said unto the Lord: Thou art my God, my goods are nothing unto thee.

3 All my delight is upon the saints that are in the earth: and upon such as excell in vertue.

4 But they that run after another god: shall have great trouble.

5 Their drink-offerings of blood will I not offer: neither make mention of their names within my lips.

6 The Lord himself is the portion of mine inheritance, and of my cup: thou shalt maintain my lot.

7 The lot is fallen to mee in a fair ground: yea, I have a goodly heritage.

8 I will thank the Lord for giving mee warning: my reins also chasten mee in the night season.

9 I have set God alwayes before mee: for he is on my right hand, therefore I shall not fall.

10 Wherefore my heart was glad, and my glory rejoyced: my flesh also shall rest in hope.

11 For why? thou shalt not leave my soul in hell: neither shalt thou suffer thine holy One to see corruption.

12 Thou shalt shew me the path of life, in thy presence is the fulnesse of joy: and at thy right hand there is pleasure for evermore.

Exaudi, Domine, justitiam. Psal. 17.

HEar the right, O Lord, consider my complaint: and hearken unto my prayer that goeth not out of fained lips.

2 Let my sentence come forth from thy presence: and let thine eyes look upon the thing that is equall.

3 Thou hast proved & visited mine heart in the night season, thou hast tried mee, and shalt finde no wickednesse in mee: for I am utterly purposed that my mouth shall not offend.

4 Because of mens works that are done against the words of thy lips: I have kept mee from the wayes of the destroyer.

5 O hold thou up my goings in thy paths: that my footsteps slip not.

6 I have called upon thee, O God, for thou shalt hear mee: incline thine ear to mee, and hearken unto my words.

7 Shew thy marvellous loving kindnesse, thou that art the Saviour of them which put their trust in thee: from such as resist thy right hand.

8 Keep mee as the apple of an eye: hide me under the shadow of thy wings.

9 From the ungodly that trouble me: mine enemies compasse mee round about to take away my soul.

10 They are inclosed in their own fat: and their mouth speaketh proud things.

11 They lie waiting in our way on every side: turning their eyes down to the ground.

12 Like as a lion that is greedy of his pray: and as it were a lions whelp lurking in secret places.

13 Up Lord, disappoint him, and cast him down: deliver my soul from the ungodly, which is a sword of thine.

14 From the men of thy hand, O Lord, from the men (I say) and from the evill world: which have their portion in this life, whose bellies thou fillest with thy hid treasure.

15 They have children at their desire: and leave the rest of their substance for their babes.

16 But as for me, I will behold thy presence in righteousnesse: and when I awake up after thy likenesse, I shall be satisfied with it.

Diligam

I will love thee (O Lord) my strength, the Lord is my stony rock and my defence: my Saviour, my God, and my might, in whom I will trust, my buckler, the horn also of my salvation, and my refuge. Evening prayer.

2 I will call upon the Lord which is worthy to be praised: so shall I be safe from mine enemies.

3 The sorrows of death compassed mee: and the overflowings of ungodlinesse made mee afraid.

4 The pains of hell came about mee: the snares of death overtook mee.

5 In my trouble I will call upon the Lord: and complain unto my God.

6 So shall he hear my voice out of his holy Temple: and my complaint shall come before him, it shall enter even into his ears.

7 The earth trembled and quaked: the very foundations also of the hills shook and were removed, because he was wroth.

8 There went a smoak out of his presence: and a consuming fire out of his mouth, so that coals were kindled at it.

9 Hee bowed the heavens also and came down: and it was dark under his feet.

10 He rode upon the Cherubims, and did flie: he came flying upon the wings of the winde.

11 Hee made darknes his secret place: his pavilion round about him, with darke water and thick clouds to cover him.

12 At the brightnesse of his presence his clouds removed: haile stones and coals of fire.

13 The Lord also thundred out of heaven, and the Highest gave his thunder: haile stones and coals of fire.

14 Hee sent out his arrows, and scattered them: hee cast forth lightnings, and destroyed them.

15 The springs of waters were seen, and the foundations of the round world were discovered at thy chiding, O Lord: at the blasting of the breath of thy displeasure.

16 He shall send down from the high to fetch me: and shall take me out of many waters.

17 He shall deliver mee from my strongest enemie, and from them which hate me: for they are too mighty for me.

18 They prevented me in the day of my trouble: but the Lord was my upholder.

19 He brought me forth also into a place of liberty: he brought me forth, even because he had a favour unto me.

20 The Lord shal reward me after my righteous dealing: according to the cleanness of my hands shall he recompense me.

21 Because I have kept the wayes of the Lord: and have not forsaken my God as the wicked doth.

22 For I have an eye unto all his Lawes: and will not cast out his Commandments from me.

23 I was also uncorrupt before him: and eschewed mine own wickedness.

24 Therefore shall the Lord reward me after my righteous dealing: and according unto the cleanness of my hands in his eye-sight.

25 With the holy thou shalt be holy: and with a perfect man thou shalt be perfect.

26 With the clean thou shalt be clean: and with the froward thou shalt learn frowardness.

27 For thou shalt save the people that are in adversitie: and shalt bring down the high looks of the proud.

28 Thou also shalt light my candle: the Lord my God shall make my darkness to be light.

29 For in thee I shall discomfit an host of men: and with the help of my God I shall leap over the wall.

30 The way of God is an undefiled way: the word of the Lord also is tried in the fire, he is the defender of all them that put their trust in him.

31 For who is God but the Lord: or who hath any strength except our God?

32 It is God that girdeth me with strength of war: and maketh my way perfect.

33 He maketh my feet like harts feet: and setteth mee up on high.

34 He teacheth mine hands to fight: and mine arms shall break even a bowe of steel.

35 Thou hast given mee the defence of thy salvation: thy right hand also shall hold me up, and thy loving correction shall make mee great.

36 Thou shalt make room enough under me for to go: that my foot-steps shall not slide.

37 I will follow upon mine enemies, and overtake them: neither will I turn again till I have destroyed them.

38 I will smite them, that they shall not be able to stand: but fall under my feet.

39 Thou hast girded me with strength unto the battel: thou shalt throw down mine enemies under mee.

40 Thou hast made mine enemies also to turn their backs upon mee: and I shall destroy them that hate mee.

41 They shall cry, but there shall be none to help them: yea, even unto the Lord shall they crie, but hee shall not hear them.

42 I will beat them as small as the dust before the winde: I will cast them out as the clay in the streets.

43 Thou shalt deliver me from the strivings of the people: and thou shalt make me the head of the heathen.

44 A people whom I have not known: shall serve me.

45 Assoon as they hear of me, they shall obey me: but the strange children shall dissemble with mee.

46 The strange children shall fail: and be afraid out of their prisons.

47 The Lord liveth, and blessed be my strong helper: and praised be the God of my salvation.

48 Even the God that seeth that I be avenged: and subdueth the people unto mee.

49 It is hee that delivereth mee from my cruell enemies, and setteth mee up above mine adversaries: thou shalt rid mee from the wicked man.

50 For this cause will I give thanks unto thee, O Lord, among the Gentiles: and sing prayses unto thy Name.

51 Great prosperity giveth hee unto his King: and sheweth loving kindnesse unto David his anointed, and unto his seed for evermore.

Cœli enarrant. Psal. 19.

Morning Prayer.

THe heavens declare the glory of God: and the firmament sheweth his handy work.

2 One day telleth another: and one night certifieth another.

3 There is neither speech nor language: but their voices are heard among them.

4 Their sound is gone out into all lands: and their words unto the ends of the world.

5 In them hath hee set a tabernacle for the sunne: which cometh forth as a bridegroom out of his chamber, and rejoyceth as a giant to run his course.

6 It goeth forth from the uttermost part of the heaven, and runneth about unto the end of it again: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

7 The Law of the Lord is an undefiled Law, converting the soul: the Testimony of the Lord is sure, and giveth wisdom unto the simple.

8 The Statutes of the Lord are right, and rejoyce the heart: the Commandment of the Lord is pure, and giveth light unto the eyes.

9 The fear of the Lord is clean, and endureth for ever: the Judgements of the Lord are true, and righteous altogether.

10 More to be desired are they then gold, yea, then much much fine gold: sweeter also then honey and the honey comb.

11 Moreover, by them is thy servant taught: and in keeping of them there is great reward.

12 Who can tell how oft he offendeth: O cleanse thou me from my secret faults.

13 Keep thy servant also from presumptuous sinnes, lest they get the dominion over me: so shall I be undefiled and innocent from the great offence.

14 Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart: be alway acceptable in thy sight.

15 O Lord: my strength and my Redeemer.

Exaudiat te Dominus. Psal. 20.

THe Lord hear thee in the day of trouble: the Name of the God of Jacob defend thee.

2 Send thee help from the Sanctuary: and strengthen thee out of Sion.

3 Remember all thy offerings: and accept thy burnt sacrifice.

4 Grant thee thy hearts desire: and fulfill all thy minde.

5 We will rejoyce in thy salvation, and triumph in the Name of the Lord our God: the Lord perform all thy petitions.

6 Now know I that the Lord helpeth his anointed, and will hear him from his holy heaven: even with the wholsome strength of his right hand.

7 Some put their trust in chariots, & some in horses: but we will remember the Name of the Lord our God.

8 They are brought down and fallen: but we are risen and stand upright.

9 Save Lord and hear us, O King of heaven: when we call upon thee.

Domine, in virtute. Psal. 21.

THe king shal rejoice in thy strength, O Lord: exceeding glad shall he be of thy salvation.

2 Thou

2 Thou hast given him his hearts desire: and hast not denied him the request of his lips.

3 For thou shalt prevent him with the blessings of goodnesse: and shalt set a crown of pure gold upon his head.

4 Hee asked life of thee, and thou gavest him a long life: even for ever and ever.

5 His honour is great in thy salvation: glory and great worship shalt thou lay upon him.

6 For thou shalt give him everlasting felicity: and make him glad with the joy of thy countenance.

7 And why? because the king putteth his trust in the Lord: and in the mercy of the most Highest hee shall not miscary.

8 All thine enemies shall feel thine hand: thy right hand shall finde out them that hate thee.

9 Thou shalt make them like a fiery oven in time of thy wrath: the Lord shall destroy them in his displeasure, and the fire shall consume them.

10 Their fruit shalt thou root out of the earth: and their seed from among the childzen of men.

11 For they intended mischief against thee: and imagined such a device, as they are not able to perform.

12 Therefore shalt thou put them to flight: and the strings of thy bowe shalt thou make ready against the face of them.

13 Be thou exalted Lord in thine own strength: so will we sing and praise thy power.

Deus, Deus meus. Psal. 22.

MY God, my God, look upon mee, why hast thou forsaken mee: and art so farre from my health, and from the words of my complaint?

2 O my God, I cry in the day time, but thou hearest not: and in the night season also I take no rest.

3 And thou continuest holy: O thou worship of Israel.

4 Our fathers hoped in thee: they trusted in thee, and thou didst deliver them.

5 They called upon thee, and were holpen: they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded.

6 But as for me, I am a worm, and no man: a very scorn of men, and the outcast of the people.

7 All they that see mee laugh me to scorn: they shoot out their lips, and shake their heads, saying.

8 He trusted in God that hee would deliver him: let him deliver him, if he will have him.

9 But thou art hee that took me out of my mothers womb: thou wast my hope when I hanged yet upon my mothers breasts.

10 I have been left unto thee ever since I was born: thou art my God even from my mothers womb.

11 O go not from mee, for trouble is hard at hand: and there is none to help mee.

12 Many oxen are come about mee: fat buls of Basan close me in on every side.

13 They gape upon mee with their mouthes: as it were a ramping and roaring lion.

14 I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint: my heart also in the midst of my body is even like melting wax.

15 My strength is dried up like a potsheard, and my tongue cleaveth to my gums: and thou shalt bring mee into the dust of death.

16 For many dogs are come about mee: and the counsell of the wicked layeth siege against mee.

17 They pierced my hands and my feet, I may tell all my bones: they stand staring and looking upon mee.

18 They part my garments among them: and cast lots upon my vesture.

19 But be not thou far from mee, O Lord: thou art my succour, haste thee to help mee.

20 Deliuer my soul from the sword: my darling from the power of the dog.

21 Saue mee from the lions mouth: thou hast heard mee also from among the hornes of the vnicorns.

22 I will declare thy Name vnto my brethren: in the mids of the congregation will I praise thee.

23 O praise the Lord, ye that fear him: magnifie him all yee of the seed of Jacob, and fear him all yee seed of Israel.

24 For hee hath not despised nor abhorred the lowe estate of the poor, he hath not hid his face from him: but when he called vnto him, he heard him.

25 My praise is of thee in the great Congregation: my vowes will I perform in the sight of them that fear him.

26 The poor shall eat and be satisfied: they that seek after the Lord shall praise him, your heart shall liue for ever.

27 All the ends of the world shall remember themselues, and be turned vnto the Lord: and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before him.

28 For the kingdome is the Lords: and he is the gouernour among the people.

29 All such as be fat vpon earth: haue eaten and worshipped.

30 All they that go down into the dust, shall kneel before him: and no man hath quickened his own soul.

31 My seed shall serue him: they shall be counted vnto the Lord for a generation.

32 They shall come, and the heauens shall declare his righteousnesse: vnto a people that shall be borne, whom the Lord hath made.

Dominus regit me. Psal. 23.

THe Lord is my Shepherd: therefore can I lacke nothing.

2 Hee

2 Hee shall feed mee in a green pasture: and lead mee forth beside the waters of comfort.

3 Hee shall conuert my soul: and bring mee forth in the paths of righteousnesse for his Names sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear none euill: for thou art with mee, thy rod and thy staffe comfort mee.

5 Thou shalt prepare a table before mee against them that trouble mee: thou hast anointed my head with oyl, and my cup shall be full.

6 But thy louing kindnesse and mercy shall follow mee all the daies of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for euer.

Domini est terra. Psal. 24.

THe earth is the Lords, and all that therein is: the compasse of the world, and they that dwell therein. Morni prayer

2 For he hath founded it vpon the seas: and prepared it vpon the floods.

3 Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord: or who shall rise vp in his holy place?

4 Euen he that hath cleane hands and a pure heart: and that hath not lift vp his minde vnto vanity, nor sworn to deceiue his neighbour.

5 Hee shall receiue the blessing from the Lord: and righteousnesse from the God of his saluation.

6 This is the generation of them that seek him: euen of them that seek thy face, O Iacob.

7 Lift vp your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift vp, ye euerlasting doors: and the King of glory shall come in.

8 Who is the King of glory: it is the Lord strong and mighty, euen the Lord mighty in battell.

9 Lift vp your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift vp, ye euerlasting doors: and the King of glory shall come in.

10 Who is the King of glory: euen the Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory.

Ad te, Domine. Psal. 25.

UNto thee, O Lord, will I lift up my soul, my God, I have put my trust in thee: O let me not be confounded, neither let mine enemies triumph over mee.

2 For all they that hope in thee, shall not be ashamed: but such as transgresse without a cause, shall be put to confusion.

3 Shew mee thy wayes, O Lord: and teach mee thy paths.

4 Lead me forth in thy truth, and learn mee: for thou art the God of my salvation, in thee hath been my hope all the day long.

5 Call to remembrance, O Lord, thy tender mercies: and thy loving kindnesse which hath been ever of old.

6 O remember not the sins and offences of my youth: but according to thy mercy think thou upon me, O Lord, for thy goodnesse.

7 Gracious and righteous is the Lord: therefore will he teach sinners in the way.

8 Them that be meek shall he guide in judgement: and such as be gentle, them shall hee learn his way.

9 All the paths of the Lord are mercie and truth: unto such as keep his Covenant, and his Testimonies.

10 For thy Names sake, O Lord: be mercifull unto my sin, for it is great.

11 What man is hee that feareth the Lord: him shall he teach in the way that he shall chuse.

12 His soul shall dwell at ease: and his seed shall inherit the land.

13 The secret of the Lord is among them that fear him: and hee will shew them his Covenant.

14 Mine eyes are ever looking unto the Lord: for he shall pluck my feet out of the net.

15 Turn thee unto mee, and have mercy upon mee: for I am desolate and in misery.

16 The sorrowes of my heart are inlarged: O bring thou mee out of my troubles.

17 Look upon mine adversity and misery: and forgive mee all my sinne.

18 Consider mine enemies how many they are: and they bear a tyrannous hate against mee.

19 O keep my soul, and deliver mee: let mee not be confounded, for I have put my trust in thee.

20 Let perfectnesse and righteous dealing wait upon mee: for my hope hath been in thee.

21 Deliver Israel, O God: out of all his troubles.

Judica me Domine. Psal. 26.

BE thou my Judge, O Lord, for I have walked innocently: my trust hath been also in the Lord, therefore shall I not fall.

2 Examine mee, O Lord, and prove mee: try out my reins and my heart.

3 For thy loving kindnesse is ever before mine eyes: and I will walk in thy truth.

4 I have not dwelt with vain persons: neither will I have fellowship with the deceitfull.

5 I have hated the congregation of the wicked: and will not sit among the ungodly.

6 I will wash mine hands in innocencie, O Lord: and so will I go to thine Altar.

7 That I may shew the voice of thanksgiving: and tell of all thy wondrous works.

8 Lord I have loved the habitation of thy house: and the place where thine honour dwelleth.

9 O shut not up my soul with the sinners: nor my life with the blood-thirsty.

10 In whose hands is wickednesse: and their right hands are full of gifts.

11 But as for mee, I will walk innocently: O Lord deliver me, and be mercifull unto mee.

12 My

12 My foot standeth right: I will praise the Lord in the Congregations.

Dominus illuminatio. Psal. 27.

evening prayer.

THe Lord is my light and my salvation, whom then shall I fear: the Lord is the strength of my life, of whom then shall I be afraid?

2 When the wicked (even mine enemies, and my foes) came upon me to eat up my flesh: they stumbled and fell.

3 Though an host of men were laid against mee, yet shall not my heart be afraid: and though there rose up war against mee, yet will I put my trust in him.

4 One thing have I desired of the Lord, which I will require: even that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the dayes of my life, to behold the fair beauty of the Lord, and to visit his Temple.

5 For in the time of trouble hee shall hide mee in his Tabernacle: yea, in the secret place of his dwelling shall he hide mee, and set me up upon a rock of stone.

6 And now shall he lift up mine head: above mine enemies round about mee.

7 Therefore will I offer in his dwelling an oblation with great gladnesse: I will sing and speak praises unto the Lord.

8 Hearken unto my voice, O Lord, when I cry unto thee: have mercy upon mee, and hear mee.

9 My heart hath talked of thee, seek ye my face: thy face, Lord, will I seek.

10 O hide not thou thy face from mee: nor cast thy servant away in displeasure.

11 Thou hast been my succour: leave mee not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.

12 When my father and my mother forsake mee: the Lord taketh me up.

13 Teach me thy way, O Lord: and lead mee in the right way, because of mine enemies.

14 Deliver me not over into the will of mine adversaries:

saries: for there are false witnesses risen up against mee, and such as speak wrong.

15 I should utterly have fainted: but ỹ I beleeve verily to see the goodnes of the Lord in the land of the living.

16 O tarry thou the Lords leasure: be strong & he shal comfort thine heart, and put thou thy trust in the Lord.

Ad te, Domine. Psal. 28.

UNto thee will I cry, O Lord my strength: think no scorn of me, lest if thou make as though thou hearest not, I become like them that go down into the pit.

2 Hear the voice of my humble petitions when I cry unto thee: when I hold up my hands toward the Mercy seat of thy holy Temple.

3 O pluck me not away (neither destroy mee) with the ungodly and wicked doers: which speak friendly to their neighbours, but imagine mischief in their hearts.

4 Reward them according to their deeds: and according to the wickednes of their own inventions.

5 Recompense them after the work of their hands: pay them that they have deserved.

6 For they regard not in their minde the works of the Lord, nor the operation of his hands: therefore shall he break them down, and not build them up.

7 Praised be the Lord: for he hath heard the voice of my humble petitions.

8 The Lord is my strength and my shield, my heart hath trusted in him, and I am helped: therefore my heart danceth for joy, and in my song will I praise him.

9 The Lord is my strength: and he is the wholsom defence of his anointed.

10 O save thy people, and give thy blessing unto thine inheritance: feed them, and set them up for ever.

Afferte Domino. Psal. 29.

BRing unto the Lord, O ye mighty, bring yong rams unto the Lord: ascribe unto the Lord worship and strength.

2 Give the Lord the honour due unto his Name: worship the Lord with holy worship.

3 It is the Lord that commandeth the waters: it is the glorious God that maketh the thunder.

4 It is the Lord that ruleth the sea, the voice of the Lord is mighty in operation: the voice of the Lord is a glorious voice.

5 The voice of the Lord breaketh the Cedar trees: yea, the Lord breaketh the Cedars of Libanus.

6 He made them also to skip like a calf: Libanus also and Syrion like a young unicorn.

7 The voice of the Lord divideth the flames of fire, the voice of the Lord shaketh the wildernesse: yea, the Lord shaketh the wildernesse of Cades.

8 The voice of the Lord maketh the hindes to bring forth young, and discovereth the thick bushes: in his Temple doth every man speak of his honour.

9 The Lord sitteth above the water flood: and the Lord remaineth a King for ever.

10 The Lord shall give strength unto his people: the Lord shall give his people the blessing of peace.

Exaltabo te, Domine. Psal. 30.

orning yer.

I will magnifie thee, O Lord, for thou hast set me up: and not made my foes to triumph over me.

2 O Lord my God, I cried unto thee: and thou hast healed me.

3 Thou Lord hast brought my soul out of hell: thou hast kept my life from them that go down to the pit.

4 Sing praises unto the Lord (O yee Saints of his:) and give thanks to him for a remembrance of his holinesse.

5 For his wrath endureth but the twinkling of an eye, and in his pleasure is life: heavinesse may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.

6 And in my prosperity I said, I shall never be removed:

moued: thou Lord of thy goodnesse hadst made my hill so strong.

7 Thou diddest turn thy face (from me:) and I was troubled.

8 Then cryed I unto thee, O Lord: and gat me unto my Lord right humbly.

9 What profit is there in my blood: when I go down to the pit?

10 Shall the dust give thanks unto thee: or shall it declare thy truth?

11 Hear, O Lord, and have mercy upon me: Lord be thou my helper.

12 Thou hast turned my heavinesse into joy: thou hast put off my sackcloth, and girded me with gladnesse.

13 Therefore shall every good man sing of thy praise without ceasing: O my God, I will give thanks unto thee for ever.

In te, Domine, speravi. Psal. 31.

IN thee, O Lord, have I put my trust: let me never be put to confusion, deliver me in thy righteousnesse.

2 Bow down thine ear to mee: make haste to deliver mee.

3 And be thou my strong rock, and the house of defence: that thou mayest save me.

4 For thou art my strong rock, and my castle: be thou also my my guide, and lead me for thy Names sake.

5 Draw me out of the net that they have laid privily for me: for thou art my strength.

6 Into thy hand I commend my spirit: for thou hast redeemed mee, O Lord, thou God of truth.

7 I have hated them that hold of superstitious vanities: and my trust hath been in the Lord.

8 I will be glad and rejoyce in thy mercy: for thou hast considered my trouble, and hast known my soul in adversities.

9 Thou hast not shut me up into the hand of the enemie: but hast set my feet in a large room.

10 Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am in trouble: and mine eye is consumed for very heavinesse, yea, my soul and my body.

11 For my life is waxen old with heavinesse: and my years with mourning.

12 My strength faileth me because of mine iniquity: and my bones are consumed.

13 I became a reproof among all mine enemies, but specially among my neighbours: and they of mine acquaintance were afraid of mee, and they that did see mee without, conveyed themselves from mee.

14 I am clean forgotten as a dead man out of minde: I am become like a broken vessell.

15 For I have heard the blasphemy of the multitude: and fear is on every side, while they conspire together against mee, and take their counsell to take away my life.

16 But my hope hath been in thee, O Lord: I have said, Thou art my God.

17 My time is in thy hand, deliver me from the hand of mine enemies: and from them that persecute me.

18 Shew thy servant the light of thy countenance: and save me for thy mercies sake.

19 Let me not be confounded, O Lord, for I have called upon thee: let the ungodly be put to confusion, and be put to silence in the grave.

20 Let the lying lips be put to silence: which cruelly, disdainfully, and despitefully speak against the righteous.

21 O how plentifull is thy goodnesse, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee: and that thou hast prepared for them that put their trust in thee, even before the sons of men!

22 Thou shalt hide them privily by thine own presence

from

from the prouoking of all men: thou shalt keep them secretly in thy Tabernacle from the strife of tongues.

23 Thanks be to the Lord: for he hath shewed mee marvellous great kindnesse in a strong citie.

24 And when I made haste, I said: I am cast out of the sight of thine eyes.

25 Nevertheless, thou heardest the voice of my prayer: when I cried unto thee.

26 O love the Lord, all ye his Saints: for the Lord preserveth them that are faithfull, and plenteously rewardeth the proud doer.

27 Be strong, and hee shall stablish your heart: all yee that put your trust in the Lord.

Beati quorum. Psal. 32.

BLessed is he whose unrighteousnesse is forgiven: and whose sin is covered. Evening prayer.

2 Blessed is the man unto whom the Lord imputeth no sin: and in whose spirit there is no guile.

3 For while I held my tongue: my bones consumed away through my dayly complaining.

4 For thy hand is heavy upon me day and night: and my moisture is like the drought in summer.

5 I will knowledge my sinne unto thee: and mine unrighteousnesse have I not hid.

6 I said, I will confesse my sins unto the Lord: and so thou forgavest the wickednesse of my sin.

7 For this shall every one that is godly make his prayer unto thee in a time when thou mayest be found: but in the great water-floods they shall not come nigh him.

8 Thou art a place to hide me in, thou shalt preserve me from trouble: thou shalt compasse mee about with songs of deliverance.

9 I will inform thee, and teach thee in the way wherein thou shalt go: and I will guide thee with mine eye.

10 Be ye not like to horse and mule which have no understanding: whose mouthes must be holden with bit and bridle, lest they fall upon thee.

11 Great plagues remain for the ungodly: but whoso putteth his trust in the Lord, mercy embraceth him on every side.

12 Be glad, O ye righteous, and rejoyce in the Lord: and be joyfull, all ye that are true of heart.

Exultate, justi. Psal. 33.

REjoyce in the Lord, O ye righteous: for it becometh well the just to be thankfull.

2 Praise the Lord with Harp: sing Psalms unto him with the Lute, and instrument of ten strings.

3 Sing unto the Lord a new song: sing praises lustily (unto him) with a good courage.

4 For the word of the Lord is true: and all his works are faithfull.

5 He loveth righteousnes and judgement: the earth is full of the goodnesse of the Lord.

6 By the word of the Lord were the heavens made: and all the hosts of them by the breath of his mouth.

7 He gathereth the waters of the sea together, as it were upon an heap: and layeth up the deep as in a treasure-house.

8 Let all the earth fear the Lord: stand in awe of him, all ye that dwell in the world.

9 For he spake, and it was done: he commanded, and it stood fast.

10 The Lord bringeth the counsell of the heathen to nought: and maketh the devices of the people to bee of none effect, and casteth out the counsels of princes.

11 The counsell of the Lord shall endure for ever: and the thoughts of his heart from generation to generation.

12 Blessed are the people whose God is the Lord Jehova: and blessed are the folk that he hath chosen to him to be his inheritance.

13 The Lord looked down from heaven, and beheld all the children of men: from the habitation of his dwelling he considereth all them that dwell in the earth.

14 He fashioneth all the hearts of them: and understandeth all their works.

15 There is no king that can be saved by the multitude of an host: neither is any mighty man delivered by much strength.

16 An horse is counted but a vain thing to save a man: neither shall he deliver any man by his great strength.

17 Behold, the eye of the Lord is upon them that fear him: and upon them that put their trust in his mercy.

18 To deliver their souls from death: and to feed them in the time of dearth.

19 Our soul hath patiently tarried for the Lord: for he is our help and our shield.

20 For our heart shall rejoyce in him: because we have hoped in his holy Name.

21 Let thy mercifull kindnesse (O Lord) be upon us: like as we do put our trust in thee.

Benedicam Domino. Psal. 34.

I will alway give thanks unto the Lord: his praise shall ever be in my mouth.

2 My soul shal make her boast of the Lord: the humble shall hear thereof and be glad.

3 O praise the Lord with mee: and let us magnifie his Name together.

4 I sought the Lord, and he heard mee: yea, he delivered me out of all my fear.

5 They had an eye unto him, and were lightened: and their faces were not ashamed.

6 Lo, the poor crieth, and the Lord heareth him: yea, and saveth him out of all his troubles.

7 The Angel of the Lord tarrieth round about them that fear him: and delivereth them.

8 O taste and see how gracious the Lord is: blessed is the man that trusteth in him.

9 O fear the Lord ye that be his Saints: for they that fear him lack nothing.

10 The lions do lack, and suffer hunger: but they which seek the Lord, shall want no maner of thing that is good.

11 Come ye children, and hearken unto mee: I will teach you the fear of the Lord.

12 What man is he that lusteth to live, and would fain see good dayes: keep thy tongue from evill, and thy lips that they speak no guile.

13 Eschew evill, and do good: seek peace, and ensue it.

14 The eyes of the Lord are over the righteous: and his ears are open unto their prayers.

15 The countenance of the Lord is against them that do evill: to root out the remembrance of them from the earth.

16 The righteous cry, and the Lord heareth them: and delivereth them out of all their troubles.

17 The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a contrite heart: and will save such as be of an humble spirit.

18 Great are the troubles of the righteous: but the Lord delivereth him out of all.

19 He keepeth all his bones: so that not one of them is broken.

20 But ungodlynesse shall slay the ungodly: and they that hate the righteous shall be desolate.

21 The Lord delivereth the soules of his servants: and all they that put their trust in him, shall not be desolate.

Judica me, Domine. Psal. 35.

orning ayer.

PLead thou my cause, O Lord, with them that strive with mee: and fight thou against them that fight against me.

2 Lay hand upon the shield and buckler: and stand up to help me.

3 Bring forth the spear, and stop the way against them that persecute me: say unto my soul, I am thy salvation.

4 Let them be confounded and put to shame, that seek after my soul: let them be turned back, and brought to confusion, that imagine mischief for mee.

5 Let them be as the dust before the winde: and the Angel of the Lord scattering them.

6 Let their way be darke and slippery: and let the Angel of the Lord persecute them.

7 For they have privily laid their net to destroy mee without a cause: yea, even without a cause have they made a pit for my soul.

8 Let a sudden destruction come upon him unawares, and his net that he hath laid privily, catch himself: that he may fall into his own mischief.

9 And my soul be joyfull in the Lord: it shall rejoyce in his salvation.

10 All my bones shal say, Lord, who is like unto thee, which deliverest the poor from him that is too strong for him: yea, the poor and him that is in misery, from him that spoileth him.

11 False witnesse did rise up: they laid to my charge things that I knew not.

12 They rewarded mee evill for good: to the great discomfort of my soul.

13 Nevertheless, when they were sick, I put on sackcloth, and humbled my soul with fasting: and my prayer shall turn into mine own bosome.

14 I behaved my self as though it had been my friend, or my brother: I went heavily as one that mourneth for his mother.

15 But in mine adversity they rejoyced, and gathered them together: yea, the very abjects came together against me unawares, making mowes at mee, and ceased not.

16 With the flatterers were busie mockers: which gnashed upon me with their teeth.

17 Lord, how long wilt thou look upon this: O deliver my soul from the calamities which they bring on me, and my darling from the lions.

18 So will I give thee thanks in the great Congregation: I will praise thee among much people.

19 O let not them that are mine enemies triumph over mee ungodly: neither let them wink with their eyes that hate me without a cause.

20 And why? their communing is not for peace: but they imagine deceitfull words against them that are quiet in the land.

21 They gaped on me with their mouthes, and said: Fie on thee, fie on thee, we saw it with our eyes.

22 This thou hast seen, O Lord: hold not thy tongue then, go not far from me, O Lord.

23 Awake and stand up to judge my quarrell: avenge thou my cause, my God and my Lord.

24 Judge me, O Lord my God, according to thy righteousnesse: and let them not triumph over me.

25 Let them not say in their hearts, There, there, so would we have it: neither let them say, We have devoured him.

26 Let them be put to confusion and shame together that rejoyce at my trouble: let them be clothed with rebuke and dishonour that boast themselves against me.

27 Let them be glad and rejoyce that favour my righteous dealing: yea, let them say alway, Blessed be the Lord, which hath pleasure in the prosperity of his servant.

28 And as for my tongue, it shall be talking of thy righteousnesse: and of thy praise all the day long.

Dixit injustus. Psal. 36.

MY heart sheweth me the wickednes of the ungodly: that there is no fear of God before his eyes.

2 For he flattereth himself in his own sight: until his abominable sin be found out.

3 The words of his mouth are unrighteous, and ful of deceit: he hath left off to behave himself wisely, and to do good.

4 He imagineth mischief upon his bed, and hath set himself in no good way: neither doth hee abhorre any thing that is evill.

5 Thy mercy (O Lord) reacheth unto the heavens: and thy faithfulnesse unto the clouds.

6 Thy righteousnesse standeth like the strong mountains: thy judgements are like the great deep.

7 Thou Lord shalt save both man and beast, how excellent is thy mercy, O God: and the children of men shall put their trust under the shadow of thy wings.

8 They shall be satisfied with the plenteousnesse of thy house: and thou shalt give them drink of thy pleasures as out of the river.

9 For with thee is the well of life: and in thy light shall we see light.

10 O continue forth thy loving kindnesse unto them that know thee: and thy righteousnesse unto them that are true of heart.

11 O let not the foot of pride come against me: and let not the hand of the ungodly cast me down.

12 There are they fallen (all) that work wickednesse: they are cast down, and shall not be able to stand.

Noli æmulari. Psal. 37.

FRet not thy self because of the ungodly: neither be thou envious against the evill doers. Evening prayer

2 For they shall soon be cut down like the grasse: & be withered even as the green herb.

3 Put thou thy trust in the Lord, and be doing good: dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed.

4 Delight thou in the Lord: and hee shall give thee thy hearts desire.

5 Com-

5 Commit thy way unto the Lord, and put thy trust in him: and he shall bring it to passe.

6 He shall make thy righteousnesse as clear as the light: and thy just dealing as the noon day.

7 Hold thee still in the Lord, and abide patiently upon him: but grieve not thy self at him whose way doth prosper, against the man that doth after evill counsels.

8 Leave off from wrath, and let go displeasure: fret not thy self, else shalt thou be moved to do evill.

9 Wicked doers shall be rooted out: and they that patiently abide the Lord, those shall inherit the land.

10 Yet a little while, and the ungodly shall be clean gone: thou shalt look after his place, and he shall be away.

11 But the meek spirited shall possesse the earth: and shall be refreshed in the multitude of peace.

12 The ungodly seeketh counsell against the just: and gnasheth upon him with his teeth.

13 The Lord shall laugh him to scorn: for he hath seen that his day is coming.

14 The ungodly have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bowe: to cast down the poor and needy, and to slay such as be of a right conversation.

15 Their sword shal go thorow their own heart: and their bowe shall be broken.

16 A small thing that the righteous hath: is better then great riches of the ungodly.

17 For the arms of the ungodly shall be broken: and the Lord upholdeth the righteous.

18 The Lord knoweth the dayes of the godly: and their inheritance shall endure for ever.

19 They shal not be confounded in the perillous time: and in the dayes of dearth they shall have enough.

20 As for the ungodly, they shall perish, and the enemies of the Lord shall consume as the fat of lambs: yea, even as the smoak shall they consume away.

21 The

21 The ungodly borroweth, and payeth not again: but the righteous is mercifull and liberall.

22 Such as be blessed of God shall possesse the land: and they that be cursed of him shall be rooted out.

23 The Lord ordereth a good mans going: and maketh his way acceptable to himself.

24 Though he fall, he shall not bee cast away: for the Lord upholdeth him with his hand.

25 I have been young, and now am old: and yet saw I never the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging their bread.

26 The righteous is ever mercifull and lendeth: and his seed is blessed.

27 Flee from evill, and do the thing that is good: and dwell for evermore.

28 For the Lord loveth the thing that is right: hee forsaketh not his that be godly, but they are preserved for ever.

29 The righteous shall be punished: as for the seed of the ungodly, it shall be rooted out.

30 The righteous shall inherit the land: and dwell therein for ever.

31 The mouth of the righteous is exercised in wisdome: and his tongue will be talking of judgement.

32 The law of his God is in his heart: and his goings shall not slide.

33 The ungodly seeth the righteous: and seeketh occasion to slay him.

34 The Lord will not leave him in his hand: nor condemn him when he is judged.

35 Hope thou in the Lord, and keep his way, and hee shall promote thee, that thou shalt possesse the land: when the ungodly shall perish thou shalt see it.

36 I my self have seen the ungodly in great power: and flourishing like a green Bay-tree.

37 And I went by, and lo, hee was gone: I sought him, but his place could no where to be found.

38 Keep innocency, and take heed unto the thing that is right: for that shall bring a man peace at the last.

39 As for the transgressours, they shal perish together: and the end of the ungodly is, They shall be rooted out at the last.

40 But the salvation of the righteous cometh of the Lord: which is also their strength in the time of trouble.

41 And the Lord shall stand by them and save them: hee shall deliver them from the ungodly, and shall save them, because they put their trust in him.

Domine, ne in furore. Psal. 38.

orning ayer.

PUt me not to rebuke (O Lord) in thine anger: neither chasten me in thy heavy displeasure.

2 For thine arrows stick fast in me: and thy hand presseth me sore.

3 There is no health in my flesh, because of thy displeasure: neither is there any rest in my bones, by reason of my sin.

4 For my wickednesses are gone over mine head: and are like a sore burthen too heavy for me to bear.

5 My wounds stink and are corrupt: through my foolishnesse.

6 I am brought into so great trouble and miserie: that I go mourning all the day long.

7 For my loyns are filled with a sore disease: and there is no whole part in my body.

8 I am feeble and sore smitten: I have roared for the very disquietnesse of my heart.

9 Lord, thou knowest all my desire: and my groning is not hid from thee.

10 My heart panteth, my strength hath failed mee: and the sight of mine eyes is gone from me.

11 My lovers and my neighbours did stand looking upon my trouble: and my kinsmen stood afar off.

12 They

12 They also that sought after my life, laid snares for me: and they that went about to do me evill, talked of wickednesse, and imagined deceit all the day long.

13 As for mee, I was like a deaf man, and heard not: and as one that is dumbe, which doth not open his mouth.

14 I became even as a man that heareth not: and in whose mouth are no reproofs.

15 For in thee, O Lord, have I put my trust: thou shalt answer for me, O Lord my God.

16 I have required that they (even mine enemies) should not triumph over me: for when my foot slipt, they rejoyced greatly against me.

17 And I truly am set in the plague: and my heavinesse is ever in my sight.

18 For I will confesse my wickednesse: and be sorry for my sinne.

19 But mine enemies live, and are mighty: and they that hate me wrongfully are many in number.

20 They also that reward evill for good, are against mee: because I follow the thing that good is.

21 Forsake me not, O Lord my God: be not thou far from mee.

22 Haste thee to help mee: O Lord God of my salvation.

Dixi, custodiam. Psal. 39.

I Said, I will take heed to my wayes: that I offend not in my tongue.

2 I will keep my mouth (as it were with a bridle:) while the ungodly is in my sight.

3 I held my tongue, and spake nothing: I kept silence, yea, even from good words, but it was pain and grief to mee.

4 My heart was hot within mee, and while I was thus musing, the fire kindled: and at the last I spake with my tongue,

5 Lord,

5 Lord let me know mine end, and the number of my dayes: that I may be certified how long I have to live.

6 Behold, thou hast made my dayes as it were a span long: and mine age is even as nothing in respect of thee, and verily every man living is altogether vanity.

7 For man walketh in a vain shadow, and disquieteth himself in vain: he heapeth up riches, and cannot tell who shall gather them.

8 And now, Lord, what is my hope: truly my hope is even in thee.

9 Deliver me from all mine offences: and make mee not a rebuke unto the foolish.

10 I became dumb, and opened not my mouth: for it was thy doing.

11 Take thy plague away from mee: I am even consumed by the means of thy heavy hand.

12 When thou with rebukes doest chasten man for sin, thou makest his beauty to consume away like as it were a moth fretting a garment: every man therefore is but vanity.

13 Hear my prayer, O Lord, and with thine eares consider my calling: hold not thy peace at my tears.

14 For I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner: as all my fathers were.

15 O spare me a little, that I may recover my strength: before I go hence, and be no more seen.

Expectans expectavi. Psal. 40.

I waited patiently for the Lord: and he enclined unto me, and heard my calling.

2 He brought me also out of the horrible pit, out of the mire and clay: and set my feet upon the rock, and ordered my goings.

3 And he hath put a new song in my mouth: even a thanksgiving unto our God.

4 Many shall see it, and fear: and shall put their trust in the Lord.

5 Blessed is the man that hath set his hope in the Lord: and turned not unto the proud, and to such as go about with lies.

6 O Lord my God, great are thy wonderous works which thou hast done: like as be also thy thoughts which are to us-ward, and yet there is no man that ordereth them unto thee.

7 If I would declare them and speak of them: they should be more then I am able to expresse.

8 Sacrifice and meat-offering thou wouldest not have: but mine ears hast thou opened.

9 Burnt offerings and sacrifice for sin hast thou not required: then said I, Lo, I come.

10 In the volume of the book it is written of me, that I should fulfill thy will. O my God: I am content to do it, yea, thy Law is within my heart.

11 I have declared thy righteousness in the great Congregation: lo, I will not refrain my lips, O Lord, and that thou knowest well.

12 I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart: my talking hath been of thy truth, and of thy salvation.

13 I have not kept back thy loving mercy and truth: from the great Congregation.

14 Withdraw not thou thy mercy from me, O Lord: let thy loving kindness and thy truth alway preserve me.

15 For innumerable troubles are come about me, my sins have taken such hold upon me, that I am not able to look up: yea, they are more in number then the hairs of mine head, and mine heart hath failed me.

16 O Lord, let it be thy pleasure to deliver me: make haste (O Lord) to help me.

17 Let them be ashamed and confounded together that seek after my soul to destroy it: let them be driven backward and put to rebuke that wish me evil.

18 Let them be desolate and rewarded with shame.

that say unto me: Fie upon thee, fie upon thee.

19 Let all those that seek thee, be joyfull and glad in thee: and let such as love thy salvation, say alway, The Lord be praised.

20 As for mee, I am poor and needy: but the Lord careth for mee.

21 Thou art my helper and Redeemer: make no long tarrying, O my God.

Beatus, qui intelligit. Psal. 41.

Evening Prayer.

BLessed is hee that considereth the poor and needy: the Lord shall deliver him in the time of trouble.

2 The Lord preserve him and keep him alive, that he may be blessed upon earth: and deliver not thou him into the will of his enemies.

3 The Lord comfort him when he lieth sick upon his bed: make thou all his bed in his sickness.

4 I said, Lord be mercifull unto mee: heal my soul, for I have sinned against thee.

5 Mine enemies speak evill of mee: When shall hee die, and his name perish.

6 And if he come to see mee, he speaketh vanity: and his heart conceiveth falshood within himself, and when he cometh forth he telleth it.

7 All mine enemies whisper together against mee: even against mee do they imagine this evill.

8 Let the sentence of guiltinesse proceed against him: and now that he lieth, let him rise up no more.

9 Yea, even mine own familiar friend whom I trusted: which did also eat of my bread, hath laid great wait for mee.

10 But be thou mercifull unto me, O Lord: raise thou me up again, and I shall reward them.

11 By this I know thou favourest mee: that mine enemy doth not triumph against mee.

12 And

12 And when I am in my health, thou upholdest me: and shalt set me before thy face for ever.

13 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel: world without end. Amen.

Quemadmodum. Psal. 42.

LIke as the hart desireth the water brooks: so longeth my soul after thee, O God.

2 My soul is athirst for God, yea, even for the living God: when shall I come to appear before the presence of God.

3 My tears have been my meat day and night; while they daily say unto me, Where is now thy God?

4 Now when I think thereupon, I pour out my heart by my self: for I went with the multitude, and brought them forth into the house of God,

5 In the voice of praise and thanksgiving: among such as keep holy day.

6 Why art thou so ful of heavinesse, O my soul: and why art thou so disquieted within me?

7 Put thy trust in God: for I will yet give him thanks for the help of his countenance.

8 My God, my soul is vexed within me: therefore will I remember thee concerning the land of Jordan, and the little hill of Hermon.

9 One deep calleth another, because of the noise of the water-pipes: all thy waves and stormes are gone over me.

10 The Lord hath granted his loving kindnesse in the day time: and in the night season did I sing of him, and made my prayer unto the God of my life.

11 I will say unto the God of my strength, Why hast thou forgotten me: why go I thus heavily, while the enemie oppresseth me?

12 My bones are smitten asunder as with a sword: while mine enemies (that trouble me) cast me in the teeth, 13 Namely, while they say daily unto me: Where is now thy God?

14 Why art thou so dejected, O my soul: and why art thou so disquieted within mee?

15 O put thy trust in God: for I will yet thank him which is the help of my countenance, and my God.

Judica me, Deus. Psal. 43.

GIve sentence with me, O God, and defend my cause against the ungodly people: O deliver me from the deceitfull and wicked man.

2 For thou art the God of my strength, why hast thou put mee from thee: and why go I so heavily, while the enemie oppresseth mee?

3 O send out thy light and thy truth, that they may lead mee: and bring mee unto thy holy hill, and to thy dwelling.

4 And that I may go unto the altar of God, even unto the God of my joy and gladnesse: and upon the harp will I give thanks unto thee, O God, my God.

5 Why art thou so heavy, O my soul: and why art thou so disquieted within mee?

6 O put thy trust in God: for I will yet give him thanks, which is the help of my countenance, and my God.

Deus, auribus. Psal. 44.

orning ayer.

WE have heard with our ears, O God, our fathers have told us: what thou hast done in their time of old.

2 How thou hast driven out the heathen with thy hand, and planted them in: how thou hast destroyed the nations, and cast them out.

3 For they got not the land in possession through their own sword: neither was it their own arm that helped them.

4 But thy right hand and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance: because thou hadst a favour unto them.

5 Thou

5 Thou art my King (O God:) send help unto Jacob.
6 Through thee will wee overthrow our enemies: and in thy Name will we tread them under that rise up against us.
7 For I will not trust in my bowe: it is not my sword that shall help mee.
8 But it is thou that savest us from our enemies: and puttest them to confusion that hate us.
9 We make our boast of God all day long: and will praise thy Name for ever.
10 But now thou art far off, and puttest us to confusion: and goest not forth with our armies.
11 Thou makest us to turn our backs upon our enemies: so that they which hate us, spoil our goods.
12 Thou lettest us go be eaten up like sheep: and hast scattered us among the heathen.
13 Thou sellest thy people for nought: and takest no money for them.
14 Thou makest us to be rebuked of our neighbours: to be laughed to scorn, and had in derision of them that are round about us.
15 Thou makest us to be a by-word among the heathen: and that the people shake their heads at us.
16 My confusion is daily before me: and the shame of my face hath covered me, 17 For the voyce of the slanderer and blasphemer: for the enemy and avenger.
18 And though all this be come upon us, yet do we not forget thee: nor behave our selves stubbornly in thy Covenant.
19 Our heart is not turned back: neither our steps gone out of thy way.
20 No not when thou hast smitten us into the place of dragons: and covered us with the shadow of death.
21 If we have forgotten the Name of our God, and holden up our hands to any strange god: shall not God search it out: for hee knoweth the very secrets of the heart.

22 For thy sake also are we killed all the day long: and are counted as sheep appointed to be slain.

23 Up Lord, why sleepest thou: awake, and be not absent from us for ever.

24 Wherefore hidest thou thy face: and forgettest our misery and trouble?

25 For our soul is brought low, even unto the dust: our belly cleaveth unto the ground.

26 Arise, and help us: and deliver us for thy mercies sake.

Eructavit cor meum. Psal. 45.

MY heart is inditing of a good matter: I speak of the things which I have made unto the King.

2 My tongue is the pen of a ready writer.

3 Thou art fairer than the children of men: full of grace are thy lips, because God hath blessed thee for ever.

4 Gird thee with thy sword upon thy thigh, O thou most mighty: according to thy worship and renown.

5 God tuck have thou with thine honour: ride on because of the word of truth, of meekness, and righteousness, and thy right hand shall teach thee terrible things.

6 Thy arrows are very sharp, and the people shall be subdued unto thee: even in the midst among the king's enemies.

7 Thy seat, O God, endureth for ever: the sceptre of thy kingdom is a right sceptre.

8 Thou hast loved righteousness and hated iniquity: wherefore God, even thy God hath anointed thee with the oyl of gladness above thy fellows.

9 All thy garments smell of Myrrhe, Aloes, and Cassia, out of the ivory palaces whereby they have made thee glad.

10 Kings daughters were among thy honourable women: upon thy right hand did stand the Queen in a beasure of gold (wrought about with divers colours.)

11 Hearken (O daughter) and consider, enclose thine ear: forget also thine own people, and thy fathers house.

12 So shall the King have pleasure in thy beauty: for he is thy Lord (God) and worship thou him.

13 And the daughter of Tyre shall be there with a gift: like as the rich also among the people shall make their supplication before thee.

14 The King's daughter is all glorious within: her clothing is of wrought gold.

15 She shall be brought unto the King in raiment of needle-work: the virgins that be her fellows shall bear her company, and shall be brought unto thee.

16 With joy and gladness shall they be brought: and shall go into the King's palace.

17 Instead of thy fathers thou shalt have children: whom thou may'st make princes in all lands.

18 I will remember thy Name from one generation unto another: therefore shall the people give thanks unto thee world without end.

Deus noster refugium. Psal. 46.

1 GOd is our hope, and strength: a very present help in trouble.

2 Therefore will we not fear, though the earth be moved: and though the hills be carried into the midst of the sea.

3 Though the waters thereof rage, and swell: and though the mountains shake at the tempest of the same.

4 The rivers of the flood thereof shall make glad the City of God: the holy place of the Tabernacles of the most Highest.

5 God is in the midst of her, therefore shall she not be removed: God shall help her, and that right early.

6 The heathen make much ado, and the kingdoms are moved: but God hath showed his voice, and the earth shall melt away.

7 The Lord of hosts is with us: the God of Jacob is our refuge.

8 Come hither, and behold the works of the Lord: what destruction he hath brought upon the earth.

9 He maketh wars to cease in all the world: he breaketh the bow, and knappeth the spear in sunder, and burneth the chariots in the fire.

10 Be still then, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, and I will be exalted in the earth.

11 The Lord of hosts is with us: the God of Jacob is our refuge.

Omnes gentes, plaudite. Psal. 47.

evening prayer.

1 O Clap your hands together, all ye people: O sing unto God with the voice of melody.

2 For the Lord is high, and to be feared: he is the great King upon all the earth.

3 He shall subdue the people under us: and the nations under our feet.

4 He shall choose out an heritage for us: even the worship of Jacob whom he loved.

5 God is gone up with a merry noise: and the Lord with the sound of the trumpet.

6 O sing praises, sing praises unto our God: O sing praises, sing praises unto our King.

7 For God is the King of all the earth: sing ye praises with understanding.

8 God reigneth over the heathen: God sitteth upon his holy seat.

9 The princes of the people are joined unto the people of the God of Abraham: for God, which is very high exalted, doth defend the earth, as it were his own.

Magnus Dominus. Psal. 48.

1 Great is the Lord, and highly to be praised: in the City of our God, even upon his holy

2 The hill of Sion is a fair place, and the joy of the whole earth: upon the North side lieth the Citie of the great King, God is well knowen in her palaces, as a sure refuge.

3 For lo, the kings of the earth: are gathered and gone by together.

4 They marvelled to see such thing: they were astonished and suddenly cast down.

5 Fear came there upon them, and sorrow: as upon a woman in her travell.

6 Thou shalt break the ships of the sea: through the East winde.

7 Like as we have heard, so have we seen in the City of the Lord of hosts, in the Citie of our God: God upholde the same for ever.

8 We wait for thy loving kindnesse (O God:) in the midst of thy Temple.

9 O God, according unto thy Name, so is thy praise unto the worlds end: thy right hand is full of righteousnesse.

10 Let the mount Sion rejoyce, and the daughters of Juda be glad: because of thy Judgements.

11 Walk about Sion, and go round about her: and tell the towers thereof.

12 Mark well her bulwarks, set up her houses: that ye may tell them that come after.

13 For this God is our God, for ever and ever: he shal be our guide unto death.

Psalm. xlix.

O Hear ye this, all ye people: ponder it with your ears all ye that dwell in the world.

2 High and low, rich and poor: one with another.

3 My mouth shall speak of wisdom: and my heart shall muse of understanding.

4 I will encline mine ear to the parable: and shew my dark speech upon the harp.

5 wherefore should I fear in the dayes of wickednes: and when the wickednesse of my heels compasseth mee round about?

6 There be some that put their trust in their goods: and boast themselues in the multitude of their riches.

7 But no man may deliuer his brother: nor make agreement vnto God for him.

8 For it cost more to redeem their soulls: so that hee must let that alone for euer.

9 Yea, though he liue long: and see not the graue.

10 For hee seeth that wise men also die, and perish together: as well as the ignorant and foolish, and leaue their riches for other.

11 And yet they think that their houses shall continue for euer: and that their dwelling places shal endure from one generation to another, and call the lands after their own names.

12 Nevertheless, man will not abide in honour: seeing he may be compared vnto the beasts that perish, this is the way of them.

13 This is their foolishnes: and their posterity praise their saying.

14 They lie in the hell like sheep, death gnaweth vpon them, and the righteous shall haue domination ouer them in the morning: their beauty shall consume in the sepulchre out of their dwelling.

15 But God hath deliuered my soul from the place of hell: for he shall receiue mee.

16 Be not thou afraid though one be made rich: or if the glory of his house be increased.

17 For he shall carry nothing away with him when he dieth: neither shall his pomp follow him.

18 For while he liued, he counted himself an happy man: and so long as thou doest well vnto thy self, men will speak good of thee.

19 He shall follow the generation of his fathers:

and shall never see light.

20 Man being in honour hath no understanding: but is compared unto the beasts that perish.

Deus deorum. Plal. 50.

1 The Lord, even the most mighty God hath spoken: and called the world from the rising up of the Sunne unto the going down thereof. Morning prayer.

2 Out of Sion hath God appeared: in perfect beauty.

3 Our God shall come and shal not keep silence: there shall go before him a consuming fire, and a mighty tempest shall be stirred up round about him.

4 He shall call the heaven from above: and the earth, that he may judge his people.

5 Gather my Saints together unto mee: those that have made a covenant with mee with sacrifice.

6 And the heavens shall declare his righteousnesse: for God is Judge himselfe.

7 Hear, O my people, and I will speak: O my Israel, I will testifie against thee, I am God, even thy God.

8 I will not reprove thee because of thy sacrifices, or for thy burnt offerings: because they were not alway before mee.

9 I will take no bullock out of thine house: nor hee goats out of thy folds.

10 For all the beasts of the forrest are mine: and so are the cattell upon a thousand hills.

11 I know all the fowls upon the mountains: and the wilde beasts of the field are in my sight.

12 If I be hungry, I will not tell thee: for the whole world is mine, and all that is therein.

13 Thinkest thou that I will eat bulls flesh: and drink the blood of goats?

14 Offer unto God thanksgiving: and pay thy vowes unto the most Highest.

15 And

15 And call upon me in the time of trouble: so will I hear thee, and thou shalt praise me.

16 But unto the ungodly said God: why doest thou preach my Lawes, & takest my Covenant in thy mouth?

17 Whereas thou hatest to be reformed: and hast cast my words behinde thee.

18 When thou sawest a thief, thou consentedst unto him: and hast been partaker with the adulterers.

19 Thou hast let thy mouth speak wickednesse: and with thy tongue thou hast set forth deceit.

20 Thou satest and spakest against thy brother: yea, and hast slandered thine own mothers son.

21 These things hast thou done, & I held my tongue, and thou thoughtest wickedly, that I am even such a one as thy self: but I will reprove thee, and set before thee the things that thou hast done.

22 O consider this, ye that forget God: lest I pluck you away, and there be none to deliver you.

23 Whoso offereth me thanks and praise, he honoureth me: and to him that ordereth his conversation right, will I shew the salvation of God.

Miserére mei, Deus. Psal. 51.

HAve mercy upon me, O God, after thy great goodnesse: according to the multitude of thy mercies do away mine offences.

2 Wash me thoroughly from my wickednesse: and cleanse me from my sin.

3 For I knowledge my faults: and my sin is ever before me.

4 Against thee only have I sinned, and done this evill in thy sight: that thou mightest be justified in thy saying, and clear when thou art judged.

5 Behold, I was shapen in wickednesse: and in sin hath my mother conceived mee.

6 But lo, thou requirest truth in the inward parts: and shalt make me to understand wisdom secretly.

7 Thou

7 Thou shalt purge mee with hyssope, and I shall be clean: thou shalt wash mee, and I shall be whiter then snow.

8 Thou shalt make me hear of joy and gladnes: that the bones which thou hast broken, may reioyce.

9 Turn thy face from my sins: and put out all my misdeeds.

10 Make me a clean heart, O God: and renew a right spirit within me.

11 Cast me not away from thy presence: and take not thy holy Spirit from me.

12 O give mee the comfort of thy help again: and stablish me with thy free Spirit.

13 Then shall I teach thy wayes unto the wicked: and sinners shall be converted unto thee.

14 Deliver mee from blood-guiltinesse, O God, thou that art the God of my health: and my tongue shall sing of thy righteousnesse.

15 Thou shalt open my lips, O Lord: and my mouth shall shew thy praise.

16 For thou desirest no sacrifice, else would I give it thee: but thou delightest not in burnt offerings.

17 The sacrifice of God is a troubled spirit: a broken and contrite heart, O God, shalt thou not despise.

18 O be favourable and gracious unto Sion: build thou the walls of Jerusalem.

19 Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifice of righteousnesse, with the burnt offerings and oblations: then shall they offer young bullocks upon thine Altar.

Quid gloriaris? Psal. 52.

WHy boastest thou thy self, thou tyrant: that thou canst do mischief?

2 Whereas the goodnes of God: endureth yet dayly.

3 Thy tongue imagineth wickednes: and with lies thou cuttest like a sharp rasor.

4 Thou hast loved unrighteousnesse more then goodnesse:

nesse: and to talk of lies more then righteousnesse.

5 Thou hast loved to speak all words that may do hurt: O thou false tongue.

6 Therefore shall God destroy thee for ever: hee shall take thee, and pluck thee out of thy dwelling, and root thee out of the land of the living.

7 The righteous also shall see this and fear: and shall laugh him to scorn.

8 Lo, this is the man that took not God for his strength: but trusted unto the multitude of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickednesse.

9 As for me, I am like a green Olive tree in the house of God: my trust is in the tender mercie of God for ever and ever.

10 I will alwayes give thanks unto thee for that thou hast done: and I will hope in thy Name, for thy Saints like it well.

Dixit insipiens. Psal. 53.

ening
ayer.

THe foolish body hath said in his heart: There is no God.

2 Corrupt are they, and become abominable in their wickednes: there is none that doth good.

3 God looked down from heaven upon the children of men: to see if there were any that would understand, and seek after God.

4 But they are all gone out of the way, they are altogether become abominable: there is also none that doth good, no not one.

5 Are not they without understanding that work wickednesse: eating up my people as if they would eat bread: they have not called upon God.

6 They were afraid where no fear was: for God hath broken the bones of them that besieged thee, thou hast put them to confusion, because God hath despised them.

7 Oh that the salvation were given unto Israel

out of Sion: Oh that the Lord would deliver his people out of captivity.

8 Then should Jacob rejoyce: and Israel should be right glad.

Deus, in nomine. Psal. 54.

SAve me, O God, for thy Names sake: and avenge me in thy strength.

2 Hear my prayer, O God: hearken unto the words of my mouth.

3 For strangers are risen up against me: and tyrants (which have not God before their eyes). seek after my soul.

4 Behold, God is my helper: the Lord is with them that uphold my soul.

5 He shall reward evill unto mine enemies: destroy thou them in thy truth.

6 An offering of a free heart will I give thee, & praise thy Name (O Lord:) because it is so comfortable.

7 For he hath delivered me out of all my trouble: and mine eye hath seen his desire upon mine enemies.

Exaudi, Deus. Psal. 55.

HEar my prayer, O God: and hide not thy self from my petition.

2 Take heed unto mee, and hear mee: how I mourn in my prayer, and am vexed.

3 The enemy crieth so, and the ungodly cometh on so fast: for they are minded to do mee some mischief, so maliciously are they set against mee.

4 My heart is disquieted within mee: and the fear of death is fallen upon mee.

5 Fearfulnesse and trembling are come upon mee: and an horrible dread hath overwhelmed mee.

6 And I said, O that I had wings like a dove: for then would I flee away, and be at rest.

7 Lo, then would I get mee away far off: and remain in the wilderneſſe.

8 I would make haste to escape: because of the stormy winde and tempest.

9 Destroy their tongues, O Lord, and divide them; for I have spied unrighteousnesse and strife in the citie.

10 Day and night they go about within the walls thereof: mischief also and sorrow are in the midst of it.

11 Wickednes is therein: deceit and guile go not out of their streets.

12 For it is not an open enemy that hath done me this dishonour: for then I could have born it.

13 Neither was it mine adversary that did magnifie himself against me: for then peradventure I would have hid my self from him.

14 But it was even thou my companion: my guide and mine own familiar friend.

15 We took sweet counsell together: and walked in the house of God as friends.

16 Let death come hastily upon them, and let them go down quick into hell: for wickednesse is in their dwellings, and among them.

17 As for mee, I will call upon God: and the Lord shall save mee.

18 In the evening and morning, and at noon day will I pray, and that instantly: and he shall hear my voyce.

19 It is he that hath delivered my soul in peace, from the battell that was against mee: for there were many with mee.

20 Yea, even God that endureth for ever, shall hear mee, and bring them down: for they will not turn nor fear God.

21 He laid his hands upon such as be at peace with him: and he brake his covenant.

22 The words of his mouth were softer then butter, having warr in his heart: his words were smoother then oyl, and yet be they very swords.

23 O cast thy burden upon the Lord, & he shall nourish thee: and shall not suffer the righteous to fall for ever.

24 And as for them: thou, O God, shalt bring them into the pit of destruction.

25 The blood-thirsty and deceitfull men shall not live out half their dayes: nevertheless, my trust shall be in thee, O Lord.

Miserere mei, Deus. Psal. 56.

BE mercifull unto mee, O God, for man goeth about to devour mee: hee is dayly fighting and troubling mee. Morning prayer.

2 Mine enemies are dayly in hand to swallow mee up: for they be many that fight against mee, O thou most Highest.

3 Nevertheless, though I am sometime afraid: yet put I my trust in thee.

4 I will praise God because of his word: I have put my trust in God, and will not fear what flesh can do unto mee.

5 They dayly mistake my words: all that they imagine, is to do mee evill.

6 They hold all together, and keep themselves close: and mark my steps when they lay wait for my soul.

7 Shall they escape for their wickednesse: thou, O God, in thy displeasure shalt cast them down.

8 Thou tellest my flittings, put my tears into thy bottell: are not these things noted in thy book?

9 Whensoever I call upon thee, then shall mine enemies be put to flight: this I know, for God is on my side.

10 In Gods word will I rejoyce: in the Lords word will I comfort mee.

11 Yea, in God have I put my trust: I will not be afraid what man can do unto mee.

12 Unto thee, O God, will I pay my vows: unto thee will I give thanks.

13 For thou hast delivered my soul from death, and my feet from falling: that I may walk before God in the light of the living.

Miserere mei, Deus. Psal. 57.

BE mercifull unto me, O God, be mercifull unto mee, for my soul trusteth in thee: and under the shadow of thy wings shall be my refuge, until this tyranny be overpast.

2 I will call unto the most high God: even unto the God that shall perform the cause which I have in hand.

3 He shall send from heaven: and save mee from the reproof of him that would eat me up.

4 God shall send forth his mercy and truth: my soul is among lions.

5 And I lie even among the children of men (that are set on fire:) whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tongue a sharp sword.

6 Set up thy self, O God, above the heavens: and thy glory above all the earth.

7 They have laid a net for my feet, and pressed down my soul: they have digged a pit before me, and are fallen into the mids of it themselves.

8 My heart is fixed, O God, my heart is fixed: I will sing and give praise.

9 Awake up my glory, awake lute and harp: I my self will awake right early.

10 I will give thanks unto thee, O Lord, among the people: and I will sing unto thee among the nations.

11 For the greatnesse of thy mercy reacheth unto the heavens: and thy truth unto the clouds.

12 Set up thy self, O God, above the heavens: and thy glory above all the earth.

Si vere utique. Psal. 58.

ARe your mindes set upon righteousnesse, O ye Congregation: and do ye judge the thing that is right, O ye sons of men?

2 Yea, ye imagine mischief in your heart upon the earth: and your hands deal with wickednesse.

3 The ungodly are froward, even from their mothers womb: assoon as they be born, they go astray and speak lies.

4 They are as venemous as the poyson of a serpent: even like the deaf adder that stoppeth her ears.

5 Which refuseth to hear the voice of the charmer: charm he never so wisely.

6 Break their teeth, O God, in their mouthes, smite the jaw-bones of the lions, O Lord: let them fall away like water that runneth apace, and when they shoot their arrows, let them be rooted out.

7 Let them consume away like a snail, and be like the untimely fruit of a woman: and let them not see the sun.

8 Ere ever your pots be made hot with thorns: so let indignation vex him even as a thing that is raw.

9 The righteous shall rejoyce when hee seeth the vengeance: he shall wash his footsteps in the blood of the ungodly.

10 So that a man shall say, Verily there is a reward for the righteous: doubtlesse there is a God that judgeth the earth.

Eripe me de inimicis. Psal. 59.

DEliver me from mine enemies, O God: defend me from them that rise up against me. Evening prayer.

2 O deliver mee from the wicked doers: and save mee from the blood-thirsty men.

3 For lo, they lie waiting for my soul: the mighty men are gathered against mee, without any offence or fault of me, O Lord.

4 They run and prepare themselves without my fault: arise thou therefore to help me, and behold.

5 Stand up, O Lord God of hosts, thou God of Israel, to visit all the heathen: and not be mercifull unto them that offend of malicious wickednesse.

6 They go to and fro in the evening: they grin like a dog, and run about through the citie.

7 Behold, they speak with their mouth, and swords are in their lips: for who doth hear?

8 But thou, O Lord, shalt have them in derision: and thou shalt laugh all the heathen to scorn.

9 My strength will I ascribe unto thee: for thou art the God of my refuge.

10 God sheweth mee his goodnesse plenteously: and God shall let mee see my desire upon mine enemies.

11 Slay them not, lest my people forget it: but scatter them abroad among the people, and put them down, O Lord our defence.

12 For the sin of their mouth, and for the words of their lips they shall be taken in their pride: and why? their preaching is of cursing and lies.

13 Consume them in thy wrath, consume them, that they may perish: and know that it is God that ruleth in Jacob, and unto the ends of the world.

14 And in the evening they will return: grin like a dog, and will go about the citie.

15 They will run here and there for meat: and grudge if they be not satisfied.

16 As for me, I will sing of thy power, and will praise thy mercy betimes in the morning: for thou hast been my defence and refuge in the day of my trouble.

17 Unto thee, O my strength, will I sing: for thou, O God, art my refuge, and my mercifull God.

Deus, repulisti nos. Psal. 60.

O God, thou hast cast us out, and scattered us abroad: thou hast also been displeased, O turn thee unto us again.

2 Thou hast moved the land and divided it: heal the sores thereof, for it shaketh.

3 Thou hast shewed thy people heavy things: thou hast given us a drink of deadly wine.

4 Thou hast given a token for such as fear thee: that they may triumph because of the truth.

5 Therefore were thy beloved delivered: help me with thy right hand, and hear me.

6 God hath spoken in his holines, I will rejoyce and divide Sichem: and mete out the valley of Succoth.

7 Gilead is mine, and Manasses is mine: Ephraim also is the strength of my head, Juda is my law-giver.

8 Moab is my washpot, over Edom will I cast out my shoe: Philistia be thou glad of mee.

9 Who will lead me into the strong citie: who will bring me into Edom?

10 Hast thou not cast us out, O God: wilt not thou O God, go out with our hosts?

11 O be thou our help in trouble: for vain is the help of man.

12 Through God will we do great acts: for it is he that shall tread down our enemies.

Exaudi, Deus. Psal. 61.

HEar my crying, O God: give ear unto my prayer.

2 From the ends of the earth will I call upon thee: when my heart is in heavinesse.

3 O set me up upon the rock that is higher then I: for thou hast been my hope, and a strong tower for me against the enemy.

4 I will dwell in thy tabernacle for ever: and my trust shall be under the covering of thy wings.

5 For thou, O Lord, hast heard my desires: and hast given an heritage unto those that fear thy Name.

6 Thou shalt grant the King a long life: that his years may endure throughout all generations.

7 He shall dwell before God for ever: O prepare thy loving mercy and faithfulnesse, that they may preserve him.

8 So will I always sing praise unto thy Name: that I may daily perform my vows, Nonne Deo. Psal. 62.

Morning prayer.

MY soul truly waiteth still upon God: for of him cometh my salvation.

2 Yee verily is my strength and my salvation: he is my defence, so that I shall not greatly fall.

3 How long will ye imagine mischief against every man: ye shall be slain all the sort of you, yea, as a tottering wall shall ye be, and like a broken hedge.

4 Their device is onely how to put him out whom God will exalt: their delight is in lies, they give good words with their mouth, but curse with their heart.

5 Nevertheless, my soul wait thou still upon God: for my hope is in him.

6 He truly is my strength and my salvation: he is my defence, so that I shall not fall.

7 In God is my health and my glory: the rock of my might, and in God is my trust.

8 O put your trust in him alway (yee people:) pour out your hearts before him, for God is our hope.

9 As for the children of men, they are but vanity: the children of men are deceitfull upon the weights, they are altogether lighter then vanity it self.

10 O trust not in wrong and robbery, give not your selves unto vanity: if riches increase, set not your heart upon them.

11 God spake once and twice: I have also heard the same, that power belongeth unto God.

12 And that thou Lord art mercifull: for thou rewardest every man according to his work.

Deus, Deus meus. Psal. 63.

O God, thou art my God: early will I seek thee.

2 My soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh also longeth after thee: in a barren and dry land, where no water is.

3 Thus have I looked for thee in holinesse: that I might behold thy power and glory.

4 For thy louing kindnesse is better then the life it self: my lips shall praise thee.

5 As long as I live will I magnifie thee on this manner: and lift up my hands in thy Name.

6 My soul shall be satisfied even as it were with marrow and fatnesse: when my mouth praiseth thee with ioyfull lips.

7 Haue I not remembred thee in my bed: and thought upon thee when I was waking?

8 Because thou hast been my helper: therefore under the shadow of thy wings will I reioyce.

9 My soul hangeth upon thee: thy right hand hath upholden me.

10 These also that seek the hurt of my soul: they shall go under the earth.

11 Let them fall upon the edge of the sword: that they may be a portion for foxes.

12 But the King shal reioyce in God, all they also that sweare by him, shall be commended: for the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped.

Exaudi, Deus. Psal. 64.

HEar my voice, O God, in my prayer: preserue my life from fear of the enemy.

2 Hide me from the gathering together of the froward: and from the insurrection of wicked doers.

3 Which haue whet their tongue like a sword: and shoot out their arrows, even bitter words.

4 That they may privily shoot at him that is perfect: suddenly do they hit him, and fear not.

5 They courage themselues in mischief: and commune among themselues how they may lay snares, and say that no man shall see them.

6 They imagine wickednesse, and practise it: that they keep secret among themselves, every man in the deep of his heart.

7 But God shall suddenly shoot at them with a swift arrow: that they shall be wounded.

8 Yea, their own tongues shall make them fall: insomuch that whoso seeth them, shall laugh them to scorn.

9 And all men that see it, shall say, This hath God done: for they shall perceive that it is his work.

10 The righteous shall rejoyce in the Lord, and put his trust in him: and all they that are true of heart, shall be glad.

Te decet hymnus. Psal. 65.

Evening prayer.

THou, O God, art praised in Sion: and unto thee shall the vow be performed in Jerusalem.

2 Thou that hearest the prayer: unto thee shall all flesh come.

3 My misdeeds prevail against me: O be thou merciful unto our sins.

4 Blessed is the man whom thou chusest, & receivest unto thee: he shall dwell in thy court, and shall be satisfied with the pleasures of thy house, even of thy holy temple.

5 Thou shalt shew us wonderful things in thy righteousnesse, O God of our salvation: thou that art the hope of all the ends of the earth, and of them that remain in the broad sea.

6 Which in his strength setteth fast the mountains: and is girded about with power.

7 Which stilleth the raging of the sea: and the noise of his waves, and the madnesse of his people.

8 They also that dwell in the uttermost parts of the earth shall be afraid at thy tokens: thou that makest the out-goings of the morning and evening to praise thee.

9 Thou visitest the earth, and blessest it: thou makest it very plentious.

10 The river of God is full of water: thou preparest their corn, for so thou providest for the earth.

11 Thou

11 Thou waterest her furrowes, thou sendest rain into the little valleys thereof: thou makest it soft with the drops of rain, and blessest the increase of it.

12 Thou crownest the year with thy goodnesse: and thy clouds drop fatnesse.

13 They shall drop upon the dwellings of the wilderness: and the little hils shall rejoyce on every side.

14 The folds shall be full of sheep: the valleys also shall stand so thick with corn, that they shall laugh and sing.

Jubilate Deo. Psal. 66.

O Be joyfull in God, all ye lands: sing praises unto the honour of his Name, make his praise to be glorious.

2 Say unto God, O how wonderfull art thou in thy works: through the greatnesse of thy power shall thine enemies be found liars unto thee.

3 For all the world shall worship thee: sing of thee, and praise thy Name.

4 O come hither, and behold the works of God: how wonderfull he is in his doing toward the children of men.

5 He turned the Sea into dry land: so that they went through the water on foot, there did we rejoyce thereof.

6 He ruleth with his power for ever, his eyes behold the people: and such as will not beleeve, shall not be able to exalt themselves.

7 O praise our God (ye people:) and make the voice of his praise to be heard,

8 which holdeth our soul in life: and suffereth not our feet to slip.

9 For thou, O God, hast proved us: thou also hast tried us, like as silver is tried.

10 Thou broughtest us into the snare: and layedst trouble upon our loyns.

11 Thou

11 Thou sufferedst men to ride over our heads: wee went thorow fire and water, and thou broughtest us out into a wealthy place.

12 I will go into thy house with burnt offerings: and will pay thee my vows which I promised with my lips, and spake with my mouth when I was in trouble.

13 I will offer unto thee fat burnt sacrifices, with the incense of rams: I will offer bullocks and goats.

14 O come hither and hearken all ye that fear God: and I will tell you what he hath done for my soul.

15 I called unto him with my mouth: and gave him praises with my tongue.

16 If I encline unto wickednesse with my heart: the Lord will not hear mee.

17 But God hath heard me: and considered the voice of my prayer.

18 Praised be God, which hath not cast out my prayer: nor turned his mercy from mee.

Deus misereatur. Psal. 67.

GOd be mercifull unto us and blesse us: and shew us the light of his countenance, and be mercifull unto us.

2 That thy way may be known upon earth: thy saving health among all nations.

3 Let the people praise thee, O God: yea, let all the people praise thee.

4 O let the nations rejoyce and be glad: for thou shalt judge the folk righteously, and govern the nations upon earth.

5 Let the people praise thee, O God: let all the people praise thee.

6 Then shall the earth bring forth her increase: and God, even our own God shall give us his blessing.

7 God shall blesse us: and all the ends of the world shall fear him.

Exurgat Deus. Pſal. 68.

LEt God ariſe, and let his enemies be ſcattered: let them alſo that hate him, flee before him. Morni prayer

2 Like as the ſmoak vaniſheth, ſo ſhalt thou drive them away: and like as wax melteth at the fire, ſo let the ungodly periſh at the preſence of God.

3 But let the righteous be glad, and rejoyce before God: let them alſo be merry and joyfull.

4 O ſing unto God, and ſing praiſes unto his Name: magnifie him that rideth upon the heavens as it were upon an horſe, praiſe him in his Name, yea, and rejoyce before him.

5 He is a Father of the fatherleſſe, and defendeth the cauſe of the widowes: even God in his holy habitation.

6 He is the God that maketh men to be of one minde in an houſe, and bringeth the priſoners out of captivitie: but letteth the runagates continue in ſcarceneſſe.

7 O God, when thou wenteſt forth before the people: when thou wenteſt thorow the wilderneſſe.

8 The earth ſhook, and the heavens dropped at the preſence of God: even as Sinai alſo was moved at the preſence of God, which is the God of Iſrael.

9 Thou, O God, ſenteſt a gracious rain upon thine inheritance: and refreſheſt it when it was weary.

10 Thy Congregation ſhall dwell therein: for thou, O God, haſt of thy goodneſſe prepared for the poor.

11 The Lord gave the word: great was the company of the preachers.

12 Kings with their armies did flee and were diſcomfited: and they of the houſhold divided the ſpoyl.

13 Though ye have lien among the pots, yet ſhall ye be as the wings of a dove: that is covered with ſilver wings, and her feathers like gold.

14 When the Almighty ſcattered kings for their ſake: then were they as white as ſnow in Salmon.

15 As

15 As the hill of Basan, so is Gods hill: even an high hill, as the hill of Basan.

16 Why hop ye so, ye high hills? this is Gods hill, in the which it pleaseth him to dwell: yea, the Lord will abide in it for ever.

17 The charets of God are twenty thousand, even thousands of Angels: and the Lord is among them as in the holy place of Sinai.

18 Thou art gone up on high, thou hast led captivity captive, and received gifts for men: yea, even for thine enemies, that the Lord God might dwell among them.

19 Praised be the Lord dayly: even the God which helpeth us, and poureth his benefits upon us.

20 He is our God, even the God of whom cometh salvation: God is the Lord by whom we escape death.

21 God shall wound the head of his enemies: and the hairie scalp of such a one as goeth on still in his wickednesse.

22 The Lord hath said, I will bring my people again, as I did from Basan: mine own will I bring again, as I did sometime from the deep of the sea.

23 That thy foot may be dipped in the blood of thine enemies: and that the tongue of thy dogs may be red through the same.

24 It is well seen, O God, how thou goest: how thou my God and King goest in the Sanctuary.

25 The singers go before, the minstrels follow after: in the middest are the damosels playing with the timbrels.

26 Give thanks, O Israel, unto God the Lord in the Congregations: from the ground of the heart.

27 There is little Benjamin their ruler, and the princes of Juda their counsell: the princes of Zabulon, and the princes of Nephthali.

28 Thy God hath sent forth strength for thee: stablish the thing, O God, that thou hast wrought in us.

29 For thy Temples sake at Jerusalem: so shall kings bring presents unto thee.

30 When the company of the spearmen, and multitude of the mighty are scattered abroad among the beasts of the people, (so that they humbly bring pieces of silver:) and when hee hath scattered the people that delight in war.

31 Then shall the princes come out of Egypt: the Morians land shall soon stretch out her hands unto God.

32 Sing unto God, O yee kingdoms of the earth: O sing praises unto the Lord.

33 Which sitteth in the heavens over all from the beginning: lo, he doth send out his voice, yea, and that a mighty voice.

34 Ascribe ye the power to God over Israel: his worship and strength is in the clouds.

35 O God, wonderfull art thou in thy holy places: even the God of Israel, he will give strength and power unto his people, blessed be God.

Salvum me fac. Psal. 69.

SAve me, O God: for the waters are come in, even unto my soul. Eve praye

2 I sticke fast in the deep mire where no ground is: I am come into deep waters, so that the floods run over me.

3 I am weary of crying, my throat is drie: my sight faileth me for waiting so long upon my God.

4 They that hate me without a cause, are more then the hairs of mine head: they that are mine enemies, and would destroy me guiltlesse are mighty.

5 I paid them the things that I never took: God, thou knowest my simplenesse, and my faults are not hid from thee.

6 Let not them that trust in thee, O Lord God of hosts, be ashamed for my cause: let not those that seek thee, be confounded through me, O Lord God of Israel.

7 And

7 And why? for thy sake have I suffered reproof: shame hath covered my face.

8 I am become a stranger unto my brethren: even an alient unto my mothers children.

9 For the zeal of thy house hath even eaten me: & the rebukes of them that rebuked thee, are fallen upon mee.

10 I wept and chastened my self with fasting: and that was turned to my reproof.

11 I put on sackcloth: and they jested upon mee.

12 They that sit in the gate speak against me: and the drunkards make songs upon mee.

13 But, Lord, I make my prayer unto thee: in an acceptable time.

14 Hear mee, O God, in the multitude of thy mercy: even in the truth of thy salvation.

15 Take me out of the mire, that I sink not: Oh let me be delivered from them that hate mee, and out of the deep waters.

16 Let not the water-flood drown me, neither let the deep swallow me up: and let not the pit shut her mouth upon mee.

17 Hear mee, O Lord, for thy loving kindnesse is comfortable: turn thee unto me, according to the multitude of thy mercies.

18 And hide not thy face from thy servant, for I am in trouble: oh haste thee and hear mee.

19 Draw nigh unto my soul, and save it: oh deliver me, because of mine enemies.

20 Thou hast known my reproof, my shame and my dishonour: mine adversaries are all in thy sight.

21 Thy rebuke hath broken my heart, I am full of heavines: I looked for some to have pity on me, but there was no man, neither found I any to comfort me.

22 They gave me gall to eat: and when I was thirsty, they gave me vineger to drink.

23 Let their table be made a snare to take themselves withall:

withall: and let the things that should have been for their wealth, be unto them an occasion of falling.

24 Let their eyes be blinded that they see not: and ever bow down their backs.

25 Pour out thine indignation upon them: and let thy wrathfull displeasure take hold of them.

26 Let their habitation be void: and no man to dwell in their tents.

27 For they persecute him whom thou hast smitten: and they talk how they may vex them whom thou hast wounded.

28 Let them fall from one wickednes to another: and not come into thy righteousnesse.

29 Let them be wiped out of the book of the living: and not be written among the righteous.

30 As for mee, when I am poor and in heavinesse: thy help, O God, shall lift mee up.

31 I will praise the Name of God with a song: and magnifie it with thanksgiving.

32 This also shall please the Lord: better then a bullock that hath horns and hoofs.

33 The humble shall consider this and be glad: seek ye after God, and your soul shall live.

34 For the Lord heareth the poor: and despiseth not his prisoners.

35 Let heaven and earth praise him: the sea and all that moveth therein.

36 For God will save Sion, and build the cities of Juda: that men may dwell there, and have it in possession.

37 The posterity also of his servants shall inherit it: and they that love his Name shall dwell therein.

Deus, in adjutorium. Psal. 70.

HAste thee, O God, to deliver mee: make haste to help mee, O Lord.

2 Let them be ashamed and confounded that seek after after my soul: let them be turned backward and put to confusion that wish me evill.

3 Let them for their reward be soon brought to shame: that cry over me, There, there.

4 But let all those that seek thee, be joyfull and glad in thee: and let all such as delight in thy salvation, say alway, The Lord be praised.

5 As for me, I am poor and in misery: haste thee unto mee, O God.

6 Thou art my helper and my Redeemer: O Lord, make no long tarrying.

In te, Domine, speravi. Psal. 71.

IN thee, O Lord, have I put my trust, let mee never be put to confusion: but rid mee and deliver mee in thy righteousnesse, incline thine ear unto mee, and save mee.

orning ayer.

2 Be thou my strong hold, whereunto I may alway resort: thou hast promised to help mee, for thou art my house of defence, and my castle.

3 Deliver mee, O my God, out of the hand of the ungodly: out of the hand of the unrighteous & cruell man.

4 For thou, O Lord God, art the thing that I long for: thou art my hope even from my youth.

5 Through thee have I been holden up ever since I was born: thou art he that took me out of my mothers womb, my praise shall be alwaies of thee.

6 I am become as it were a monster unto many: but my sure trust is in thee.

7 O let my mouth be filled with thy praise: that I may sing of thy glory and honour all the day long.

8 Cast mee not away in the time of age: forsake mee not when my strength faileth mee.

9 For mine enemies speak against me, and they that lay wait for my soul, take their counsel together, saying: God hath forsaken him, persecute him and take him, for there is none to deliver him.

10 Go

10 Go not far from mee, O God: my God, haste thee to help mee.

11 Let them be confounded and perish that are against my soul: let them be covered with shame and dishonour, that seek to do me evill.

12 As for me, I will patiently abide alway: and will praise thee more and more.

13 My mouth shall dayly speak of thy righteousnesse and salvation: for I know no end thereof.

14 I will go forth in the strength of the Lord God: and will make mention of thy righteousnesse onely.

15 Thou, O God, hast taught me from my youth up until now: therefore will I tell of thy wonderous works.

16 Forsake me not, O God, in mine old age, when I am gray headed: until I have shewed thy strength unto this generation, and thy power to all them that are yet for to come.

17 Thy righteousnesse, O God, is very high: and great things are they that thou hast done, O God, who is like unto thee?

18 O what great troubles and adversities hast thou shewed mee, and yet didst thou turn and refresh mee: yea, and broughtest mee from the deep of the earth again.

19 Thou hast brought me to great honour: and comforted me on every side.

20 Therefore will I praise thee and thy faithfulnesse (O God) playing upon an instrument of musick: unto thee will I sing upon the harp, O thou holy One of Israel.

21 My lips will be fain when I sing unto thee: and so will my soul whom thou hast delivered.

22 My tongue also shall talk of thy righteousnesse all the day long: for they are confounded and brought unto shame that seek to do me evill.

Deus, judicium. Psal. 72.

GIve the king thy Judgements (O God:) and thy Righteousnesse unto the kings son.

2 Then shall hee judge the people according unto right: and defend the poor.

3 The mountains also shall bring peace: and the little hills righteousnesse unto the people.

4 He shall keep the simple folk by their right: defend the children of the poor, and punish the wrong doer.

5 They shall fear thee as long as the sun and moon endureth: from one generation to another.

6 Hee shall come down like the rain into a fleece of wooll: even as the drops that water the earth.

7 In his time shall the righteous flourish: yea, and abundance of peace, so long as the moon endureth.

8 His dominion shall be also from the one sea to the other: and from the flood unto the worlds end.

9 They that dwell in the wildernesse shall kneel before him: his enemies shall lick the dust.

10 The kings of Tharsis and of the Iles shall give presents: the kings of Arabia & Saba shall bring gifts.

11 All kings shall fall down before him: all nations shall do him service.

12 For hee shall deliver the poor when he crieth: the needy also and him that hath no helper.

13 He shall be favourable to the simple and needy: and shall preserve the souls of the poor.

14 He shall deliver their souls from falshood & wrong: and dear shall their blood be in his sight.

15 He shal live, and unto him shall be given of the gold of Arabia: prayer shall be made ever unto him, and dayly shall he be praised.

16 There shall be an heap of corn in the earth, high upon the hills: his fruit shall shake like Libanus, and shall be green in the city like grasse upon the earth.

17 His Name shall endure for ever, his Name shall remain remain under the sun among the posterities: which shall be blessed through him, and all the heathen shall praise him.

18 Blessed be the Lord God, even the God of Israel: which onely doth wonderous things.

19 And blessed be the Name of his Majesty for ever: and all the earth shall be filled with his Majestie. Amen. Amen.

Quàm bonus Israel. Psal. 73.

TRuly God is loving unto Israel: even unto such as are of a clean heart. Evening prayer.

2 Nevertheless, my feet were almost gone: my treadings had wel-nigh slipt.

3 And why? I was grieved at the wicked: I do also see the ungodly in such prosperity.

4 For they are in no peril of death: but are lusty and strong.

5 They come in no misfortune like other folk: neither are they plagued like other men.

6 And this is the cause that they be so holden with pride: and overwhelmed with cruelty.

7 Their eyes swell with fatnesse: and they do even what they lust.

8 They corrupt other, and speak of wicked blasphemie: their talking is against the most Highest.

9 For they stretch forth their mouth unto the heaven: and their tongue goeth thorow the world.

10 Therefore fall the people unto them: and thereout suck they no small advantage.

11 Tush (say they) how should God perceive it: is there knowledge in the most Highest?

12 Lo, these are the ungodly, these prosper in the world, and these have riches in possession: and I said, Then have I cleansed my heart in vain, and washed mine hands in innocencie.

13 All the day long have I been punished: and chastened every morning.

14 Yea, and I had almost said even as they: but lo, then I should have condemned the generation of thy children.

15 Then thought I to understand this: but it was too hard for mee.

16 Untill I went into the Sanctuary of God: then understood I the end of these men.

17 Namely, how thou doest set them in slippery places: and castest them down and destroyest them.

18 O how suddenly do they consume: perish, and come to a fearfull end!

19 Yea, even like as a dream when one awaketh: so shalt thou make their Image to banish out of the city.

20 Thus my heart was grieved: and it went even thorow my reins.

21 So foolish was I and ignorant: even as it were a beast before thee.

22 Nevertheless, I am alway by thee: for thou hast holden me by my right hand.

23 Thou shalt guide me with thy counsell: and after that receive me with glory.

24 Whom have I in heaven but thee: and there is none upon earth that I desire in comparison of thee.

25 My flesh and my heart fainteth: but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever.

26 For lo, they that forsake thee shall perish: thou hast destroyed all them that commit fornication against thee.

27 But it is good for me to hold me fast by God, to put my trust in the Lord God: and to speak of all thy works in the gates of the daughter of Sion.

Ut quid, Deus. Psal. 74.

O God, wherefore art thou absent from us so long: why is thy wrath so hot against the sheep of thy pasture?

2 O think upon thy Congregation: whom thou hast purchased and redeemed of old.

3 Think upon the tribe of thine inheritance: and mount Sion wherein thou hast dwelt.

4 Lift up thy feet, that thou mayest utterly destroy every enemy: which hath done evill in thy Sanctuary.

5 Thine adversaries roar in the midst of thy Congregations: and set up their banners for tokens.

6 He that hewed timber afore out of the thick trees: was known to bring it to an excellent worke.

7 But now they break down all the carved worke thereof: with axes and hammers.

8 They have set fire upon thy holy places: and have defiled the dwelling place of thy Name, even unto the ground.

9 Yea, they said in their hearts, Let us make havock of them altogether: thus have they burnt up all the houses of God in the land.

10 We see not our tokens, there is not one Prophet more: no not one is there among us that understandeth any more.

11 (O God) how long shall the adversary do this dishonour: how long shall the enemy blaspheme thy Name, for ever?

12 Why withdrawest thou thy hand: why pluckest not thou thy right hand out of thy bosome to consume the enemy?

13 For God is my King of old: the help that is done upon earth, he doth it himself.

14 Thou didst divide the sea through thy power: thou brakest the heads of the dragons in the waters.

15 Thou smotest the heads of Leviathan in pieces: and gavest him to be meat for the people in the wilderness.

16 Thou broughtest out fountains and waters out of the hard rocks: thou driedst up mighty waters.

17 The day is thine, and the night is thine: thou hast prepared the light and the sunne.

18 Thou hast set all the borders of the earth: thou hast made summer and winter.

19 Remember this, O Lord, how the enemy hath rebuked: and how the foolish people hath blasphemed thy Name.

20 O deliver not the soul of thy Turtle Dove unto the multitude of the enemies: and forget not the Congregation of the poor for ever.

21 Look upon the Covenant: for all the earth is full of darkneſſe, and cruell habitations.

22 O let not the simple go away ashamed: but let the poor and needy give praise unto thy Name.

23 Arise, O God, maintain thine own cause: remember how the foolish man blasphemeth thee daily.

24 Forget not the voice of thine enemies: the presumption of them that hate thee, increaseth ever more and more.

Confitebimur tibi. Psal. 75.

UNto thee, O God, do we give thanks: yea, unto thee do we give thanks.

2 Thy Name also is so nigh: and that do thy wondrous works declare.

3 When I receive the Congregation: I shall judge according unto right.

4 The earth is weak, and all the inhabiters thereof: I bear up the pillars of it.

5 I said unto the fools, Deal not so madly: and to the ungodly, Set not up your horn.

6 Set not up your horn on high: and speak not with a stiffe neck.

7 For promotion cometh neither from the East, nor from the West: nor yet from the South.

8 And why? God is the Judge: he putteth down one, and setteth up another.

9 For

9 For in the hand of the Lord there is a cup, and the wine is red: it is full mixt, and he poureth out of the same.

10 As for the dregs thereof: all the ungodly of the earth shall drink them, and suck them out.

11 But I will talk of the God of Jacob: and praise him for ever.

12 All the horns of the ungodly also will I break: and the horns of the righteous shall be exalted.

Notus in Judæa. Psal. 76.

IN Jury is God known: his Name is great in Israel.

2 At Salem is his tabernacle: and his dwelling in Sion.

3 There brake he the arrows of the bow: the shield, the sword, and the battell.

4 Thou art of more honour and might: then the hils of the robbers.

5 The proud are robbed, they have slept their sleep: and all the men whose hands are mighty have found nothing.

6 At thy rebuke, O God of Jacob: both the chariot and horse are fallen.

7 Thou, even thou art to be feared: and who may stand in thy sight when thou art angry?

8 Thou didst cause thy judgement to be heard from heaven: the earth trembled and was still.

9 When God arose to judgement: and to help all the meek upon earth.

10 The fierceness of man shall turn to thy praise: and the fierceness of them shalt thou refrain.

11 Promise unto the Lord your God, and keep it, all ye that be round about him: bring presents unto him that ought to be feared.

12 He shall refrain the spirit of Princes: and is wonderfull among the kings of the earth.

Voce mea ad Dominum. Psal. 77.

I will cry unto God with my voice: even unto God will I cry with my voice, and he shall hearken unto me.

2 In the time of my trouble I sought the Lord: my sore ran and ceased not, in the night season my soul refused comfort.

3 When I am in heavinesse, I will think upon God: when my heart is vexed, I will complain.

4 Thou holdest mine eyes waking: I am so feeble that I cannot speak.

5 I have considered the dayes of old: and the years that are past.

6 I call to remembrance my song: and in the night I commune with mine own heart, and search out my spirits.

7 Will the Lord absent himself for ever: and will he be no more intreated?

8 Is his mercie clean gone for ever: and is his promise come utterly to an end for evermore?

9 Hath God forgotten to be gracious: and will he shut up his loving kindnesse in displeasure?

10 And I said, It is mine own infirmity: but I will remember the yeers of the right hand of the most Highest.

11 I will remember the works of the Lord: and call to minde the wonders of old time.

12 I will think also of all thy works: and my talking shall be of thy doings.

13 Thy way, O God, is holy: who is so great a God as our God?

14 Thou art the God that doth wonders: and hast declared thy power among the people.

15 Thou hast mightily delivered thy people: even the sonnes of Jacob and Joseph.

16 The waters saw thee, O God, the waters saw thee, and were afraid: the depths also were troubled.

17 The

17 The clouds poured out water, the ayr thundred: and thine arrows went abroad.

18 The voice of thy thunder was heard round about: the lightnings shone upon the ground, the earth was moved, and shook withall.

19 Thy way is in the sea, and thy paths in the great waters: and thy footsteps are not known.

20 Thou leddest thy people like sheep: by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Attendite, populo. Psal. 78.

HEar my Law, O my people: encline your ears unto the words of my mouth. Evening prayer.

2 I will open my mouth in a parable: I will declare hard sentences of old.

3 Which we have heard and known: and such as our fathers have told us.

4 That we should not hide them from the children of the generations to come: but to shew the honour of the Lord, his mighty and wonderfull works that he hath done.

5 He made a Covenant with Jacob, and gave Israel a Law: which he commanded our forefathers to teach their children.

6 That their posteritie might know it: and the children which were yet unborn.

7 To the intent that when they came up: they might shew their children the same.

8 That they might put their trust in God: and not to forget the works of God, but to keep his Commandments.

9 And not to be as their forefathers, a faithlesse and stubborn generation: a generation that set not their heart aright, and whose spirit cleaved not stedfastly unto God.

10 Like as the children of Ephraim: which being harnessed and carrying bowes, turned themselves back in the day of battell.

11 They

11 They kept not the covenant of God: and would not walk in his Law.

12 But forgat what he had done: and the wonderfull works that he had shewed for them.

13 Marvellous things did he in the sight of our forefathers in the land of Egypt: even in the field of Zoan.

14 He divided the sea, and let them go thorow: he made the waters to stand on an heap.

15 In the day time also he led them with a cloud: and all the night through with a light of fire.

16 He clave the hard rocks in the wildernesse: and gave them drink thereof, as it had been out of the great depth.

17 He brought waters out of the stony rock: so that it gushed out like the rivers.

18 Yet for all this they sinned more against him: and provoked the most Highest in the wildernesse.

19 They tempted God in their hearts: and required meat for their lust.

20 They spake against God also, saying: Shall God prepare a table in the wildernesse?

21 He smote the stony rock indeed, that the water gushed out, and the streams flowed withall: but can he give bread also, or provide flesh for his people?

22 When the Lord heard this, he was wroth: so the fire was kindled in Jacob, and there came up heavy displeasure against Israel.

23 Because they beleeved not in God: and put not their trust in his help.

24 So he commanded the clouds above: and opened the doors of heaven.

25 He rained down Manna also upon them for to eat: and gave them food from heaven.

26 So man did eat angels food: for he sent them meat enough.

27 He

27 He caused the East winde to blowe under heaven: and through his power he brought in the Southwest winde.

28 He rained flesh upon them as thick as dust: and feathered fowls like as the sand of the sea.

29 He let it fall among their tents: even round about their habitation.

30 So they did eat and were well filled, for he gave them their own desire: they were not disappointed of their lust.

31 But whyle the meat was yet in their mouthes, the heavy wrath of God came upon them, and slew the wealthiest of them: yea, and smote down the chosen men that were in Israel.

32 But for all this they sinned yet more: and beleeved not his wondrous works.

33 Therefore their dayes did he consume in vanitie: and their yeers in trouble.

34 When he slew them, they sought him: and turned them early, and enquired after God.

35 And they remembred that God was their strength: and that the high God was their Redeemer.

36 Nevertheless, they did but flatter him with their mouth: and dissembled with him in their tongue.

37 For their heart was not whole with him: neither continued they stedfast in his Covenant.

38 But he was so merciful that he forgave their misdeeds: and destroyed them not.

39 Yea, many a time turned he his wrath away: and would not suffer his whole displeasure to arise.

40 For he considered that they were but flesh: and that they were even a winde that passeth away, and cometh not again.

41 Many a time did they provoke him in the wildernesse; and grieved him in the desert.

42 They

42 They turned back and tempted God: and moved the holy One in Israel.

43 They thought not of his hand: and of the day when he delivered them from the hand of the enemie.

44 How he had wrought his miracles in Egypt: and his wonders in the field of Zoan.

45 He turned their waters into bloud: so that they might not drink of the rivers.

46 He sent lice among them, and deboured them up: and frogs to destroy them.

47 He gave their fruit unto the caterpillar: and their labour unto the grashopper.

48 He destroyed their vines with hailstones: and their mulbery trees with the frost.

49 He smote their cattell also with hailstones: and their flocks with hot thunderbolts.

50 He cast upon them the furiousnesse of his wrath, anger, displeasure, and trouble: and sent evill angels among them.

51 He made a way to his indignation, and spared not their soul from death: but gave their life over to the pestilence.

52 And smote all the first born in Egypt: the most principall and mightiest in the dwellings of Ham.

53 But as for his own people, he led them forth like sheep: and carried them in the wildernesse like a flock.

54 He brought them out safely that they should not fear: and overwhelmed their enemies with the sea.

55 And brought them within the borders of his Sanctuary: even to his mountain which he purchased with his right hand.

56 He cast out the heathen also before them: caused their land to be divided among them for an heritage, and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.

57 So they tempted and displeased the most high God: and kept not his Testimonies.

58 But

58 But turned their backs, and fell away like their forefathers: starting aside like a broken bowe.

59 For they grieved him with their hill-altars: and provoked him to displeasure with their images.

60 When God heard this, hee was wroth: and took sore displeasure at Israel.

61 So that he forsook the Tabernacle in Silo: even the tent that he had pitched among them.

62 He delibered their power into captivity: and their beauty into the enemies hand.

63 He gave his people over also unto the sword: and was wroth with his inheritance.

64 The fire consumed their young men: and their maidens were not given to marriage.

65 Their priests were slain with the sword: and there were no widows to make lamentation.

66 So the Lord awaked as one out of sleep: and like a gyant refreshed with wine.

67 He smote his enemies in the hinder parts: and put them to a perpetuall shame.

68 He refused the tabernacle of Joseph: and chose not the tribe of Ephraim.

69 But chose the tribe of Juda: even the hill of Sion which he loved.

70 And there he builded his Temple on high: and laid the foundation of it like the ground which he hath made continually.

71 He chose David also his servant: and took him away from the sheep-folds.

72 As he was following the Ewes great with young ones he took him: that he might feed Jacob his people, and Israel his inheritance.

73 So hee fed them with a faithfull and true heart: and ruled them prudently with all his power.

Deus,

Deus venerunt. Psal. 79.

Morning prayer.

O God the heathen are come into thine inheritance: the holy Temple have they defiled, and made Jerusalem an heap of stones.

2 The dead bodies of thy servants have they given to be meat unto the fowls of the ayre: and the flesh of thy Saints unto the beasts of the land.

3 Their blood have they shed like water on every side of Jerusalem: and there was no man to bury them.

4 Wee are become an open shame to our enemies: a very scorn and derision unto them that are round about us.

5 Lord, how long wilt thou be angry: shall thy jealousie burn like fire for ever?

6 Pour out thine indignation upon the heathen that have not known thee: and upon the kingdomes that have not called upon thy Name.

7 For they have devoured Jacob: and laid waste his dwelling place.

8 O remember not our old sins, but have mercy upon us, and that soon: for we are come to great misery.

9 Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy Name: O deliver us, and be mercifull unto our sins for thy Names sake.

10 Wherefore do the heathen say: Where is now their God?

11 O let the vengeance of thy servants blood that is shed: be openly shewed upon the heathen in our sight.

12 Oh let the sorrowfull sighing of the prisoners come before thee: according to the greatnesse of thy power preserve thou those that are appointed to die.

13 And for the blasphemy wherwith our neighbours have blasphemed thee: reward thou them, O Lord, seven fold into their bosome.

14 So we that be thy people, and sheep of thy pasture, shall shall give thee thanks for ever: and will alway be shewing forth thy praise from generation to generation.

Qui regis Israel. Psal. 80.

HEar, O thou Shepherd of Israel, thou that leadest Joseph like a sheep: shew thy self also thou that sittest upon the Cherubims.

2 Before Ephraim, Benjamin and Manasses: stir up thy strength, and come and help us.

3 Turn us again, O God: shew the light of thy countenance, and we shall be whole.

4 O Lord God of hosts: how long wilt thou be angry with thy people that prayeth?

5 Thou feedest them with the bread of tears: and givest them plenteousnesse of tears to drink.

6 Thou hast made us a very strife unto our neighbours: and our enemies laugh us to scorn.

7 Turn us again thou God of hosts: shew the light of thy countenance, and we shall be whole.

8 Thou hast brought a vine out of Egypt: thou hast cast out the heathen, and planted it.

9 Thou madest room for it: and when it had taken root, it filled the land.

10 The hills were covered with the shadow of it: and the boughs thereof were like the goodly Cedar trees.

11 She stretched out her branches unto the sea: and her boughs unto the river.

12 Why hast thou then broken down her hedge: that all they that go by, pluck off her grapes?

13 The wilde bore out of the wood doth root it up: and the wilde beasts of the field devour it.

14 Turn thee again thou God of hosts, look down from heaven: behold, and visit this Vine.

15 And the place of the Vineyard that thy right hand hath planted: and the branch that thou madest so strong for thy self.

16 It is burnt with fire, and cut down: and they shall perish at the rebuke of thy countenance.

17 Let thy hand be upon the man of thy right hand: and upon the sonne of man, whom thou madest so strong for thine own self.

18 And so will not wee go back from thee: O let us live, and wee shall call upon thy Name.

19 Turn us again, O Lord God of hosts: shew the light of thy countenance, and wee shall be whole.

Exultate Deo. Psal. 81.

SIng we merrily unto God our strength: make a cheerfull noise unto the God of Jacob.

2 Take the psalm, bring hither the tabret: the merry harp with the lute.

3 Blow up the trumpet in the new moon: even in the time appointed, and upon our solemn feast day.

4 For this was made a Statute for Israel: and a Law of the God of Jacob.

5 This he ordained in Joseph for a Testimony: when he came out of the land of Egypt, and had heard a strange language.

6 I eased his shoulder from the burthen: and his hands were delivered from making the pots.

7 Thou calledst upon mee in trouble, and I delivered thee: and heard thee what time as the storm fell upon thee.

8 I proved thee also: at the waters of strife.

9 Hear, O my people, and I will assure thee, O Israel: if thou wilt hearken unto mee.

10 There shall no strange god be in thee: neither shalt thou worship any other god.

11 I am the Lord thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt: open thy mouth wide, and I shall fill it.

12 But my people would not hear my voice: and Israel would not obey mee.

13 So I gave them up unto their own hearts lust:

and

and let them follow their own imaginations.

14 O that my people would have hearkned unto me: for if Israel had walked in my wayes.

15 I should soon have put down their enemies: and turned my hand against their adversaries.

16 The haters of the Lord should have been found liars: but their time should have endured for ever.

17 He should have fed them also with the finest wheat flour: and with honey out of the stony rock should I have satisfied thee.

Deus stetit. Psal. 82.

GOd standeth in the congregation of princes: he is a Judge among gods. Evenin prayer.

2 How long will ye give wrong judgement: and accept the persons of the ungodly?

3 Defend the poor and fatherlesse: see that such as be in need and necessitie have right.

4 Deliver the out-cast and poor: save them from the hand of the ungodly.

5 They will not be learned nor understand, but walk on still in darknesse: all the foundations of the earth be out of course.

6 I have said, Ye are gods: and ye all are children of the most Highest.

7 But ye shall die like men: and fall like one of the princes.

8 Arise, O God, and judge thou the earth: for thou shalt take all heathen to thine inheritance.

Deus, quis similis? Psal. 83.

HOld not thy tongue, O God, keep not still silence: refrain not thy self, O God.

2 For lo, thine enemies make a murmuring: and they that hate thee, have lift up their head.

3 They have imagined craftily against thy people: and taken counsell against thy secret ones.

4 They have said, Come, and let us root them out, that they be no more a people: and that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance.

5 For they have cast their heads together with one consent: and are confederate against thee.

6 The tabernacles of the Edomites and the Ismaelites: the Moabites, and Hagarenes.

7 Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalech: the Philistines, with them that dwell at Tyre.

8 Assur also is joyned unto them: and have holpen the children of Lot.

9 But do thou to them as unto the Madianites: unto Sisera, and unto Jabin, at the brook of Kison.

10 Which perished at Endor: and became as the dung of the earth.

11 Make them and their Princes like Oreb and Zeb: yea, make all their Princes like as Zeba and Salmana.

12 Which say, Let us take to our selves: the houses of God in possession.

13 O my God, make them like unto a wheel: and as the stubble before the winde.

14 Like as the fire that burneth up the wood: and as the flame that consumeth the mountains.

15 Persecute them even so with thy tempest: and make them afraid with thy storm.

16 Make their faces ashamed, O Lord: that they may seek thy Name.

17 Let them be confounded and vexed ever more and more: let them be put to shame and perish.

18 And they shall know that thou, whose Name is Jehovah: art onely the most Highest over all the earth.

Quam dilecta! Psal. 84.

O How amiable are thy dwellings: thou Lord of hosts!

2 My soul hath a desire and longing to enter into the the Courts of the Lord: my heart and my flesh rejoyce in the living God.

3 Yea, the sparrow hath found her an house, and the swallow a nest, where she may lay her young: even thy Altars, O Lord of hosts, my king and my God.

4 Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be alway praising thee.

5 Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee: in whose heart are thy wayes.

6 Which going through the vale of misery, use it for a well: and the pools are filled with water.

7 They will go from strength to strength: and unto the God of gods appeareth every one of them in Sion.

8 O Lord God of hosts, hear my prayer: hearken, O God of Jacob.

9 Behold, O God our defendar: and look upon the face of thine anointed.

10 For one day in thy Courts is better then a thousand.

11 I had rather be a doore-keeper in the house of my God: then to dwell in the tents of ungodlinesse.

12 For the Lord God is a light and defence: the Lord will give grace and worship, and no good thing shall he withhold from them that live a godly life.

13 O Lord God of hosts: blessed is the man that putteth his trust in thee.

Benedixisti, Domine. Psal. 85.

LOrd, thou art become gracious unto thy land: thou hast turned away the captivitie of Jacob.

2 Thou hast forgiven the offence of thy people: and covered all their sinnes.

3 Thou hast taken away all thy displeasure: and turned thy self from thy wrathfull indignation.

4 Turn us then, O God our Saviour: and let thine anger cease from us.

5 Wilt thou be displeased at us for ever: and wilt thou stretch out thy wrath from one generation to another?

6 Wilt thou not turn again, and quicken us: that thy people may rejoyce in thee?

7 Shew us thy mercy, O Lord: and grant us thy salvation.

8 I will hearken what the Lord God will say concerning me: for he shall speak peace unto his people, and to his Saints, that they turn not again.

9 For his salvation is nigh them that fear him: that glory may dwell in our land.

10 Mercy and truth are met together: righteousnesse and peace have kissed each other.

11 Truth shall flourish out of the earth: and righteousnesse hath looked down from heaven.

12 Yea, the Lord shall shew loving kindnesse: and our land shall give her increase.

13 Righteousnesse shall go before him: and he shall direct his going in the way.

Psalm. Domine. Psal. 86.

Morning Prayer.

BOw down thine eare, O Lord, and heare me: for I am poore and in misery.

2 Preserve thou my soule, for I am holy: my God, save thy servant that putteth his trust in thee.

3 Be mercifull unto me, O Lord: for I will call daily upon thee.

4 Comfort the soule of thy servant: for unto thee (O Lord) do I lift up my soule.

5 For thou Lord, art good and gracious: and of great mercy unto all them that call upon thee.

6 Give eare Lord unto my prayer: and ponder the voice of my humble desires.

7 In the time of my trouble I will call upon thee: for thou hearest me.

8 Among

8 Among the gods there is none like unto thee, (O Lord:) there is not one that can do as thou doest.

9 All nations whom thou hast made, shall come and worship thee, O Lord: and shall glorifie thy name.

10 For thou art great, and doest wondrous things: thou art God alone.

11 Teach me thy way, O Lord, and I will walk in thy truth: O knit my heart unto thee, that I may fear thy name.

12 I will thank thee, O Lord my God, with all my heart: and will praise thy name for evermore.

13 For great is thy mercy toward me: and thou hast delivered my soul from the nethermost hell.

14 O God, the proud are risen against me: and the congregations of naughtie men have sought after my soul, and have not set thee before their eyes.

15 But thou, O Lord God, art full of compassion and mercy: long suffering, plenteous in goodnesse and truth.

16 O turn thee then unto me, and have mercy upon me: give thy strength unto thy servant, and help the son of thine handmaid.

17 Shew some good token upon me for good, that they which hate me may see it, and be ashamed: because thou Lord hast holpen me, and comforted me.

Fundamenta ejus. Psal. 87.

HEr foundations are upon the holy hills: the Lord loveth the gates of Sion, more then all the dwellings of Jacob.

2 Very excellent things are spoken of thee: thou citie of God.

3 I will think upon Rahab and Babylon: with them that know me.

4 Behold ye the Philistines also: and they of Tyre, with the Morians, lo, there was he born.

5 And of Sion it shall be reported, that he was born in her: and the most high shall stablish her.

6 The Lord shall rehearse it, when he writeth up the people: that he was born there.

7 The singers also and trumpeters shall be rehearse: all my fresh springs shall be in thee.

Domine Deus. Psal. 88.

O Lord God of my salvation, I have cried day and night before thee: O let my prayer enter into thy presence, encline thine ear unto my calling.

2 For my soul is full of trouble: and my life draweth nigh unto hell.

3 I am counted as one of them that go down into the pit: and I have been even as a man that hath no strength.

4 Free among the dead, like unto them that be wounded and lie in the grave: which be out of remembrance, and are cut away from thy hand.

5 Thou hast laid me in the lowest pit: in a place of darkness, and in the deep.

6 Thine indignation lieth hard upon me: and thou hast vexed me with all thy storms.

7 Thou hast put away mine acquaintance far from me: and made me to be abhorred of them.

8 I am so fast in prison: that I cannot get forth.

9 My sight faileth for very trouble: Lord, I have called daily upon thee, I have stretched out mine hands unto thee.

10 Doest thou shew wonders among the dead: or shall the dead rise up again, and praise thee?

11 Shall thy loving kindness be shewed in the grave: or thy faithfulness in destruction?

12 Shall thy wondrous works be known in the dark: and thy righteousness in the land where all things are forgotten?

13 Unto thee have I cried, O Lord: and early shall my prayer come before thee.

14 Lord, why abhorrest thou my soul: and hidest thou thy face from me?

15 I am in miserie, and like unto him that is at the point to die: (even from my youth up) thy terrours have I suffered with a troubled minde.

16 Thy wrathfull displeasure goeth over me: and the fear of thee hath undone me.

17 They came round about me daily like water: and compassed me together on every side.

18 My lovers and friends hast thou put away from me: and hid mine acquaintance out of my sight.

Misericordias Domini. Psal. 89.

MY song shall be alwayes of the loving kindnesse of the Lord: with my mouth will I ever be shewing thy truth, from one generation to another. Evening prayer.

2 For I have said, Mercy shall be set up for ever: thy truth shalt thou stablish in the heavens.

3 I have made a covenant with my chosen: I have sworn unto David my servant.

4 Thy seed will I stablish for ever: and set up thy throne from one generation to another.

5 O Lord, the very heavens shall praise thy wondrous works: and thy truth in the congregation of the saints.

6 For who is he among the clouds: that shall be compared unto the Lord?

7 And what is he among the gods: that shall be like unto the Lord?

8 God is very greatly to be feared in the councell of the saints: and to be had in reverence of all them that are about him.

9 O Lord God of hosts, who is like unto thee: thy truth (most mighty Lord) is on every side.

10 Thou rulest the raging of the sea: thou stillest the waves thereof when they arise.

11 Thou hast subdued Egypt, & destroyed it: thou hast scattered thine enemies abroad with thy mighty arm.

12 The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine: thou hast laid the foundation of the round world, and all that therein is.

13 Thou hast made the north and the south: Tabor and Hermon shall rejoyce in thy name.

14 Thou hast a mighty arm: strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand.

15 Righteousnesse and equity is the habitation of thy seat: mercy and truth shall go before thy face.

16 Blessed is the people, O Lord, that can rejoyce in thee: they shall walk in the light of thy countenance.

17 Their delight shall be daily in thy name: and in thy righteousnesse shall they make their boast.

18 For thou art the glory of their strength: and in thy loving kindnesse thou shalt lift up our horns.

19 For the Lord is our defence: the holy One of Israel is our king.

20 Thou spakest sometime in visions unto thy saints, and saidest: I have laid help upon one that is mighty, I have exalted one chosen out of the people.

21 I have found David my servant: with my holy oil have I anointed him.

22 My hand shall hold him fast: and my arm shall strengthen him.

23 The enemie shall not be able to do him violence: the sonne of wickednesse shall not hurt him.

24 I shall smite down his foes before his face: and plague them that hate him.

25 My truth also and my mercy shall be with him: and in my name shall his horn be exalted.

26 I will set his dominion also in the sea: and his right hand in the floods.

27 He shall call me, Thou art my Father: my God, and my strong salvation.

28 And I will make him my firſt borne: higher then the kings of the earth.

29 My mercy will I keep for him for evermore: and my covenant ſhall ſtand faſt with him.

30 His ſeed alſo will I make to endure for ever: and his throne as the dayes of heaven.

31 But if his children forſake my law: and walk not in my judgments.

32 If they break my ſtatutes, and keep not my commandments: I will viſit their offences with the rod, and their ſinne with ſcourges.

33 Nevertheleſſe, my loving kindneſſe will I not utterly take from him: nor ſuffer my truth to fail.

34 My covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips: I have ſworn once by my holineſſe, that I will not fail David.

35 His ſeed ſhall endure for ever: and his ſeat is like as the ſunne before me.

36 He ſhall ſtand faſt for evermore as the moon: and as the faithfull witneſſe in heaven.

37 But thou haſt abhorred and forſaken thine anointed: and art diſpleaſed at him.

38 Thou haſt broken the covenant of thy ſervant: and caſt his crown to the ground.

39 Thou haſt overthrown all his hedges: and broken down his ſtrong holds.

40 All they that go by, ſpoil him: and he is become a rebuke to his neighbours.

41 Thou haſt ſet up the right hand of his enemies: and made all his adverſaries to rejoyce.

42 Thou haſt taken away the edge of his ſword: and giveſt him not victory in the battell.

43 Thou haſt put out his glory: and caſt his throne down to the ground.

44 The dayes of his youth haſt thou ſhortned: and covered him with dishonour.

45 Lord,

45 Lord, how long wilt thou hide thy self, for ever: and shall thy wrath burn like fire?

46 O remember how short my time is: wherefore hast thou made all men, for nought?

47 What man is he that liveth, and shall not see death: and shall he deliver his soul from the hand of hell?

48 Lord, where are thy old loving kindnesses: which thou swarest unto David in thy truth?

49 Remember Lord, the rebuke that thy servants have: and how I do bear in my bosome the rebukes of many people.

50 Wherewith thine enemies have blasphemed thee, and slandered the footsteps of thine anointed: praised be the Lord for evermore. Amen. Amen.

Domine, refugium. Psal. 90.

Morning prayer.

LOrd thou hast been our refuge: from one generation to another.

2 Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever the earth and the world were made: thou art God from everlasting, and world without end.

3 Thou turnest man to destruction: again thou sayest, Come again ye children of men.

4 For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday: seeing that is past as a watch in the night.

5 As soon as thou scatterest them, they are even as a sleep: and fade away suddenly like the grasse.

6 In the morning it is green, and groweth up: but in the evening it is cut down, dried up, and withered.

7 For we consume away in thy displeasure: and are afraid at thy wrathfull indignation.

8 Thou hast set our misdeeds before thee: and our secret sinnes in the sight of thy countenance.

9 For when thou art angry, all our dayes are gone: we bring our years to an end as it were a tale that is told.

10 The dayes of our age are threescore years and ten,

and

and though men be so strong that they come to fourscore years: yet is their strength then but labour and sorrow, so soon passeth it away, and we are gone.

11 But who regardeth the power of thy wrath: for even thereafter as a man feareth, so is thy displeasure.

12 O teach us to number our dayes: that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

13 Turn thee again (O Lord) at the last; and be gracious unto thy servants.

14 O satisfie us with thy mercy, and that soon: so shall we rejoyce and be glad all the dayes of our life.

15 Comfort us again, now after the time that thou hast plagued us: and for the years wherein we have suffered adversitie.

16 Shew thy servants thy work: and their children thy glory.

17 And the glorious majestie of the Lord our God be upon us: prosper thou the work of our hands upon us. O prosper thou our handy work.

Qui habitat. Psal. 91.

WHoso dwelleth under the defence of the most high: shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

2 I will say unto the Lord, Thou art my hope and my strong hold: my God, in him will I trust.

3 For he shall deliver thee from the snare of the hunter: and from the noisome pestilence.

4 He shall defend thee under his wings, and thou shalt be safe under his feathers: his faithfulnesse and truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

5 Thou shalt not be afraid for any terrour by night: nor for the arrow that flieth by day.

6 For the pestilence that walketh in darknesse: nor for the sickenesse that destroyeth in the noon day.

7 A thousand shall fall beside thee, and ten thousand at thy right hand: but it shall not come nigh thee.

8 Yea,

8 Yea, with thine eyes shalt thou behold: and see the reward of the ungodly.

9 For thou Lord art my hope: thou hast set thine house of defence very high.

10 There shall no evill happen unto thee: neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

11 For he shall give his angels charge over thee: to keep thee in all thy wayes.

12 They shall bear thee in their hands: that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone.

13 Thou shalt go upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou tread under thy feet.

14 Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore shall I deliver him: I shall set him up, because he hath known my name.

15 He shall call upon me, and I will hear him: yea, I am with him in trouble, I will deliver him, and bring him to honour.

16 With long life will I satisfie him: and shew him my salvation.

Bonum est confiteri. Psal. 92.

IT is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord: and to sing praises unto thy name, O most highest.

2 To tell of thy loving kindnesse early in the morning: and of thy truth in the night season.

3 Upon an instrument of ten strings, and upon the lute: upon a loud instrument, and upon the harp.

4 For thou Lord hast made me glad through thy works: and I will rejoyce in giving praise for the operations of thy hands.

5 O Lord, how glorious are thy works: and thy thoughts are very deep.

6 An unwise man doth not well consider this: and a fool doth not understand it.

7 When the ungodly are green as the grasse, and when all the workers of wickednesse do flourish: then shall shall they be destroyed for ever, but thou Lord art the most Highest for evermore.

8 For lo, thine enemies (O Lord) lo, thine enemies, shall perish: and all the workers of wickednesse shall be destroyed.

9 But mine horn shall be exalted like the horn of an Unicorn: for I am anointed with fresh oil.

10 Mine eye also shall see his lust of mine enemies: and mine ear shall hear his desire of the wicked that arise up against me.

11 The righteous shall flourish like a palm tree: and shall spread abroad like a cedar in Libanus.

12 Such as be planted in the house of the Lord: shall flourish in the courts (of the house) of our God.

13 They also shall bring forth more fruit in their age: and shall be fat and well liking.

14 That they may shew how true the Lord my strength is: and that there is no unrighteousnesse in him.

Dominus regnavit. Psal. 93.

THe Lord is king, and hath put on glorious apparell: the Lord hath put on his apparell, and girded himself strength. Evening prayer.

2 He hath made the round world so sure: that it cannot be removed.

3 Ever since the world began hath thy seat been prepared: thou art from everlasting.

4 The floods are risen (O Lord) the floods have lift up their voice: the floods lift up their waves.

5 The waves of the sea are mighty, and rage horribly: but yet the Lord that dwelleth on high, is mightier.

6 Thy Testimonies, O Lord, are very sure: holinesse becometh thine house for ever.

Deus ultionum. Psal. 94.

O Lord God to whom vengeance belongeth: thou God to whom vengeance belongeth, shew thy self.

2 Arise,

2 Arise, thou Judge of the world: and reward the proud after their deserving.

3 Lord, how long shall the ungodly: how long shall the ungodly triumph?

4 How long shall all wicked doers speak so disdainfully: and make such proud boasting?

5 They smite down thy people, O Lord: and trouble thine heritage.

6 They murther the widow and the stranger: and put the fatherlesse to death.

7 And yet they say, Tush, the Lord shall not see: neither shall the God of Jacob regard it.

8 Take heed ye unwise among the people: O ye fools, when will ye understand?

9 He that planted the ear, shall he not hear: or he that made the eye, shall he not see?

10 Or he that nurtureth the heathen: it is he that teacheth man knowledge, shall not he punish?

11 The Lord knoweth the thoughts of man: that they are but vain.

12 Blessed is the man whom thou chastenest (O Lord:) and teachest him in thy Law.

13 That thou mayest give him patience in time of adversitie: untill the pit be digged up for the ungodly.

14 For the Lord will not fail his people: neither will he forsake his inheritance.

15 Untill righteousnesse turn again unto judgement: all such as be true in heart shall follow it.

16 Who will rise up with me against the wicked; or who will take my part against the evill doers?

17 If the Lord had not helped me: it had not failed but my soul had been put to silence.

18 But when I said, My foot hath slipped: thy mercy (O Lord) held me up.

19 In the multitude of the sorrows that I had in my heart: thy comforts have refreshed my soul.

20 Wilt thou have any thing to do with the stool of wickednesse: which imagineth mischief as a law?

21 They gather them together against the soul of the righteous: and condemne the innocent blood.

22 But the Lord is my refuge: and my God is the strength of my confidence.

23 He shall recompense them their wickednesse, and destroy them in their own malice: yea, the Lord our God shall destroy them.

Venite, exultemus. Psal. 95.

O Come, let us sing unto the Lord: let us heartily rejoyce in the strength of our salvation. Morning prayer.

2 Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving: and shew our selves glad in him with psalms.

3 For the Lord is a great God: and a great King above all gods.

4 In his hands are all the corners of the earth: and the strength of the hills is his also.

5 The sea is his, and he made it: and his hands prepared the dry land.

6 O come, let us worship, and fall down: and kneel before the Lord our maker.

7 For he is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hands.

8 To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts: as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wildernesse.

9 When your fathers tempted me: proved me, and saw my works.

10 Fourtie yeers long was I grieved with this generation, and said: It is a people that do erre in their hearts, for they have not known my wayes.

11 Unto whom I sware in my wrath: that they should not enter into my rest.

Cantate

Cantate Domino. Psal. 96.

O Sing unto the Lord a new song: sing unto the Lord all the whole earth.

2 Sing unto the Lord, and praise his Name: be telling of his salvation from day to day.

3 Declare his honour unto the heathen: and his wonders unto all people.

4 For the Lord is great, and cannot worthy be praised: he is more to be feared then all gods.

5 As for all the gods of the heathen, they be but idols: but it is the Lord that made the heavens.

6 Glory and worship are before him: power and honour are in his Sanctuary.

7 Ascribe unto the Lord (O ye kinreds of the people:) ascribe unto the Lord worship and power.

8 Ascribe unto the Lord the honour due unto his Name: bring presents, and come into his courts.

9 O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness: let the whole earth stand in awe of him.

10 Tell it out among the heathen, that the Lord is King: and that it is he which hath made the round world so fast, that it cannot be moved, and how that he shall judge the people righteously.

11 Let the heavens rejoyce, and let the earth be glad: let the sea make a noise, and all that therein is.

12 Let the field be joyfull, and all that is in it: then shall all the trees of the wood rejoyce before the Lord.

13 For he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth: and with righteousness to judge the world, and the people with his truth.

Dominus regnavit. Psal. 97.

THe Lord is King, the earth may be glad thereof: yea, the multitude of the iles may be glad thereof.

2 Clouds and darkness are round about him: righteousness and judgement are the habitation of his seat.

3 There

3 There shall go a fire before him: and burn up his enemies on every side.

4 His lightnings gave shine unto the world: the earth saw it, and was afraid.

5 The hills melted like wax at the presence of the Lord: at the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.

6 The heavens have declared his righteousnes: and all the people have seen his glory.

7 Confounded be al they that worship carved images, and that delight in vain gods: worship him all ye gods.

8 Sion heard of it, and rejoyced: and the daughters of Juda were glad, because of thy judgements, O Lord.

9 For thou Lord art higher then all that are in the earth: thou art exalted far above all gods.

10 O ye that love the Lord, see that ye hate the thing which is evill: the Lord preserveth the souls of his Saints, he shall deliver them from the hand of the ungodly.

11 There is sprung up a light for the righteous: and joyfull gladnesse for such as be true hearted.

12 Rejoyce in the Lord ye righteous: and give thanks for a remembrance of his holinesse.

Cantate Domino. Psal. 98.

O Sing unto the Lord a new song: for he hath done marvellous things. Evening Prayer.

2 With his own right hand, and with his holy arm: hath he gotten himself the victory.

3 The Lord declared his salvation: his righteousnes hath he openly shewed in the sight of the heathen.

4 He hath remembred his mercy and truth toward the house of Israel: and all the ends of the world have seen the salvation of our God.

5 Shew your selves joyfull unto the Lord, all ye lands; sing, rejoyce, and give thanks.

6 Praise the Lord upon the harp: sing to the harp with a psalm of thanksgiving.

7 With trumpets also and shawms: O shew your selves joyfull before the Lord the King.

8 Let the sea make a noise, and all that therein is: the round world and they that dwell therein.

9 Let the floods clap their hands, and let the hills be joyfull together before the Lord: for he is come to judge the earth.

10 With righteousnesse shall he judge the world: and the people with equitie.

Dominus regnavit. Psal. 99.

THe Lord is King, be the people never so unpatient: he sitteth between the Cherubims, be the earth never so unquiet.

2 The Lord is great in Sion: and high above all people.

3 They shall give thanks unto thy Name: which is great, wonderfull, and holy.

4 The kings power loveth judgement, thou hast prepared equitie: thou hast executed judgement and righteousnesse in Jacob.

5 O magnifie the Lord our God: and fall down before his footstool, for he is holy.

6 Moses and Aaron among his priests, and Samuel among such as call upon his Name: these called upon the Lord, and he heard them.

7 He spake unto them out of the cloudy pillar: for they kept his Testimonies, and the Law that he gave them.

8 Thou heardest them (O Lord our God:) thou forgavest them, O God, and punishedst their own inventions.

9 O magnifie the Lord our God, and worship him upon his holy hill: for the Lord our God is holy.

Jubilate Deo. Psal. 100.

O Be joyfull in the Lord (all ye lands:) serve the Lord with gladnesse, and come before his presence with a song.

2 Be ye sure that the Lord he is God, it is he that hath made us, and not we our selves: we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

3 O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankfull unto him, and speak good of his Name.

4 For the Lord is gracious, his mercie is everlasting: and his truth endureth from generation to generation.

Misericordiam & judicium. Psal. 101.

MY song shalbe of mercie and judgement: unto thee, O Lord, will I sing.

2 O let me have understanding: in the way of godlinesse.

3 When wilt thou come unto me: I will walk in my house with a perfect heart.

4 I will take no wicked thing in hand, I hate the sinnes of unfaithfulnesse: there shall no such cleave unto me.

5 A froward heart shall depart from me: I will not know a wicked person.

6 Whoso privily slandereth his neighbour: him will I destroy.

7 Whoso hath also a proud look, and high stomack: I will not suffer him.

8 Mine eyes look upon such as be faithfull in the land: that they may dwell with me.

9 Whoso leadeth a godly life: he shall be my servant.

10 There shall no deceitfull person dwell in my house: he that telleth lies shall not tarry in my sight.

11 I shall soon destroy all the ungodly that are in the land: that I may root out all wicked doers from the citie of the Lord.

Domine, exaudi. Psal. 102.

Morning prayer.

HEar my prayer, O Lord: and let my crying come unto thee.

2 Hide not thy face from me in the time of my trouble: encline thine eare unto me when I call. O hear me and that right soon.

3 For my dayes are consumed away like smoak: and my bones are burnt up as it were a fire-brand.

4 My heart is smitten down, and withered like grasse: so that I forget to eat my bread.

5 For the voice of my groning: my bones will scarce cleade to my flesh.

6 I am become like a Pelicane in the wildernesse: and like an Owl that is in the desert.

7 I have watched, and am even as it were a sparrow: that sitteth alone upon the house top.

8 Mine enemies revile me all the day long: and they that are mad upon me, are sworn together against me.

9 For I have eaten ashes as it were bread: and ming'ed my drink with weeping.

10 And that because of thine indignation and wrath: for thou hast taken me up, and cast me down.

11 My dayes are gone like a shadow: and I am withered like grasse.

12 But thou (O Lord) shalt endure for ever: and thy remembrance throughout all generations.

13 Thou shalt arise and have mercie upon Sion: for it is time that thou have mercie upon her, yea, the time is come.

14 And why? thy servants think upon her stones: and it pitieth them to see her in the dust.

15 The heathen shall fear thy Name, O Lord: and all the kings of the earth thy Majesty.

16 When

16 When the Lord shall build up Sion: and when his glory shall appear.

17 When he turneth him unto the prayer of the poor destitute: and despiseth not their desire.

18 This shall be written for those that come after: and the people which shall be born shall praise the Lord.

19 For he hath looked down from his sanctuary: out of the heaven did the Lord behold the earth.

20 That he might hear the mournings of such as be in captivity: & deliver the children appointed unto death.

21 That they may declare the name of the Lord in Sion: and his worship at Jerusalem.

22 When the people are gathered together: and the kingdoms also to serve the Lord.

23 He brought down my strength in my journey: and shortned my dayes.

24 But I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of mine age: as for thy years, they endure throughout all generations.

25 Thou Lord in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands.

26 They shall perish, but thou shalt endure: they all shall wax old as doth a garment.

27 And as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

28 The children of thy servants shall continue: and their seed shall stand fast in thy sight.

Benedic, anima mea. Psal. 103.

PRaise the Lord, O my soul: and all that is within me, praise his holy name.

2 Praise the Lord, O my soul: and forget not all his benefits.

3 Which forgiveth all thy sin: and healeth all thine infirmities.

4 Which saveth thy life from destruction: and crowneth thee with mercy and loving kindnesse.

5 Which satisfieth thy mouth with good things: making thee young and lusty as an eagle.

6 The Lord executeth righteousnesse and judgment: for all them that are oppressed with wrong.

7 He shewed his wayes unto Moses: his workes unto the children of Israel.

8 The Lord is full of compassion and mercy: long suffering, and of great goodnesse.

9 He will not alway be chiding: neither keepeth he his anger for ever.

10 He hath not dealt with us after our sinnes: nor rewarded us according to our wickednesse.

11 For look how high the heaven is in comparison of the earth: so great is his mercie also toward them that fear him.

12 Look how wide also the east is from the west: so far hath he set our sinnes from us.

13 Yea, like as a father pitieth his own children: even so is the Lord mercifull unto them that fear him.

14 For he knoweth whereof we be made: he remembreth that we are but dust.

15 The dayes of man are but as grasse: for he flourisheth as a flower of the field.

16 For assoon as the winde goeth over it, it is gone: and the place thereof shall know it no more.

17 But the mercifull goodnesse of the Lord endureth for ever and ever upon them that fear him: and his righteousnesse upon children children.

18 Even upon such as keep his covenant: and think upon his commandments to do them.

19 The Lord hath prepared his seat in heaven: and his kingdom ruleth over all.

20 O praise the Lord, ye Angels of his, ye that excell in strength: ye that fulfill his commandment, and hearken herk en unto the voyce of his wordes.

21 O praise the Lord all ye his hosts: ye servants of his that do his pleasure.

22 O speak good of the Lord all ye works of his, in all places of his dominion: praise thou the Lord, O my soul.

Benedic, anima mea. Psal. 104.

PRaise the Lord, O my soul: O Lord my God, thou art become exceeding glorious, thou art clothed with majesty and honour. Evening prayer.

2 Thou deckest thy self with light, as it were with a garment: and spreadest out the heavens like a curtain.

3 Which layeth the beams of his chamber in the waters: and maketh the clouds his chariot, and walketh upon the wings of the wind.

4 He maketh his angels spirits: and his ministers a flaming fire.

5 He laid the foundations of the earth: that it never should move at any time.

6 Thou coveredst it with the deep like as with a garment: the waters stand in the hills.

7 At thy rebuke they flee: at the voyce of thy thunder they are afraid.

8 They go up as high as the hills, and down to the valleys beneath: even unto the place which thou hast appointed for them.

9 Thou hast set them their bounds, which they shall not passe: neither turn again to cover the earth.

10 He sendeth his springs into the rivers: which run among the hills.

11 All beasts of the field drink thereof: and the wilde asses quench their thirst.

12 Beside them shall the fowls of the ayr have their habitation: and sing among the branches.

13 He watereth the hills from above: the earth is filled with the fruit of thy works.

14 He bringeth forth grasse for the cattell: and green herb for the service of men.

15 That he may bring food out of the earth, and wine that maketh glad the heart of man: and oil to make him a chearfull countenance, and bread to strengthen mans heart.

16 The trees of the Lord also are full of sap: even the cedars of Libanus which he hath planted.

17 Wherein the birds make their nests: and the firre trees are a dwelling for the Stork.

18 The high hills are a refuge for the wilde goats: and so are the stony rocks for the conies.

19 He appointed the moon for certain seasons: and the sunne knoweth his going down.

20 Thou makest darknesse that it may be night: wherein all the beasts of the forrest do move.

21 The lions roaring after their prey: do seek their meat at God.

22 The sunne ariseth, and they get them away together: and lay them down in their dens.

23 Man goeth forth to his worke, and to his labour: until the evening.

24 O Lord, how manifold are thy works: in wisdom hast thou made them all, the earth is full of thy riches.

25 So is the great and wide sea also: wherein are things creeping innumerable, both small and great beasts.

26 There go the ships, and there is that Leviathan: whom thou hast made to take his pastime therein.

27 These wait all upon thee: that thou mayest give them meat in due season.

28 When thou givest it them, they gather it: and when thou openest thy hand, they are filled with good.

29 When thou hidest thy face, they are troubled: when thou thou takest away their breath, they die, and are turned again to their dust.

30 When thou lettest thy breath go forth, they shall be made: and thou shalt renew the face of the earth.

31 The glorious majestie of the Lord shall endure for ever: the Lord shall rejoyce in his works.

32 The earth shall tremble at the look of him: if he do but touch the hills, they shall smoak.

33 I will sing unto the Lord as long as I live: I will praise my God while I have my being.

34 And so shall my words please him: my joy shall be in the Lord.

35 As for sinners they shall be consumed out of the earth, and the ungodly shall come to an end: praise thou the Lord, O my soul, praise the Lord.

Confitemini Domino. Psal. 105.

O Give thanks unto the Lord, and call upon his name: tell the people what things he hath done. Morn praye

2 O let your songs be of him, and praise him: and let your talking be of all his wondrous works.

3 Rejoyce in his holy name: let the heart of them rejoyce that seek the Lord.

4 Seek the Lord and his strength: seek his face evermore.

5 Remember the marvellous works that he hath done: his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth.

6 O ye seed of Abraham his servant: ye children of Jacob his chosen.

7 He is the Lord our God: his judgments are in all the world.

8 He hath been alway mindfull of his covenant and promise: that he made to a thousand generations.

9 Even the covenant that he made with Abraham: and the oath that he sware unto Isaac.

10 And

10 And appointed the same unto Jacob for a law: and to Israel for an everlasting testament.

11 Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan: the lot of your inheritance.

12 When there were yet but a few of them: and they strangers in the land.

13 What time as they went from one nation to another: from one kingdom to another people.

14 He suffered no man to do them wrong: but reproved even kings for their sakes.

15 Touch not mine anointed: and do my prophets no harm.

16 Moreover, he called for a dearth upon the land: and destroyed all the provision of bread.

17 But he had sent a man before them: even Joseph which was sold to be a bond-servant.

18 Whose feet they hurt in the stocks: the iron entred into his soul.

19 Until the time came that his cause was known: the word of the Lord tried him.

20 The king sent and delivered him: the prince of the people let him go free.

21 He made him lord also of his house: and ruler of all his substance.

22 That he might inform his princes after his will: and teach his senators wisdom.

23 Israel also came into Egypt: and Jacob was a stranger in the land of Ham.

24 And he increased his people exceedingly: and made them stronger then their enemies.

25 Whose heart turned so, that they hated his people: and dealt untruly with his servants.

26 Then sent he Moses his servant: and Aaron whom he had chosen.

27 And these shewed his tokens among them: and wonders in the land of Ham.

28 He

28 He sent darknesse and it was dark: and they were not obedient unto his word.

29 He turned their waters into bloud: and slew their fish.

30 Their land brought forth frogs: yea, even in their kings chambers.

31 He spake the word, and there came all manner of flies: and lice in all their quarters.

32 He gave them haillstones for rain: and flames of fire in their land.

33 He smote their vines also and fig-trees: and destroyed the trees that were in their coasts.

34 He spake the word, and the grashoppers came, and caterpillers innumerable: and did eat up all the grasse in their land, and devoured the fruit of their ground.

35 He smote all the first born in their land: even the chief of all their strength.

36 He brought them forth also with silver and gold: there was not one feeble person among their tribes.

37 Egypt was glad at their departing: for they were afraid of them.

38 He spread out a cloud to be a covering: and fire to give light in the night season.

39 At their desire he brought quails: and he filled them with the bread of heaven.

40 He opened the rock of stone, and the waters flowed out: so that rivers ran in dry places.

41 For why? he remembred his holy promise: and Abraham his servant.

42 And he brought forth his people with joy: and his chosen with gladnesse.

43 And gave them the lands of the heathen: and they took the labours of the people in possession.

44 That they might keep his statutes: and observe his lawes.

Confi-

Confitemini Domino. Psal. 106.

O Give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercie endureth for ever.

2 Who can expresse the noble acts of the Lord: or shew forth all his praise?

3 Blessed are they that alway keep judgement: and do righteousnesse.

4 Remember me, O Lord, according to the favour that thou bearest unto thy people: O visit me with thy salvation.

5 That I may see the felicitie of thy chosen: and rejoyce in the gladnesse of thy people, and give thanks with thine inheritance.

6 We have sinned with our fathers: we have done amisse, and dealt wickedly.

7 Our fathers regarded not thy wonders in Egypt, neither kept they thy great goodnesse in remembrance: but were disobedient at the sea, even at the red sea.

8 Nevertheless, he helped them for his names sake: that he might make his power to be known.

9 He rebuked the red sea also, and it was dried up: so he led them thorow the deep, as thorow a wildernesse.

10 And he saved them from the adversaries hand: and delivered them from the hand of the enemie.

11 As for those that troubled them, the waters overwhelmed them: there was not one of them left.

12 Then beleeved they his words: and sang praise unto him.

13 But within a while they forgat his works: and would not abide his counsell.

14 But lust came upon them in the wildernesse: and they tempted God in the desert.

15 And he gave them their desire: and sent leannesse withall into their soul.

16 They angred Moses also in the tents: and Aaron the saint of the Lord.

17 So

17 So the earth opened, and swallowed up Nathan: and covered the congregation of Abiram.

18 And the fire was kindled in their company: the flame burnt up the ungodly.

19 They made a Calf in Horeb: and worshipped the molten image.

20 Thus they turned their glory: into the similitude of a Calf that eateth hay.

21 And they forgat God their Saviour: which had done so great things in Egypt.

22 Wondrous works in the land of Ham: and fearfull things by the red sea.

23 So he said he would have destroyed them, had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the gap: to turn away his wrathfull indignation, lest he should destroy them.

24 Yea, they thought scorn of that pleasant land: and gave no credence unto his word.

25 But murmured in their tents: and hearkned not unto the voice of the Lord.

26 Then lift he up his hand against them: to overthrow them in the wilderness.

27 To cast out their seed among the nations: and to scatter them in the lands.

28 They joyned themselves unto Baal-Peor: and ate the offerings of the dead.

29 Thus they provoked him to anger with their own inventions: and the plague was great among them.

30 Then stood up Phinees and prayed: and so the plague ceased.

31 And that was counted unto him for righteousness: among all posterities for evermore.

32 They angred him also at the waters of strife: so that he punished Moses for their sakes.

33 Because they provoked his spirit: so that he spake unadvisedly with his lips.

34 Neither destroyed they the heathen: as the Lord commanded them.

35 But were mingled among the heathen: and learned their workes.

36 Insomuch that they worshipped their idols, which turned to their own decay: yea, they offered their sonnes and daughters unto devils.

37 And shed innocent bloud, even the bloud of their sonnes and of their daughters: whom they offered unto the idols of Canaan, and the land was defiled with bloud.

28 Thus were they stained with their own workes: and went a whoring with their own inventions.

39 Therefore was the wrath of the Lord kindled against his people: insomuch that he abhorred his own inheritance.

40 And he gave them over into the hands of the heathen: and they that hated them were lords over them.

41 Their enemies oppressed them: and had them in subjection.

42 Many a time did he deliver them: but they rebelled against him with their own inventions, and were brought down in their wickednesse.

43 Nevertheless, when he saw their adversity: he heard their complaint.

44 He thought upon his Covenant, and pitied them according unto the multitude of his mercies: yea, he made all those that led them away captive to pitie them.

45 Deliver us, O Lord our God, and gather us from among the heathen: that we may give thanks unto thy holy Name, and make our boast of thy praise.

46 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel from everlasting, and world without end: and let all the people say, Amen.

O Give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for ever. Morni prayer

2 Let them give thanks whom the Lord hath redeemed: and delivered from the hand of the enemy.

3 And gathered them out of the lands, from the eaſt, and from the weſt: from the north, and from the ſouth.

4 They went aſtray in the wilderneſſe out of the way: and found no citie to dwell in.

5 Hungry and thirſty: their ſoul fainted in them.

6 So they cryed unto the Lord in their trouble: and he delivered them from their diſtreſſe.

7 He led them forth by the right way: that they might go to the citie where they dwelt.

8 O that men would therefore praiſe the Lord for his goodneſſe: and declare the wonders that he doth for the children of men.

9 For he ſatisfieth the emptie ſoul: and filleth the hungry ſoul with goodneſſe.

10 Such as ſit in darkneſſe and in the ſhadow of death: being faſt bound in miſery and iron.

11 Becauſe they rebelled againſt the words of the Lord: and lightly regarded the counſel of the moſt High.

12 He alſo brought down their heart through heavineſſe: they fell down, and there was none to help them up.

13 So when they cried unto the Lord in their trouble: he delivered them out of their diſtreſſe.

14 For he brought them out of darkneſſe, and out of the ſhadow of death: and brake their bonds in ſunder.

15 O that men would therefore praiſe the Lord for his goodneſſe: and declare the wonders that he doth for the children of men.

16 For he hath broken the gates of braſſe: and ſmitten the barres of iron in ſunder.

17 Fooliſh

17 Foolish men are plagued for their offence: and because of their wickedness.

18 Their soul abhorred all manner of meat: and they were even hard at deaths door.

19 So when they cried unto the Lord in their trouble: he delivered them out of their distresse.

20 He sent his word and healed them: and they were saved from their destruction.

21 O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodnesse: and declare the wonders that he doth for the children of men.

22 That they would offer unto him the sacrifice of thanksgiving: and tell out his works with gladnesse.

23 They that go down to the sea in ships: and occupy their business in great waters.

24 These men see the works of the Lord: and his wonders in the deep.

25 For at his word the stormie wind ariseth: which lifteth up the waves thereof.

26 They are carried up to the heaven, and down again to the deep: their soul melteth away because of the trouble.

27 They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man: and are at their wits end.

28 So when they cry unto the Lord in their trouble: he delivereth them out of their distresse.

29 For he maketh the storm to cease: so that the waves thereof are still.

30 Then are they glad because they be at rest: and so he bringeth them unto the haven where they would be.

31 O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodnesse: and declare the wonders that he doth for the children of men.

32 That they would exalt him also in the Congregation

gation of the people: and praise him in the seat of the Elders.

33 Which turneth the floods into a wilderness: and drieth up the water springs.

34 A fruitfull land maketh he barren: for the wickednesse of them that dwell therein.

35 Again, he maketh the wilderness a standing water: and water springs of a dry ground.

36 And there he setteth the hungry: that they may build them a city to dwell in.

37 That they may sow their land, and plant vineyards: to yield them fruits of increase.

38 He blesseth them so that they multiply exceedingly: and suffereth not their cattell to decrease.

39 And again, when they are minished and brought low: through oppression, through any plague or trouble.

40 Though he suffer them to be evill intreated through tyrants: and let them wander out of the way in the wilderness.

41 Yet helpeth he the poor out of misery: and maketh him households like a flock of sheep.

42 The righteous will consider this, and rejoyce: and the mouth of all wickednesse shall be stopped.

43 Whoso is wise, will ponder these things: and they shall understand the loving kindnesse of the Lord.

Paratum cor meum. Psal. 108.

O God, my heart is ready, my heart is ready: I will sing and give praise with the best member that I have. Evening prayer.

2 Awake thou lute and harp: I my self will awake right early.

3 I will give thanks unto thee, O Lord, among the people: I will sing praises unto thee among the nations.

4 For thy mercy is greater then the heavens: and thy truth reacheth unto the clouds.

5 Set up thy self, O God, above the heavens: and thy glory above all the earth.

6 That thy beloved may be delivered: let thy right hand save them, and hear thou me.

7 God hath spoken in his holiness: I will rejoyce therefore, and divide Sichem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.

8 Gilead is mine, and Manasses is mine: Ephraim also is the strength of my head.

9 Juda is my law-giver, Moab is my washpot: over Edom will I cast out my shoe, upon the Philistines will I triumph.

10 Who will lead me into the strong citie: and who will bring me into Edom?

11 Hast not thou forsaken us, O God: and wilt not thou, O God, go forth with our hosts?

12 O help us against the enemie: for vain is the help of man.

13 Through God shall we do great acts: and it is he that shall tread down our enemies.

Deus laudum. Psal. 109.

HOld not thy tongue, O God of my praise: for the mouth of the ungodly, yea, and the mouth of the deceitfull is opened upon me.

2 And they have spoken against me with false tongues: they compassed me about also with words of hatred, and fought against me without a cause.

3 For the love that I have unto them, lo, they take now my contrary part: but I give my self unto prayer.

4 Thus have they rewarded me evill for good: and hatred for my good will.

5 Set thou an ungodly man to be ruler over him: and let Satan stand at his right hand.

6 When

6 When sentence is given upon him, let him be condemned: and let his prayer be turned into sinne.

7 Let his dayes be few: and let another take his office.

8 Let his children be fatherlesse: and his wife a widow.

9 Let his children be vagabonds, and begge their bread: let them seek it alse out of desolate places.

10 Let the extortioner consume all that he hath: and let the stranger spoil his labour.

11 Let there be no man to pitie him: nor to have compassion upon his fatherlesse children.

12 Let his posteritie be destroyed: and in the next generation let his name be clean put out.

13 Let the wickednesse of his fathers be had in remembrance in the sight of the Lord: and let not the sinne of his mother be done away.

14 Let them alway be before the Lord: that he may root out the memorial of them from off the earth.

15 And that because his minde was not to do good: but persecuted the poor helpelesse man, that he might slay him that was vexed at the heart.

16 His delight was in cursing, and it shall happen unto him: he loved not blessing, therefore shall it be farre from him.

17 He clothed himself with cursing like as with a raiment: and it shall come into his bowels like water, and like oil into his bones.

18 Let it be unto him as the cloak that he hath upon him: and as the girdle that he is alway girded withall.

19 Let it thus happen from the Lord unto mine enemies: and to those that speak evill against my soul.

20 But deal thou with me, O Lord God, according unto thy Name: for sweet is thy mercy.

21 O deliver me, for I am helpeleſſe and poor: and my heart is wounded within me.

22 I go hence like the ſhadow that departeth: and am driven away as the graſhopper.

23 My knees are weak through faſting: my fleſh is dried up for want of fatneſſe.

24 I became alſo a reproche unto them: they that looked upon me, ſhoke their heades.

25 Help me, O Lord my God: O ſave me accoꝛding to thy mercy.

26 And they ſhall know how that this is thy hand: and that thou Lord haſt done it.

27 Though they curſe, yet bleſſe thou: and let them be confounded that riſe up againſt me, but let thy ſeruant reioyce.

28 Let mine aduerſaries be clothed with ſhame: and let them cover themſelves with their own confuſion, as with a cloke.

29 As for me, I will give great thanks unto the Lord with my mouth: and praiſe him among the multitude.

30 For he ſhall ſtand at the right hand of the poor: to ſave his ſoul from unrighteous iudges.

Dixit Dominus. Pſal. 110.

Morning Prayer.

THE Lord ſaid unto my Lord: Sit thou on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footſtool.

2 The Lord ſhall ſend the rod of thy power out of Sion: be thou ruler even in the midſt among thine enemies.

3 In the day of thy power ſhall the people offer thee free will offerings with an holy worſhip: the dew of thy birth is of the womb of the morning.

4 The Lord ſware and will not repent: Thou art a Prieſt for ever after the order of Melchiſedech.

5 The

5 The Lord upon thy right hand: shall wound eden kings in the day of his wrath.

6 Hee shall judge among the heathen, he shall fill the places with the dead bodies: and smite in sunder the heads over divers countreys.

7 Hee shall drink of the brook in the way: therefore shall he lift up his head.

Confitebor tibi. Psal. cxi.

I will give thanks unto the Lord with my whole heart: secretly among the faithfull, and in the Congregation.

2 The works of the Lord are great: sought out of all them that have pleasure therein.

3 His work is worthy to be praised, and had in honour: and his righteousnesse endureth for ever.

4 The mercifull and gracious Lord hath so done his marvellous works: that they ought to be had in remembrance.

5 Hee hath given meat unto them that fear him: hee shall ever be mindfull of his Covenant.

6 He hath shewed his people the power of his works: that hee may give them the heritage of the heathen.

7 The works of his hands are verity and judgement: all his Commandments are true.

8 They stand fast for ever and ever: and are done in truth and equity.

9 He sent redemption unto his people: he hath commanded his Covenant for ever, holy and reverend is his Name.

10 The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they that do thereafter, the praise of it endureth for ever.

Beatus vir. Psal. cxii.

Blessed is the man that feareth the Lord: hee hath great delight in his Commandements.

2 His seed shall be mighty upon earth: the generation of the faithfull shall be blessed.

3 Riches and plenteousnesse shall be in his house: and his righteousnesse endureth for ever.

4 Unto the godly there ariseth up light in the darknesse: he is mercifull, loving, and righteous.

5 A good man is mercifull, and lendeth; and will guide his words with discretion.

6 For hee shall never be moved: and the righteous shall be had in an everlasting remembrance.

7 He will not be afraid for any evill tidings: for his heart standeth fast, and beleeveth in the Lord.

8 His heart is stablished, and will not shrink: until he see his desire upon his enemies.

9 Hee hath dispersed abroad, and given to the poor: and his righteousnesse remaineth for ever, his horn shall be exalted with honour.

10 The ungodly shall see it, and it shall grieve him: he shall gnash with his teeth, and consume away, the desire of the ungodly shall perish.

Laudate, pueri. Psal. 113.

PRaise the Lord, ye servants: O praise the Name of the Lord.

2 Blessed be the Name of the Lord: from this time forth for evermore.

3 The Lords Name is praised: from the rising up of the Sunne, unto the going down of the same.

4 The Lord is high above all heathen: and his glory above the heavens.

5 Who is like unto the Lord our God, that hath his dwelling so high: and yet humbleth himself to behold the things that are in heaven and earth?

6 Hee taketh up the simple out of the dust: and lifteth the poor out of the myre.

7 That he may set him with the Princes: even with the princes of his people.

8 Hee

8 Hee maketh the barren woman to keep house: and to be a joyfull mother of children.

In exitu Israel. Psal. 114.

WHen Israel came out of Egypt: and the house of Jacob from among the strange people. Evening prayer.

2 Juda was his Sanctuary: and Israel his dominion.

3 The sea saw that, and fled: Jordan was driven back.

4 The mountains skipped like rams: and the little hills like young sheep.

5 What ailed thee, O thou sea, that thou fleddest: and thou Jordan that thou wast driven back?

6 Yee mountains that ye skipped like rams: and yee little hills like young sheep?

7 Tremble thou earth at the presence of the Lord: at the presence of the God of Jacob.

8 Which turned the hard rock into a standing water: and the flint stone into a springing well.

Non nobis, Domine. Psal. 115.

NOt unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto thy Name give the praise: for thy loving mercie, and for thy truths sake.

2 Wherefore shall the heathen say: where is now their God?

3 As for our God, he is in heaven: he hath done whatsoever pleased him.

4 Their idols are silver and gold: even the work of mens hands.

5 They have mouthes, and speak not: eyes have they, and see not.

6 They have ears, and hear not: noses have they, and smell not.

7 They have hands, and handle not, feet have they, and walk not: neither speak they through their throat.

8 They that make them are like unto them: and so are all such as put their trust in them.

9 But thou house of Israel, trust thou in the Lord: he is their succour and defence.

10 Ye house of Aaron, put your trust in the Lord: he is their helper and defender.

11 Ye that fear the Lord, put your trust in the Lord: he is their helper and defender.

12 The Lord hath been mindfull of us, and hee shall blesse us: even hee shall blesse the house of Israel, hee shall blesse the house of Aaron.

13 Hee shall blesse them that fear the Lord: both small and great.

14 The Lord shall increase you more and more: you and your children.

15 Ye are the blessed of the Lord: which made heaven and earth.

16 All the whole heavens are the Lords: the earth hath hee given to the children of men.

17 The dead praise not thee, O Lord: neither all they that go down into the silence.

18 But we will praise the Lord: from this time forth for evermore. Praise the Lord.

Dilexi quoniam. Psal. 116.

Morning prayer.

I Am well pleased: that the Lord hath heard the voice of my prayer.

2 That hee hath enclined his ear unto mee: therefore will I call upon him as long as I live.

3 The snares of death compassed mee round about: and the pains of hell gate hold upon mee.

4 I shall finde trouble and heaviness, and I shall call upon the Name of the Lord: O Lord, I beseech thee, deliver my soul.

5 Gracious is the Lord, and righteous: yea, our God is mercifull.

6 The Lord preserveth the simple: I was in misery and he helped me.

7 Turn again then unto thy rest, O my soul: for the Lord hath rewarded thee.

8 And why? thou hast delivered my soul from death: mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling.

9 I will walk before the Lord: in the land of the living.

10 I believed, and therefore will I speak, but I was sore troubled: I said in my haste, All men are lyars.

11 What reward shall I give unto the Lord: for all the benefits that he hath done unto mee?

12 I will receive the cup of salvation: and call upon the Name of the Lord.

13 I will pay my vows now in the presence of all his people: right dear in the sight of the Lord, is the death of his Saints.

14 Behold, O Lord, how that I am thy servant: I am thy servant, and the sonne of thine handmaid, thou hast broken my bonds in sunder.

15 I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving: and will call upon the Name of the Lord.

16 I will pay my vows unto the Lord in the sight of all his people: in the courts of the Lords house, even in the midst of thee, O Hierusalem. Praise the Lord.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. 117.

O Praise the Lord all yee heathen: praise him all yee Nations.

2 For his mercifull kindnesse is ever more and more towards us: and the truth of the Lord endureth for ever. Praise the Lord.

Confitemini Domino. Psal. 118.

O Give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: because his mercy endureth for ever.

2 Let Israel now confesse, that hee is gracious: and that his mercy endureth for ever.

3 Let the house of Aaron now confesse: that his mercy endureth for ever.

4 Yea, let them now that fear the Lord, confesse: that his mercy endureth for ever.

5 I called upon the Lord in trouble: and the Lord heard mee at large.

6 The Lord is on my side: I will not fear what man doth unto mee.

7 The Lord taketh my part with them that help mee: therefore shall I see my desire upon mine enemies.

8 It is better to trust in the Lord: then to put any confidence in man.

9 It is better to trust in the Lord: then to put any confidence in Princes.

10 All nations compassed mee round about: but in the Name of the Lord will I destroy them.

11 They kept mee in on every side, they kept mee in (I say) on every side: but in the Name of the Lord will I destroy them.

12 They came about mee like Bees, and are extinct, even as the fire among the thorns: for in the Name of the Lord I will destroy them.

13 Thou hast thrust sore at mee, that I might fall: but the Lord was my help.

14 The Lord is my strength and my song: and is become my salvation.

15 The voice of joy and health is in the dwellings of the righteous: the right hand of the Lord bringeth mighty things to passe.

16 The right hand of the Lord hath the preeminence: the right hand of the Lord bringeth mighty things to passe.

17 I will not die, but live: and declare the works of the Lord.

18 The Lord hath chastened and corrected mee: but he hath not given me over unto death.

19 Open mee the gates of righteousnesse: that I may go into them, and give thanks unto the Lord.

20 This is the gate of the Lord: the righteous shall enter into it.

21 I will thank thee, for thou hast heard me: and art become my salvation.

22 The same stone which the builders refused: is become the head stone in the corner.

23 This is the Lords doing: and it is marvellous in our eyes.

24 This is the day which the Lord hath made: wee will rejoyce and be glad in it.

25 Help mee now, O Lord: O Lord, send us now prosperity.

26 Blessed be he that cometh in the Name of the Lord: wee have wished you good luck, ye that be of the house of the Lord.

27 God is the Lord which hath shewed us light: binde the sacrifice with cords, yea, even unto the horns of the Altar.

28 Thou art my God, and I will thank thee: thou art my God, and I will praise thee.

29 O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for ever.

Beati immaculati. Psal. 119.

Evening prayer.

BLessed are those that are undefiled in the way: and walk in the Law of the Lord.

2 Blessed are they that keep his Testimonies: and seek him with their whole heart.

3 For they which do no wickednesse: walk in his wayes.

4 Thou hast charged: that we shall diligently keep thy Commandments.

5 O that my wayes were made so direct: that I might keep thy Statutes.

6 So shall I not be confounded: while I have respect unto all thy Commandments.

7 I will thank thee with an unfained heart: when I shall have learned the Judgements of thy righteousnesse.

8 I will keep thy Ceremonies: O forsake mee not utterly.

In quo corriget.

WHerewithall shall a young man cleanse his way: even by ruling himself after thy word.

2 With my whole heart have I sought thee: O let not me go wrong out of thy Commandments.

3 Thy words have I hid within my heart: that I should not sinne against thee.

4 Blessed art thou, O Lord: O teach mee thy Statutes.

5 With my lips have I been telling: of all the Judgements of thy mouth.

6 I have had as great delight in the way of thy Testimonies: as in all manner of riches.

7 I will talk of thy Commandments: and have respect unto thy wayes.

8 My delight shall be in thy Statutes: and I will not forget thy word.

Retribue servo tuo.

O Do well unto thy servant: that I may live and keep thy word.

2 Open thou mine eyes: that I may see the wonderous things of thy Law.

3 I am a stranger upon earth: O hide not thy Commandments from mee.

4 My soul breaketh out for the very fervent desire: that it hath alway unto thy Judgements.

5 Thou hast rebuked the proud: and cursed are they that do erre from thy Commandments.

6 O turn from me shame and rebuke: for I have kept thy testimonies.

7 Princes also did sit and speak against me: but thy servant is occupied in thy statutes.

8 For thy testimonies are my delight: and my counsellers.

Adhæsit pavimento.

MY soul cleaveth to the dust: O quicken thou me according to thy word.

2 I have knowledged my wayes, and thou heardest me: O teach me thy statutes.

3 Make me to understand the way of thy commandments: and so shall I talk of thy wondrous works.

4 My soul melteth away for very heavines: comfort thou me according unto thy word.

5 Take from me the way of lying: and cause thou me to make much of thy law.

6 I have chosen the way of truth: and thy judgements have I laid before me.

7 I have stucken unto thy testimonies: O Lord, confound me not.

8 I will run the way of thy commandments: when thou hast set my heart at libertie.

Legem pone.

TEach me, O Lord, the way of thy statutes: and I shall keep it unto the end. Morning prayer.

2 Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy law: yea, I shall keep it with my whole heart.

3 Make me to go in the path of thy commandments: for therein is my desire.

4 Incline mine heart unto thy testimonies: and not to covetousnesse.

5 O turn away mine eyes, lest they behold vanitie: and quicken thou me in thy way.

6 O ſtabliſh thy word in thy ſervant: that I may fear thee.

7 Take away the rebuke that I am afraid of: for thy judgments are good.

8 Behold, my delight is in thy commandments: O quicken me in thy righteouſneſſe.

Et veniat ſuper me.

LEt thy loving mercy come alſo unto me, O Lord: even thy ſalvation according unto thy word.

2 So ſhall I make anſwer unto my blaſphemers: for my truſt is in thy word.

3 O take not the word of thy truth utterly out of my mouth: for my hope is in thy judgements.

4 So ſhall I alway keep thy law: yea, for ever and ever.

5 And I will walk at libertie: for I ſeek thy commandments.

6 I will ſpeak of thy teſtimonies alſo even before kings: and will not be aſhamed.

7 And my delight ſhall be in thy commandments: which I have loved.

8 My hands alſo will I lift up unto thy commandments which I have loved: and my ſtudy ſhall be in thy ſtatutes.

Memor eſto verbi tui.

OThink upon thy ſervant as concerning thy word: wherein thou haſt cauſed me to put my truſt.

2 The ſame is my comfort in my trouble: for thy word hath quickned me.

3 The proud have had me exceedingly in derision: yet have I not ſhrunked from thy law.

4 For I remembred thine everlaſting judgments, O Lord: and received comfort.

5 I am horribly afraid: for the ungodly that forſake thy law.

6 Thy ſtatutes have been my ſongs: in the houſe of my pilgrimage.

7 I have thought upon thy name, O Lord, in the night ſeaſon: and have kept thy law.

8 This I had: becauſe I kept thy commandments.

Portio mea, Domine.

THou art my portion, O Lord: I have promiſed to keep thy law.

2 I made my humble petition in thy preſence with my whole heart: O be mercifull unto me according to thy word.

3 I called mine own wayes to remembrance: and turned my feet unto thy teſtimonies.

4 I made haſte, and prolonged not the time: to keep thy commandments.

5 The congregation of the ungodly have robbed me: but I have not forgotten thy law.

6 At midnight I will riſe to give thanks unto thee: becauſe of thy righteous judgments.

7 I am a companion of all them that fear thee: and keep thy commandments.

8 The earth, O Lord, is full of thy mercy: O teach me thy ſtatutes.

Bonitatem feciſti.

O Lord, thou haſt dealt graciouſly with thy ſervant: according unto thy word.

2 O learn me true underſtanding and knowledge: for I have beleeved thy commandments.

3 Before I was troubled, I went wrong: but now have I kept thy word.

4 Thou art good and gracious: O teach me thy ſtatutes.

5 The proud have imagined a lie againſt me: but I will keep thy commandments with my whole heart.

6 Their

6 Their heart is as fat as brawn: but my delight hath been in thy law.

7 It is good for me that I have been in trouble: that I may learn thy statutes.

8 The law of thy mouth is dearer unto me: then thousands of gold and silver.

Manus tuæ fecerunt me.

ening yer.

THy hands have made me, and fashioned me: O give me understanding, that I may learn thy commandments.

2 They that fear thee, will be glad when they see me: because I have put my trust in thy word.

3 I know, O Lord, that thy judgments are right: and that thou of very faithfulness hast caused me to be troubled.

4 O let thy merciful kindness be my comfort: according to thy word unto thy servant.

5 O let thy loving mercies come unto me, that I may live: for thy law is my delight.

6 Let the proud be confounded, for they go wickedly about to destroy me: but I will be occupied in thy commandments.

7 Let such as fear thee, and have known thy testimonies: be turned unto me.

8 O let my heart be sound in thy statutes: that I be not ashamed.

Defecit anima mea.

MY soul hath longed for thy salvation: and I have a good hope because of thy word.

2 Mine eyes long sore for thy word: saying, O when wilt thou comfort me?

3 For I am become like a bottle in the smoke: yet do I not forget thy statutes.

4 How many are the days of thy servant: when wilt thou be avenged of them that persecute me?

5 The

5 The proud have digged pits for mee: which are not after thy Law.

6 All thy Commandments are true: they persecute mee falsely, O be thou my help.

7 They had almost made an end of mee upon earth: but I forsook not thy Commandments.

8 O quicken mee after thy loving kindnesse: and so shall I keep the Testimonies of thy mouth.

In æternum, Domine.

O Lord, thy word: endureth for ever in heaven.

2 Thy truth also remaineth from one generation to another: thou hast laid the foundation of the earth, and it abideth.

3 They continue this day according to thine ordinance: for all things serve thee.

4 If my delight had not been in thy Law: I should have perished in my trouble.

5 I will never forget thy Commandments: for with them thou hast quickned mee.

6 I am thine, Oh save mee: for I have sought thy Commandments.

7 The ungodly laid wait for mee, to destroy mee: but I will consider thy Testimonies.

8 I see that all things come to an end: but thy Commandment is exceeding broad.

Quomodo dilexi.

Lord, what love have I unto thy Law: all the day long is my study in it.

2 Thou through thy Commandments hast made me wiser than mine enemies: for they are ever with mee.

3 I have more understanding than my teachers: for thy Testimonies are my study.

4 I am wiser than the aged: because I keep thy Commandments.

5 I have refrained my feet from every evil way: that I may keep thy word.

6 I have not shunnk from thy Judgements: for thou teachest me.

7 O how sweet are thy words unto my throat: yea, sweeter then hony unto my mouth.

8 Through thy Commandments I get understanding: therefore I hate all evill wayes.

Lucerna pedibus meis.

Morning prayer.

THy word is a lantern unto my feet: and a light unto my paths.

2 I have sworn and am stedfastly purposed: to keep thy righteous Judgements.

3 I am troubled above measure: quicken mee, O Lord, according to thy word.

4 Let the free-will offerings of my mouth please thee, O Lord: and teach me thy Judgements.

5 My soul is alway in my hand: yet do I not forget thy Law.

6 The ungodly have laid a snare for mee: but yet I swerved not from thy Commandments.

7 Thy Testimonies have I claimed as my heritage for ever: and why? they are the very joy of mine heart.

8 I have applied my heart to fulfill thy Statutes alway: even unto the end.

Iniquos odio habui.

I Hate them that imagine evill things: but thy Law do I love.

2 Thou art my defence and shield: and my trust is in thy word.

3 Away from mee ye wicked: I will keep the Commandments of my God.

4 O stablish mee according to thy word, that I may live: and let mee not be disappointed of my hope.

5 Hold thou mee up, and I shall be safe: yea, my delight shall be ever in thy Statutes.

6 Thou hast troden down all them that depart from from thy Statutes: for they imagine but deceit.

7 Thou puttest away all the ungodly of the earth like drosse: therefore I love thy Testimonies.

8 My flesh trembleth for fear of thee: and I am afraid of thy Judgements.

Feci judicium.

I Deal with the thing that is lawfull and right: O give mee not over unto mine oppressors.

2 Make thou thy servant to delight in that which is good: that the proud do mee no wrong.

3 Mine eyes are wasted away with looking for thy health: and for the word of thy righteousnesse.

4 O deal with thy servant according unto thy loving mercy: and teach mee thy Statutes.

5 I am thy servant, O grant mee understanding: that I may know thy Testimonies.

6 It is time for thee, Lord, to lay to thine hand: for they have destroyed thy Law.

7 For I love thy Commandments: above gold and precious stone.

8 Therefore hold I strait all thy Commandments: and all false wayes I utterly abhorre.

Mirabilia.

THy Testimonies are wonderfull: therefore doth my soul keep them.

2 When thy word goeth forth: it giveth light and understanding unto the simple.

3 I opened my mouth, and drew in my breath: for my delight was in thy Commandments.

4 O look thou upon mee, and be mercifull unto mee: as thou usest to do unto those that love thy Name.

5 Order my steps in thy word: and so shall no wickednesse have dominion over me.

6 O deliver me from the wrongfull dealings of men: and so shall I keep thy Commandments.

7 Shew the light of thy countenance upon thy ſervaunt: and teach mee thy Statutes.

8 Mine eyes guſh out with water: becauſe men keep not thy Law.

Juſtus es, Domine.

RIghteous art thou, O Lord: and true is thy Judgement.

2 The Teſtimonies that thou haſt commanded: are exceeding righteous and true.

3 My zeal hath even conſumed mee: becauſe mine enemies have forgotten thy wordes.

4 Thy word is tried to the uttermoſt: and thy ſervant loveth it.

5 I am ſmall, and of no reputation: yet do I not forget thy Commandments.

6 Thy righteouſneſſe is an everlaſting righteouſneſſe: and thy Law is the truth.

7 Trouble and heavineſſe have taken hold upon mee: yet is my delight in thy Commandments.

8 The righteouſneſſe of thy Teſtimonies is everlaſting: O grant mee underſtanding, and I ſhall live.

Clamavi in toto corde meo

Evening prayer.

I Call with my whole heart: hear mee, O Lord, I will keep thy Statutes.

2 Yea, even upon thee do I call: help mee, and I ſhall keep thy Teſtimonies.

3 Early in the morning do I cry unto thee: for in thy word is my truſt.

4 Mine eyes prevent the night watches: that I might be occupied in thy wordes.

5 Heare my voyce (O Lord) according unto thy loving kindneſſe: quicken me according as thou art wont.

6 They draw nigh that of malice perſecute me: and are far from thy Law.

7 Be thou nigh at hand, O Lord: for all thy Commandments are true.

8 As concerning thy Testimonies, I have known long since: that thou hast grounded them for ever.

Vide humilitatem.

O Consider mine adversity, and deliver mee: for I do not forget thy Law.

2 Avenge thou my cause, and deliver mee: quicken mee according to thy word.

3 Health is farre from the ungodly: for they regard not thy Statutes.

4 Great is thy mercy, O Lord: quicken me as thou art wont.

5 Many there are that trouble me, and persecute me: yet do I not swerve from thy Testimonies.

6 It grieveth mee when I see the transgressors: because they keep not thy Law.

7 Consider, O Lord, how I love thy Commandments: O quicken me according to thy loving kindnes.

8 Thy word is true from everlasting: all the judgements of thy righteousnesse endure for evermore.

Principes persecuti sunt.

PRinces have persecuted me without a cause: but my heart standeth in awe of thy word.

2 I am as glad of thy word: as one that findeth great spoils.

3 As for lies, I hate and abhorre them: but thy Law do I love.

4 Seven times a day do I praise thee: because of thy righteous judgements.

5 Great is the peace that they have which love thy Law: and they are not offended at it.

6 Lord I have looked for thy saving health: and done after thy Commandments.

7 My soul hath kept thy Testimonies: and loved them exceedingly.

8 I have kept thy Commandments and Testimonies: for all my wayes are before thee.

Appropinquet deprecatio.

LEt my complaint come before thee, O Lord: give mee understanding according to thy word.

2 Let my supplication come before thee: deliver mee according to thy word.

3 My lips shall speak of thy praise: when thou hast taught me thy Statutes.

4 Yea, my tongue shall sing of thy word: for all thy Commandments are righteous.

5 Let thine hand help mee: for I have chosen thy Commandments.

6 I have longed for thy saving health, O Lord: and in thy Law is my delight.

7 Oh let my soul live, and it shall praise thee: and thy Judgements shall help mee.

8 I have gone astray like a sheep that is lost: oh seek thy servant, for I do not forget thy Commandments.

Ad Dominum. Psal. 120.

Morning prayer.

WHen I was in trouble, I called upon the Lord: and he heard mee.

2 Deliver my soul, O Lord, from lying lips: and from a deceitfull tongue.

3 What reward shall be given or done unto thee thou false tongue: even mighty and sharp arrowes, with hot burning coals.

4 Woe is mee, that I am constrained to dwell with Mesech: and to have mine habitation among the tents of Cedar.

5 My soul hath long dwelt among them: that bee enemies unto peace.

6 I labour for peace, but when I speak unto them thereof: they make them ready to battell.

Levavi oculos. Psal. 121.

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills: from whence cometh my help.

2 My help cometh even from the Lord: which hath made heaven and earth.

3 He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: and he that keepeth thee will not sleep.

4 Behold, he that keepeth Israel: shall neither slumber nor sleep.

5 The Lord himself is thy keeper: the Lord is thy defence upon thy right hand.

6 So that the Sunne shall not burn thee by day: neither the Moon by night.

7 The Lord shall preserve thee from all evill: yea, it is even he that shall keep thy soul.

8 The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in: from this time forth for evermore.

Lætatus sum. Psal. 122.

I Was glad when they said unto mee: wee will go into the house of the Lord.

2 Our feet shall stand in thy gates: O Jerusalem.

3 Jerusalem is builded as a city: that is at unity in it self.

4 For thither the tribes go up, even the tribes of the Lord: to testifie unto Israel, to give thanks unto the Name of the Lord.

5 For there is the seat of Judgement: even the seat of the house of David.

6 O pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee.

7 Peace be within thy walls: and plentiousnesse within thy palaces.

8 For my brethen and companions sakes: I will wish thee prosperitie.

9 Yea, because of the house of the Lord our God: I will seeke to do thee good.

Ad te levavi oculos meos. 123.

UNto thee lift I up mine eyes: O thou that dwellest in the heavens,

2 Behold, even as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their masters, & as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistresse: even so our eyes wait upon the Lord our God, until he have mercie upon us.

3 Have mercie upon us, O Lord, have mercy upon us: for we are utterly despised.

4 Our soul is filled with the scornfull reproof of the wealthy: and with the despitefulnesse of the proud.

Nisi quia Dominus. Psal. 124.

IF the Lord himself had not been on our side (now may Israel say:) if the Lord himself had not been on our side when men rose up against us.

2 They had swallowed us up quick: when they were so wrathfully displeased at us.

3 Yea, the waters had drowned us: and the stream had gone over our soul.

4 The deep waters of the proud: had gone even over our soul.

5 But praised be the Lord: which hath not given us over for a prey unto their teeth.

6 Our soul is escaped, even as bird out of the snare of the fowler: the snare is broken, and we are delivered.

7 Our help standeth in the Name of the Lord: which hath made heaven and earth.

Qui confidunt. Psal. 125.

THey that put their trust in the Lord, shall be even as the mount Sion: which may not be removed, but standeth fast for ever.

2 The hils stand about Jerusalem: even so standeth the Lord round about his people, from this time forth for evermore.

3 For the rod of the ungodly cometh not into the lot of the righteous: lest the righteous put their hand unto wickednesse.

4 Do well, O Lord: unto those that be good and true of heart.

5 As for such as turn back unto their own wickedness: the Lord shall lead them forth with the evill doers, but peace shall be upon Israel.

In convertendo. Psal. 126.

WHen the Lord turned again the captivity of Sion: then were we like unto them that dream. Evening prayer.

2 Then was our mouth filled with laughter: and our tongue with joy.

3 Then said they among the heathen: The Lord hath done great things for them.

4 Yea, the Lord hath done great things for us already: whereof we rejoyce.

5 Turn our captivity, O Lord: as the rivers in the South.

6 They that sow in tears: shall reap in joy.

7 He that now goeth on his way weeping, and beareth forth good seed: shall doubtlesse come again with joy, and bring his sheaves with him.

Nisi Dominus. Psal. 127.

EXcept the Lord build the house: their labour is but lost that build it.

2 Except the Lord keep the Citie: the watchman waketh but in vain.

3 It is but lost labour that ye haste to rise up early, and so late take rest, and eat the bread of carefulnesse: for so he giveth his beloved sleep.

4 Lo, children and the fruit of the womb: are an heritage, and gift that cometh of the Lord.

5 Like as the arrows in the hand of the Gyant: even so are the young children.

6 Happy is the man that hath his quiver full of them: they shal not be ashamed when they speak with their enemies in the gate.

Beati omnes. Psal. 128.

BLessed are all they that fear the Lord: and walk in his wayes.

2 For

2 For thou shalt eat the labours of thine hands: O well is thee, and happy shalt thou be.

3 Thy wife shall be as the fruitfull vine: upon the walls of thine house.

4 Thy children like the Olive branches: round about thy table.

5 Lo, thus shall the man be blessed: that feareth the Lord.

6 The Lord from out of Sion shall so bless thee: that thou shalt see Jerusalem in prosperity all thy life long.

7 Yea, that thou shalt see thy childrens children: and peace upon Israel.

Sæpe expugnaverunt. Psal. 129.

MAny a time have they fought against me from my youth up: may Israel now say.

2 Yea, many a time have they vexed mee from my youth up: but they have not prevailed against mee.

3 The plowers plowed upon my back: and made long furrows.

4 But the righteous Lord: hath hewen the snares of the ungodly in pieces.

5 Let them be confounded and turned backward: as many as have evill will at Sion.

6 Let them be even as the grasse growing upon the house tops: which withereth afore it be plucked up.

7 Whereof the mower filleth not his hand: neither he that bindeth up the sheaves, his bosome.

8 So that they which go by, say not so much as the Lord prosper you: wee wish you good luck in the Name of the Lord.

De profundis. Psal. 130.

OUt of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord: Lord hear my voice.

2 Oh let thine eares consider well: the voice of my complaint.

3 If thou Lord wilt be extream to mark what is done amisse: O Lord, who may abide it.

4 For there is mercie with thee: therefore shalt thou be feared.

5 I look for the Lord, my soul doth wait for him: in his word is my trust.

6 My soul fleeth unto the Lord: before the morning watch, I say, before the morning watch.

7 O Israel, trust in the Lord, for with the Lord there is mercy: and with him is plenteous redemption.

8 And hee shall redeem Israel: from all his sinnes.

Domine, non est. Psal. 131.

LOrd, I am not high minded: I have no proud looks.

2 I do not exercise my self in great matters: which are too high for mee.

3 But I refrain my soul, and keep it low, like as a childe that is weaned from his mother: yea, my soul is even as a weaned childe.

4 O Israel trust in the Lord: from this time forth for evermore.

Memento, Domine. Psal. 132.

LOrd remember David: and all his trouble. Morning prayer.

2 How he sware unto the Lord: and vowed a vow unto the Almighty God of Jacob.

3 I will not come within the tabernacle of mine house: nor climbe up into my bed.

4 I will not suffer mine eyes to sleep, nor mine eyelids to slumber: neither the temples of my head to take any rest.

5 Untill I finde out a place for the Temple of the Lord: an habitation for the mighty God of Jacob.

6 Lo, we heard of the same at Ephrata: and found it in the wood.

7 Wee will go into his Tabernacle: and fall low on our knees before his foot-stool.

8 Arise,

8 Arise, O Lord, into thy resting place: thou and the Ark of thy strength.

9 Let thy Priests be clothed with righteousnesse: and let thy Saints sing with joyfulnesse.

10 For thy servant Davids sake: turn not away the presence of thine anointed.

11 The Lord hath made a faithfull oath unto David: he shall not shrink from it.

12 Of the fruit of thy body: shall I set upon thy seat.

13 If thy children will keep my Covenant and my Testimonies that I shall learn them: their children also shall sit upon thy seat for evermore.

14 For the Lord hath chosen Sion to be an habitation for himself: he hath longed for her.

15 This shall be my rest for ever: here will I dwell, for I have a delight therein.

16 I will blesse her victuals with increase: and will satisfie her poor with bread.

17 I will deck her Priests with health: & her Saints shall rejoyce and sing.

18 There shall I make the horn of David to flourish: I have ordained a lantern for mine anointed.

19 As for his enemies, I shal clothe them with shame: but upon himself shall his crown flourish.

Ecce quam bonum. Psal. 133.

BEhold how good and joyfull a thing it is: brethren to dwell together in unity.

2 It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down unto the beard: even unto Aarons beard, and went down to the skirts of his clothing.

3 Like as the dew of Hermon: which fell upon the hill of Sion.

4 For there the Lord promised his blessing: and life for evermore.

Ecce nunc. Pſal. 134.

BEhold (now) praiſe the Lord: all ye ſervants of the Lord.

2 Ye that by night ſtand in the houſe of the Lord: even in the Courts of the houſe of our God.

3 Lift up your hands in the Sanctuary: and praiſe the Lord.

4 The Lord that made heaven and earth: give thee bleſſing out of Sion.

Laudate nomen. Pſal. 135.

O Praiſe the Lord, laud yee the Name of the Lord: praiſe it, O ye ſervants of the Lord.

2 Ye that ſtand in the houſe of the Lord: in the Courts of the houſe of our God.

3 O praiſe the Lord, for the Lord is gracious: O ſing praiſes unto his Name, for it is lovely.

4 For why? the Lord hath choſen Jacob unto himſelf: and Iſrael for his own poſſeſſion.

5 For I know that the Lord is great: and that our Lord is above all gods.

6 Whatſoever the Lord pleaſed, that did he in heaven and in earth: and in the ſea, and in all deep places.

7 Hee bringeth forth the clouds from the ends of the world: and ſendeth forth lightnings with the rain, bringing the windes out of his treaſures.

8 He ſmote the firſt born of Egypt: both of man and beaſt.

9 Hee hath ſent tokens and wonders into the midſt of thee, O thou land of Egypt: upon Pharaoh and all his ſervants.

10 He ſmote divers nations: and ſlew mighty kings.

11 Sehon king of the Amorites, and Og the king of Baſan: and all the kingdomes of Canaan.

12 And gave their land to be an heritage: even an heritage unto Iſrael his people.

13 Thy Name, O Lord, endureth for ever: ſo doth thy thy memoriall, O Lord, from one generation to another.

14 For the Lord will avenge his people: and be gracious unto his servants.

15 As for the images of the heathen, they are but silver and gold: the work of mens hands.

16 They have mouthes and speak not: eyes have they, but they see not.

17 They have ears, and yet they hear not: neither is there any breath in their mouthes.

18 They that make them are like unto them: and so are all they that put their trust in them.

19 Praise the Lord ye house of Israel: praise the Lord ye house of Aaron.

20 Praise the Lord ye house of Levi: yee that fear the Lord, praise the Lord.

21 Praised be the Lord out of Sion: which dwelleth at Jerusalem.

Confitemini. Psal. 136.

Evening prayer.

O Give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for ever.

2 O give thanks unto the God of all gods: for his mercy endureth for ever.

3 O thank the Lord of all lords: for his mercy endureth for ever.

4 Which only doth great wonders: for his mercy endureth for ever.

5 Which by his excellent wisdom made the heavens: for his mercy endureth for ever.

6 Which laid out the earth above the waters: for his mercy endureth for ever.

7 Which hath made great lights: for his mercy endureth for ever.

8 The Sun to rule the day: for his mercy endureth for ever.

9 The

9 The moon and the ſtars to govern the night: for his mercy endureth for ever.

10 Which ſmote Egypt with their firſt borne: for his mercie endureth for ever.

11 And brought out Iſrael from among them: for his mercy endureth for ever.

12 With a mighty hand and a ſtretched out arm: for his mercy endureth for ever.

13 Which divided the red ſea in two parts: for his mercy endureth for ever.

14 And made Iſrael to go thorow the midſt of it: for his mercy endureth for ever.

15 But as for Pharaoh and his hoſt, hee overthrew them in the red ſea: for his mercy endureth for ever.

16 Which led his people thorow the wilderneſſe: for his mercy endureth for ever.

17 Which ſmote great kings: for his mercy endureth for ever.

18 Yea, and ſlew mighty kings: for his mercy endureth for ever.

19 Sehon king of the Amorites: for his mercy endureth for ever.

20 And Og the king of Baſan: for his mercy endureth for ever.

21 And gave away their land for an heritage: for his mercy endureth for ever.

22 Even for an heritage unto Iſrael his ſervant: for his mercy endureth for ever.

23 Which remembred us when wee were in trouble: for his mercy endureth for ever.

24 And hath delivered us from our enemies: for his mercy endureth for ever.

25 Which giveth food to all fleſh: for his mercy endureth for ever.

26 O give thanks unto the God of heaven: for his mercy endureth for ever.

27 O give thanks unto the Lord of lords: for his mercy endureth for ever.

Super flumina. Psal. 137.

BY the waters of Babylon wee sate down and wept: when wee remembred thee, O Sion.

2 As for our harps, wee hanged them up: upon the trees that are therein.

3 For they that led us away captive, required of us then a song and melody in our heavinesse: sing us one of the songs of Sion.

4 How shall wee sing the Lords song: in a strange land?

5 If I forget thee, O Jerusalem: let my right hand forget her cunning.

6 If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth: yea, if I prefer not Jerusalem in my mirth.

7 Remember the children of Edom, O Lord, in the day of Jerusalem: how they said, Down with it, down with it, even to the ground.

8 O daughter of Babylon wasted with misery: yea, happy shall hee be that rewardeth thee, as thou hast served us.

9 Blessed shall hee be that taketh thy children: and throweth them against the stones.

Confitebor tibi. Psal. 138.

I will give thanks unto thee, O Lord, with my whole heart: even before the gods will I sing praise unto thee.

2 I will worship toward thy holy Temple, and praise thy Name, because of thy loving kindnesse and truth: for thou hast magnified thy Name, and thy word above all things.

3 When I called upon thee thou heardest mee: and enduedst my soul with much strength.

4 All the kings of the earth shall praise thee, O Lord: for they have heard the words of thy mouth.

5 Yea, they shall sing in the wayes of the Lord: that great is the glory of the Lord.

6 For though the Lord be high, yet hath he respect unto the lowly: as for the proud, he beholdeth them afar off.

7 Though I walk in the middes of trouble, yet shalt thou refresh me: thou shalt stretch forth thine hand upon the furiousnesse of mine enemies, and thy right hand shall save me.

8 The Lord shall make good his loving kindnesse toward me: yea, thy mercy, O Lord, endureth for ever, despise not then the works of thine own hands.

Domine, probasti. Psal. 139.

O Lord, thou hast searched me out and known me: thou knowest my down sitting, and mine uprising, thou understandest my thoughts long before. Morning prayer.

2 Thou art about my path, and about my bed: and spiest out all my wayes.

3 For lo, there is not a word in my tongue: but thou, O Lord, knowest it altogether.

4 Thou hast fashioned me behinde and before: and laid thine hand upon me.

5 Such knowledge is too wonderfull and excellent for me: I cannot attain unto it.

6 Whither shall I go then from thy Spirit: or whither shall I go then from thy presence?

7 If I climbe up into heaven, thou art there: if I go down to hell, thou art there also.

8 If I take the wings of the morning: and remain in the uttermost parts of the Sea.

9 Even there also shall thy hand lead me: and thy right hand shall hold me.

10 If I say, Peradventure the darknesse shall cover me: then shall my night be turned to day.

11 Yea, the darkneſſe is no darkneſſe with thee, but the night is as clear as the day: the darkneſſe and light (to thee) are both alike.

12 For my reines are thine: thou haſt covered me in my mothers wombe.

13 I will give thanks unto thee, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvellous are thy workes, and that my ſoul knoweth right well.

14 My bones are not hid from thee: though I be made ſecretly, and faſhioned beneath in the earth.

15 Thine eyes did ſee my ſubſtance, yet being unperfect: and in thy booke were all my members written.

16 Which day by day were faſhioned: when as yet there was none of them.

17 How deare are thy counſels unto me, O God: O how great is the ſumme of them!

18 If I tell them, they are more in number then the ſand: when I wake up, I am preſent with thee.

19 Wilt thou not ſlay the wicked, O God: depart from me ye bloud-thirſty men.

20 For they ſpeake unrighteouſly againſt thee: and thine enemies take thy Name in vaine.

21 Do not I hate them, O Lord, that hate thee: and am not I grieved with thoſe that riſe up againſt thee?

22 Yea, I hate them right ſore: even as though they were mine enemies.

23 Try me, O God, and ſeek the ground of my heart: proove me, and examine my thoughts.

24 Looke well if there be any way of wickedneſſe in me: and lead me in the way everlaſting.

Eripe me, Domine. Pſal. 140.

DEliver me, O Lord, from the evill man: and preſerve me from the wicked man.

2 Which imagine miſchiefe in their hearts: and ſtirre up ſtrife all the day long.

3 They

3 They have sharpned their tongues like a serpent: Adders poison is under their lips.

4 Keep me, O Lord, from the hands of the ungodly: preserve me from the wicked men, which are purposed to overthrow my goings.

5 The proud have laid a snare for me, and spread a net abroad with cords: yea, and set traps in my way.

6 I said unto the Lord, Thou art my God: hear the voice of my prayers, O Lord.

7 O Lord God, thou strength of my health: thou hast covered my head in the day of battell.

8 Let not the ungodly have his desire, O Lord: let not his mischievous imagination prosper, lest they be too proud.

9 Let the mischief of their own lips fall upon the head of them: that compasse me about.

10 Let hot burning coals fall upon them: let them be cast into the fire, and into the pit, that they never rise up again.

11 A man full of words shall not prosper upon the earth: evill shall hunt the wicked person to overthrow him.

12 Sure I am that the Lord will avenge the poor: and maintain the cause of the helplesse.

13 The righteous also shall give thanks unto thy Name: and the just shall continue in thy sight.

Domine, clamavi. Psal. 141.

LOrd, I call upon thee, haste thee unto me: and consider my voice when I cry unto thee.

2 Let my prayer be set forth in thy sight, as the incense: and let the lifting up of my hands be an evening sacrifice.

3 Set a watch, O Lord, before my mouth: and keep the door of my lips.

4 O let not mine heart be enclined to any evill thing: let me not be occupied in ungodly works with the men that work wickednesse, lest I eat of such things as please them.

5 Let the righteous rather smite me friendly: and reprove me.

6 But let not their precious balms break mine head: yea, I will pray yet against their wickednesse.

7 Let their judges be overthrown in stony places: that they may hear my words, for they are sweet.

8 Our bones lie scattered before the pit: like as when one breaketh and heweth wood upon the earth.

9 But mine eyes look unto thee, O Lord God: in thee is my trust, O cast not out my soul.

10 Keep me from the snare that they have laid for me: and from the traps of the wicked doers.

11 Let the ungodly fall into their own nets together: and let me ever escape them.

Voce mea ad Dominum. Psal. 142.

I cryed unto the Lord with my voyce: yea, even unto the Lord did I make my supplication.

2 I poured out my complaints before him: and shewed him of my trouble.

3 When my spirit was in heavinesse, thou knewest my path: in the way wherein I walked, have they privily laid a snare for me.

4 I looked also upon my right hand: and saw there was no man that would know me.

5 I had no place to flee unto: and no man cared for my soul.

6 I cryed unto thee, O Lord, and said: Thou art my hope and my portion in the land of the living.

7 Consider my complaint: for I am brought very low.

8 O deliver me from my persecutors: for they are too strong for me.

9 Bring my soul out of prison, that I may give thanks thanks unto thy Name: which thing if thou wilt grant me, then shall the righteous resort unto my company.

Domine, exaudi. Psal. 143.

HEar my prayer, O Lord, and consider my desire: hearken unto me for thy truth & righteousnes sake.

2 And enter not into judgement with thy servant: for in thy sight shall no man living be justified.

3 For the enemy hath persecuted my soul, he hath smitten my life down to the ground: he hath laid me in the darknesse, as the men that have been long dead.

4 Therefore is my spirit vexed within me: and my heart within me is desolate.

5 Yet do I remember the time past, I muse upon all thy works: yea, I exercise my self in the works of thy hands.

6 I stretch forth my hands unto thee: my soul gaspeth unto thee as a thirsty land.

7 Hear me, O Lord, and that soon, for my spirit waxeth faint: hide not thy face from me, lest I be like unto them that go down into the pit.

8 O let me hear thy loving kindnesse betimes in the morning, for in thee is my trust: shew thou me the way that I should walk in, for I lift up my soul unto thee.

9 Deliver me, O Lord, from mine enemies: for I flee unto thee to hide me.

10 Teach me to do the thing that pleaseth thee, for thou art my God: let thy loving Spirit lead me forth into the land of righteousnesse.

11 Quicken me, O Lord, for thy Names sake: and for thy righteousnesse sake, bring my soul out of trouble.

12 And of thy goodnesse slay mine enemies: and destroy all them that vex my soul, for I am thy servant.

Benedictus Dominus. Psal. 144. Morning prayer.

BLessed be the Lord my strength: which teacheth my hands to war, and my fingers to fight.

2 My hope and my fortresse, my castle and deliverer.

liverer, my defender in whom I trust: which subdueth my people that is under me.

3 Lord, what is man that thou hast such respect unto him: or the son of man that thou so regardest him?

4 Man is like a thing of naught: his time passeth away like a shadow.

5 Bow thy heavens, O Lord, and come down: touch the mountains, and they shall smoak.

6 Cast forth thy lightning, and tear them: shoot out thine arrows, and consume them.

7 Send down thine hand from above: deliver me, and take me out of the great waters, from the hand of strange children.

8 Whose mouth talketh of vanity: and their right hand is a right hand of wickedness.

9 I will sing a new song unto thee, O God: and sing praises unto thee upon a ten stringed lute.

10 Thou hast given victory unto kings: and hast delivered David thy servant from the peril of the sword.

11 Save me, and deliver me from the hand of strange children: whose mouth talketh of vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of iniquity.

12 That our sons may grow up as the young plants: and that our daughters may be as the polished corners of the temple.

13 That our garners may be full and plenteous with all manner of store: that our sheep may bring forth thousands, and ten thousands in our streets.

14 That our oxen may be strong to labour, that there be no decay: no leading into captivity, and no complaining in our streets.

15 Happy are the people that be in such a case: yea, blessed are the people which have the Lord for their God.

Exaltabo te, Deus. Psal. 145.

I will magnifie thee, O God my king: and I will praise thy Name for ever and ever.

2 Every day will I give thanks unto thee: and praise thy Name for ever and ever.

3 Great is the Lord, and marvellous worthy to be praised: there is no end of his greatnesse.

4 One generation shall praise thy works unto another: and declare thy power.

5 As for me, I will be talking of thy worship: thy glory, thy praise, and wondrous works.

6 So that men shall speak of the might of thy marvellous acts: and I will also tell of thy greatnesse.

7 The memorial of thine abundant kindnesse shall be shewed: and men shall sing of thy righteousnesse.

8 The Lord is gracious and merciful: long suffering and of great goodnesse.

9 The Lord is loving unto every man: and his mercie is over all his works.

10 All thy works praise thee, O Lord: and thy saints give thanks unto thee.

11 They shew the glory of thy kingdom: and talk of thy power.

12 That thy power, thy glory, and mightinesse of thy kingdom: might be known unto men.

13 Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom: and thy dominion endureth throughout all ages.

14 The Lord upholdeth all such as fall: and lifteth up all those that be down.

15 The eyes of all wait upon thee, O Lord: and thou givest them their meat in due season.

16 Thou openest thine hand: and fillest all things living with plenteousnesse.

17 The Lord is righteous in all his wayes: and holy in all his works.

18 The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him: yea, all such as call upon him faithfully.

19 He will fulfill the desire of them that fear him: he also will hear their cry, and will help them.

20 The Lord preserveth all them that love him: but scattereth abroad all the ungodly.

21 My mouth shall speak the praise of the Lord: and let all flesh give thanks unto his holy Name for ever and ever.

Lauda, anima mea. Psal. 146.

PRaise the Lord, O my soul, while I live will I praise the Lord: yea, as long I have any being, I will sing praises unto my God.

2 O put not your trust in princes, nor in any childe of man: for there is no help in them.

3 For when the breath of man goeth forth, he shall turn again to his earth: and then all his thoughts perish.

4 Blessed is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help: and whose hope is in the Lord his God.

5 Which made heaven and earth, the sea and all that therein is: which keepeth his promise for ever.

6 Which helpeth them to right that suffer wrong: which feedeth the hungry.

7 The Lord looseth men out of prison: the Lord giveth sight to the blinde.

8 The Lord helpeth them that are fallen: the Lord careth for the righteous.

9 The Lord careth for the strangers, he defendeth the fatherlesse and widow: as for the way of the ungodly, he turneth it upside down.

10 The Lord thy God, O Sion, shall be king for evermore: and throughout all generations.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. 147.

O Praise the Lord, for it is a good thing to sing praises unto our God: yea, a joyfull and pleasant thing it is to be thankfull.

2 The Lord doth build up Jerusalem: and gather together the out-casts of Israel.

3 He healeth those that are broken in heart: and giueth medicine to heal their sicknesse.

4 He telleth the number of the starres: and calleth them all by their names.

5 Great is our Lord, and great is his power: yea, and his wisdom is infinite.

6 The Lord setteth up the meek: and bringeth the ungodly down to the ground.

7 O sing unto the Lord with thanksgiving: sing praises upon the harp unto our God.

8 Which couereth the heauen with clouds, and prepareth rain for the earth: and maketh the grasse to grow upon the mountains, and herb for the use of men.

9 Which giueth fodder unto the cattell: and feedeth the young rauens that call upon him.

10 He hath no pleasure in the strength of an horse: neither delighteth he in any mans legs.

11 But the Lords delight is in them that feare him: and put their trust in his mercy.

12 Prayse the Lord, O Jerusalem: prayse thy God, O Sion.

13 For he hath made fast the barres of thy gates: and hath blessed thy children within thee.

14 He maketh peace in thy borders: and filleth thee with the flour of wheat.

15 He sendeth forth his commandment upon earth: and his word runneth very swiftly.

16 He giueth snow like wooll: and scattereth the hoar frost like ashes.

17 He casteth forth his ice like morsels: who is able to abide his frost?

18 He sendeth out his word and melteth them: he bloweth with his winde, and the waters flow.

19 He sheweth his word unto Jacob: his statutes and ordinances unto Israel.

20 He hath not dealt so with any nation: neither haue the heathen knowledge of his lawes.

Laudate

Laudate Dominum. Psal. 148.

O Praise the Lord of heaven: praise him in the height.

2 Praise him all ye angels of his: praise him all his hoste.

3 Praise him sun and moon: praise him all ye starrs and light.

5 Praise him all ye heavens: and ye waters that be above the heavens.

5 Let them praise the Name of the Lord: for he spake the word, and they were made, he commanded, and they were created.

6 He hath made them fast for ever and ever: he hath given them a law which shall not be broken.

7 Praise the Lord upon earth: ye dragons and all deeps.

8 Fire and hail, snow and vapours: winde and storm fulfilling his word.

9 Mountains and all hills: fruitfull trees and all cedars.

10 Beasts and all cattell: worms, and feathered fowls.

11 Kings of the earth, and all people: princes and all Judges of the world.

12 Young men and maidens, old men and children, praise the Name of the Lord: for his Name onely is excellent, and his praise above heaven and earth.

13 He shall exalt the horn of his people, all his saints shall praise him: even the children of Israel, even the people that serveth him.

Cantate Domino. Psal. 149.

O Sing unto the Lord a new song: let the congregation of saints praise him.

2 Let Israel rejoyce in him that made him: and let the children of Sion be joyfull in their king.

3 Let them praise his Name in the dance: let them sing praises unto him with tabret and harp.

4 For the Lord hath pleasure in his people: and helpeth the meek hearted.

5 Let the saints be joyfull with glory: let them rejoyce in their beds.

6 Let the praises of God be in their mouth: and a two edged sword in their hands.

7 To be avenged of the heathen: and to rebuke the people.

8 To binde their kings in chains: and their nobles with links of iron.

9 That they may be avenged of them, as it is written: such honour have all his saints.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. 150.

O Praise God in his holinesse: praise him in the firmament of his power.

2 Praise him in his noble acts: praise him according to his excellent greatnesse.

3 Praise him in the sound of the trumpet: praise him upon the lute and harp.

4 Praise him in the cymbals and dances: praise him upon the strings and pipe.

5 Praise him upon the well tuned cymbals: praise him upon the loud cymbals.

6 Let every thing that hath breath: praise the Lord.

¶ The Service ſhall be the ſame with the uſual Office for Holidays in all things; Except where it is hereafter otherwiſe appointed.

¶ If this Day ſhall happen to be Sunday, only the Collect proper for that Sunday, ſhall be added to this Office in its place.

¶ Morning Prayer ſhall begin with theſe Sentences.

THe Lord is full of compaſſion and mercy: long-ſuffering, and of great goodneſs. Pſal. 103. 8.

He will not alway be chiding: neither keepeth he his anger for ever. verſ. 9.

He hath not dealt with us after our ſins: nor rewarded us according to our wickedneſſes. verſ. 10.

¶ Inſtead of Venite, exultemus, ſhall this Hymn following be uſed, one Verſe by the Prieſt, and another by the Clerk and People.

O Give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for ever. Pſ. 107. 1.

Let them give thanks whom the Lord hath redeemed: and delivered from the hand of the enemy. ver. 2.

Many a time have they fought againſt me from my youth up: may Iſrael now ſay. Pſal. 129. 1.

Yea, many a time have they vexed me from my youth up: but they have not prevailed againſt me. verſ. 2.

They have privily laid their net to deſtroy me without a cauſe: yea, even without a cauſe have they made a pit for my ſoul. Pſal. 35. 7.

They have laid a net for my feet, and preſſed down my ſoul: they have digged a pit before me, and are fallen into the midſt of it themſelves. Pſal. 57. 7.

Great is our Lord, and great is his power: yea, and his wiſdom is infinite. Pſal. 147. 5.

The Lord ſetteth up the meek: and bringeth the ungodly down to the ground. verſ. 6.

Let thy hand be upon the man of thy right hand: and upon the ſon of man whom thou madeſt ſo ſtrong for thine own ſelf. Pſal 80. 17.

And ſo will not we go back from thee: O let us live, and we ſhall call upon thy Name. verſ. 18.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

As it was in the beginning, &c.

Peo. Who putteth his truſt in thee.

Prieſt. Send him help from thy holy place.

Peop. And evermore mightily defend him.

Priest. Let his enemies have no advantage against him.

People. Let not the wicked approch to hurt him.

¶ Instead of the first Collect at Morning Prayer, shall these two be used.

ALmighty God, who hast in all ages shewed thy power and mercy in the miraculous and gracious deliverances of thy Church, and in the protection of righteous and religious Kings and States, professing thy holy and eternal truth, from the wicked Conspiracies, and malicious Practices of all the enemies thereof; We yield thee our unfeigned thanks and praise, for the wonderful and mighty deliverance of our late gracious Sovereign King James the first, the Queen, the Prince, and all the Royal Branches, with the Nobility, Clergy, and Commons of this Realm, then assembled in Parliament, by Popish Treachery appointed as sheep to the slaughter, in a most barbarous and savage manner, beyond the examples of former ages. From this unnatural Conspiracy, not our merit, but thy mercy; not our foresight, but thy providence delivered us: And therefore not unto us, O Lord, not unto us; but unto thy Name be ascribed all honour and glory in all Churches of the saints, from generation to generation, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ACcept also, most gracious God of our unfeigned thanks for filling our hearts again with joy and gladness, after the time that thou hast afflicted us, and putting a new song into our mouths, by bringing his Majesty, who now reigns over us, upon this Day, for the deliverance of our Church and Nation from Popish Tyranny and Arbitrary Power. We adore the wisdom and justice of thy providence, which so timely interposed in our extreme danger, and disappointed all the designs of our enemies. We beseech thee, give us such a lively and lasting sence of what thou didst then, and hast, since that time, done for us, that we may not grow secure & careless in our obedience, by presuming upon thy great and undeserved goodness; but that it may lead us to repentance, and move us to be the more diligent and zealous in all the duties of our Religion, which thou hast in a marvellous manner preserved to us. Let truth and justice, brotherly kindness and charity, devotion and piety, concord and unity, with all other virtues so flourish among us, that they may be the Stability of our Times, and make this Church a Praise in the earth. All which we humbly beg for the sake of our Blessed Lord and Saviour. Amen.

¶ In the end of the Litany (which shall always this Day be used) after the Collect [We humbly beseech thee, O Father, &c.] shall this be said which followeth.

ALmighty God and heavenly Father, who of thy gracious providence, and tender mercy towards us, didst prevent the malice and imaginations of our Enemies, by discovering and confounding their horrible & wicked Enterprise, plotted and intended this Day to be executed against the King, and the whole State of this Realm, for the Subversion of the Government, and Religion established among us; and didst likewise upon this Day wonderfully conduct thy servant our present King, and bring him safely into this Kingdom, to preserve us from the late Attempts of our Enemies to bereave us of our religion and Laws: We most humbly praise and and magnifie thy most glorious Name, for thy unspeakable goodness towards us expressed in both these Acts of thy mercy. We confess it has been of thy mercy alone, that we are not consumed: For our sins have cried to Heaven against us; and our iniquities justly called for vengeance upon us. But thou hast not dealt with us after our sins, nor rewarded us after our iniquities; nor given us over, as we deserved to be a prey to our Enemies: but hast in mercy delivered us from their malice, and preserved us from death and destruction. Let the consideration of this thy repeated goodness, O Lord, work in us true repentance, that iniquity may not be our ruine. And increase in us more and more a lively faith and love, fruitful in all holy obedience, that thou mayest still continue thy favour with the light of thy Gospel to us and our posterity for evermore; and that for thy dear Sons sake Jesus Christ our only Mediatour and Advocate. Amen.

¶ Instead of the Prayer [In time of War and Tumults] shall be used this Prayer following.

O Lord, who didst this day discover the snares of death that were laid for us, and didst wonderfully deliver us from the same; Be thou still our mighty Protectour, and scatter our enemies that delight in bloud. Infatuate and defeat their Counsels, abate their Pride, asswage their Malice, and confound their Devices. Strengthen the hands of our gracious Sovereign King WILLIAM, and all that are put in Authority under him, with Judgment and Justice, to cut off all such workers of iniquity, as turn Religion into Rebellion, and Faith into Faction; that they may never prevail against us, or triumph in the ruine of thy Church among us: But that our gracious Sovereign and his Realms being preserved in thy true Religion, and by thy merciful goodness protected in the same, we may all duly serve thee, and give thee thanks in thy holy Congregation, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ In the Communion Service, instead of the Collect for the day, shall this which followeth be used.

ETernal God, and our most mighty Protectour, we thy unworthy Servants do humbly present our selves before thy Majesty, acknowledging thy Power, Wisdom and Goodness in preserving the King, and the three Estates of this Realm assembled in Parliament, from the Destruction this Day intended against them. Make us, we beseech thee, truly thankful for this, and for all other thy great Mercies towards us; particularly for making this Day again Memorable, by a fresh Instance of thy Loving-kindness towards us. We bless thee for giving his Majesty, that now is, a safe Arrival here, and for making all Opposition fall before him, till he became our King and Governour. Continue, we beseech thee, to Protect and Defend him, the Queen, and all the Royal Family, from all Treasons and Conspiracies; Preserve him in thy Faith, Fear and Love; Prosper his Reign with long happiness here on Earth, and Crown him with everlasting Glory hereafter, through Jesus Christ our only Saviour and Redeemer. Amen.

The Epistle. Rom. 13. 1.

LEt every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be, are ordained of God. Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist, shall receive to themselves damnation. For rulers are not a terrour to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same: For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil. Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake. For for this cause pay you tribute also: for they are Gods ministers, attending continually upon this very thing. Render therefore to all their dues; tribute to whom tribute is due, custom to whom custom, fear to whom fear, honour to whom honour.

The Gospel. S. Luke 9. 51.

AND it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem, And sent messengers before his face: and they went and entred into a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him. And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem. And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, will thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elias did? But he turned and rebuked them and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of. For the Son of man is not come to destroy mens lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

¶ After the Creed if there be no Sermon, shall be read one of the six Homilies against Rebellion.

¶ This Sentence is to be read at the Offertory.

WHatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them; for this is the law and the prophets. S. Matth. 7. 12.

¶ After the Prayer for the Church Militant, this following Prayer is to be used

O God, whose Name is excellent in all the Earth, and thy Glory above the heavens; who, on this day, didst miraculously preserve our Church and State from the secret contrivance, and hellish Malice of Popish Conspirators; and on this day also didst begin to give us a mighty Deliverance from the open Tyranny and oppression of the same Cruel and Blood thirsty enemies: We bless and adore thy glorious Majesty, as for the former, so for this thy late marvellous Loving kindness to our Church and Nation in the preservation of our Religion and Liberties. And we humbly pray, that the devout Sence of this thy repeated Mercy may renew and increase in us a Spirit of Love and Thankfulness to thee its only Author; a Spirit of peaceable Submission and Obedience to our Gracious Sovereign, whom thou madest the blessed Instrument of it; and a Spirit of fervent zeal for our holy Religion, which now again thou hast so wonderfully Rescued and Established a blessing to us, and our posterity. And this we beg for Jesus Christ his sake. Amen.

A Form

A Form of Prayer with Fasting, to be us'd Yearly upon the Thirtieth of January, being the Day of the Martyrdom of the Blessed King Charles the First: To Implore the Mercy of God, That neither the Guilt of that Sacred and innocent Blood, nor those other Sins, by which God was provoked to deliver up both us, and our King into the hands of cruel and unreasonable Men, may at any time hereafter be visited upon us, or our Posterity.

¶ If this day shall happen to be Sunday this Form of Prayer shall be used, and the Fast kept the next Day following. And upon the Lords Day next before the Day to be kept, at Morning Prayer immediately after the Nicene Creed, Notice shall be given for the due observation of the said Day.

¶ The Service on the Day shall be the same with the usual Office for Holydays in all things: Except where it is in this Office otherwise appointed.

The Order for Morning Prayer.

¶ He that Ministreth, shall begin with one, or more of these Sentences.

TO the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him: neither have we obeyed the voice of the Lord our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us. Dan. 9. 9, 10.

Correct us, O Lord, but with judgment; not in thine anger: lest thou bring us to nothing. Jer. 10. 24.

Enter not into judgment with thy servants, O Lord: for in thy sight shall no man living be justified. Psal. 143. 2.

¶ Instead of Venite exultemus, the Hymn following shall be said or sung; one Verse by the Priest, another by the Clerk and People.

RIghteous art thou, O Lord: and just are thy judgments. Psal. 119. 137.

Thou art just, O Lord, in all that is brought upon us: for thou hast done Right, but we have done wickedly. Neh. 9. 33.

Nevertheless my feet were almost gone: my treadings had well nigh slipt. Psal. 73. 2.

For why? I was grieved at the wicked: I did also see the ungodly in such prosperity. verf. 3.

The people stood up, and the rulers took counsel together: against the Lord, and against his Anointed. Psal. 2. 2.

They cast their heads together with one consent: and were confederate against him. Psal. 83. 5.

He heard the blasphemy of the multitude, and fear was on every side: while they conspir'd together against him, to take away his life. Psal. 31. 15.

They spoke against him with false tongues, and compast him about with words of hatred: and fought against him without a cause. Psal. 109 2.

Yea, his own familiar friends whom he trusted: they that eat of his bread, laid great wait for him. Psal. 41. 9.

They rewarded him evil for good: to the great discomfort of his soul. Psal. 35. 12.

They took their Counsel together, saying, God hath forsaken him: persecute him, and take him, for there is none to deliver him. Psal. 71. 9.

The Breath of our nostrils, the Anointed of the Lord was taken in their pits: of whom we said, Under his shadow we shall be safe. Lam. 4. 20.

The Adversary and the Enemy enter'd into the gates of Jerusalem; saying, When shall he die, and his Name perish? vers. 12. Psal. 41. 5.

Let the Sentence of guiltiness proceed against him: and now that he lieth, let him rise up no more. ver. 8.

False witnesses also did rise up against him: they laid to his charge things, that he knew not. Psal. 35. 11.

For the sins of the People, and the iniquities of the Priests: they shed the blood of the just in the midst of Jerusalem. Lam. 4. 13.

O my soul, come not thou into their secret; unto their Assembly, mine Honour, be not thou united: for in their anger they slew a man. Gen. 49. 6.

Even the man of thy right hand: the Son of Man, whom thou hadst made so strong for thine own self. Ps. 80. 17.

In the sight of the unwise he seemed to die: and his departure was taken for misery. Wisd. 3. 2.

They fools counted his life madness, and his end to be without honour: But he is in peace. wisd. 5. 4. 3. 3.

For though he was punished in the sight of men: yet was his hope full of immortality. Wisd. 3. 4.

How is he numbred with the children of God and his lot is among the saints! Wisd. 55.

But, O Lord God, to whom vengeance belongeth, thou God to whom vengeance belongeth: be favourable and gracious unto Sion. Psal. 94. 1. Ps. 51. 18.

Be merciful, O Lord, unto thy people, whom thou hast redeemed: and lay not innocent bloud to our charge. Deut. 21. 8.

O shut not up our souls with sinners: nor our lives with the bloodthirsty. Psal. 26. 9.

Deliver us from blood-guiltiness, O God, thou that art the God of our salvation: & our tongues shall sing of thy righteousness. Psal. 51. 14.

For thou art the God, that hast no pleasure in Wickedness: neither shall any evil dwell with thee. Psal. 5. 4.

Thou wilt destroy them that speak leasing: the Lord abhors both the blood-thirsty, and deceitful man. vers. 6.

O how suddenly do they consume: perish, and come to a fearful end! Psal. 73. 18.

Yea, even like as a dream, when one awaketh: so didst thou make their image to vanish out of the city. vers. 19.

Great and marvellous are thy works, O Lord God Almighty: just, and true are thy ways, O King of Saints! Apoc. 15. 3.

Righteous art thou, O Lord: and just are thy judgments! Psal. 119. 137.

Glory be to the Father, &c.
As it was in the beginning, &c.

¶ Instead of the first Collect at Morning Prayer, shall these two, which next follow, be used.

O Most mighty God, terrible in thy judgments, and wonderful in thy doings toward the children dren of men; who in thy heavy displeasure didst suffer the life of our late gracious Sovereign King Charles the first to be (as) this day taken away by the hands of cruel and bloudy men: We thy sinful creatures here assembled before thee, do in the behalf of all the people of this land, humbly confess, That they were the crying sins of this Nation, which brought down this heavy judgment upon us. But O Gracious God, when thou makest inquisition for bloud, lay not the guilt of this innocent bloud (the shedding whereof nothing but the bloud of thy Son can expiate) lay it not to the charge of the people of this land; nor let it ever be required of us, or our posterity. Be merciful, O Lord, be merciful unto thy people, whom thou hast redeemed; and be not angry with us for ever: But pardon us for thy mercies sake, through the merits of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

BLessed Lord, in whose sight the death of thy saints is precious; We magnifie thy Name for thine abundant grace bestowed on our late martyred Sovereign; by which he was enabled so cheerfully to follow the steps of his blessed Master and Saviour, in a constant meek suffering of all barbarous indignities, and at last resisting unto bloud; and even then according to the same pattern, praying for his murderers. Let his memory, O Lord, be ever blessed among us; that we may follow the example of his courage, and constancy, his meekness, and patience, and great charity. And grant, that this our land may be freed from the vengeance of his righteous bloud, and thy mercy glorified in the forgiveness of our sins; and all for Jesus Christ his sake our only Mediatour and Advocate. Amen.

¶ In the end of the Litany (which shall always on this day be used) immediately after the Collect, [We humbly beseech thee, O Father, &c.] the three Collects next following are to be read.

O Lord, we beseech thee mercifully hear our prayers, and spare all those who confess their sins unto thee, that they whose consciencies by sin are accused, by thy merciful pardon may be absolved, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Most mighty God, and merciful Father, who hast compassion upon all men, and hatest nothing that thou hast made, who wouldest not the death of a sinner, but that he should rather turn from his sin and be saved; Mercifully forgive us our trespasses; receive and comfort us, who are grieved and wearied with the burden of our sins. Thy property is always to have mercy; to thee only it appertaineth to forgive sins. Spare us therefore, good Lord, spare thy people, whom thou hast redeemed; enter not into judgment with thy servants, who are vile earth and miserable sinners; but so turn thine anger from us, who meekly acknowledge our vileness, and truly repent us of our faults; and so make haste to help us in this world, that we may ever live with thee in the world to come, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

TUrn thou us, O good Lord, and so shall we be turned. Be favourable, O Lord, Be favourable to thy people, Who turn to thee in weeping, fasting, and praying. For thou art a merciful God, Full of compassion, Long-suffering and of great pity. Thou sparest when we deserve punishment,

And in thy wrath thinkeſt upon mercy. Spare thy people, good Lord, ſpare them, And let not thine heritage be brought to confuſion. Hear us, O Lord, for thy mercy is great, And after the multitude of thy mercies look upon us, Through the merits and mediation of thy bleſſed Son Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

¶ In the Communion Service after the Prayer for the King, [Almighty God whoſe kingdom is everlaſting, &c.] inſtead of the Collect for the Day, ſhall theſe two be uſed.

O moſt mighty God, &c. / Bleſſed Lord, in whoſe ſight, &c. } As in the Morning Prayers.

The Epiſtle. 1 S. Pet. 2. 13.

SUbmit your ſelves to every ordinance of man for the Lords ſake; whether it be to the King as ſupreme; or unto governours, as unto them that are ſent by him, for the puniſhment of evil doers, and for the praiſe of them that do well. For ſo is the will of God, that with well-doing, ye may put to ſilence the ignorance of fooliſh men: As free, and not uſing your liberty for a cloke of maliciouſneſs, but as the ſervants of God. Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the King. Servants be ſubject to your maſters with all fear, not only to the good and gentle, but alſo to the froward. For this is thankworthy, if a man for conſcience toward God endure grief, ſuffering wrongfully. For what glory is it, if when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye ſhall take it patiently? but if when ye do well, and ſuffer for it, ye take it patiently; this is acceptable with God. For even hereunto were ye called; becauſe Chriſt alſo ſuffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye ſhould follow his ſteps; who did no ſin, neither was guile found in his mouth.

The Goſpel. S. Matth. 21. 33.

THere was a certain houſholder which planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and digged a wine-preſs in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far countrey. And when the time of the fruit drew near, he ſent his ſervants to the husbandmen, that they might receive the fruits of it. And the husbandmen took his ſervants, and beat one, and killed another, and ſtoned another. Again, he ſent other ſervants, more then the firſt: and they did unto them likewiſe. But laſt of all, he ſent unto them his ſon, ſaying, they will reverence my ſon. But when the husbandmen ſaw the ſon, they ſaid among themſelves, This is the heir, come, let us kill him, and let us ſeize on his inheritance. And they caught him, and caſt him out of the vineyard, and ſlew him. When the Lord therefore of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto thoſe husbandmen? They ſay unto him, He will miſerably deſtroy thoſe wicked men, and will let out his vineyard unto other husbandmen, which ſhall render him the fruits in their ſeaſons.

¶ After the Nicene Creed, ſhall be read inſtead of the Sermon for that day, the firſt and ſecond parts of the Homily againſt Diſobedience and wilful Rebellion, ſet forth by Authority; or the Miniſter who officiates, ſhall preach a Sermon of his own compoſing upon the ſame argument.

¶ In the Offertory ſhall this Sentence be read.

Whatſoever ye would that men ſhould do unto you, even ſo do unto them; for this is the law and the prophets. S. Matth. 7. 12.

¶ After

¶ After the Prayer, [For the whole State of Christs Church, &c.] these two Collects following shall be used.

O Lord, our heavenly Father, who didst not punish us, as our sins have deserved, but hast in the midst of judgment remembred mercy; We acknowledge it thine especial favour, that though for our many and great provocations, thou didst suffer thine Anointed blessed King Charles the First (as) this day to fall into the hands of violent, and bloud-thirsty men, and barbarously to be murdered by them; yet thou didst not leave us for ever, as sheep without a shepherd, but by thy gracious providence didst miraculously preserve the undoubted Heir of his Crowns, our then gracious Sovereign King Charles the second from his bloudy enemies, hiding him under the shadow of thy wings, until their tyranny was overpast; and didst bring him back, in thy good appointed time, to sit upon the throne of his Father; and, together with the Royal Family, didst restore to us our ancient Government in Church and State. For these thy great and unspeakable mercies, we render to thee our most humble thanks from the bottom of our hearts; beseeching thee, still to continue thy gracious protection over the whole Royal Family, and to grant to our gracious Sovereign, King WILLIAM a long, and a happy Reign over us: So we, that are thy people, will give thee thanks for ever, and will alway be shewing forth thy praise from generation to generation, through Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

And grant, O Lord, we beseech thee, that the course of this world may be so peaceably ordered by thy governance, that thy Church may joyfully serve thee in all godly quietness, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Blessed Lord God, who by thy wisdom not only guidest, and orderest all things most suitably to thine own justice; but also performest thy pleasure in such a manner, that we cannot but acknowledge thee to be righteous in all thy ways, and holy in all thy works: We thy sinful people do here fall down before thee, confessing that thy judgments were right, in permitting cruel men, sons of Belial, as this day, to imbrue their hands in the bloud of thine Anointed; we having drawn down the same upon our selves, by the great and long provocations of our sins against thee. For which we do therefore here humble our selves before thee; imploring thy mercy for the pardon of them all: and that thou wouldst deliver this Nation from bloud-guiltiness, (that of this day especially) and turn from us and our posterity all those judgments which we by our sins have deserved: Grant this for the all-sufficient merits of thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

BLessed God, just and powerful, who didst permit thy dear Servant, our late dread Sovereign King Charles the First, to be as upon this day given up to the violent outrages of wicked men, to be despitefully used, and at last murdered by them: Though we cannot reflect upon so foul an Act, but with horrour and astonishment; yet do we most gratefully commemorate the glories of thy grace which then shined forth in thine Anointed; whom thou wert pleas'd, even at the hour of death to endue with an eminent measure of exemplary patience, meekness, and charity, before the face of his cruel enemies. And albeit thou didst suffer them to proceed to such an height of violence as to kill him, and to take possession of his Throne; yet didst thou in great mercy preserve his Son, whose right it was, and at length by a wonderful providence bring him back, and set him thereon, to restore thy true Religion, and to settle peace among us: For which we glorifie thy Name, through Jesus Christ, our blessed Saviour. Amen.

ALmighty & everlasting God, whose righteousness is like the strong mountains, and thy judgments like the great deep; and who by that barbarous murder, as upon this day committed upon the Sacred Person of thine Anointed, hast taught us, that neither the greatest of kings, nor the best of men, are more secure from violence then from natural death; Teach us also hereby so to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom. And grant that neither the splendour of any thing that is great, nor the conceit of any thing that is good in us, may any ways withdraw our eyes from looking upon our selves as sinful dust and ashes; but that according to the example of this thy blessed Martyr, we may press forward toward the prize of the high calling that is before us, in faith and patience, humility and meekness, mortification and self-denial, charity and constant perseverance unto the end: And all this for thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ his sake; To whom with thee and the holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

A Form

A Form of Prayer with Thankſgiving to Almighty God, for having put an end to the great Rebellion by the Reſtitution of the King and Royal Family, and the Reſtauration of the Government after many years Interruption: Which unſpeakable Mercies were wonderfully compleated upon the Twenty ninth of May, in the Year 1660. And in memory thereof, that Day in every Year is by Act of Parliament appointed to be for ever kept holy.

THE Act of Parliament made in the Twelfth, and confirmed in the Thirteenth Year of King Charles the Second, for the obſervation of the Twenty ninth day of May yearly, as a Day of publick Thankſgiving, is to be read publickly in all Churches at Morning Prayer, immediately after the Nicene Creed on the Lords Day next before every ſuch Twenty ninth of May, and notice to be given for the due obſervation of the ſaid Day.

The Service ſhall be the ſame with the uſual Office for Holy-days; except where it is in this Office otherwiſe appointed.

¶ If this day ſhall happen to be Aſcenſion-day, or Whitſunday, the Collects of this Office are to be added to the Offices of thoſe Feſtivals in their proper places: And if Munday or Tueſday in Whitſun-week, or Trinity Sunday, the proper Pſalms here appointed for this Day, inſtead of thoſe of ordinary courſe, ſhall be alſo uſed, and the Collects added as before; And in all theſe caſes the reſt of this Office ſhall be omitted: But if it ſhall happen to be any other Sunday, this whole Office ſhall be uſed, as it followeth entirely. And what Feſtival ſoever ſhall happen to fall upon this ſolemn Day of Thankſgiving, the following Hymn appointed inſtead of Venite exultemus, ſhall be conſtantly uſed.

¶ Morning Prayer ſhall begin with theſe Sentences.

TO the Lord our God belong mercies and forgiveneſſes, though we have rebelled againſt him: neither have we obeyed the voice of the Lord our God, to walk in his laws which he ſet before us. Dan. ix. 9, 10.

It is of the Lords mercies that we were not conſumed: becauſe his compaſſions fail not. Lam. iii. 22.

O Almighty God, who art a ſtrong tower of defence unto thy ſervants againſt the face of their enemies; We yield thee praiſe and thanks, for the wonderful deliverance of theſe Three Kingdoms from THE GREAT REBELLION, and all the Miſeries and Oppreſſions conſequent thereupon, under which they had ſo long groan'd. We acknowledge it thy Goodneſs, that we were not utterly delivered over as a prey unto them; Beſeeching thee ſtill to continue ſuch thy Mercies towards us; that all the world may know, that thou art our Saviour and mighty deliverer through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

O Lord God of our ſalvation, who haſt been exceedingly gracious unto this land, and by thy miraculous Providence didſt deliver us out of our miſerable confuſions, by reſtoring to us, and to his own juſt and undoubted Rights, our then moſt gracious Sovereign Lord, thy Servant King Charles the Second, (notwithſtanding all the power and malice of his enemies) and by placing him in the Throne of this kingdom; thereby reſtoring alſo unto us the publick and free profeſſion of thy true Religion and Worſhip, together with our former peace and proſperity, to the great comfort and joy of our hearts: We are here now before thee, with all due thankfulneſs, to acknowledge thine unſpeakable Goodneſs herein, as upon this day, ſhewed unto us, and to offer up our ſacrifice of praiſe for the ſame, unto thy great and glorious Name; humbly beſeeching thee to accept this our unfeigned though unworthy oblation of our ſelves: Vowing all holy Obedience in Thought, Word and Work unto thy divine Majeſty; and promiſing in thee and for thee all loyal and dutiful Allegiance to thine Anointed Servant now ſet over us, and to his Heirs after him: Whom we beſeech seech thee to bless with all increase of Grace, Honour and Happiness in this world, and to crown him with Immortality and Glory in the world to come, for Jesus Christ his sake, our only Lord and Saviour. Amen.

¶ In the end of the Litany (which shall always this day be used) after the Collect, [We humbly beseech thee, O Father, &c.] shall this be said which next followeth.

ALmighty God, who hast in all ages shew'd forth thy power and mercy in the miraculous and gracious Deliverances of thy Church, and in the Protection of righteous and religious Kings and States, professing thy holy and eternal Truth, from the malicious conspiracies and wicked practices of all their enemies: We yield unto thee from the very bottom of our hearts unfeigned thanks and praise, as for thy many great and publick Mercies, so especially for that signal and wonderful Deliverance by thy wise and good providence, as upon this day, compleated and vouchsafed to our then most gracious Sovereign King Charles the Second, and all the Royal Family: And in them and with them to this whole Church and State, and all Orders and Degrees of men in both, from the unnatural Rebellion, Usurpation and Tyranny of ungodly and cruel men, and from the sad confusions and ruine thereupon ensuing. From all these, O gracious, and merciful Lord God, not our merit, but thy mercy; Not our foresight, but thy providence; Not our own arm, but thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy Countenance did rescue and deliver us; even because thou hadst a favour unto us. And therefore not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto thy Name be ascribed all Honour, Glory and Praise, with most humble and hearty thanks, in all Churches of the Saints: Even so, blessed be the Lord our God, who alone doth wondrous things; And blessed be the Name of his Majesty for ever, through Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

¶ After the Prayer [For the whole are of Christs Church, &c.,] this Collect following shall be used.

ALmighty God and heavenly Father, who of thine infinite and unspeakable goodness towards us, didst in a most extraordinary and wonderful manner disappoint and overthrow the wicked Designs of those traiterous, heady & high minded men, who under the pretence of Religion, and thy most holy Name, had contrived, and well nigh effected the utter destruction of this Church and Kingdom: As we do this day most heartily and devoutly adore and magnifie thy glorious Name for this thine infinite gracious goodness already vouchsafed to us; so we most humbly beseech thee to continue thy grace and favour towards us; hiding and covering us under the shadow of thy wings, that no such dismal calamity may ever again fall upon us. To this end send forth thy light and thy truth, for the discovery of these depths of Satan, this mystery of iniquity. Infatuate and defeat all the secret counsels of the ungodly. Abate their pride, asswage their malice, and confound their devices. Strengthen the hands of our gracious Sovereign King William, and all that are put in Authority under him, with Judgment and Justice, to cut off all such workers of iniquity, as turn Religion into Rebellion, and Faith into Faction; that they may never again prevail against us, nor triumph in the ruine of the Monarchy and thy Church amongst us. Protect and defend our Sovereign Lord the King, with the whole Royal Family from all Treasons & Conspiracies. Be unto him an helmet of Salvation, and a strong Tower of Defence against the face of all his enemies. As for those that are implacable, clothe them with shame & confusion, but upon himself and his posterity let the Crown for ever flourish. So we that are thy people and the sheep of thy Pasture shall give thee thanks for ever, and will always be shewing forth thy praise from generation, to generation, thro Jesus Christ our only Saviour and Redeemer; to whom with thee, O Father, and God the holy Ghost, be glory in the Church throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

Certain godly prayers to be used for sundry purposes.

¶ A prayer necessary for all persons.

MOst mercifull God, I a wretched sinner acknowledge my self bound to keep thy holy Commandments, but yet unable to perform them, and to be accepted for just without the righteousnesse of Jesus Christ thy onely Sonne, who hath perfectly fulfilled thy Law, to justifie all them that beleeve & trust in him. Therefore grant me grace, I beseech thee, to be occupied in doing of good works, which thou commandest in holy Scripture, all the dayes of my life to thy glory, and yet to trust onely in thy mercy, and in Christs merits, to be purged from my sinnes, and not in my good works, be they never so many. Give me grace to love thy word fervently, to search the Scriptures diligently, to read them humbly, to understand them truly, to live after them effectually. Order my life so, O Lord, that it may be alway acceptable unto thee. Give me grace, not to rejoyce in any thing that displeaseth thee, be they never so contrary to my desires. Teach me so to pray, that my petitions may be graciously heard of thee. Keep me upright among diversities of opinions and judgements in the world, that I never swerve from thy truth taught in holy Scripture. In prosperity, O Lord save me, that I wax not proud. In adversity help me me that I neither despair nor blaspheme thy holy Name, but taking it patiently, to give thee thanks, and trust to be delivered after thy pleasure. When I happen to fall into sinne through frailty, I beseech thee to work true repentance in my heart, that I may be sorry without desperation, trust in thy mercie without presumption, that I may amend my life, and become truly religious without hypocrisie, lowly in heart without fayning, faithfull and trusty without deceit, merry without lightnesse, sad without mistrust, sober without slothfulnesse, content with mine own without covetousnesse, to tell my neighbour his fault charitably without dissimulation, to instruct mine houshold in thy Lawes truly, to obey our King and all Governours under him unfaynedly, to receive all Lawes and common ordinances (which disagree not from thy holy word) obediently, to pay every man that which I owe unto him truly; to backbite no man, nor slander my neighbour secretly, and to abhorre all vice, loving all goodnesse earnestly, O Lord, grant me this to do, for the glory of thy holy Name, Amen.

A prayer necessary to be said at all times.

O Bountifull Jesu, O sweet Saviour. O Christ the Sonne of God, have pitie upon me, mercifully hear me, and despise not my prayer. Thou hast created me of nothing, thou hast redeemed me from the bondage of sinne, death and hell, neither with gold, nor silver, but with thy most precious body once offered upon the Crosse, and thine own blood once shed for all my ransome. Therefore cast me not away, whom thou by thy great wisdom hast made: despise me not whom thou hast redeemed with such a precious treasure: nor let my wickednesse destroy that which thy goodnes hath builded. Now whiles I live, O Jesu, have mercie on me, for if I die out of thy favour, it will be too late afterward to call for thy mercie: whiles I have time to repent, look upon me with thy mercifull eyes, as thou diddest vouchsafe to look upon Peter thine Apostle, that I may bewail my sinfull life, and obtain thy favour and die therein. I acknowledge that if thou shouldest deal with me according to very justice, I have deserved everlasting death. Therefore I appeale to thy high Throne of mercy, trusting to obtain Gods favour, not for my merits, but for thy merits, O Jesu, who hast given thy self an acceptable sacrifice to thy Father, to appease his wrath, and to bring all sinners, truly repenting and amending their sinfull life, into his favour again. Accept me, O Lord, among the number of them that shall be saved, forgive me my sinnes, give me grace to lead a godly and innocent life, grant me thy heavenly wisdom, inspire my heart with Faith, hope and charitie, give me grace to be humble in prosperitie, patient in adversitie, obedient to my rulers, faithfull unto them that trust me, dealing truly with all men, to live chastly in wedlock, to abhorre adultery, fornication, and all uncleannesse, to do good after my power unto all men, to hurt no man, that thy Name may be glorified in me during this present life, and that I afterward may obtain everlasting life, through thy mercy and the merits of thy passion, Amen.

for

¶ A generall Confession of sinnes to be said every morning.

O Almighty God, our heavenly Father, I confesse and acknowledge, that I am a miserable and wretched sinner, and have manifold wayes most grievously transgressed thy most godly Commandments, through wicked thoughts, ungodly lusts, sinfull words and and deeds, committed all my whole life. In sinne am I borne and conceived, and there is no goodnesse in me, in as much as if thou shouldest enter into thy narrow judgement with me, judging me accroding unto the same, I were never able to suffer and abide it, but must needs perish and be damned for ever: So little help, comfort, or succour is there either in me, or in any other creature. Onely this is my comfort (O heavenly Father) that thou didst not spare thy onely dear beloved Sonne, but diddest give him up unto the most bitter, and most vile and slanderous death of the Crosse for me: that he might so pay the ransome for my sinnes, satisfie thy judgement, still and pacifie thy wrath, reconcile me again unto thee, and purchase me thy grace and favour, and everlasting life. Wherefore through the merit of his most bitter death and passion, and through his innocent blood-shedding, I beseech thee, O heavenly Father, that thou wilt vouchsafe to be gracious and mercifull unto me, to forgive and pardon me all my sinnes, to lighten my heart with thy holy Spirit, to renew, confirm and strengthen me with a right and perfect faith, and to inflame me in love toward thee and my neighbour, that I may henceforth with a willing and glad heart walk as becometh me in thy most godly Commandments, and so glorifie and praise thee everlastingly. And also that I may with a free conscience, and quiet heart, in all manner of temptations, afflictions, or necessities, and even in the very pangs of death cry boldly and merrily unto thee, and say, I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, &c. But, O Lord God heavenly Father, to comfort my self in affliction, and temptation, with these Articles of the Christian faith, it is not in my power, for faith is thy gift: and forasmuch as thou wilt be prayed unto, and called upon for it, I come unto thee to pray and beseech thee, thee both for that, and for all other my necessities, even as thy dear beloved Sonne our Saviour Jesus Christ himself hath taught us. And from the very bottom of my heart I crie, and say, Our father which art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,&c.

¶ A prayer to be said in the morning.

O Mercifull Lord God, heavenly Father, I render most high lauds, praise and thanks unto thee, that thou hast preserved me both this night, and all the times and dayes of my life hitherto, under thy protection, and hast suffered me to live unto this present hour. And I beseech thee heartily, that thou wilt vouchsafe to receive me this day, and the residue of my whole life from henceforth into thy tuition, ruling and governing me with thy holy Spirit, that all manner of darknesse, of mis-belief, infidelity, and of carnall lusts and affections, may be utterly chased and driven out of my heart, and that I may be justified and saved both body and soul, through a right and perfect faith, and so walk in the light of thy most godly truth, to thy glory and praise, and to the profit and furtherance of my neighbour, through Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

All possible thanks that we are able, we render unto thee, O Lord Jesus Christ, for that thou hast willed this night past to be prosperous unto us: and we beseech thee likewise to prosper all this same day unto us for thy glory, and for the health of our soul, and that thou which art the true light not knowing any going down, and which art the Sunne eternall, giving life, food and gladnesse unto all things, vouchsafe to shine into our mindes, that we may not any where stumble to fall into any shame, but may through thy good guiding and conducting, come to the life everlasting. Amen.

O Lord Jesus Christ which art the true Sunne of the world, evermore arising, and never going down, which by thy most wholsome appearing and light, doest bring forth, preserve, nourish, and refresh all things, as well that are in heaven, as also that are on earth, we beseech thee mercifully and favourably to shine into our hearts, that the night and darknesse of sinnes, and the mists of errors on every side driven away, thou brightly shining within our hearts, we may all our life space go without any stumbling or offence, and may decently and seemly walk, as in the day time, being pure and clean from the works of darknesse, and abounding in all good works which God hath prepared for us to walk in, which with the Father, and with the holy Ghost, livest and reignest for ever and ever. Amen.

O God and Lord Jesus Christ, thou knowest, yea, and hast also taught us how great the infirmity and weaknesse of man is, and how certain a thing it is that it can do nothing without thy godly help. If man trust in himself, it cannot be avoided, but that he must run headlong, and fall into a thousand undoings and mischiefs: O our Father, have thou pity and compassion upon the weaknesse of us thy children, be thou prest and ready to help us, alwayes shewing thy mercy upon us, and prospering whatsoever we godly go about: so that thou giving us light, we may see what things are truly good indeed: thou incouraging us, we may have an earnest desire to the same: and thou being our guide, we may come where to obtain them: for we having nothing but mistrust in our selves, do yeeld and commit our selves full and whole unto thee alone, which workest all things in all creatures, to thy honour and glory. So be it.

¶ A prayer to be said at night going to bed.

O Mercifull Lord God, heavenly Father, whether we sleep or wake, live or die, we are alwaies thine.

Where-

Wherefore I beseech thee heartily, that thou wilt vouchsafe to take care and charge of me, and not to suffer me to perish in the works of darknesse, but to kindle the light of thy countenance in my heart, that thy godly knowledge may daily increase in me through a right and pure faith, and that I may alway be found to walk and live after thy will and pleasure, through Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

¶ A prayer containing the duty of every true Christian.

O Most mighty God, mercifull and loving Father, I wretched sinner come unto thee in the Name of thy dearly beloved Sonne Jesus Christ my onely Saviour and Redeemer: and I most humbly beseech thee for his sake to be mercifull unto me, and to cast all my sins out of thy sight and remembrance, through the merits of his bloody death and passion. Powre upon me, O Lord, thy holy Spirit of wisdom and grace, govern and lead me by thy holy word, that it may be a lantern unto my feet, and a light unto my steps. Shew thy mercy upon me, and so lighten the naturall blindenesse and darknesse of my heart through thy grace, that I may daily be renewed by the same Spirit and Grace: By the which, O Lord, purge the grossenesse of my hearing and understanding, that I may profitably read, hear, and understand thy word and heavenly will, beleeve and practise the same in my life and conversation, and evermore hold fast that blessed hope of everlasting life. Mortifie and kill all vice in me, that my life may expresse my faith in thee: mercifully hear the humble suit of thy servant, and grant me thy peace all my dayes: graciously pardon mine infirmities, and defend me in all dangers of body, goods and name: but most chiefly my soul against all assaults, temptations, accusations, subtill baits and sleights of that old enemy of mankinde, Satan that roaring lion, ever seeking whom he may devour.

And here, O Lord, I prostrate, with most humble minde crave of thy divine Majestie to be mercifull unto the universall Church of thy Sonne Christ: And specially according to my bounden duty beseech thee for his sake, to blesse, save and defend the principall member thereof, thy servant our most dear and soveraign Lord King Charles, increase in his royall heart true faith, godly zeal, and love of the same: and grant him victory over all his enemies, a long, prosperous, and honourable life upon earth, a blessed end, and life everlasting.

Moreover, O Lord, grant unto his Majesties most honourable Counsellers, and every other member of this thy Church of England, that they and we in our severall callings may truly and godly serve thee. Plant in our hearts true fear, and honour of thy Name, obedience to our prince, and love to our neighbours: increase in us true faith, and religion: replenish our mindes with all goodnesse, and of thy great mercy keep us in the same till the end of our lives: Give unto us a godly zeal in prayer, true humility in prosperity, perfect patience in adversity, and continuall joy in the holy Ghost.

And lastly, I commend unto thy fatherly protection all that thou hast given me, as wife, children and servants: Aid me, O Lord, that I may govern, nourish, and bring them up in thy fear and service: And forasmuch as in this world, I must alwayes be at warre and strife, not with one sort of enemies, but with an infinite number, not onely with flesh and blood, but with the devill, which is the prince of darknesse, and with wicked men, executors of his most damnable will: grant me therefore thy grace, that being armed with thy defence, I may stand in this battell with an invincible constancy against all corruption, which I am

compassed with on every side, untill such time as I having ended the combat, which during this life I must sustain, in the end I may attain to thy heavenly rest: which is prepared for me and all thine elect, through Christ our Lord and onely Saviour, Amen.

¶ Certain godly prayers for sundry dayes.

Munday.

ALmightie God, the Father of mercie, and God of all comfort, which onely forgivest sinne: forgive unto us our sinnes, good Lord, forgive unto us our sinnes: that by the multitude of thy mercies they may be covered and not imputed unto us, and by the operation of the holy Ghost we may have power and strength hereafter to resist sin, by our Saviour and Lord Jesus Christ, Amen.

Tuesday.

O Lord God, which despisest not a contrite heart, and forgettest the sinnes and wickednesse of a sinner, in what hour soever he doth mourn and lament his old maner of living: grant unto us, O Lord, true contrition of heart, that we may vehemently despise our sinfull life past, and wholly be converted unto thee, by our Saviour and Lord Jesus Christ, Amen.

Wednesday.

O Mercifull Father, by whose power and strength we may overcome our enemies both bodily and ghostly: grant unto us, O Lord, that according to our promise made in our baptisme, we may overcome the chief enemies of our soul, that is, the desires of the world, the pleasures of the flesh, and the suggestions of the wicked spirit, and so after lead our lives in holinesse and righteousnesse, that we may serve thee in spirit and truth, and that by our Saviour and Lord Jesus Christ, Amen.

Thursday.

O Almighty and everlasting God, which not onely giuest every good and perfect gift, but also increasest those gifts that thou hast given: we most humbly beseech thee, mercifull God, to increase in us the gift of faith, that we may truly beleeve in thee, and in thy promise made unto us: and that neither by our negligence, nor infirmitie of the flesh, nor by grievousnesse of temptation, neither by the subtill crafts and assaults of the devill, we be driven from faith in the bloud of our Saviour and Lord Jesus Christ, Amen.

Friday.

GRant unto us, O mercifull God, we most heartily beseech thee, knowledge and true understanding of thy word, that all ignorance expelled, we may know what thy will and pleasure is in all things, and how to do our duties, and truly to walk in our vocation, and that also we may expresse in our living, those things that we do know, that we be not only knowers of thy word, good Lord, but also be workers of the same, by our Saviour and Lord Jesus Christ, Amen.

Saturday.

O Almighty God, which hast prepared everlasting life to all those that be thy faithfull servants: grant unto us, Lord, sure hope of the life everlasting, that we being in this miserable world, may have some taste and feeling of it in our hearts, and that not by our deserving, but by the merits and deserving of our Saviour and Lord Jesus Christ, Amen.

O Mercifull God, our only aid, succour, and strength at all times: grant unto us, O Lord, that in the time of prosperitie, we be not proud, and so forget thee, but that with our whole heart and strength we may cleave unto thee, and in the time of adversitie that we fall not into infidelity and desperation, but that alwayes with a constant faith we may call for help unto thee. Grant this, O Lord, for our Advocates sake and Saviour Jesus Christ, Amen.

Sunday.

O Almighty and merciful Lord, which giuest unto thy elect people the holy Ghost, as a sure pledge of thy heavenly kingdom: Grant unto us, O Lord, thy holy spirit, that he may bear witnesse with our spirit, that we be thy children and heires of thy kingdom, and that by the operation of this spirit, we may kill all carnall lusts, unlawfull pleasures, concupiscences, evill affections contrary unto thy will, by our Saviour and Lord Jesus Christ, Amen.

¶ A prayer for trust in God.

The beginning of the fall of man was trust in himself. The beginning of the restoring of man, was distrust in himself, and trust in God. O most gracious and most wise guide, our Saviour Christ, which doest lead them the right way of immortall blessednesse, which truly and unfainedly trusting in thee, commit themselves to thee: grant us that like as we be blinde and feeble in deed, so we may take and repute our selves, that we presume not of our selves to see to our selves, but so farre to see, that alway we may have thee before our eyes, to follow thee being our guide, to be ready at thy call most obediently, and to commit our selves wholly unto thee, that thou which onely knowest the way, mayest lead us the same way unto our heavenly desires: to thee with the Father and the holy Ghost, be glory for ever, Amen.

¶ A prayer against worldly carefulnesse.

O Most dear and tender Father, our defender and nourisher, endue us with thy grace, that we may cast off the great blindnesse of our mindes, and carefulnesse of worldly things, and may put our whole studie and care in keeping of thy holy law, and that we may labour

labour and trauell for our necessities in this life like the birds of the air, and the lilies of the field, without care. For thou hast promised to be carefull for us, and hast commanded that upon thee we should cast all our care: which liuest and reignest world without end.

¶ A prayer against temptation.

O Lord Iesus Christ, the only stay and defence of our mortall state, our only hope, our only saluation, our glory and our triumph, who in the flesh (which thou hadst for our only cause taken upon thee) didst suffer thy self to be tempted of Satan, and who only and alone of all men didst utterly ouercome and banquish sinne, death, the world, the deuill, and all the kingdom of hell: and whatsoeuer thou hast so ouercomed, for our behoof it is that thou hast ouercomed it, neither hath it been thy will, to haue any of thy seruants to keep battell, or fight with any the aforesaid euils, but of purpose to reward us with a crown of the more glory for it, and to the intent, that thou mightest likewise ouerthrow Satan in thy members, as thou hadst before done in thine own person, giue thou, (we beseech thee) unto us thy souldiers (O lion most victorious of the tribe of Iuda) strength against the roaring lion, which continually wandreth to and fro, seeking whom he may deuour. Thou being that same serpent, the true giuer of health and life, that was nailed on high upon a tree, giue unto us thy silly ones willnesse against the deceitfull awaiting of the most subtill serpent. Thou being a Lamb as white as snow, the banquisher of satans tyranny, giue unto us thy little sheep, the strength and vertue of thy spirit, that being in our own selues weak and feeble, and in thee strong and valiant, we may withstand and ouercome all assaults of the deuill, so that our ghostly enemy may not glory on us, but being conquered through thee, we may giue thanks

thanks unto thy mercy, which never leavest them destitute that put their trust in thee; who livest and reignest God for ever without end. Amen.

¶ A prayer for the obtaining of wisdome. wisd.9.

O God of our fathers, and Lord of mercy, thou that hast made all things with thy word, and ordained man through thy wisdome, that he should have dominion over the creatures which thou hast made, that he should order the world according to equity and righteousnesse, and execute judgement with a true heart: give me wisdom, which is ever about thy seat, and put me not out from among thy children: for I thy servant and sonne of thine handmaid, am a feeble person, of a short time, and too young to the understanding of thy judgement and laws: yea, though a man be never so perfect among the children of men: yet if thy wisdom be not with him, he shall be nothing worth: O send thy wisdom out of thy holy heavens, and from the throne of thy Majesty, that she may be with me, and labour with me, that I may know what is acceptable in thy sight: for she knoweth and understandeth all things, and she shall conduct me right soberly in thy works, and preserve me in her power, so shall my works be acceptable. Amen.

¶ A prayer for patience in trouble.

How hast thou (O Lord) humbled and plucked me down? I dare now unneaths make my prayers unto thee, for thou art angry with me, but not without my deserving. Certainly I have sinned, O Lord, I confesse it, I will not deny it: but, O my God, pardon my trespasses, release my debts, render now thy grace again unto me, stop my wounds for I am all to plagued and beaten, yet Lord, this notwithstanding I abide patiently, and give my attendance on thee, continually waiting for relefe of thy hand, and that not without ſtill, for I have received a token of thy favour and grace towards me, I mean thy word of promiſe concerning Chriſt, who for me was offered on the Croſſe for a ranſome, a ſacrifice and price for my ſins: wherefore according to that thy promiſe, defend me Lord by thy right hand, and give a gracious ear to my requeſt, for all mans dayes are but vain. Beat down therefore mine enemies thine own ſelf with thy power, which art my onely aider and protector, O Lord God Almighty. Amen.

¶ A prayer to be ſaid at the hour of death.

O Lord Jeſus, which art the onely health of all men living, and the everlaſting life of them which die in faith: I wretched ſinner give and ſubmit my ſelf wholly unto thy moſt bleſſed will. And being ſure that the thing cannot periſh which is committed unto thy mercy, willingly now I leave this frail and wicked fleſh, in hope of the reſurrection, which in better wiſe ſhall reſtore it to me again. I beſeech thee moſt mercifull Lord Jeſus Chriſt, that thou wilt by thy grace make ſtrong my ſoul againſt all temptation, and that thou wilt cover and defend me with the buckler of thy mercy, againſt the aſſaults of the devill. I ſee and acknowledge that there is in my ſelf no help of ſalvation, but all my confidence, hope and truſt is in thy moſt mercifull goodneſſe. I have no merits nor good works, which I may alledge before thee. Of ſinnes and evill works (alas) I ſee a great heap, but through thy mercy I truſt to be in the number of them to whom thou wilt not impute their ſinnes, but take and accept me for righteous and juſt, and to be the inheritor of everlaſting life. Thou merciful Lord waſt born for my ſake, thou diddeſt ſuffer both hunger and thirſt for my ſake, thou diddeſt preach and teach, thou diddeſt pray and faſt for my ſake, thou diddeſt all good works

wozkis and deeds foz my sake, thou sufferedst most grie-vous pains and tozments foz my sake, and finally, thou gavest thy most pzecious body to die, and thy blood to be shed on the Crosse foz my sake. Now most merci-full Saviour, let all these things pzofit me, which thou freely hast given me, that hast given thy selfe foz me. Let thy blood cleanse and wash away the spots and foul-nesse of my sinnes. Let thy righteousnesse hide and co-ver mine unrighteousnesse. Let the merits of thy passi-on and blood be the satisfaction foz my sinnes. Give me, Lozd, thy grace, that my faith and salvation in thy blood waver not in me, but be ever firm and constant, that the hope of thy mercy and life everlasting never decay in me, that charity wax not cold in me. Fi-nally, that the weakenesse of my flesh be not overcome with the fear of death. Grant me mercifull Savi-our that when death shall shut up the eyes of my bo-dy, yet that the eyes of my soul may still behold and look upon thee: that when death hath taken away the use of my tongue and speech, yet that my heart may cry and say unto thee, In manus tuas, Domine, commen-do spiritum meum (that is to say) O Lozd, into thy hands I give and commit my soul: Domine Iesu, accipe spiritum meum, Lozd Iesu, receive my soul unto thee.

AMEN.
